Proclamation 4724 of February 19, 1980

The President

Iwo Jima Commemoration Day

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Thirty-five years ago Americans were pitted in battle on a small, barren island called Iwo Jima. The standard of courage established by the men of the V Marine Amphibious Corps in that battle is unsurpassed.

Because we now enjoy the blessings of the freedom for which those men sacrificed so much, it is appropriate for us to reflect upon the high price of that freedom. For 35 days, men of the 3rd, 4th and 5th Marine Divisions fought to secure the strategic island of Iwo Jima. The cost of the eventual American victory was the highest in Marine Corps history: 5,931 dead and 17,272 wounded. Of the over 20,000 Japanese defenders on Iwo Jima, only 1,083 survived. But the victors and the vanquished alike shared uncommon valor as a common virtue.

The Congress has by Joint Resolution (H.J. Res. 469) designated February 19, 1980 as Iwo Jima Commemoration Day.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIMMY CARTER, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Tuesday, February 19, 1980 as Iwo Jima Commemoration Day. I call on all Americans to join on this occasion in honoring those Americans who served on Iwo Jima. I call on State and local officials and private organizations to observe this day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fourth.

Proclamation 4725 of February 19, 1980

Honoring the Memory of Walt Disney

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

In the world of entertainment no name is more widely known than that of Walt Disney. For nearly fifty years, his creations brought us laughter and love, joy and gladness. The products of his imagination will enthrall and delight many more generations of children of all ages in every country on earth.

The House of Representatives, by a joint resolution of February 13, 1980, has requested the President to issue a proclamation honoring the memory of Walt Disney for his contribution to the American dream.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JIMMY CARTER, President of the United States of America, do hereby call upon the people of this Nation to recall the accomplishments of Walt Disney and to honor his memory on February 19, 1980.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this nineteenth day of February, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and fourth.

Thursday, February 21, 1980

This section of the FEDERAL REGISTER contains regulatory documents having general applicability and legal effect, most of which are keyed to and codified in the Code of Federal Regulations, which is published under 50 titles pursuant to 44 U.S.C. 1510. The Code of Federal Regulations is sold by the Superintendent of Documents. Prices of new books are listed in the first FEDERAL REGISTER issue of each month.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

7 CFR Part 907

[Navel Orange Regulation 481]

Navel Oranges Grown in Arizona and Designated Part of California; Limitation of Handling

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This regulation establishes the quantity of fresh California-Arizona navel oranges that may be shipped to market during the period February 22-28, 1980. Such action is needed to provide for orderly marketing of fresh navel oranges for this period due to the marketing situation confronting the orange industry.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 22, 1980

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Malvin E. McGaha, 202-447-5975.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Findings.

This regulation is issued under the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 907, as amended (7 CFR Part 907), regulating the handling of navel oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California. The agreement and order are effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674). This action is based upon the recommendations and information submitted by the Navel Orange Administrative Committee, and upon other available information. It is hereby found that this action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The committee met on February 19, 1980, to consider supply and market conditions and other factors affecting the need for regulation and recommended a quantity of navel oranges deemed advisable to be handled during the specified week. The committee reports the demand for navel oranges has eased slightly compared to the previous week.

It is further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking and postpone the effective date until 30 days after publication in the Federal Register (5 U.S.C. 553), because of insufficient time between the date when information became available upon which this regulation is based and the effective date necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Interested persons were given the opportunity to submit information and views on the regulation at an open meeting. It is necessary to effectuate the declared purposes of the act to make these regulatory provisions effective as specified, and handlers have been apprised of such provisions and the effective time.

Further, in accordance with procedures in Executive Order 12044, the emergency nature of this regulation warrants publication without opportunity for further public comment. The regulation has not been classified significant under USDA criteria for implementing the Executive Order. An Impact Analysis is available from Malvin E. McGaha, Fruit Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250, phone 202-447-5975.

Order. (a) The quantities of navel oranges grown in Arizona and California which may be handled during the period February 22, 1980, through February 28, 1980, are established as follows:

- (1) District 1: 1,320,000 cartons;
- (2) District 2: 150,000 cartons;
- (3) District 3: Unlimited cartons;
- (4) District 4: 30,000 cartons.

(b) As used in this section, "handled", "District 1", "District 2", "District 3", "District 4", and "carton" mean the same as defined in the marketing order. (Sec. 1-19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674)

Dated: February 20, 1980.

D.S. Kuryloski,

Acting Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

BILLING CODE 3410-02-M

7 CFR Part 989

Raisins Produced from Grapes Grown in California; Increased Payment Rates for Handler Services on Reserve Tonnage Raisins

AGENCY: Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This rule increases the Raisin Administrative Committee's rates of payment to handlers for services performed with respect to reserve tonnage raisins held for the account of the Committee during and beyond the crop year of acquisition. The increased rates of payment are in line with the current costs of handlers in providing such services.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 21, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: James S. Miller, Acting Chief, Specialty Crops Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, AMS, USDA, Washington, D.C. 20250, (202) 447-5053.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This action, recommended by the Committee, would increase the Committee's current rates of payment to handlers for: (1) Receiving, storing, fumigating, and handling reserve tonnage raisins during the crop year of acquisition from $24 to $29 per ton; and (2) for storing, handling, and fumigating reserve tonnage raisins beyond the crop year of acquisition from $1.20 to $1.45 per ton for each month of the three-month period ending November 30, and from 60 cents to 75 cents per ton for each month of the next nine months. The current rates are contained in § 989.401(a)(1) and (b) of Subpart-Schedule of Payments (7 CFR 989.401) and have been effective since January 6, 1978. Since that time handler costs for all of these services have increased significantly.

Notice of proposed rulemaking on this matter was published in the Federal Register on January 22, 1980 (45 FR 4358). In that notice, interested persons were given until February 11, 1980, to submit written comments. None was received.

Section 989.401 is established under § 989.66(f) of the marketing agreement and Order No. 989, both as amended (7 CFR Part 989), regulating the handling of raisins produced from grapes grown in California (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order"). The order is effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601-674). The Committee is the body established under the order to administer its terms and provisions under USDA supervision.

After consideration of all relevant matter presented, including that in the notice, the information and recommendation submitted by the Committee, and other available information, the amendment of § 989.401(a)(1) and (b) of Subpart—Schedule of Payments (7 CFR 989.401) as hereinafter set forth, to make these rate increases is approved.

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date until 30 days after publication in the Federal Register (5 U.S.C. 553) so that the Committee can begin promptly to pay handlers at the increased rates.

This action has been reviewed under USDA criteria for implementing Executive Order 12044. A determination has been made that this action should not be classified "significant" under the Department's criteria for implementing the Executive Order. An impact analysis is available from James S. Miller, (202) 447-5053.

Therefore, § 989.401(a)(1) and (b) are revised to read as follows:

§ 989.401 Payments for services performed with respect to reserve tonnage raisins.

(a) Payment for crop year of acquisition—(1) Receiving, storing, fumigating, and handling. Each handler shall, beginning January 1, 1980, of the 1979-80 crop year, be compensated at the rate of $29 per ton (natural condition weight at the time of acquisition) for receiving, storing, fumigating, and handling the reserve tonnage raisins, as determined by the final reserve tonnage percentage, acquired during a particular crop year and held by him for the account of the Raisin Administrative Committee during all or any part of the same crop year.

(b) Additional payment for reserve tonnage raisins held beyond the crop year of acquisition. Additional payment for reserve tonnage raisins held beyond the crop year of acquisition shall be made in accordance with this paragraph. Each handler holding such raisins for the account of the Committee on August 15 and the following September 1 shall be compensated for storing, handling, and fumigating such raisins at the rate of $1.45 per ton per month, or any part thereof, for each month of the three-month period ending November 30, and 75 cents per ton per month, or any part thereof, for each month of the next nine months. Such services shall be completed so that the Committee is assured that the raisins are maintained in good condition.

BILLING CODE 3410-02-M

Commodity Credit Corporation

7 CFR Part 1446

1980 Crop Peanut Loan and Purchase Program

AGENCY: Commodity Credit Corporation, U.S. Department of Agriculture.

ACTION: Final Rule.

SUMMARY: The purpose of this rule is to announce, effective with respect to the 1980 crop of peanuts (1) the national level of support for quota peanuts, (2) the national level of support for additional peanuts, (3) the sales policy for peanuts received under loan or acquired by the Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "CCC") under the 1980 program, and (4) other related provisions. The need for this rule is to satisfy the statutory requirements as provided for in Section 108 of the Agricultural Act of 1949, (hereinafter referred to as the "Act").

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 15, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Gypsy Banks, Price Support and Loan Division, ASCS, USDA, 3741-South Building, P.O. Box 2415, Washington, D.C. 20013. (202) 447-6733.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A notice that the Secretary was preparing to make determinations with respect to the provisions of Section 108 of the Act was published in the Federal Register on December 4, 1979 (44 FR 69656), in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 533, and Executive Order 12044. The written comment period ended January 11, 1980, but all comments received through January 14, 1980, were considered. There were 285 responses—58 from members of Congress; 7 from peanut grower organizations; 9 from general farm organizations; 3 from sheller organizations; 1 from a local bank; 11 from State governments, 189 from individuals; 5 from agribusiness; and 2 from area marketing associations. The following is a summary of comments received:

Summary of Comments to Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

Quota price support level, 285 commentators. Three organizations and 1 individual recommended $420 per ton, the minimum support level prescribed by statute. All other respondents recommended a higher support level within the range of $456 to $565 per ton. A majority recommended that the minimum support level be increased to at least $500 per ton, reflecting the percentage increase in the index of prices paid by farmers for production items, interest, taxes and wage rates (PPI) from the 1977 to the 1979 calendar year average.

Additional price support level, 64 commentators. Seven organizations and 3 individuals recommended $300 per ton, the same as the 1979 level. Ten respondents recommended that a loan rate be established at a level which would assure no program costs would be incurred by the Government. The remaining recommendations were mostly within the $345 to $400 per ton range.

Sales policy, 16 commentators. There were 8 organizations and 8 individual commentators, concerned primarily with the minimum price for edible export sales of additional loan peanuts. Two organizations recommended a minimum edible export sales price of $400, the same as in 1979. Three organizations and 3 individuals recommended an increase roughly proportional to any increase in the quota loan rate. One organization recommended that this minimum price be equivalent to the quota loan rate. Two organizations and 5 individuals recommended an increase in the sales price ranging from $450 to $500 per ton.

After taking into consideration the comments received as well as the applicable statutory provisions, the following determinations are being made with respect to the 1980 crop of peanuts.

A. The national level of support for quota peanuts. Section 108(a) of the Act provides that the Secretary shall make price support available to producers through loans, purchases, or other operations on quota peanuts of the 1980 crop at such level as he finds appropriate, but not less than $420 per ton. In determining price support levels, section 108(a) of the Act directs the Secretary to take into consideration (a) any change in the index of prices paid by farmers for production items, interest, taxes, and wage rates during the period January 1 through December 31, 1979, inclusive, and (b) the eight factors specified in section 401(b) of the Act, namely: the supply of the commodity in relation to the demand therefor, the levels at which other commodities are being supported, the availability of funds, the perishability of the commodity, the importance of the commodity to agriculture and the national economy, the ability to dispose of stocks acquired through a support operation, the need for offsetting temporary losses of export markets, and the ability and willingness of producers to keep supplies in line with demand. In accordance with the criteria set forth above in section 108(a) of the Act with respect to determining price support levels, the following data was considered:

1. Index of prices paid for production items, interest, taxes and wage rates. The increase in the Prices Paid Index (1910-1914) during 1979 was about 14.5 percent. A comparable increase in the minimum price support level of $420 per ton would result in a loan rate of about $480 per ton. This increase in the PPI indicates the need for an increase in the quota loan rate for 1980-crop peanuts. However, this Index includes items not related to costs of production for peanut producers. The Economics, Statistics and Cooperatives Service, USDA, projects the total cost of peanut production, including land and management, at $450 per ton assuming a planted acre yield of 2,650 pounds and an increase in per acre operating cost of 15 percent.

2. The eight factors to be considered, as specified in section 401(b) of the Act, are as follows:

(a) Supply of the commodity in relation to demand. The estimated supply of 1980-crop peanuts is projected to exceed estimated requirements for domestic edible use, exports and carryover based on the following data:

1980-Crop Peanuts—Projected Supply and Demand with Most Likely U.S. Weather, 1980 Marketing Year

(1,000 Tons)
Projected supply:
Carryin.....	300
Marketings.....	1,960
Total supply.....	2,260
Projected demand:
Domestic edible and related.....	1,298
Exports.....	500
Loan surplus.....	162
Total Demand.....	1,960
Carryover.....	300

(b) Price levels at which other commodities are being supported. The quota loan level of $455 per ton reflects 61.6 percent of January parity. Of the 1980 price support levels announced, dairy at 68.4 percent, wool at 71.5 percent, and mohair at 71.5 percent reflect a higher percentage of parity. The support for 1980 upland cotton at 46.6 percent reflects a lower percentage of parity.

Commodity:	Price support level
Dairy (cwt.).....	11.49
Upland Cotton (lb.).....	.48
Wool (lb.).....	1.23
Mohair (lb.).....	2.903

(c) Availability of funds. Program costs are projected at $27.2 million for the 1980 crop, under most likely U.S. weather conditions. It is estimated that Commodity Credit Corporation funds will be available for this purpose.

(d) The perishability of the commodity. It is hazardous to hold peanuts in dry storage through the hot summer months because of danger of loss due to deterioration, insect infestation, or rodent damage. Shelled peanuts can be kept in cold storage for two years or more with little loss of weight or quality; however, the costs incurred would be prohibitive.

(e) Importance of commodity to agriculture and the national economy. Nationally, peanuts are a minor crop, representing about one percent of the total farm value of all U.S. crops. However, peanuts are an important crop in the major peanut producing States and are extremely important to the economies of areas within those States. In 1979, over 98 percent of U.S. peanuts were produced in the following States: Georgia (42.9%), Alabama (15.1%), Florida (4.5%), North Carolina (9.4%), Virginia (6.5%), Texas (13.0%), and Oklahoma (6.8%). The value of production from the 1979 crop is estimated at $821 million.

(f) The ability to dispose of stocks acquired through price support operations. There is an immediate dollar market for peanuts for crushing at competitive prices. For the 1980 crop, projections indicate that CCC could lose $245 per ton on 112,000 tons of quota peanuts and $40 per ton on 50,000 tons of additional peanuts sold for domestic crushing at competitive prices.

(g) The need for offsetting temporary losses of export markets. U.S. exports of peanuts in the 1979-80 marketing year reached 500,000 tons, 70,000 tons below the all-time high in 1978. Whether this export volume can be sustained through the 1980-81 marketing year will depend largely on export availabilities from India and other producers of peanuts for edible use. The latest projection for 1980-81 U.S. exports is 500,000 tons, consisting of 200,000 tons of commercial quota peanuts and peanut products, 262,000 tons of additional peanuts grown under commercial contracts and 38,000 tons sold from loan stocks of quota and additional peanuts. If 1980-81 export demand is higher, or the supply of additional peanuts is lower than projected, an estimated 112,000 tons of surplus quota loan stocks will be available, at or above the quota loan rate plus costs, to make up the shortfall.

(h) The ability and willingness of producers to keep supplies in line with demand. In a referendum held December 12 through 15, 1977, 93.6 percent of the growers voting approved marketing quotas and acreage allotments for the 1978 through 1980 crops of peanuts.

After consideration of the comments received and the above data, the Secretary has determined that the national level of support for 1980-crop quota peanuts will be $455 per ton, $35 higher than the 1979 level and the statutory minimum. This $455 per ton level is projected to assure an adequate peanut supply, cover total costs of production on a tonnage basis (assuming a planted acre yield of 2,650 pounds and an increase in per acre operating costs of 15 percent) and as a percent of January parity is fourth highest among announced 1980 support levels for other commodities. A quota loan rate above $455 per ton was rejected primarily as being more inflationary, would increase program costs and would not be needed to assure adequate supplies for domestic edible, export, and carryover requirements.

B. The national level of support for additional peanuts. Section 108(b) of the Act provides that the Secretary shall make price support available to producers through loans, purchases, or other operations on 1980-crop "additional peanuts," which are defined in the Act as any peanuts which are marketed from a farm and which are in excess of the marketings of quota peanuts from such farm for the marketing year, but which are not in excess of the actual production from the farm acreage allotment. This section requires that the loan rate for 1980 crop additional peanuts shall be announced no later than February 15, 1980, and that in determining this rate, the Secretary shall take into consideration the demand for peanut oil and peanut meal, expected prices of other vegetable oils and protein meals, and the demand for peanuts in foreign markets.

Historically, there is an immediate dollar market for peanuts for crushing and production of peanut oil and meal. Peanut oil prices usually have averaged about 4 cents to 5 cents per pound above soybean oil prices, with peanut meal prices averaging about the same as soybean meal prices. In recent months peanut oil prices have ranged from 1 to 4 cents above soybean oil prices due primarily to a worldwide increase in the production of vegetable oils. Current projections indicate an increase in domestic crushing availabilities, and a slight rise in the peanut domestic crushing value to about $240 per ton, based on oil at 28 cents per pound and meal at $180 per ton.

The demand for U.S. peanuts in foreign markets is estimated at 500,000 tons in the 1980 marketing year, the same as in 1979. It is estimated that world demand, combined with the minimum sales policies established by this final rule, will sustain an average export price for edible peanuts of at least $435 per ton for U.S. peanuts. Because of the record production of oilseeds, both in the U.S. and abroad, projections indicate that for 1980 export crushing markets will not absorb additional loan stocks at $280 per ton, the minimum price at which CCC will sell additional peanuts for export crushing. CCC is projected to realize a loss of $40 a ton on about 50,000 tons of additional peanuts sold for domestic crushing.

Taking into consideration these factors and the comments received, the Secretary has determined that the national level of support for 1980 crop additional peanuts will be $250 per ton. The additional loan rate has been reduced $50 per ton from the 1979 level, reflecting the weak export crushing demand for 1980-81 marketing year. An additional loan rate above $250 per ton would be above the level indicated by projected export and crushing demand.

C. Sales Policy. Section 407 of the Act provides that CCC may not sell peanuts at less than 105 percent of the support price plus reasonable carrying charges, except sales for new or by product uses, extraction of oil, export, and prevention of deterioration or spoilage.

Section 359(j) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938 provides that additional peanuts received under loan may be sold for domestic edible use at prices not less than those required to cover all costs incurred with respect to such peanuts for such items as inspection, warehousing, shrinkage, and other expenses, plus (1) 100 percent of the quota loan value if the additional peanuts are sold and paid for during the harvest season upon delivery by the producer, or (2) 105 percent of the quota loan value if the additional peanuts are sold after delivery by the producer but on or before December 31 of the marketing year, or (3) 107 percent of the quota loan value if the additional peanuts are sold later than December 31 of the marketing year.

Sales of both quota and additional peanuts for domestic edible use will be made at prices not less than those required to cover the costs specified in the preceding paragraph plus the applicable loan values provided in items (2) and (3) thereof. Also, additional peanuts will be sold for domestic edible use at prices not less than those required to cover such costs plus the loan value as provided in item (1) of the preceding paragraph. Under the discretionary authority provided by the Act, it has been determined that sales of quota peanuts for export will be made by CCC at not less than all costs incurred by CCC plus 100 percent of the quota loan value. Sales for export of additional peanuts for edible uses will be made by CCC at not less than $435 per ton. Sales for export of additional peanuts for crushing only will be made by CCC at not less than all costs incurred with respect to such peanuts for such items as inspection, warehousing, shrinkage, and other expenses, plus 100 percent of the additional loan value. Additional peanuts sold by CCC for export crushing will be required to be fragmented prior to export. Sales of quota and additional peanuts for domestic crushing only will be made by CCC at competitive prices with the use of oil being restricted to domestic markets if the price of the peanuts from which the oil is produced is less than the applicable loan rate, plus costs.

Final Rule

The material previously appearing in §§ 1446.30 through 1446.50 remains in full force and effect as to the 1979 crop. Effective, for the 1980 crop of peanuts, §§ 1446.30 through 1446.50 and the title of the subpart, are amended to read as follows:

Subpart—1980 Crop Peanut Loan and Purchase Program

Sec.

1446.30 [Reserved]

1446.31 Applicability

1446.32 National average support value, quota peanuts

1446.33 National average support value, additional peanuts

1446.34 Sales for domestic edible use

1446.35 Sales for export

1446.36 Sales for domestic crushing

1446.37 through 1446.50 [Reserved]

Authority: Secs. 4 and 5, 62 stat. 1070, as amended, (15 U.S.C. 714 b and c); secs. 101, 108, 401, 63 Stat. 1051, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1441, 1445c, 1421); sec. 359, 52 Stat. 31, as amended (7 U.S.C. 1359).

§ 1446.30 [Reserved]

§ 1446.31 Applicability

The support prices specified in this subpart apply to 1980 crop farmers' stock peanuts in bulk or in bags, net weight basis, eligible for price support under the General Regulations (44 FR 33827).

§ 1446.32 National average level of support, quota peanuts.

The national average level of support for 1980 crop quota peanuts is $455 per ton.

The national average level of support for 1980 crop additional peanuts is $250 per ton.

§ 1446.34 Sales for domestic edible use.

Sales of peanuts for domestic edible use, including use as seed, will be made by CCC at prices not less than those required to cover all costs incurred with respect to such peanuts for such items as inspection, warehousing, shrinkage, and other expenses, plus, in the case of quota or additional peanuts, 105 percent of the quota loan value if sold after delivery by the producer but not later than December 31, 1980, or 107 percent of the quota loan value if sold later than December 31, 1980, or, in the case of additional peanuts only, 100 percent of the quota loan value if sold and paid for during the harvest season upon delivery by the producer.

§ 1446.35 Sales for export.

Sales of quota peanuts for export will be made by CCC at not less than all costs incurred with respect to such peanuts for such items as inspection, warehousing, shrinkage, and other expenses, plus 100 percent of the quota loan value. Sales for export of additional peanuts for edible uses will be made by CCC at not less than $435 per ton. Sales for export of additional peanuts for crushing only will be made at not less than all costs incurred with respect to such peanuts for such items as inspection, shrinkage, warehousing, and other expenses, plus 100 percent of the additional loan value, and such peanuts shall be fragmented prior to export in accordance with the General Regulations.

Sales of quota and additional peanuts for domestic crushing only will be made by CCC at competitive prices, and if such prices are less than all costs incurred plus the applicable loan rate for quota or additional peanuts, the use of the oil produced from such peanuts will be restricted to domestic markets.

§§ 1446.37-1446.50 [Reserved]

Note.—This regulation has been reviewed under the USDA criteria established to implement Executive Order 12044, "Improving Government Regulations". A determination has been made that this action should be classified "significant" under those criteria. A final impact statement is available from Gypsy Banks, (ASCS), (202) 447-6733.

Signed at Washington, D.C., on February 15, 1980.

M. Rupert Cutler,

Acting Secretary, Department of Agriculture.

[Docket No. 79-GL-15-AD; Amdt. 39-3700]

Hamill Manufacturing Co. TSO-C22f Seat Belt Assembly Models GA-4 and GA-5; Airworthiness Directives

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This notice adopts an airworthiness directive (AD) that requires the removal from service within the next 120 days of the GA-4 and GA-5 safety belt assemblies manufactured by Hamill Manufacturing Company and marked as meeting the standards of FAA TSO-C22f. The AD is needed since it was determined that the criteria of TSO-C22f and previously accepted deviation criteria for push-button release mechanisms are not met by these safety belt assemblies. The high release forces required to release the latch mechanism under certain conditions are considered unsatisfactory.

DATES: Effective—February 27, 1980. Compliance required within the next 120 days after the effective date of this AD, unless already accomplished.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Terry Fahr, Engineering and Manufacturing Branch, Flight Standards Division, AGL-212, Federal Aviation Administration, 2300 East Devon Avenue, Des Plaines, Illinois 60018, telephone (312) 694-4500, extension 424.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A proposal to amend Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations to include an Airworthiness Directive requiring that certain models of Hamill Manufacturing Company safety belt assemblies be removed from service was published in the Federal Register. The proposal was prompted because high release forces required to release the latch mechanism under certain conditions are considered unsatisfactory.

The FAA has determined that the above identified Hamill Manufacturing Company safety belt assemblies do not meet the requirements of TSO-C22f or present acceptable deviation criteria for push-button release mechanisms. This latter criteria requires that the release force under a 250 pound load be no greater than 8 pounds on the push-button and under no conditions should the release force be less than 2.5 pounds on the push-button. Since this condition exists in the above identified safety belt assemblies, this AD requires that these safety belts be removed from service.

Adoption of the Amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, § 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 39.13) is amended by adding the following new Airworthiness Directive:

Hamill Manufacturing Company: Applies to Models GA-4 and GA-5 safety belt assemblies marked as meeting the standards of FAA TSO-C22f. These safety belts are installed in, but not limited to, the following aircraft operated by General Motors Corporation and Firestone Tire and Rubber Company: Grumman American 1159, Rockwell International NA265, Convair 580 and Hawker Siddeley DH125.

These safety belts can no longer be considered to meet the standards prescribed by FAA TSO-C22f and the approved special criteria for push-button release mechanisms which requires the push-button force to be between 2.5 and 8 pounds when using the loading conditions specified in FAA TSO-C22f (Section 4.3.2.2 of NAS 802).

Within 120 days from the effective date of this AD, these safety belts shall not be used in type certificated aircraft.

This amendment becomes effective February 27, 1980.

(Secs. 313(a), 601 and 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423); Sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); 14 CFR 11.89).

Note.—The FAA has determined that this document involves a regulation which is not significant under Executive Order 12044, as implemented by DOT Department of Transportation Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). [Airspace Docket No. 79-ANW-13]

Designation of Controlled Airspace, Transition Area; Burns, Oreg.

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The nature of the action being taken is to designate 700 foot and 1200 foot transition area at Burns, Oregon. The intended effect of the action is to provide controlled airspace for aircraft executing the new VOR and NDB instrument approach procedures to the Burns Municipal Airport. The circumstance which created the need for the action is the establishment of a very high frequency omnidirectional range station (VOR) on the Burns Municipal Airport. Coincident with this action, the airport status is changed from Visual Flight Rules (VFR) to Instrument Flight Rules (IFR).

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 20, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Robert L. Brown, Airspace Specialist (ANW-534), Operations, Procedures and Airspace Branch, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, Northwest Region, FAA Building, Boeing Field, Seattle, Washington, 98108; telephone (206) 767-2610.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

History

On December 17, 1979, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the Federal Register (44 FR 73113) stating that the Federal Aviation Administration proposed to designate transition area at Burns, Oregon. Interested persons were invited to participate in this rule making proceeding by submitting written comments on the proposal to the Federal Aviation Administration. Comments were received, none objecting to the proposal.

The Rule

This amendment to Subpart G of the Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 71) designates transition areas at Burns, Oregon. This action provides controlled airspace from 700 feet above the ground for the protection of aircraft executing instrument approach procedures to the Burns Municipal Airport, Burns, Oregon.

Adoption of the Amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator Subpart G of Part 71 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 71) as republished (44 FR 442) is amended, effective 0901 G.M.T. March 20, 1980 as follows:

§ 71.181 [Amended.]

In Subpart G, § 71.181 (45 FR 445), the following transition area is designated by adding the following:

Burns, Oregon

That airspace extending upward from 700 feet above the surface within 12.5 miles northeast and 11.5 miles southwest of the 141° and 321° radials of the Wildhorse VOR (Burns, Oregon), extending from 11 miles southeast to 10.5 miles northwest of the VOR; and that airspace extending upward from 1200 feet above the surface within 12.5 miles northeast and 11.5 miles southwest of the 141° and 321° radials of the Wildhorse VOR (Burns, Oregon), extending from 23 miles southeast to 10.5 miles northwest of the VOR. (Sec. 307(A), Federal Aviation Act of 1958, (49 U.S.C. 1348(A)); and sec. 6(C), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c))

Note.—The Federal Aviation Administration has determined that this document involves a regulation which is not significant under Executive Order 12044, as implemented by DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). Since this regulatory action involves an established body of technical requirements for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current and promote safe flight operations, the anticipated impact is so minimal that this action does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation.

Issued in Seattle, Wash., February 12, 1980.

Standard Instrument Approach Procedures; Miscellaneous Amendments

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: This amendment establishes, amends, suspends, or revokes Standard Instrument Approach Procedures (SIAPs) for operations at certain airports. These regulatory actions are needed because of the adoption of new or revised criteria, or because of changes occurring in the National Airspace System, such as the commissioning of new navigational facilities, addition of new obstacles, or changes in air traffic requirements. These changes are designed to provide safe and efficient use of the navigable airspace and to promote safe flight operations under instrument flight rules at the affected airports.

DATES: An effective date for each SIAP is specified in the amendatory provisions.

ADDRESSES: Availability of matters incorporated by reference in the amendment is as follows:

For Examination—1. FAA Rules Docket, FAA Headquarters Building, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591;

2. The FAA Regional Office of the region in which the affected airport is located; or

3. The Flight Inspection Field Office which originated the SIAP.

For Purchase—Individual SIAP copies may be obtained from:

1. FAA Public Information Center (APA-430), FAA Headquarters Building, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591; or

2. The FAA Regional Office of the region in which the affected airport is located.

By Subscription—Copies of all SIAPs, mailed once every 2 weeks, may be ordered from Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402. The annual subscription price is $135.00.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: This amendment to Part 97 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 97) prescribes new, amended, suspended, or revoked Standard Instrument Approach Procedures (SIAPs). The complete regulatory description of each SIAP is contained in official FAA form documents which are incorporated by reference in this amendment under 5 U.S.C. 552(a), 1 CFR Part 51, and § 97.20 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (FARs). The applicable FAA Forms are identified as FAA Forms 8260-3, 8260-4 and 8260-5. Materials incorporated by reference are available for examination or purchase as stated above.

The large number of SIAPs, their complex nature, and the need for a special format make their verbatim publication in the Federal Register expensive and impractical. Further, airmen do not use the regulatory text of the SIAPs, but refer to their graphic depiction on charts printed by publishers of aeronautical materials. Thus, the advantages of incorporation by reference are realized and publication of the complete description of each SIAP contained in FAA form document is unnecessary. The provisions of this amendment state the affected CFR (and FAR) sections, with the types and effective dates of the SIAPs. This amendment also identifies the airport, its location, the procedure identification and the amendment number.

This amendment to Part 97 is effective on the date of publication and contains separate SIAPs which have compliance dates stated as effective dates based on related changes in the National Airspace System or the application of new or revised criteria. Some SIAP amendments may have been previously issued by the FAA in a National Flight Data Center (FDC) Notice to Airmen (NOTAM) as an emergency action of immediate flight safety relating directly to published aeronautical charts. The circumstances which created the need for some SIAP amendments may require making them effective in less than 30 days. For the remaining SIAPs, an effective date at least 30 days after publication is provided.

Further, the SIAPs contained in this amendment are based on the criteria contained in the U.S. Standard for Terminal Instrument Approach Procedures (TERPs). In developing these SIAPs, the TERPs criteria were applied to the conditions existing or anticipated at the affected airports. Because of the close and immediate relationship between these SIAPs and safety in air commerce, I find that notice and public procedure before adopting these SIAPs is unnecessary, impracticable, or contrary to the public interest and, where applicable, that good cause exists for making some SIAPs effective in less than 30 days.

Adoption of the amendment

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me, Part 97 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 97) is amended by establishing, amending, suspending, or revoking Standard Instrument Approach Procedures, effective at 0901 G.m.t. on the dates specified, as follows:

Note.—The FAA has determined that this document involves a regulation which is not significant under Executive Order 12044, as implemented by DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). Since this regulatory action involves an established body of technical requirements for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current and promote safe flight operations, the anticipated impact is so minimal that this action does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation.

BILLING CODE 4910-13-M

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

26 CFR Part 301

[T.D. 7675]

Definition of Income Tax Return Preparer

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Final regulation.

SUMMARY: This document provides a final regulation excluding certain persons from the definition of income tax return preparer. This regulation amends existing regulations as a result of changes to the applicable law made by the Revenue Act of 1978 and also the need for clarification of existing law. This regulation affects certain persons who assist others in completing their Federal income tax returns and provides guidance needed to comply with law. DATE: The regulation applies with respect to documents prepared after December 31, 1976.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mark L. Yecies of the Legislation and Regulations Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20224, Attention: CC:LR:T (202-566-3464, not a toll-free call).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:Background

This document contains an amendment to the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301) under section 7701(a)(36) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to the definition of income tax return preparer.

Section 163 of the Revenue Act of 1978 authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Internal Revenue Service, to enter into agreements with nonprofit agencies or organizations pursuant to which the Service will provide training and technical assistance enabling volunteers of these institutions to assist the elderly in completing their Federal income tax returns. In addition to this Tax Counseling for the Elderly program, the Internal Revenue Service has established a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program which provides assistance to individual taxpayers in completing their Federal income tax returns through the use of Service-trained volunteers.

Section 1203 of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 established duties for income tax return preparers and provided penalties for the breach of those duties. On November 23, 1977, the Federal Register published regulations to implement most of the provisions of section 1203 (42 FR 59961). Those regulations included a provision, § 301.7701-15, relating to the definition of income tax return preparer found in section 7701(a)(36) of the Code. Only preparers as so defined in the Code and regulations are subject to the duties and penalties imposed by section 1203.

In enacting these preparer measures in the Tax Reform Act of 1976, Congress sought to subject persons preparing returns for a fee to a specific set of requirements. However, Congress did not intend those requirements to apply to persons merely assisting others to complete their returns in a nonprofit, noncommercial setting such as volunteers under the Tax Counseling for the Elderly and the VITA programs. Assistance under these programs is provided to taxpayers free of charge. In addition, volunteers under the VITA program receive no amounts from any source in participating in the program, while volunteers under the Tax Counseling for the Elderly program may receive only reimbursement of expenses from the Internal Revenue Service through the sponsoring organizations. Further, section 163(c)(2) of the Revenue Act of 1978 in general exempts these reimbursed amounts from income and social security taxes.

Accordingly, this document amends § 301.7701-15 to make clear that volunteers under the VITA and Tax Counseling for the Elderly programs are not considered income tax return preparers for purposes of section 1203 of the Tax Reform Act of 1976. Similarly, this regulation makes clear that organizations sponsoring or administering these programs are not considered preparers with respect to such sponsorship or administration.

This regulation does not meet the Treasury criteria for a significant regulation under paragraph 8 of the final Treasury directive for improving government regulations appearing in the Federal Register for Wednesday, November 8, 1978 (43 FR 52120).

Drafting Information

The principal author of this regulation is Mark L. Yecies of the Legislation and Regulations Division, Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service. However, personnel from other offices of the Internal Revenue Service and Treasury Department participated in developing the regulation, both on matters of substance and style.

Adoption of Amendment To The Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR Part 301 is amended by adding to § 301.7701-15 a new paragraph (a)(7), reading as follows:

§ 301.7701-15 Income tax return preparer.

- (a) In general. * * *
- (7) The following persons are not income tax return preparers:
- (i) Any individual who provides tax assistance under a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program established by the Internal Revenue Service;
 - (ii) Any organization sponsoring or administering a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program established by the Internal Revenue Service, but only with respect to that sponsorship or administration;
 - (iii) Any individual who provides tax counseling for the elderly under a program established pursuant to section 163 of the Revenue Act of 1978; and
 - (iv) Any organization sponsoring or administering a program to provide tax counseling for the elderly established pursuant to section 163 of the Revenue Act of 1978, but only with respect to that sponsorship or administration.

There is need for immediate guidance with respect to the provisions contained in this Treasury decision. For this reason, it is found impracticable to issue it with notice and public procedure under subsection (b) of section 553 of Title 5 of the United States Code or subject to the effective date limitation of subsection (d) of that section.

This Treasury decision is issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 7805).

Jerome Kurtz,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: February 5, 1980.
Donald C. Lubick,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.

26 CFR Part 301 is amended by adding to § 301.7701-15 a new paragraph (a)(7). As amended the section reads as follows:

§ 301.7701-15 Income tax return preparer.

(a) In general. An income tax return preparer is any person who prepares for compensation, or who employs (or engages) one or more persons to prepare for compensation, other than for the person, all or a substantial portion of any return of tax under subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or of any claim for refund of tax under subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

(1) A person who furnishes to a taxpayer or other preparer sufficient information and advice so that completion of the return or claim for refund is largely a mechanical or clerical matter is considered an income tax return preparer, even though that person does not actually place or review placement of information on the return or claim for refund. See also paragraph (b) of this section.

(2) A person who only gives advice on specific issues of law shall not be considered an income tax return preparer, unless—

(i) The advice is given with respect to events which have occurred at the time the advice is rendered and is not given with respect to the consequences of contemplated actions; and

(ii) The advice is directly relevant to the determination of the existence, characterization, or amount of an entry on a return or claim for refund. For example, if a lawyer gives an opinion on a transaction which a corporation has consummated, solely to satisfy an accountant (not at the time a preparer of the corporation's return) who is attempting to determine whether the reserve for taxes set forth in the corporation's financial statement is reasonable, the lawyer shall not be considered a tax return preparer solely by reason of rendering such opinion.

(3) A person may be an income tax return preparer without regard to educational qualifications and professional status requirements.

(4) A person must prepare a return or claim for refund for compensation to be an income tax return preparer. A person who prepares a return or claim for refund for a taxpayer with no explicit or implicit agreement for compensation is not a preparer, even though the person receives a gift or return service or favor.

(5) A person who prepares a return or claim for refund outside the United States is an income tax return preparer, regardless of his nationality, residence, or the locations of his places of business, if the person otherwise satisfies the definition of income tax return preparer. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 301.6109-1(g), the person shall secure an employer identification number if he is an employer of another preparer, is a partnership in which one or more of the general partners is a preparer, or is an individual not employed (or engaged) by another preparer. The person shall comply with the provisions of section 1203 of the Tax Reform Act of 1976 and the regulations thereunder.

(6) An official or employee of the Internal Revenue Service performing his official duties is not an income tax return preparer.

(7) The following persons are not income tax return preparers:

(i) Any individual who provides tax assistance under a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program established by the Internal Revenue Service;

(ii) Any organization sponsoring or administering a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program established by the Internal Revenue Service, but only with respect to that sponsorship or administration;

(iii) Any individual who provides tax counseling for the elderly under a program established pursuant to section 163 of the Revenue Act of 1978; and

(iv) Any organization sponsoring or administering a program to provide tax counseling for the elderly established pursuant to section 163 of the Revenue Act of 1978, but only with respect to that sponsorship or administration.

(b) Substantial preparation. (1) Only a person (or persons acting in concert) who prepares all or a substantial portion of a return or claim for refund shall be considered to be a preparer (or preparers) of the return or claim for refund. A person who renders advice which is directly relevant to the determination of the existence, characterization, or amount of an entry on a return or claim for refund, will be regarded as having prepared that entry. Whether a schedule, entry, or other portion of a return or claim for refund is a substantial portion is determined by comparing the length and complexity of, and the tax liability or refund involved in, that portion to the length and complexity of, and tax liability or refund involved in, the return or claim for refund as a whole.

(2) For purposes of applying the rule of paragraph (b)(1) of this section, if the schedule, entry, or other portion of the return or claim for refund involves amounts of gross income, amounts of deductions, or amounts on the basis of which credits are determined which are—

(i) Less than $2,000; or

(ii) Less than $100,000, and also less than 20 percent of the gross income (or adjusted gross income if the taxpayer is an individual) as shown on the return or claim for refund, then the schedule or other portion is not considered to be a substantial portion. If more than one schedule, entry or other portion is involved, they shall be aggregated in applying the rule of this subparagraph (2). Thus, if a person, for an individual taxpayer's return, prepares a schedule for dividend income which totals $1,500 and gives advice making him a preparer of a schedule of medical expenses which results in a deduction for medical expenses of $1,500, the person is not a preparer if the taxpayer's adjusted gross income shown on the return is more than $15,000. This subparagraph shall not apply to a person who prepares all of a return or claim for refund.

(3) A preparer of a return is not considered to be a preparer of another return merely because an entry or entries reported on the return may affect an entry reported on the other return, unless the entry or entries reported on the prepared return are directly reflected on the other return and constitute a substantial portion of the other return. For example, the sole preparer of a partnership return of income or a small business corporation income tax return is considered a preparer of a partner's or a shareholder's return if the entry or entries on the partnership or small business corporation return reportable on the partner's or shareholder's return constitute a substantial portion of the partner's or shareholder's return.

(c) Return and claim for refund.—(1) Return. A return of tax under subtitle A is a return filed by or on behalf of a taxpayer reporting the liability of the taxpayer for tax under subtitle A. A return of tax under subtitle A also includes an information return filed by or on behalf of a person or entity that is not a taxable entity and which reports information which is or may be reported on the return of a taxpayer of tax under subtitle A.

(i) A return of tax under subtitle A includes an individual or corporation income tax return, a fiduciary income tax return (for a trust or estate), a regulated investment company undistributed capital gains tax return, a return of a charitable remainder trust, a return by a transferor of stock or securities to a foreign corporation, foreign trust, or foreign partnership, a partnership return of income, a small business corporation income tax return, and a DISC return.

(ii) A return of tax under subtitle A does not include an estate tax return, a gift tax return, any other return of excise taxes or income taxes collected at source on wages, an individual or corporation declaration of estimated tax, an application for an extension of time to file an individual or corporation income tax return, or an information statement on Form 990, any Form 1099, or similar form.

(2) Claim for refund. A claim for refund of tax under subtitle A includes a claim for credit against any tax under subtitle A.

(d) Persons who are not preparers. A person shall not be considered to be a preparer of a return or claim for refund if the person performs only one or more of the following services:

(1) Typing, reproduction, or other mechanical assistance in the preparation of a return or claim for refund.

(2) Preparation of a return or claim for refund of a person, or an officer, a general partner, or employee of a person, by whom the individual is regularly and continuously employed or in which the individual is a general partner.

(3) Preparation of a return or claim for refund for a trust or estate of which the person either is a fiduciary or is an officer, general partner, or employee of the fiduciary.

(4) Preparation of a claim for refund for a taxpayer in response to—

(i) A notice of deficiency issued to the taxpayer; or

(ii) A waiver of restriction after initiation of an audit of the taxpayer or another taxpayer if a determination in the audit of the other taxpayer affects, directly or indirectly, the liability of the taxpayer for tax under subtitle A.

For purposes of paragraph (d) (2) of this section, the employee of a corporation owning more than 50 percent of the voting power of another corporation, or the employee of a corporation more than 50 percent of the voting power of which is owned by another corporation, is considered the employee of the other corporation as well. For purposes of paragraph (d)(3) of this section, an estate, guardianship, conservatorship, committee, and any similar arrangement for a taxpayer under a legal disability (such as a minor, an incompetent, or an infirm individual) is considered a trust or estate.

Allowable Disclosure or Use of Tax Return Information Under Section 7216

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Adoption of final regulations.

SUMMARY: This document provides final Regulations on Procedure and Administration relating to allowable disclosure or use of tax return information by tax return preparers under section 7216 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. These regulations provide necessary guidance to tax return preparers for compliance with the law.

DATE: These regulations are effective on January 1, 1972.

Catherine Kelly Bouknight of the Legislation and Regulations Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20224, Attention: CC:LR:T, 202-566-3289, not a toll-free call.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On December 12, 1974, the Federal Register published proposed amendments to the Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301) under section 7216 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (39 FR 43312). The amendments in the appendix to the notice of proposed rulemaking expand and augment the list of disclosures or uses of tax return information which can be made without violating section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1. There was no request for a public hearing, and none was held.

After consideration of all comments regarding the proposed amendments, this Treasury decision adopts the amendments, as set forth in full below, to the Regulations on Procedure and Administration. Section 301.7216-2(n), as proposed, has been revised to make clear that a disclosure made in a bona fide though erroneous belief that a crime has been committed is excepted from section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1.

In addition, a further notice of proposed rulemaking is being published contemporaneously with this Treasury decision. This further notice contains two proposed amendments to certain regulations under section 7216, which regulations are the subject of this Treasury decision.

Explanation of Provisions

Section 7216(a) of the Code provides that, as a general rule, any tax return preparer who discloses or uses any tax return information other than for the specific purpose of preparing, or assisting in the preparation of, any tax return of the taxpayer by or for whom the information was made available to a tax return preparer shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Section 7612(b)(3) provides that subsection (a) shall not apply to a disclosure or use of information which is permitted by regulations.

These amendments to § 301.7216-2 expand the list of disclosures or uses of tax return information to which the criminal sanction of section 7216(a) does not apply. The propriety of such disclosures or uses under ethical rules of conduct governing the practice of law or accountancy is beyond the scope of the proposed amendments.

Paragraph (c) of § 301.7216-2 is expanded to permit disclosure pursuant to an administrative order, demand, summons, or subpoena issued by any Federal regulatory agency.

Paragraph (e) of § 301.7216-2 expands allowable disclosure and use of tax return information by attorneys and accountants preparing tax returns. An attorney or accountant can use such information, or disclose it to another person in his firm who may use it, to render other legal or accounting services for the taxpayer, or, with the taxpayer's express or implied consent, make the information available to third parties. An attorney or accountant can take tax return information into account and act upon it, or disclose it to another person in his firm to take it into account and act upon it, while performing legal or accounting services for a client other than the taxpayer, where such information is or may be relevant to the services for such other client and its consideration by those performing the services is necessary to perform those services properly, but disclosure or use under this provision is limited to members or employees of the firm, unless such disclosure to an outsider is specifically excepted by another provision of § 301.7216-2 or § 301.7216-3.

Paragraph (n) of § 301.7216-2 permits disclosure of tax return information to Federal or State officials to inform them of activities which may constitute, or may have constituted, a violation of Federal or State criminal laws.

Comments

A number of commenters requested clarification in § 301.7216-2(e) of the scope of a term used in the existing regulations, "lawfully engaged in the practice of law or accountancy." The suggestion was made that disclosure by employees of law or accounting firms who are not themselves lawyers or accountants but who receive tax return information should expressly be excepted from section 7216(a). The reason that lawyers and accountants are excepted from the criminal sanctions of section 7216 is because they are bound by codes of professional conduct and legal strictures that do not apply to nonprofessional employees. Moreover, paragraph (e), by expressly permitting attorneys and accountants to disclose tax return information to employees of their firms, so that such employees may make specified use of such information, by implication permits these employees to disclose such information to an attorney or accountant of the firm.

Another suggestion was to limit "lawfully engaged" to include only those licensed or registered with local authorities or, alternatively, to include only those admitted to practice before the Internal Revenue Service. This phrase as now used is intended to include only those licensed or registered locally and it is not considered necessary to state this expressly. Expanding the term to include tax return preparers admitted to Internal Revenue Service practice would except from section 7216 persons frequently not bound by professional canons of ethics or local laws, in violation of the rationale of the attorney/accountant exception.

Commenters also criticized another phrase in existing paragraph (e) as overly broad and vague. This paragraph provides that an accountant (and proposed paragraph (e) that an attorney as well) may make disclosure to third parties with the "implied consent" of the taxpayer. The term "implied consent" has been construed with adequate specificity in other areas of law and has sufficiently precise meaning to be commonly understood. This Treasury decision is not intended to alter these phrases, "lawfully engaged in the practice of law or accountancy" and "implied consent", as used in existing § 301.7216-2(e).

Other suggestions concerned the similar treatment of attorneys and accountants. A suggestion was made that the two professions should not be treated identically. While the attorney-client privilege has no exact counterpart in the accounting profession in most States, nonetheless State-licensed accountants are subject to sufficient professional discipline and legal restraint to be excepted with State-licensed attorneys from the sanctions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1. Another proposal was that attorneys and State-licensed accountants should be completely excepted from the criminal provisions of section 7216(a) since professional ethics and State regulation insure "the highest standard of professional conduct." It is believed that this Treasury decision will not unduly hamper the conduct of these professionals and that they should not be completely excepted.

It was suggested that the proposed limit on disclosure pursuant to an administrative order, summons or subpoena in being limited to orders, etc., issued by a regulatory agency would probably exclude Internal Revenue Service orders, as well as other nonregulatory agency orders. This proposal has been taken into account in new proposed regulations under § 301.7216-2 contained in the notice of proposed rulemaking published contemporaneously with this Treasury decision. New proposed paragraph (c) would broaden the types of administrative bodies whose orders for disclosure of tax return information will be excepted from the criminal sanction of section 7216(a).

One criticism made was that the proposed rules could easily be construed as mandating unethical conduct by permitting disclosure by tax return preparers notwithstanding confidential relationships and constitutional rights. Code section 7216 and regulations issued thereunder do not mandate but rather decriminalize certain disclosures and uses. The propriety of such action under other laws or under ethical rules of conduct governing the practice of law or accountancy is beyond the scope of the amendments.

With regard to proposed paragraph (n) of § 301.7216-2, concern was expressed that this paragraph might be construed to impose an affirmative duty to disclose the commission of a crime. It is again emphasized that these proposed amendments are merely exceptions to a criminal provision and are not intended to authorize conduct forbidden elsewhere.

Commenters also suggested with respect to paragraph (n) that disclosure made in the bona fide though mistaken belief that a crime has been committed should be excepted. Language has been added to this paragraph to clarify that such good faith disclosure in fact comes under the protection of paragraph (n).

Finally, it was observed that paragraph (n) on disclosure to Federal and State officials omits disclosure to local officials, although disclosure pursuant to the order of a local court is permissible under § 301.7216-2(c). This matter is a subject of the new proposed regulations under § 301.7216-2 contained in the notice of proposed rulemaking published contemporaneously with this Treasury decision.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Catherine Kelly Bouknight of the Legislation and Regulations Division of the Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service. However, personnel from other offices of the Internal Revenue Service and Treasury Department participated in developing the regulation, both on matters of substance and style.

Adoption of Amendments to the Regulations

Accordingly, 26 CFR Part 301 is amended by revising § 301.7216-2 (c) and (e) and by adding a new paragraph (n) thereto, to read as follows:

§ 301.7216-2 Disclosure or use without formal consent of the taxpayer.

(c) Disclosure pursuant to an order of a court or of a Federal regulatory agency. The provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to any disclosure of tax return information if such disclosure is made pursuant to any one of the following documents:

(1) The order of any court of record, Federal, State, or local, or

(2) An administrative order, demand, summons, or subpoena issued by any Federal regulatory agency in the performance of its duties.

Information must be clearly identified in the document in order to be disclosed under this paragraph (c).

(e) Certain disclosure by attorneys and accountants. The provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to any disclosure of tax return information permitted by this paragraph (e).

(1) A tax return preparer who is lawfully engaged in the practice of law or accountancy and prepares a tax return for a taxpayer may use the tax return information of the taxpayer, or disclose such information to another employee or member of the preparer's law or accounting firm who may use it, to render other legal or accounting services to or for such taxpayer. Thus, for example, a lawyer who prepares a tax return for a taxpayer may use the tax return information of the taxpayer for, or in connection with, rendering legal services, such as estate planning or administration, or preparation of trial briefs or trust instruments, for the taxpayer or the estate of the taxpayer; or if another member of the same firm renders the other legal services for the taxpayer, the lawyer who prepared the tax return may disclose the tax return information to that other member for use in rendering those services for the taxpayer. In further illustration, an accountant who prepares a tax return for a taxpayer may use the tax return information, or disclose it to another member of the firm for use, for, or in connection with, the preparation of books of account, working papers, or accounting statements or reports to or for the taxpayer. Further, in the normal course of rendering such legal or accounting services to or for the taxpayer, the attorney or accountant may, with the express or implied consent of the taxpayer, make such tax return information available to third parties, such as stockholders, management, suppliers, or lenders.

(2) A tax return preparer who is lawfully engaged in the practice of law or accountancy and prepares a tax return for a taxpayer may (i) take such tax return information into account, and may act upon it, in the course of performing legal or accounting services for a client other than the taxpayer or (ii) disclose such information to another employee or member of the preparer's law or accounting firm to enable that other employee or member to take the information into account, and act upon it, in the course of performing legal or accounting services for a client other than the taxpayer, when such information is or may be relevant to the subject matter of such legal or accounting services for the other client and its consideration by those performing the services is necessary for the proper performance by them of such services. In no event, however, may such tax return information be disclosed to a person who is not an employee or member of the law or accounting firm unless such disclosure is exempt from the application of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 by reason of another provision, other than this paragraph, of § 301.7216-2 or § 301.7216-3.

(3) The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). A, a member of an accounting firm, renders an opinion on a financial statement of M Corporation that is part of a registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. After the filing of such registration statement, but before its effective date, B, a member of the same accounting firm, prepares an income tax return for N Corporation. In the course of preparing such income tax return, B discovers that N does business with M and concludes that information he is given by N should be considered by A to determine whether the financial statement reported on by A contains an untrue statement of material fact or omitted to state a material fact required to keep the statement from being misleading. B discloses to A the tax return information of N for this purpose. A determines that there is an omission of material fact and that an amended statement should be filed. A so advises M and the Securities and Exchange Commission. A explains that the omission was revealed as a result of confidential information which came to A's attention after the statement was filed, but A does not disclose the identity of the taxpayer or the tax return information itself. Section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to the foregoing disclosure of N's tax return information by B to A and the use of such information by A in advising M and the Securities and Exchange Commission of the necessity for filing an amended statement. Section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 would apply to a disclosure of N's tax return information to M or to the Securities and Exchange Commission unless such disclosure is exempt from the application of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 by reason of another provision of either § 301.7216-2 or § 301.7216-3.

Example (2). A, a member of an accounting firm, is conducting an audit of M Corporation, and B, a member of the same accounting firm, prepares an income tax return for D, an officer of M. In the course of preparing such return, B obtains information from D indicating that D, pursuant to an arrangement with a supplier doing business with M, has been receiving from the supplier, a percentage of the amounts which the supplier invoices to M. B discloses this information to A who, acting upon it, searches in the course of the audit for indications of such a kickback scheme. As a result, A discovers information from audit sources which also, but independently, indicates the existence of such a scheme. Without revealing the tax return information A has received from B, A brings to the attention of officers of M the audit information indicating the existence of the kickback scheme. Section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to the foregoing disclosure of D's tax return information by B to A, the use by A of such information in the course of the audit, and the disclosure by A to M of the audit information indicating the existence of the kickback scheme. See also § 301.7216-2(j). Section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 would apply to a disclosure to M, or to any other person not an employee or member of the accounting firm, of D's tax return information furnished to B.

(n) Disclosure to report the commission of a crime. The provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to the disclosure of any tax return information to the proper Federal or State official in order, and to the extent necessary, to inform the official of activities which may constitute, or may have constituted, a violation of Federal or State criminal laws. In addition, such a disclosure made in the bona fide but mistaken belief that the activities constituted a violation of criminal law is not subject to section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1.

This Treasury decision is issued under the authority contained in section 7805 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (68A Stat. 917, 26 U.S.C. 7805).

Jerome Kurtz,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: January 22, 1980.

BILLING CODE 4830-01-M

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY

40 CFR Part 52

[FRL 1416-7]

Illinois; Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans

AGENCY: U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The United States Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) announces today final rulemaking on revisions to the Illinois State Implementation Plan (SIP). These revisions were submitted to USEPA by the State to satisfy the requirements of part D of the Clean Air Act (Act). USEPA published a notice of proposed rulemaking on these revisions on July 2, 1979 (44 FR 38587) and a correction notice on September 20, 1979 (44 FR 54500). The notice of proposed rulemaking described the nature of the SIP revisions, discussed provisions which in USEPA's judgment did not comply with the requirements of the Act and requested comments from the State and public. Numerous public comments were received. In addition, on August 29, 1979, the State submitted additional information for inclusion in the SIP and clarified some of the SIP's provisions. Based on its review of the State's response and the public comments, USEPA takes final rulemaking action to approve, conditionally approve, and disapprove specific portions of the Illinois submittal as revisions to the federally approved Illinois State Implementation Plan. This Final Rulemaking action does not address the adequacy of State rules to control particulate emissions from the iron and steelmaking industry. These rules will be addressed in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This final rulemaking becomes effective on February 21, 1980. USEPA has determined that good cause exists for making these revisions immediately effective and deviating from the requirement of 5 U.S.C. Section 553(d) (the Administrative Procedures Act) that substantive rules be published thirty days before their effective date. By making this final rulemaking immediately effective, some of the restrictions on industrial growth contained in section 110(a)(2)(I) of the Clean Air Act will be lifted from the State of Illinois. These restrictions are imposed for failure to have a State Implementation Plan which meets the requirements of Part D after the final date for SIP approval specified in the Act. USEPA has determined that the Illinois State implementation Plan on the whole, meets the requirements of Part D. Therefore, it would be contrary to the public interest to continue the restrictions on industrial growth for thirty days after the publication of this notice.

ADDRESSES: Copies of the SIP revision, public comments on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (44 FR 38587), and USEPA's evaluation and response to comments are available for inspection at the following addresses:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On

March 3, 1978 (43 FR 8962) and on October 5, 1978 (43 FR 45993), pursuant to the requirements of section 107 of the Clean Air Act (Act), as amended in 1977, USEPA designated certain areas in each state as nonattainment with respect to National Ambient Air Quality Standards
(NAAQS) for total suspended particulates (TSP), sulfur dioxide (SO₂), carbon monoxide (CO), ozone (O₃), and nitrogen dioxide (NO₂).

Part D of the Act, added by the 1977 amendments, requires each state to revise its SIP to meet specific requirements for areas designated as nonattainment. These SIP revisions must demonstrate attainment of the primary National Ambient Air Quality Standards
by December 31, 1982, and in certain circumstances no later than December 31, 1987 for ozone and/or carbon monoxide. The requirements for an approvable SIP are described in a Federal Register notice published April 4, 1979 (44 FR 20372). Supplements to the April 4, 1979 notice were published on July 2, 1979 (44 FR 38583), August 28,
1979 (44 FR 50371), September 17, 1979
(44 FR 53761), and November 23, 1979
(44 FR 67182).

On April 3, 1979, the State of Illinois submitted a draft SIP to USEPA to satisfy the requirements of Part D.
USEPA published a notice of proposed rulemaking on these draft revisions on July 2, 1979 (44 FR 38587) and a correction notice on September 20, 1979 (44 FR 54500). The notice of proposed rulemaking described the nature of the SIP revisions. The notice also specified areas of the SIP submittal which in USEPA's judgment did not comply with the requirements of the Clean Air Act and needed either clarification or correction by the State. In its August 29, 1979 submittal, the State of Illinois submitted additional information for inclusion in the SIP and clarified some of the provisions in the submittal. In addition, USEPA received numerous public comments on the Illinois submittal and on USEPA's proposed action on it. Significant comments and USEPA's response to them are discussed

In the July 2, 1979 notice, USEPA indicated that the regulations in the State's submittal were preliminarily adopted by the Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB) and would be finally adopted after completion of necessary State administrative procedures. The notice of proposed rulemaking indicated that the nonregulatory portions of the SIP would not be adopted by the Illinois
Environmental Protection Agency
(Illinois EPA) until the completion of public hearings. USEPA stated that until all State administrative requirements were satisfied, it would not complete
Federal rulemaking on the SIP revisions.
USEPA also indicated that any substantive changes in the final SIP which were not discussed or anticipated in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking would be addressed in a supplemental Notices of Proposed Rulemaking. On November 16, 1979, December 21, 1979, and January 25, 1980 USEPA received letters from the State which demonstrated that, with the exception of regulations relating to malfunctions, all regulations were finally adopted and that the Illinois EPA had adopted the nonregulatory portions of the SIP.
USEPA's review of these finally enacted regulations indicates that changes were made in some of the regulations after the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking on July 2, 1979.
USEPA takes no rulemaking action today in regard to the changed portions of the regulations. USEPA has reviewed the changes and has determined that deferring rulemaking on these changes does not alter USEPA's final determinations announced today.
Changes were made in the following regulations.

Illinois Air Pollution Regulations 203(f)

a. An exemption has been added to Rule 203(f)(3)(A) which lifts control requirements from storage piles if the owner or operator of the pile proves that fugitive emissions from the pile do not cross the property line.

b. Rule 203(f)(3)(C) which restricted emissions from conveying operations to 10% opacity has been deleted in the final rule. Conveyors are now subject to the provisions of Rule 203(f)(3)(E).

Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas

a. Section 4.11 contains new materials to include as allowable emissions "a reasonable estimate of emissions in excess of applicable standards during start-up, malfunctions, or breakdown".

b. A definition of "reconstruction" has been added to Section 4.7.

c. New Sections 5.1(a)(2)(ii) and 5.1(a)(2)(iii) are reserved by the State.

d. A procedure allowing external offsets is contained in Section 10.

Illinois Air Pollution Regulation 205

a. Rule 205(k)(1) has been changed so that an owner or operator satisfying the requirements of Rule 205(k)(1) (A) or (B) is exempt from all provisions of Rules 205(k) (2) and (3).

USEPA will solicit public comment on these changes in a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

This Federal Register notice addresses public comments in two parts: (1)
General comments on the Illinois SIP and on the criteria used by USEPA to evaluate all SIPs; and (2) Comments on specific portions of the Illinois submittal and on USEPA's evaluation of specific portions of the SIP. The second part of this notice briefly identifies by pollutant or topic the deficiencies cited in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register notice, discusses both the State's response and the response of other commentators, and contains USEPA's response to comments and its final determinations.

USEPA's final determinations take one of three forms: approval, conditional approval, or disapproval. A discussion of conditional approval and its practical effect appears in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register (44 FR 38583) and in the November 23, 1979 Federal Register (44 FR 67182). The conditional approval requires the State to submit additional materials by specified deadlines negotiated between the State and the USEPA Regional Office. Schedules submitted by Illinois will be proposed for public comment in a Federal Register to be published shortly. Although public comment is solicited on the deadlines, and the deadlines may be changed in light of the comments, the state remains bound by its commitment to meet the proposed deadlines, unless they are changed. USEPA will follow the procedures described below when determining if requirements of conditional approval have been met:

1. When the State submits the required additional documentation,

USEPA will publish a notice in the Federal Register announcing receipt and availability of the material for public comment. The notice will also announce that the conditional approval is continuing pending USEPA's final action in the submission.

2. USEPA will evaluate the State's submission and public comment on the submission to determine if noted deficiencies have been fully corrected. After review is complete, a Federal Register notice will either fully approve the plan if all conditions have been met, or withdraw the conditional approval and disapprove the plan. If the plan is disapproved the Section 110(a)(2)(I) restrictions on construction will be in effect.

3. If the State fails to submit the required materials according to the negotiated schedule, USEPA will publish a Federal Register notice shortly after the expiration of the time limit for submission. The notice will announce that the conditional approval is withdrawn, the SIP is disapproved, and Section 110(a)(2)(I) restrictions on growth are in effect.

The following chart summarizes generally the actions taken by USEPA today on the Illinois submittal:

1. Approval.

a. Inspection and Maintenance.

b. Transportation Control Plans for the Springfield Area, the Rockford Area, the Rock Island-Quad Cities Area, and the Decatur, Champaign-Urbana, Bloomington-Normal Areas.

c. Commitment to Adopt Additional Emission Limitations Representing RACT for Source Categories covered in Future CTGs

d. Extensions until December 31, 1987 of the statutory attainment deadline for ozone and carbon monoxide in the Northeast Illinois Nonattainment Area and for ozone in the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Nonattainment area.

e. Particulate Nonattainment Demonstration Approach.

2. Conditional Approval.

a. Carbon Monoxide Control Strategy.

b. Nitrogen Dioxide Control Strategy.

c. Transportation Control Plans for Peoria Metropolitan Area, the Illinois Portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area, Northeastern Illinois (Chicago) Area.

d. Portions of Rule 205 and the Ozone Attainment Strategy.

e. Sulfur Dioxide Control Strategy.

f. Rule 203(f) and the Total Suspended Particulate Control Strategy.

g. New Source Review.

3. Disapproval.

a. Compliance Schedule in new Rule 205(j) for all emission sources subject to Rule 205(b), as approved by USEPA May 31, 1972, which were required to be in compliance with old Rule 205(j) by December 31, 1973.

b. Use of equivalent methods in Rule 203(f) without review or approval. Any source utilizing an equivalent method must submit the operating program containing the equivalent method to USEPA as a SIP revision.

4. No Action.

a. General requirements of the Clean Air Act which are not Part D requirements (Sections 121, 126, 127, 128, 110(a)(2)(K) and Part C). Final rulemaking on these portions of the SIP will be in a separate Federal Register notice to be published shortly.

b. Illinois Iron and Steel Particulate Regulations. A notice of proposed rulemaking on these provisions will be published shortly in a separate Federal Register action.

c. Maintenance-Malfunction Regulations. Final Rulemaking will be taken by USEPA upon certification by the State that the rules are fully adopted and effective in Illinois.

d. Those portions of Rule 205(k), 203(f) and the Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas which were identified above as containing changes made between the publication of the July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and this final rulemaking action.

a. On January 30, 1980 (45 FR 6786), USEPA completed final rulemaking on designation changes requested by the State in its April 3, 1979 submittal to USEPA. USEPA proposed rulemaking on these designation changes on July 2, 1979 (44 FR 38587) and corrected errors in the proposal on September 20, 1979 (44 FR 54500).

The following sections will discuss general and pollutant specific deficiencies in the Illinois SIP noted by USEPA in the July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, State and public comment in response to that Notice, and USEPA's final determinations and rulemaking actions.

National Comments and General Comments on the Illinois SIP

Comment and Response: One commentator submitted extensive comments which it requested be considered part of the record for each State plan. Each of the points raised by the commentator and USEPA's response follow. Although some of the issues raised are not relevant to provisions in Illinois' submission, USEPA is notifying the public of its response to these comments at this time.

1. The commentator asked that comments it has previously submitted on the Emission Offset Interpretative Ruling as revised on January 16, 1979 (44 FR 3274), be incorporated by reference as part of their comments in its response to comments on the Offset Ruling.

2. The commentator objected to general policy guidance issued by USEPA, on grounds that USEPA's guidance is more stringent than required by the Act. Such a general comment concerning USEPA's guidance is not relevant to USEPA's decision to approve or disapprove a SIP revision since that decision rests on whether the revision satisfies the requirements of Section 110(a)(2). However, USEPA has considered the comment and concluded that its guidance conforms to the statutory requirements.

3. The commentator noted that the recent court decision on USEPA's regulations for prevention of significant deterioration (PSD) of air quality affects USEPA's new source review (NSR) requirements for Part D plans as well. (The decision is Alabama Power Co. v. Costle, 13 ERC 1225 (D.C. Cir., June 18, 1979). In the commentator's view, the court's rulings on the definition of "source," "modification," and "potential to emit" should apply to Part D as well as PSD programs. In addition, the commentator believes that the court decision precludes USEPA from requiring Part D review of sources located in designated "clean" areas.

The preamble to the Emission Offset Interpretative Ruling, as revised January 16, 1979, explains that the interpretations in the Ruling of the terms "source," "major modification," and "potential to emit," and the areas in which NSR applies, govern State plans under Part D. (44 FR 3275 col. 3 through 3276 col. 1, January 16, 1979.) In proposed rules published in the Federal Register on September 5, 1979 (44 FR 51924), USEPA explained its views on how the Alabama Power decision affects NSR requirements for State Part D plans. The September 5, 1979 proposal addressed some of the issues raised by the commentator. To the extent necessary, USEPA will respond in greater detail to the commentators' concerns in its response to comments on the September 5, 1979, proposal and/or its response to comments on the Offset Ruling.

As part of the September 5, 1979 proposal, USEPA proposed regulations for Part D plans in section 40 CFR 51.18(j). USEPA also proposed to approve a SIP revision prior to the promulgation of final regulations if the SIP revision satisfies either existing USEPA requirements, or the proposed regulations.

USEPA proposed to approve State-submitted relaxations of previously-submitted SIPs prior to the promulgation of final regulations, so long as the revised SIP meets all proposed USEPA requirements. To the extent USEPA's final regulations are more stringent than the existing or proposed requirements, States will have nine months after the promulgation of final regulations to correct the SIP, as provided in Section 406(d) of the Act.

In some instances, USEPA's approval of a State's corrected NSR provisions (as revised to be consistent with USEPA's proposed or final regulations) may create the need for the State to revise its growth projections and provide for additional emission reductions. States will be allowed additional time for such revisions after the new NSR provisions are approved by USEPA.

4. The commentator questioned USEPA's alternative emission reduction options policy (the "bubble" policy). As the commentator noted, USEPA set forth its proposed bubble policy in a separate Federal Register publication. 44 FR 3720 (January 18, 1979). USEPA responded to the comments on the "bubble" approach in the final "bubble" policy statement. 44 FR 71780 (December 11, 1979).

5. The commentator questioned USEPA's requirement for a demonstration that application of all reasonably available control measures (RACM) would not result in attainment any faster than application of less than all RACM. In USEPA's view, the statutory deadline is that date by which attainment can be achieved as expeditiously as practicable. While there is no requirement to apply more RACM than is necessary for attainment, there is a requirement to apply controls which will insure attainment as soon as possible. Consequently, the State must select the mix of control measures that will achieve the standards most expeditiously, as well as assure reasonable further progress.

The commentator also suggested that all RACM may not be "practicable." By definition, RACM are only those measures which are reasonable. If a measure is impracticable, it would not constitute a reasonably available control measure.

6. The commentator found the discussion in the General Preamble of reasonably available control technology (RACT) for VOC sources covered by Control Technique Guidelines (CTGs) to be confusing in that it appeared to equate RACT with the guidance in the CTGs. USEPA did not intend to equate RACT with the CTGs. The CTGs provide recommendations to the States for determining RACT, and serve as a "presumptive norm" for RACT, but are not intended to define RACT. Although USEPA believes its earlier guidance was clear on this point, the Agency has issued a supplement to the General Preamble clarifying the role of the CTGs in plan development. See 44 FR 53761 (September 17, 1979).

7. The commentator suggested that the revision of the ozone standard justified an extension of the schedule for submission of Part D plans. This issue has been addressed in the General Preamble, 44 FR 20377 (April 4, 1979).

8. The commentator questioned USEPA's authority to require States to consider transfers of technology from one source type to another as part of LAER determinations. USEPA's response to this comment will be included in its response to comments on the revised Emission Offset Interpretative Ruling.

9. The commentator suggested that if a State fails to submit a Part D plan, or the submitted plan is disapproved, USEPA must promulgate a plan under Section 110(c), which may include restriction on construction as provided in Section 110(a)(2)(I). In the commentator's view, the Section 110(a)(2)(I) restriction cannot be imposed without such a federal promulgation. USEPA has promulgated regulations which impose restrictions on construction on any nonattainment area for which a State fails to submit an approvable Part D plan. See 44 FR 38583 (July 2, 1979). Section 110(a)(2)(I) does not require a complete federally-promulgated SIP before the restrictions may go into effect.

Comment: Another commentator, a national environmental group, stated that the requirements for an adequate permit fee system (Section 110(a)(2)(K) of the Act), and proper composition of State boards (Sections 110(a)(2)(F)(vi) and 128 of the Act) must be satisfied to assure that permit programs for nonattainment areas are implemented successfully. Therefore, while expressing support for the concept of conditional approval, the commentators argued that USEPA must secure a State commitment to satisfy the permit fee and State board requirements before conditionally approving a plan under Part D. In those States that fail to correct the omission within the required time, the commentators urged that restrictions on construction under Section 110(a)(2)(I) of the Act must apply.

Response: To be fully approved under Section 110(a)(2) of the Act, a State plan must satisfy the requirements for State boards and permit fees for all areas, including nonattainment areas. Several States have adopted provisions satisfying these requirements, and USEPA is working with other States to assist them in developing the required programs. However, USEPA does not believe these programs are needed to satisfy the requirements of Part D. Congress placed neither the permit fee nor the State board provision in Part D. While legislative history states that these provisions should apply in nonattainment areas, there is no legislative history indicating that they should be treated as Part D requirements. Therefore, USEPA does not believe that failure to satisfy these requirements, is grounds for conditional approval under Part D, or for application of the construction restriction under Section 110(a)(2)(I) of the Act.

One commenter, a steel company, submitted extensive comments on issues of Agency policy. The comments and Agency responses follow.

The commentator stated that EPA has no authority under the statute to consider "enforceability" by reviewing state provisions for "clarity and specificity." See General Preamble, 44 FR 20373 (April 4, 1979). Section 110 generally requires that a plan be enforceable. See Section 110 (a)(1), (a)(2)(D). Based on those requirements, EPA must determine whether a plan is, in fact, enforceable. The requirements for enforceability would not be satisfied by unclear or imprecise plan provisions. Vagueness as to regulatory requirements or applicability would make it difficult, if not impossible, to enforce regulations against specific sources.

The commentator also questioned EPA's authority to review plans for "stringency." EPA must review a plan to determine if it meets all requirements of the Act. In particular, EPA must review the state's overall control strategy to assure the entire plan ensures attainment and maintenance of standards as expeditiously as practicable. A plan cannot be disapproved if it is more stringent than necessary to achieve that goal.

The commentator challenged EPA's authority to "consider" relaxations or revocations of existing plan requirements and EPA's "continuity" policy. The Administrator has not precluded States from relaxing or revoking existing plan requirements if the new requirements ensure reasonable further progress and standard attainment as expeditiously as practicable. The statute, however, is clear that attainment must be achieved as expeditiously as practicable and that December 31, 1982, is the last permissible attainment date, not merely a statutory goal. Section 172(a)(1). As noted earlier in this preamble, Congress in enacting the 1977 Amendments did not intend the 1982 attainment date to authorize relaxations or delays in compliance with old requirements. See 123 Cong. Rec. H 11958, (daily ed., November 1, 1977) (Remarks of Rep. Rogers), quoted infra. The Administrator therefore believes it would be inconsistent with the Congressional intent to permit relaxation or revocation of existing requirements. As discussed in General Preamble at 44 FR 20373-20374, (April 4, 1979) EPA's continuity policy reflects and is consistent with the Congressional intent to prevent avoidance of pre-existing plan requirements.

The commenter perceives a conflict between EPA's continuity policy and the Agency's policy to deny credit for emission reductions attributed to measures that cannot be implemented or enforced. The continuity policy is intended to prevent compliance date extensions for pre-existing requirements. It does not, however, disallow all relaxations of plan requirements. If a pre-existing regulation was demonstrated by the state to be unenforceable, the state would be required to develop new regulations to achieve attainment. New, less stringent regulations which achieve attainment would be acceptable as long as the state does not extend the compliance date beyond the date in the existing plan. In addition, the state could not rely on emission reductions due to the old unenforceable regulation. If a state demonstrated that a regulation was unenforceable, EPA would, on a case-by-case basis, permit the state to revoke the old regulation from its plan. At the same time, the state would be required to develop a new mix of regulations to attain and maintain standards as expeditiously as practicable. Permitting revocation of unenforceable regulations is consistent with EPA's policy to permit revocation of old regulations that are incompatible with new, more stringent requirements. See 44 FR 20374, April 4, 1979.

A state is permitted to submit any mix of emission limitations that will achieve reasonable further progress and attainment as expeditiously as practicable even if the mix includes regulations that may currently be economically and technologically infeasible. EPA could not disapprove these regulations on grounds of economic and technological feasibility. EPA may, however, find that full implementation of a regulation will not result in the amount of emission reductions claimed by a State. In such cases, EPA must limit a State's credit for emission reductions to those reductions which can be achieved if the regulation is fully implemented. In some cases, EPA may deny emission reductions credit because enforcement of a regulation is impracticable or impossible. In either situation, EPA would be denying credit because the state had misjudged emission reductions available through a regulation, and not because the regulation was technologically or economically infeasible. There is no inconsistency between the continuity policy and the Agency's obligation to insure that a state's attainment demonstration is realistic.

The commenter questions EPA's authority to establish "mandatory policies" for a state's preconstruction review program. As indicated in the General Preamble, 44 FR 20378-80, (April 4, 1979), EPA believes these policies are required by and reflect the statutory requirements in Sections 172 and 173 and the Agency's revised Emission Offset Interpretative Ruling.

The commenter also argues that EPA's policy of conditional approval is not sanctioned by the Clean Air Act. The commenter believes that EPA must promulgate a federal SIP and comply with procedural requirements for such promulgation if the Administrator finds a state plan inadequate. The commenter claims that conditional approval circumvents the procedural safeguards of Section 307 of the Act and coerces state modification of the plan through threat of disapproval.

In the Administrator's view, conditional approval provides procedural safeguards equivalent to those available when the Administrator promulgates a plan. A discussion of conditional approval and its practical effect appears in supplements to the General Preamble published on July 2, 1979 (44 FR 38583) and November 23, 1979 (44 FR 67182). In the case of Illinois, for example, the Administrator has proposed to conditionally approve certain provisions. The commenter has had an opportunity to submit extensive written comments and receive EPA's response. Today's final conditional approval may be challenged in the appropriate United States Court of Appeals within 60 days. The rulemaking and judicial review procedures thus provide opportunities for comment and review similar to those provided for promulgations under Section 307(d).

Conditional approval is also consistent with the Administrator's obligation under Section 110(c)(1)(C). That subsection requires the Administrator to promulgate regulations for a state if "the state fails, within 60 days after notification by the Administrator or such later period as he may prescribe, to revise an implementation plan as required pursuant to a provision of its plan referred to in subsection (a)(2)(H)." When the Administrator proposes conditional approval, he is essentially notifying the state that further revisions are required to make the plan or regulations fully approvable. If the state fails to satisfy the Administrator's conditions, the Administrator will disapprove the plan or regulations and may then promulgate regulations to correct the deficiency. The state is simply offered the option of correcting the inadequacies itself.

The commenter questioned what rules are in effect if a plan or regulation is conditionally approved. EPA intends that the conditionally approved requirements be effective unless the conditional approval is withdrawn for failure to meet the conditions. The commenter argues that sources are prejudiced by this result, since they are required to comply with rules that may be significantly altered. Because conditional approval is applicable only to plans or regulations with relatively minor deficiencies, it is highly improbable that conditionally approved provisions will be substantially changed. In addition, notices of proposed and final conditional approval, such as today's final action, provide adequate notice to sources of the requirements they will ultimately have to meet if the conditions are met.

The Commenter commented that USEPA has failed to wait for a legally adopted revised plan to be submitted by Illinois before publishing a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, has failed to adhere to the requirements of Section 110 of the Act in reviewing the revised plan, and has failed to give interested persons an opportunity to review and comment on a legally adopted revised plan.

As stated elsewhere in this Notice, any significant changes made in the SIP between the submittal of the draft on April 25, 1979 and the submittal of the final SIP during the comment period on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking have been removed from the final SIP and will be the subject of a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. With the exception of these changes, the final regulations were substantially the same as the draft regulations addressed in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. Therefore, an adequate opportunity has been provided for interested persons to comment on the plan and its regulations which are the subject of today's final rulemaking.

This procedure permits interested persons to comment on the plan while expediting the rulemaking process. By using these procedures, USEPA also expedites the removal of the growth restrictions contained in section 110(a)(2)(I) of the Act while assuring attainment of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards.

Plan Requirements for Nonattainment Areas

In addition to the general requirements applicable to all State Implementation Plan revisions, the revised plan must satisfy the requirements of Part D of the Act. In the July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, USEPA indicated that the proposed revision to the Illinois SIP did not meet the requirements of section 172(b)(9) of the Act because it did not include an identification and analysis of the air quality, health, welfare, economic, energy, and social effects of the plan provisions chosen, the alternatives considered, and a summary of the public comment on the analysis. USEPA believes that the State has satisfied this requirement through discussions in the original SIP submittal, the submittal of supplemental information identifying and analyzing the impact areas, and the submittal of a summary of public comments.

Total Suspended Particulates

Part D of the Clean Air Act requires State Implementation Plans to include strategies and regulations adequate to attain the National Ambient Air Quality Standards as expeditiously as practicable but not later than December 31, 1982, and, in the interim, to provide reasonable further progress toward attainment through the application of RACT. Where attainment cannot be demonstrated despite the application of reasonably available control technology to traditional sources of particulate matter, USEPA will accept as a basis for approval a commitment by the State to conduct additional studies on the causes for particulate non-attainment, including the degree to which non-traditional area sources of particulate matter affect air quality and to develop and to submit to USEPA additional enforceable strategies adequate to demonstrate attainment of the primary standards by the statutory attainment date.

The Illinois particulate control strategy relies on existing regulations and new regulations which deal with particulate emissions from iron and steel mills, from industrially related fugitive dust, and from malfunctions. As discussed below, USEPA is conditionally approving Rule 203(f) relating to fugitive dust as part of the federally approved SIP and is deferring action on Rules 101, 103, and 105 relating to malfunctions. USEPA will propose rulemaking on the adequacy of regulations to control particulate emissions from iron and steel sources in a separate Federal Register notice.

USEPA has determined that with the exception of iron and steel sources Rule 203 represents RACT for traditional sources of particulates. As discussed above, USEPA makes no determination at this time on the adequacy of controls on iron and steel sources. In the July 2, 1979 notice of proposed rulemaking, USEPA stated its opinion that the Illinois SIP submittal did not adequately document that the level of control technology for sources covered under the process weight regulations of Rules 203(a) and (b) represented RACT. In response, the State submitted the results of a study demonstrating that the degree of control required by Rules 203(a) and (b) is not only nearly equal to that which would be obtained by following USEPA RACT guidance but also is more cost effective. In addition, one industry submitted the comment that the process weight regulations of Rules 203(a) and (b) require the application of RACT pursuant to USEPA's own regulations at 40 CFR Part 51 Appendix B. Although USEPA believes that Rules 203(a) and (b) represent RACT, it does not conclude this because of the examples contained in Appendix B. USEPA bases its determination on the information submitted by the State.

Despite the application of regulations representing RACT for traditional sources of particulate matter, analysis conducted by Illinois demonstrates that attainment of the primary particulate standard will not be achieved by December 31, 1982. Therefore, the Illinois SIP contains a commitment to conduct studies on non-traditional particulate sources, propose new regulations, and require compliance with the new regulations no later than December 31, 1982. USEPA proposed to approve this commitment if the State submitted a more detailed schedule for the completion of the studies and the adoption of new regulations.

The State's August 29, 1979 submittal satisfactorily outlined a detailed plan to study the causes of particulate nonattainment and to develop strategies to attain and maintain the particulate standards. The studies will focus on the ambient impact of non-traditional sources of particulates, methods for controlling non-traditional sources, and the extent to which traditional sources with RACT controls contribute to particulate nonattainment. The State has further committed itself to complete an attainment strategy based on the studies by December 31, 1981 and to propose any additional measures necessary to attain and maintain the particulate standards to the Illinois Pollution Control Board by December 31, 1981.

Because the State has demonstrated that attainment is not possible despite the application of RACT to traditional sources of particulates and has made a satisfactory commitment to study the causes of particulate nonattainment and to adopt additional regulations to achieve attainment, USEPA approves the State's approach to demonstrating attainment and conditionally approves the overall Illinois particulate SIP with the exception of the portions of it addressing iron and steel sources. Therefore, the growth prohibition of Section 110(a)(2)(I) of the Act continues to apply only in those particulate nonattainment areas containing iron and steel sources. Specific conditions which must be satisfied by the State are outlined below in the discussion of each regulation.

The July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking identified deficiencies in the Illinois attainment demonstration which USEPA stated must either be clarified or be corrected in the attainment demonstration to be submitted by December 31, 1981. USEPA stated that, in its opinion, the attainment demonstration claimed emission reduction credits for strategies either not yet included in the SIP or not clearly enforceable under the SIP. USEPA cited two examples. One example was the lack of enforceability of the proposed fugitive emission regulation. USEPA addresses this issue in the discussion below on Rule 203(f). A second example was the claiming of emission reduction credits for area source controls when regulations to control non-traditional area sources have not been developed. In the State's response to this deficiency, Illinois identified the basis for emission reduction credits included in the SIP for nontraditional area sources. The State noted that the studies it has committed itself to perform will better define non-traditional area source emissions so that enforceable, control strategies can be included in the SIP. USEPA believes that since a demonstration showing attainment will not be submitted until December 31, 1981, this issue need not be further resolved at this time. When the State has completed the studies and promulgated appropriate regulations, USEPA and the public will have the opportunity to evaluate the acceptability of emission reduction credits claimed in the final attainment demonstration.

Another deficiency identified by USEPA in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register notice was that the attainment demonstration did not address the impact on ambient air quality of Illinois Pollution Control Board variances. The State's August 29, 1979 submittal explained how the SIP addressed the variances. According to the State, the modeling analysis accounted for variances by considering all sources at their actual emission rates during the base year. Therefore, sources with variances were analyzed as they were actually operating in the base year, (i.e. with a variance). The State notes that analyses conducted for 1982, 1985 and 1995 assumed that each source was operating in compliance with existing air quality regulations. These analyses further assumed that there were no variances since, with one exception, all current variances granted by the State will have expired prior to 1982. The State concludes that all future variances granted by the State will be addressed in the annual reasonable further progress submittals to USEPA.

On this issue, one industrial commentator argues that pursuant to "Train v. NRDC", 421 U.S. 60 (1975), where variances are pre-attainment date variances, they need not be considered by a State in developing its attainment strategy since reductions will occur in the interim under the plan as a whole, and the individual variances call for additional pre-attainment date reductions. USEPA disagrees with the commentator's interpretation of "Train v. NRDC". Although that case dealt with the validity of a variance provision insofar as it authorized variances effective before an attainment date, it neither stated that variances need not be considered by the State in developing its strategy to attain the standards nor distinguished between pre- and post-attainment periods. The Court held that the revision mechanism of the Clean Air Act is available for the approval of those variances which do not compromise the basic statutory mandate that the national ambient air quality standards be attained within the statutory timetable and maintained thereafter. In order to make this determination, the variances must be accounted for in the attainment demonstration.

USEPA believes that the State has satisfactorily clarified how variances were included in the preliminary attainment demonstration.

In accordance with Section 110(l) and USEPA regulations, any variances granted by the State must be submitted as SIP revisions.

Fugitive Particulate Emission Control Regulations

Fugitive particulate emissions from industrial sources are regulated by Rule 203(f) of the Illinois Air Pollution Control Regulations. In the July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, USEPA identified seven areas of Rule 203(f) which, in USEPA's judgment, were deficient. The following discussion identifies the deficiency, summarizes the State's response, discusses any significant public comments, and contains USEPA's response to comments and its final determination.

1. Rule 203(f) requires sources to operate under the provisions of an operating program prepared by the source. The program may employ alternative methods of control for fugitive particulates as long as the alternative is equivalent to the controls specified in the regulation. Although the operating programs must be submitted to the State for review, the regulation does not provide for approval or disapproval of the operating programs by the State. Consequently, USEPA questioned whether these programs were enforceable emission limitations and whether any air quality demonstration taking credit for the impact of this regulation would significantly over-estimate emission reductions.

State Response: The State indicated that the rule is enforceable since failure to develop and follow an operating program "designed to significantly reduce fugitive particulate emissions" is a violation of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act and of Rule 203(f)(3)(F). Therefore, according to the State, although the specific details of the operating program cannot be approved by the State, the use of a program which significantly reduces particulate emissions is an enforceable requirement in Illinois.

Public Comments: Two utilities and two companies submitted comments on this issue. One utility urged USEPA to retain the flexibility of the rule which allows each source to prepare its own program. Another utility commented that an operating program should be deemed effective "unless it produces violations at an unacceptable frequency." One industrial comment echoed the State's response that the regulations already contain an enforcement mechanism in the requirements that each source prepare and follow an operating program. The industry stated that failure of a source to implement its operating program is a violation of the regulation. The industry further stated that Illinois is entitled to the emission reduction credit claimed for implementation of fugitive particulate emission control from industrial sources and that denying this credit violates the spirit of the Supreme Court's ruling in "Train v. NRDC", 421 U.S. 60 (1975). Citing USEPA's Oil Pollution Prevention Regulations as an example of operating programs which do not require approval, another industry argues that the fugitive dust operating programs do not require approval by the State.

USEPA Response: With one exception, USEPA concurs with the State and the commentators that Rule 203(f) contains an adequate enforcement mechanism. In addition of the substantive criteria for the control of fugitive emissions, Rule 203(f) contains provisions allowing sources to control fugitive emissions through "equivalent methods" incorporated into a source's operating program. These equivalent methods, as part of a source's operating program, are not subject to State approval or disapproval. Therefore, although the State and USEPA have approved the substantive requirements of the regulation which will be contained in individual operating permits, the State and USEPA do not have an opportunity to determine whether an equivalent method of control represents RACT. This is unacceptable under the requirements of Section 172 of the Clean Air Act. Therefore, USEPA approves Rule 203(f) as part of the federally approved Illinois SIP but does not approve of the use of equivalent methods which have not been approved by USEPA. Any source utilizing an equivalent method must submit the operating program containing the equivalent method to USEPA as a SIP revision in order to be in compliance with the federally approved SIP.

In response to the comment that Illinois is entitled to emission reduction credit for fugitive particulate emission control, USEPA references its response above on the Illinois attainment demonstration. USEPA and the public can comment on the acceptability of claimed emission reduction credits when the State submits its final attainment demonstrations.

2. Rule 203(f) does not apply to all particulate primary nonattainment areas. Illinois stated in its SIP submittal that the rule applies to those primary nonattainment areas with existing major sources of fugitive particulate matter. USEPA noted that this was acceptable if the rule included a provision to require controls on new fugitive particulate sources which locate in a nonattainment county not specifically covered by this rule.

State Response: According to the State, although Rule 203(f) does not apply to industrial sources of fugitive particulate matter locating in nonattainment areas not listed in the Rule, all sources locating in nonattainment areas are regulated by the "Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas".

Therefore, any new, major fugitive source is required to install constant emissions controls so that the lowest achievable emission rate results. The State believes that this requirement is more stringent than the emission standards imposed by Rule 203(f).

USEPA Response: Based on the State's response and the absence of any public comments on this issue, USEPA believes that the State has satisfactorily addressed USEPA's concern that new fugitive sources locating in nonattainment areas will be adequately controlled.

3. Rule 203(f) exempts sources from control requirements if emissions from storage piles, conveyor loading operations and access areas surrounding storage piles are less than 50 tons per year. In the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, USEPA questioned whether this represented RACT for these source categories.

State Response: The State of Illinois has made a commitment to conduct an analysis of the potential air quality impact from storage piles with uncontrolled emissions of less than 50 tons/year. According to the State, this analysis will consist of the development of a technical support document containing a comprehensive emissions inventory of these sources and an assessment of their impact on nonattainment problems. If this analysis indicates that these sources have a significant impact on air quality, the State will submit regulations to the Illinois Pollution Control Board by December 30, 1980 requiring reasonably available control technology on these sources.

Public Comments: One industry commented that USEPA's concern over the exemption from controls of storage piles ignores the Supreme Court's interpretation of USEPA's limited role in reviewing state implementation plans set out in "Train v. NRDC", 421 U.S. 60 (1975). The commentator states that it is Illinois' right to select whatever mix of controls it chooses so long as the result is attainment. According to the commentator, it is USEPA's duty to accept the mix.

USEPA Response: USEPA does not disagree with the industrial commentator's statement that, within certain statutory limits, it is the State's right to select the mix of strategies so long as the result is attainment. USEPA notes, however, that the State of Illinois has not demonstrated that the mix of strategies it has selected result in attainment. Therefore, the comment is inappropriate. USEPA discusses the State's particulate attainment demonstration elsewhere in this Notice.

Based on the State's commitment and schedule, USEPA conditionally approves the exemption from controls for storage piles, conveyor loading operations, and access areas surrounding storage piles in Rule 203(f).

USEPA believes that the commitment to submit any necessary regulations to the IPCB is an adequate commitment by the State. USEPA recognizes that the State cannot legally prejudice the outcome of statutorily mandated regulatory proceedings. Nonetheless, in order to guarantee that the deficiencies are adequately addressed and that the plan is adequate to satisfy the requirements of the Act, USEPA imposes the additional condition that the regulations be finally promulgated by the State and submitted to USEPA by December 31, 1981.

In establishing the date by which any necessary regulations must be promulgated, USEPA has taken into consideration the complex IPCB rulemaking procedures which require technical as well as economic hearings and findings on all rulemaking actions. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule will appear in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

4. USEPA indicated in the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking that the SIP must include an acceptable method for determining potential emissions from storage piles.

State Response: The State discussed the use of emission factors in determining potential emissions. The State indicated that Illinois Air Pollution Regulation 108 permits the use of standard emission factors as a method of calculating emission rates. The State adds that these emission factors have been used since 1972 to determine the applicability of regulations and the compliance status of sources. The State has committed itself to utilize emission factors and to promulgate administrative rules interpreting Rule 108 as it applies to fugitive particulate emissions. The State made a commitment to promulgate these rules by July 1, 1980.

Public Comments: One commentator urged that emission factors be used to determine compliance with emission limitations for storage piles and noted that the method for determining compliance should not be incorporated in the rule since the methods for determining compliance are being continually updated. Another commentator claims that the determination of an acceptable method of determining potential emissions from storage piles is "one of those myriad details which must be left to the reasoned judgment of the State and emission source owners and operators". This commentator believes that such a determination is beyond USEPA's jurisdiction under section 110(a)(2) of the Act.

USEPA Response: USEPA believes that the State's clarification that emission factors will be used to determine potential emissions from storage piles and the State's commitment to promulgate administrative rules interpreting Rule 108 as it applies to fugitive particulate emissions satisfactorily address USEPA's concern. USEPA recognizes that emission factors are the only practical method for determining potential emissions from storage piles. Therefore, USEPA approves the use of this method on the condition that the State promulgate and submit to USEPA administrative rules interpreting Rule 108 as it applies to fugitive particulate emissions by July 1, 1980. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule appears elsewhere in today's Federal Register.

In response to the commentator claiming that the determination of an acceptable method for measuring potential emissions is beyond USEPA's jurisdiction, USEPA agrees that it is the State's right to choose a method. Because the State had not identified such a method in the SIP submittal, USEPA's concern was with the enforceability of the rule. This is a legitimate USEPA concern pursuant to section 110(a)(2) of the Act. USEPA addresses the issue of enforceability elsewhere in this notice.

5. According to USEPA, the technology specified in Rule 203(f)(3) did not include enclosures and particulate collection equipment as control options. USEPA asked that the State submit additional information demonstrating that these control measures were considered in determining RACT for all sources. In addition, USEPA asked that data be submitted quantifying the emission reductions to be obtained through these provisions.

State Response: The State responded to this issue stating that enclosure and particulate collection equipment were considered in determining RACT for all sources and indicating the part of the SIP submittal addressing these control options. According to the State, enclosure and particulate collection equipment can be used as "equivalent methods" under Rule 203.

Public Comments: Two industries submitted comments indicating that the Illinois Pollution Control Board considered enclosure and particulate collection equipment as controls and determined that these methods were more stringent than RACT. One commentator stated that the rule does not preclude the use of these controls as "equivalent methods." The other commentator stated that USEPA is neither legally competent to dictate its own notions of RACT nor is it entitled to demand that the States provide evidence that particular control technologies were considered in formulating the SIPs.

USEPA Response: USEPA believes that the State has satisfactorily responded to USEPA's concern by demonstrating that these control methods were considered in determining RACT and that they are available to sources as "equivalent methods". USEPA strongly disagrees with the commentator objecting to USEPA's involvement with RACT determinations. Under the Clean Air Act, the primary responsibility for determining RACT falls to the local and State agencies as part of the development of the SIP. Section 172(b)(2) of the Act, however, requires that plans for nonattainment areas provide for the implementation of all reasonably available control measures as expeditiously as practicable. In reviewing a SIP revision to determine its adequacy, USEPA may review the provisions in the State plan to determine if they represent RACT.

6. Rule 203(f) does not contain a method for determining compliance of most processing operations with the operating programs required by the regulation.

State Response: The State did not respond to this issue.

Public Comments: Two steel sources commented on this issue. One commentator cites several portions of Rule 203(f) which it believes provide methods for determining compliance. The commentator cites Rule 203(f)(1) which contains a method for an observer to visually determine if fugitive emissions are crossing property lines; Rule 203(f)(3) which requires treatment programs for specified sources; and Rule 203(f)(4) which establishes specific emission limitations on collection equipment operated pursuant to Rule 203(f)(3). This commentator notes further that testimony before the Illinois Pollution Control Board demonstrated that there is no general correlation between mass emission rate and opacity so that the use of opacity as a measuring device is totally inaccurate. The other commentator states that the IPCB considered and rejected opacity limitations after determining that they were technically infeasible. In order to insure enforcement of the regulations, the commentator states the Board promulgated the operating program requirement. The commentator adds that USEPA's conclusion that fugitive particulate regulations lacking opacity limitations are not enforceable simply defies logic and is illegal.

USEPA Response: USEPA agrees with the commentators that the specific treatment requirements of Rule 203(f)(3) are enforceable. As discussed above, however, any source utilizing an equivalent method must submit that method to USEPA as a SIP revision in order to comply with the federally approved SIP. Therefore, USEPA has reconsidered this issue and believes that the Illinois SIP does contain a method for determining compliance for process operations.

USEPA is responding, however, to other comments made by the two steel sources. USEPA does not believe that Rule 203(f)(1) is an effective method of determining compliance with the specific provisions of operating programs because it is not possible to relate specific control measures for one or more sources at a plant with visual observations of dust crossing a property line. USEPA disagrees with the comment suggesting that USEPA "concluded" that fugitive particulate regulations lacking opacity limitations are not enforceable. USEPA reached no such conclusion. In the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, USEPA stated that the rule must contain either acceptable visible emission requirements or an acceptable substitute for measuring compliance.

7. Rule 203 must contain provisions to control particulate matter generated inside enclosed structures and emitted to the ambient air.

State Response: The State did not respond to this issue.

Public Comments: One industry indicated that specific regulations on processes taking place inside buildings are unnecessary and redundant because Rule 203(f)(1) is adequate to control all fugitive emissions crossing property lines. Another commentator argues that this issue is clearly outside the jurisdiction of USEPA pursuant to section 110(a)(2) of the Act.

USEPA Response: Although the State did not respond specifically to this issue, USEPA believes that the State's use of emission factors pursuant to Rule 108 provides a satisfactory method for determining emissions from enclosed structures. The use of emission factors is discussed above under item 4. In addition, USEPA believes that the opacity limitations in federally approved Illinois Rule 202 can be used to restrict emissions from these sources. Finally, iron and steel sources constitute the most significant sources of emissions from buildings. As discussed above, USEPA will address the proposed rule covering these sources in a future Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

In response to the public commentators, USEPA notes that USEPA does not consider Rule 203(f)(1) containing the property line limit provision an effective regulation. USEPA discusses this provision in depth under item 6. USEPA cannot respond fully to the statements by the other commentator since the commentator does not explain why this issue is "clearly outside" USEPA's jurisdiction. USEPA believes that all emissions into the ambient air are within its statutory purview.

USEPA Final Determination: Based on the corrections and clarifications made by the State and on the commitments to make additional corrections, USEPA conditionally approves Rule 203(f) as part of the federally approved SIP. USEPA takes no action on two changes made in the rule between USEPA's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and this final rulemaking action. As discussed above, USEPA believes that approval or disapproval of these changes will not alter the outcome of this rulemaking. Public comment on the changes will be solicited in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be issued shortly.

Maintenance-Malfunction

In its July 2, 1979 notice, USEPA proposed to approve revisions to Rules 101, 103, and 105 relating to malfunctions. The State, however, has not yet finalized these rules. Therefore, USEPA cannot take action to approve or disapprove these regulations at this time. Final Rulemaking will occur upon certification by the State that the rules are adopted and effective in Illinois. Although USEPA expects the State to finalize and submit those regulations as part of its particulate control strategy, failure to do so does not prevent approval of the Part D particulate SIP.

Sulfur Dioxide

In the July 2, 1979 notice, USEPA proposed to approve the Illinois Part D sulfur dioxide SIP upon the condition that the State of Illinois corrected deficiencies in the air quality modeling analysis for an area near Pekin, Illinois. In a letter dated January 18, 1980, the Illinois EPA made a commitment to remodel the Pekin area and, if necessary, propose additional regulations to the Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB) by September 1980 to ensure attainment and maintenance of the NAAQS. Therefore, USEPA conditionally approves the Illinois Part D sulfur dioxide SIP. USEPA believes that the State's commitment to submit any necessary regulations to the IPCB is adequate. USEPA recognizes that the State cannot legally prejudice the outcome of statutorily mandated regulatory proceedings. Nonetheless, in order to guarantee that the deficiencies are adequately addressed and that the plan is adequate to satisfy the requirements of the Act, USEPA imposes the additional condition that any necessary regulations be finally promulgated by the State and submitted to USEPA by September 30, 1981.

In establishing the date by which necessary regulations must be promulgated, USEPA has taken into consideration the complex IPCB rulemaking procedures which require technical as well as economic hearings and findings on all rulemaking actions. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule will appear in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

Ozone

An adequate State Implementation Plan for ozone requires sufficient controls on the emission of volatile organic compounds (VOC) from stationary and mobile sources to provide for the attainment of the standards by December 31, 1982. In cases where attainment by 1982 cannot be demonstrated despite the application of all reasonably available control measures, extensions of the attainment date may be granted through December 31, 1987. Pursuant to section 172(b)(11) of the Act, a SIP which provides for attainment of the ozone standard after December 31, 1982 must contain a specific schedule for the implementation of a vehicle emission control inspection and maintenance program (I/M) and establish a program which requires an analysis of alternatives prior to the issuance of any permit for construction or modification of a major emitting facility. As discussed below, USEPA has determined that the Illinois' controls on stationary sources of VOC and specified transportation control plans are conditionally approvable. USEPA has also determined that the vehicle inspection and maintenance program and specified transportation control plans are approvable. Illinois has satisfied the requirement for a program requiring analysis of alternatives in a provision of its new source review rules.

Hydrocarbons From Stationary Sources

Section 172(b)(2) of the Clean Air Act requires the application of reasonably available control technology to stationary sources of VOC in nonattainment areas. USEPA has developed Control Techniques Guidelines (CTGs) which provide information on available air pollution control techniques, and contain recommendations of what USEPA calls the "presumptive norm" for RACT.

Where state regulations are not supported by the information in the CTGs, the state must provide an adequate demonstration that its regulations represent RACT, or amend the regulations to be consistent with the information in the CTGs. An explanation of CTGs and their practical effect is contained in a September 17, 1979 supplement (44 FR 53761) to the General Preamble.

As noted in the General Preamble for Proposed Rulemaking on Approval of Plan Revisions for Nonattainment Areas, (44 FR 20376) April 4, 1979, the minimum acceptable level of stationary source control for ozone SIPs includes RACT requirements for VOC sources covered by CTGs the USEPA issued by January 1978 and schedules to adopt and submit by each future January additional RACT requirements for sources covered by CTGs issued by the previous January. The Illinois submittal includes a commitment from the State to adopt and additional rules representing RACT on stationary sources of VOC for which USEPA issues CTGs. The Administrator approves this commitment by the State as part of the federally approved Illinois State Implementation Plan.

The submittal date for the first set of additional RACT regulations was revised from January 1, 1980 to July 1, 1980 by Federal Register notice of August 28, 1979 (44 FR 50371). Today's conditional approval of the ozone portion of the Illinois' plan is contingent on the submittal of the additional RACT regulations which are due by July 1, 1980 for CTGs published between January 1978 and January 1979.

In addition, by each subsequent January beginning January 1, 1981, RACT requirements must be adopted and submitted to USEPA. The above requirements are set forth in the "Approval Status" section of the final rule. If RACT requirements are not adopted and submitted to USEPA according to the time frame set forth in the rule, USEPA will promptly take appropriate remedial action.

The Illinois SIP includes a provision which exempts methylene chloride from controls. This volatile organic compound, while not appreciably affecting ambient ozone levels, is potentially harmful. Methylene chloride has been identified as mutagenic in bacterial and mammalian cell test systems, a circumstance which raises the possibility of human mutagenicity and/or carcinogenicity. USEPA is concerned that the State has chosen this course of action without full consideration of the total environmental and health implications. USEPA will not disapprove the State's SIP submittal if the State chooses to maintain this exemption. USEPA is, however, concerned that this policy not be interpreted as encouraging the increased use of this compound or compliance by substitution. USEPA does not endorse such approaches. Furthermore, State officials and sources should be advised that there is a strong possibility of future regulatory action to control these compounds. Sources which choose to comply by substitution may well be required to install control systems as a consequence of these future regulatory actions.

Statewide stationary source control representing RACT for fifteen source categories are contained in Rule 205 of the Illinois Air Pollution Regulations. In the July 2, 1979 notice of proposed rulemaking, USEPA noted five areas of the rule which in USEPA's judgment were deficient. If the State made a commitment to correct the deficiencies on a schedule to be negotiated between the State and the USEPA Regional Office, USEPA proposed conditional approval of the rule. The following discussion identifies the deficiencies, summarizes the State's response and any public comments, and contains USEPA's response and final determination.

1. Rule 205(k) exempts from controls solvent cleaners which emit less than 15 lbs. per day or 3 lbs. per hour of volatile organic compounds. This broad exemption is neither technically supported in the CTGs nor technically supported by the State as representing RACT.

State Response: The State of Illinois has made a commitment to complete a study which demonstrates that this exemption represents RACT for existing sources in the solvent metal cleaning category, to submit the results of this study to USEPA, and, if necessary, to prepare draft regulations which represent RACT for submittal to the Illinois Pollution Control Board. The State has made a commitment to fulfill these conditions within nine months of the effective date of this rulemaking.

USEPA Response and Final

Determination: Based on this commitment and schedule, USEPA conditionally approves the exemption from controls for solvent cleaners which emit less than 15 lbs. per day or 3 lbs. per hour of volatile organic compounds in Rule 205(k).

USEPA believes that the State's commitment and schedule to submit any necessary regulations to the IPCB is adequate. USEPA recognizes that the State cannot legally prejudice the outcome of statutorily mandated regulatory proceedings. Nonetheless, in order to guarantee that the deficiencies are adequately addressed and that the plan is adequate to satisfy the requirements of the Act, USEPA imposes the additional condition that any necessary regulations be finally promulgated by the State and submitted to USEPA by November 30, 1981.

In establishing the date by which any necessary regulations must be promulgated, USEPA has taken into consideration the complex IPCB rulemaking procedures which require technical as well as economic hearings and findings on all rulemaking actions. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule will appear in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

2. Rule 205(n) contains an alternative compliance option for owners and operators of surface coating lines. The alternative compliance option exempts sources from the requirements for high solid coating materials if VOC emissions are controlled by an afterburner system providing capture and destruction of the nonmethane volatile organic materials. The State's proposal differs from the 90% capture of emissions or 81% overall control efficiency which represents the presumptive norm for add-on control equipment as technically supported in the CTGs. The State did not submit technical support for its choice of a lower level of control as representing RACT.

State Response: The State of Illinois has made a commitment to complete a study which demonstrates that level of control in its regulation represents RACT for existing sources of VOC, to submit the results of the study to USEPA, and if necessary, to submit regulations representing RACT to the Illinois Pollution Control Board. The State has made a commitment to fulfill these conditions within nine months of the effective date of this final rulemaking.

Public Comments: A commentator, a national trade association of can manufacturers, questioned the availability of 90% capture systems with respect to can manufacturing sources.

USEPA Response and Final

Determination: While the CTG recommends that 90% capture systems are RACT as a general matter, the CTG does not address unique circumstances which can be taken into account in determining RACT on a case by case basis. Therefore, the State is free to determine RACT on an individual source basis.

Based on the States commitment to conduct a study, to submit the results of the study to USEPA, and, if necessary, to propose regulations representing RACT to the Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB) USEPA conditionally approves this provision. The State has committed to fulfill these conditions within nine months of the effective date of USEPA's final rulemaking.

USEPA believes that the State's commitment to submit any necessary regulations to the IPCB is adequate. USEPA recognizes that the State cannot legally prejudice the outcome of statutorily mandated regulatory proceedings. Nonetheless, in order to guarantee that the deficiencies are adequately addressed and that the plan is adequate to satisfy the requirements of the Act, USEPA imposes the additional condition that any necessary regulations be finally promulgated by the State and submitted to USEPA by November 30, 1981.

In establishing the date by which any necessary regulations must be promulgated, USEPA has taken into consideration the complex IPCB rulemaking procedures which require technical as well as economic hearings and findings on all rulemaking actions. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule will appear in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

3. Rule 205(n)(4)(A) permits the use of daily weighted averages for all lines at all categories of coating plants. USEPA indicated in the notice of proposed rulemaking that the provision was generally acceptable but requested the State to provide the following information: (1) A rationale for its allowance of internal offsets in all categories of coating plants; (2) The methodology by which the internal offset provision will be enforced; (3) A clarification of the methodology in Rule 205(i) for determining control efficiency; and (4) A clarification that the rule does not allow non-RACT sources to provide offsets.

State Response: (1) The State noted that both USEPA and numerous witnesses at State hearings encouraged the State to utilize the "bubble concept". Further, the State believes that failure to extend the internal offset approach to all categories would be arbitrary and capricious when USEPA has specifically approved the use of daily weighted averaging for two categories, automobile and can coating with similar needs and problems. (2) The State commented extensively on the mechanism for enforcing Rule 205(n)(4)(A). According to the State, Rule 205(n)(4)(C) provides that the bubble can be used only if the operator of a source maintains adequate records. If such records are not maintained, then Rule 205(n)(1) applies and the source must meet the emission limitations for all coatings. Failure to meet the emission limitations for all coatings would be a violation of Rule 205(n)(1). (3) In response to USEPA's inquiry about the specific test methodology for determining control efficiency, the State cited the requirement in Rule 205(i). This provision requires that a flame ionization detector or other approved method be used. (4) The State submitted an August 23, 1979 opinion of the Illinois Pollution Control Board clarifying that emission limits for non-RACT sources may not be used to compute compliance with the internal offset provision.

USEPA Response and Final

Determination: USEPA approves the portions of Rule 205 which permit the use of daily weighted averaging at all coating plants because the State has satisfactorily addressed USEPA's concerns.

The following provides further clarification on the methodology by which the internal offset provision (Rule 205(n) alternative compliance) is to be implemented. This "bubble" rule is approvable only if the State follows the provisions set forth in EPA bubble policy, that is, each alternative compliance scheme involving control equipment (bubble) must be submitted to EPA as a SIP revision. Therefore, in those bubble situations where the emissions to be used in a bubble calculation are dependent on the capture and control efficiency of a control system, the emissions must be determined through appropriate testing procedures and the resulting overall control efficiency for each specific piece of add-on control equipment employed must be established. Establishing this limit as part of the SIP will simplify procedures required to determine compliance. Additionally, critical parameters of the control system must be monitored during testing for establishment of the emission rate and continuous monitoring of these parameters must be employed to allow for the assessment of continued performance at the established rate.

EPA would so like to address the adequacy of the method for determining control efficiency given in rule 205(i). While the flame ionization detector prescribed by rule 205(i) is a suitable technique, the State should be aware that EPA has recently recommended/proposed other techniques which would be superior: In October, 1978 OAQPS published OAQPS No. 1.2-115, Measurement of Volatile Organic Compounds which describes an oxidation-reduction method. This method is also part of the proposed NSPS (October 5, 1979) for automobile and light-duty truck surface coating operations.

4. Rule 205(q) allows seasonal exemptions from the use of afterburners and cutback asphalt. In its initial submittal, the State did not provide technical support demonstrating that the standards would be protected with these exemptions.

State Response: The State submitted technical justification for the exemptions using air monitoring data to derive design values for use in the EKMA computer dispersion model. Existing city-specific isopleths from Chicago and St. Louis demonstrate that control requirements will be within reasonable further progress limits for reductions by 1982. Therefore, the State contends it does not need to regulate afterburner and cutback asphalt operations during the months of October through April to show attainment as expeditiously as practicable.

Public Comment: One commentator, a trade association for can manufacturers, submitted a July 26, 1979 memorandum from Robert B. Faoro, USEPA Data Analysis Section, on the subject of ozone air quality standard violations and seasonal afterburner shutdown. The commentator states that this memorandum clearly supports seasonal afterburner shutdown provisions for a period from November 1st through March 31st.

USEPA Response and Final Determination: Based on the State's technical demonstration and on the policy memorandum from Robert B. Faoro, USEPA approves the seasonal exemptions from the use of afterburners and cutback asphalt contained in Rule 205(q).

5. Rule 205(b)(1) of the 1972 federally approved Illinois State Implementation Plan required vapor collection systems on the loading racks of bulk gasoline terminals with a throughput of more than 40,000 gallons per day. Rule 205(j) of the 1972 federally approved Illinois SIP required compliance with this provision by December 31, 1973. (In the July 2, 1979 Federal Register notice, USEPA erroneously cited April, 1975 as the final compliance date for this provision.) The current Illinois SIP submittal contains a new Rule 205. New Rule 205(j) requires vapor collection systems on the loading racks of bulk gasoline terminals without regard to throughput. The new rule specifies that final compliance for all affected facilities must be achieved by July 1, 1981. USEPA will not approve the extension of final compliance dates when the substantive requirements of a new rule are the same or less stringent than the requirements of an existing federally approved rule. Therefore, USEPA published a list of sources which it believed were required to be in compliance with old Rule 205(b)(1) by December 31, 1973 and would not be allowed additional compliance time.

State Response: Citing "Train v. NRDC" (95 S.Ct. 1470, 421 U.S. 59 (1975)), Illinois contends that USEPA does not have the legal authority to disapprove the compliance schedule in Rule 205(j) which extends the compliance dates included in the original SIP. The State claims that although a December 1973 amendment to Rule 205(b)(1) was never submitted to USEPA, USEPA should have been aware of the change in this rule. Consequently, the State believes that it is unfair and inequitable for USEPA to notify the State now that the amended rule is deficient. Finally, the State suggests that if USEPA disapproves the rule, it will leave those bulk gasoline terminals against which enforcement action is being taken with no final compliance date.

USEPA Response: The federally effective bulk gasoline terminal loading rack rule in Illinois is Rule 205(b) which was approved by USEPA in 1972. The date for final compliance under the provisions of the approved regulation was December 31, 1973. On December 20, 1973, the Illinois Pollution Control Board revised Rule 205(b). The Illinois EPA did not submit the revised rule to USEPA for inclusion in the federally approved Illinois SIP. Pursuant to section 110 of the Clean Air Act, the State must submit plans or revisions to USEPA. Until the State submits a revision to USEPA, the legally enforceable SIP is the federally approved SIP. Therefore, the prior approved rule is the effective rule. The State of Illinois, in its revision, merely requires what the original rule required, namely vapor recovery and disposal systems. In addition, the new rule extends the date for final compliance to July 1, 1981.

All terminals which qualify for regulation under the terms of federally approved Rule 205(b)(1) are subject to the requirements until a revision of the rule is approved by USEPA. Extension of the date for final compliance to July 1, 1981 is not authorized under the Clean Air Act. The Clean Air Act specifies that sources whose final compliance date is passed, which are not in compliance by July 1, 1979 are subject to provisions of section 120 (non-compliance penalties). To allow sources to extend the date for final compliance to July 1, 1981 would negate the impact of section 120 and the intent of Congress.

Consequently, USEPA does not agree with the State's comment that disapproval of the compliance schedule in Rule 205(j) will leave those bulk gasoline terminals against which enforcement action is being taken with no final compliance date. For federal enforcement, sources previously covered by Rule 205(b), as federally approved in 1972, were to be in compliance by December 31, 1973. Sources which were not previously covered by Rule 205(b) but are newly covered under Rule 205(j) must be in compliance by July 1, 1981.

Public Comments and USEPA Response

1. Two commentators opposed USEPA's proposed disapproval of the compliance schedule in Rule 205(j) as it applies to loading rack controls on bulk gasoline terminals previously controlled in the 1972 federally approved SIP. One commentator summarized the history of Rule 205 and noted that on December 20, 1973 the State modified Rule 205(b)(1) authorizing compliance with the rule by means of submerged loading pipes or other equally effective devices. The commentator contends that although USEPA was aware of these actions, it did not advise the State of its disagreement with the rule until six years later. For this reason and since new Rule 205(o)(2) will require vapor control equipment rather than submerged fill, the commentator opposes USEPA's proposed disapproval.

Pursuant to section 110 of the Clean Air Act, the State must submit plans or revisions to USEPA. Until the State submits a revision to USEPA, the legally enforceable SIP is the federally approved SIP.

The other commentator notes that a lawsuit pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Illinois raises the issue of whether the Illinois proposal "extends the final compliance date of Rule 205" and suggests that USEPA disapproval of this portion of the Illinois SIP is inappropriate during the pendency of the litigation.

Pursuant to section 110 of the Clean Air Act, USEPA is mandated to either approve or disapprove state submitted SIPs and revisions to SIPs within specified timeframes. This mandate is without regard to lawsuits or to other contingencies. Consequently, USEPA cannot withhold rulemaking until the court makes a decision in this case. Using the pendency of litigation as a basis for not acting on revisions to a SIP would potentially promote frivolous litigation to delay SIP action and jeopardize the attainment and maintenance of standards. Once the court has rendered a decision in any such case, appropriate steps can be taken regarding the SIP.

2. Numerous corporations submitted comments identifying errors in the list USEPA published of bulk gasoline terminals. Recognizing that errors were made in the list and the likelihood that any list of specific sources will be inaccurate, USEPA retracts the list published in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register. USEPA substitutes the general language below in its final determination to identify sources which will not be permitted additional compliance time.

USEPA Final Determination

On the basis of the above discussion, USEPA disapproves the compliance schedule in Rule 205(j) as it applies to loading rack controls for all emission sources subject to Rule 205(b)(1), as approved by USEPA on May 31, 1972, which were required to be in compliance by December 31, 1973.

General Public Comments:

Several commentators raised both general and regulation specific questions about the ozone portion of the Illinois submittal. One commentator, a national trade association of can manufacturers, enclosed comments filed with the Illinois Pollution Control Board and the Illinois EPA during the State's rulemaking and asked that these comments be considered in USEPA's final rulemaking. In these comments, the trade association asked that because of technological infeasibility an interim emission limitation be provided for end seam compounds and that the final compliance date for this category be extended. USEPA believes that the commentator raised this issue to the appropriate forum when it submitted its comments to the State of Illinois. The states are free to choose the mix of controls, including emission limitations necessary to attain and maintain the standards. "Train v. NRDC," 421 U.S. 60, 95 S.Ct. 1470 (1975). In doing so, States may consider technological and economic feasibility. Once the State chooses its mix of controls, however, USEPA cannot disapprove that mix for reasons of economic and technological feasibility. "Union Electric v. EPA," 96 S.Ct. 2518 (1976). Therefore, USEPA has no basis for disapproving the emission limitations and compliance schedule in the Illinois SIP for end seal compounds.

The State of New Jersey asked that the Illinois SIP submittal be disapproved because it does not contain appropriate strategies to attain the ozone standard in Illinois or to reduce its contribution to nonattainment elsewhere. The commentator notes that the proposed Illinois SIP does not require statewide RACT for existing sources, and lowest achievable emission rate (LAER) and offsets for new sources. USEPA believes that the Illinois SIP submittal does contain appropriate strategies to demonstrate attainment. In addition, the Illinois SIP requires RACT statewide on existing VOC sources as well as LAER and emission offsets for new sources. Therefore, USEPA cannot disapprove the ozone portion of the Illinois SIP on this basis.

In addition, New Jersey argues as it did in objecting to the Administrator's ozone nonattainment area designations, that entire States should be designated nonattainment, thereby requiring Part D SIP revisions statewide. The Administrator considered all of New Jersey's objections to the designations and responded in the document entitled "Technical Support Document for Agency Policy Concerning Designation of Attainment, Unclassifiable, and Nonattainment Areas for Ozone," January 1979. Availability of this document was announced in the February 1, 1979 Federal Register (44 FR 6395). This document and the Administrator's response to New Jersey's comments are incorporated herein by reference.

The Bi-State Metropolitan Planning Commission asked that Illinois reconsider its requirement for RACT statewide because of possible impacts on growth in the Quad Cities Area which encompasses Illinois and Iowa. Iowa does not require RACT statewide.

Section 172 of the Act requires RACT only on existing sources in nonattainment areas. Section 116 of the Act, however, authorizes the state to adopt or enforce more stringent measures than the federal requirements. Therefore, the State's decision to apply RACT statewide is not a basis for USEPA disapproval. Further, USEPA believes that any economic disruption caused by this requirement will be minimal because RACT applies only to existing sources. All new major sources or major source modifications in both Iowa and Illinois will be subject to LAER, BACT or new source performance standards.

Final Determination: USEPA conditionally approves, with one exception, the ozone portion of the Illinois submittal subject to State correction of the deficiencies identified above in Rule 205 and the correction of the deficiencies identified below in the discussion of transportation control plans. These deficiencies must be corrected according to the schedules committed to by the State in the SIP. Public comment on these schedules will be solicited in a notice of proposed rulemaking to be published shortly. USEPA takes no action on a change made in rule 205(k) between USEPA's Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and this final rulemaking action. As discussed above, USEPA believes that approval or disapproval of the changed provision will not alter the outcome of this rulemaking. Public comment on the change in Rule 205(k) will be solicited in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

Transportation Control Plans

USEPA proposed rulemaking on seven transportation control plans (TCPs) for Illinois in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register (44 FR 38587). Several comments were received which were directed to specific transportation control plans. These comments will be discussed below under the discussion on each area specific plan. One commentator, the Illinois Attorney General's Office, submitted general comments on the transportation control plans submitted by the State as part of the SIP revision. The commentator questioned the expeditiousness of the adoption of Transportation Control Measures (TCMs) for major urban areas in Illinois, the adequacy of the proposed schedules for evaluating TCMs, the failure to consider TCMs which reduce emissions less than ten tons per year, and the lack of identification and involvement of significant public interest groups regarding the development of TCMs. USEPA's response follows seriatim:

Transportation control measures as outlined in section 108 of the Act are considered reasonably available control measures under section 172(b)(2). Pursuant to section 172(a)(2), areas requiring an extension must demonstrate that attainment is not possible in the area by 1982 despite the implementation of all reasonably available measures.

As discussed in the April 4, 1978 General Preamble (44 FR 20372), all necessary measures must ordinarily be adopted in legally enforceable form. For certain classes of measures, however, USEPA interprets the Act to allow approval of State Implementation Plans containing schedules for expeditious development, adoption, submittal, and implementation of the measures. Schedules may be used for transportation control measures. According to the June 1978 USEPA-United States Department of Transportation (USDOT) "Transportation Air Quality Planning Guidelines", the states have until July 1980 to complete an analysis of the measures contained in section 108 of the Act. Upon completion of the analyses, lead local agencies are responsible for making recommendations to local elected officials for implementation of selected measures. Pursuant to section 172(c) of the Clean Air Act, whenever a SIP requires an attainment date extension beyond December 31, 1982 enforceable measures to assure attainment of the standard must be included in the SIP prior to July 1, 1982. Consequently, USEPA believes that the St. Louis Metropolitan Area and Northeast Illinois (Chicago) Area transportation control plans provide for the adoption of TCMs as expeditiously as required by the Act. Although the transportation control plans for Peoria, the Quad Cities, and Springfield contain commitments to review a select number of TCMs, attainment is demonstrated by December 31, 1982 without the measures. Since the areas using TCMs to create a margin for growth are not required by section 172 of the Act to review or adopt any measures, section 172(c) does not mandate a schedule for adoption.

In response to the commentator's statement that the Illinois SIP does not provide an evaluation of applicable TCMs or a detailed schedule for completion of the evaluation, USEPA references the statutory requirements and policy decisions outlined above. According to the USEPA-USDOT "Transportation-Air Quality Planning Guidelines", TCMs must be evaluated by July, 1980. The Illinois SIP submittal lists the TCMs which will be reviewed by the respective lead local agencies. Additionally, each lead local agency has included in the submittal or has made a commitment to include in the SIP a schedule with interim dates for completing the evaluation. Because TCM implementation is a critical element in the annual demonstrations of meeting the reasonable further progress line, USEPA expects the implementation of TCMs or a commitment to the implementation of TCMs by December 31, 1982.

In response to the commentator's criticism that little has been done to identify or contact significant public interest groups regarding TCM development, USEPA believes that the Illinois SIP submittal demonstrates that these groups and the public have been involved and will continue to be involved in the development, adoption, and implementation of transportation control plans.

Finally, the commentator claims that under the Illinois SIP, TCMs which reduce emissions less than 10 tons per year or less than 0.2 percent of total mobile source emissions are considered unreasonable from an air quality standpoint and are not considered. This is incorrect. In their evaluations of section 108 measures, Chicago planning and transportation agencies will examine the feasibility of implementing TCMs which reduce emissions less than 10 tons per year. These measures include bus, carpool, and bicycle lanes and storage facilities. Regardless, as determined in "Train v. NRDC" (421 U.S. 60, 95 S.Ct. 1470 (1975)), a state may determine the mix of strategies it will employ so long as the end result is attainment.

No other comments were received on three of the transportation control plans and no deficiencies were identified for these plans in the notice of proposed rulemaking. Consequently, USEPA approves, as part of the federally approved SIP, the transportation control plans for the Decatur, Champaign-Urbana, Bloomington-Normal areas, the Rockford area, and the Rock Island-Quad Cities area. As discussed below, USEPA also approves the transportation control plan for the Springfield Metropolitan Area since the State has corrected the one deficiency identified by USEPA. USEPA conditionally approves the transportation control plans for Peoria, Northeastern Illinois and the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area.

Springfield Metropolitan Area

In its July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, USEPA noted that the Springfield area plan should include procedures for its annual determination of consistency and conformance with the State Implementation Plan. The State has submitted additional information indicating that these determinations will be made using the USEPA/Federal Highway Administration/Urban Mass Transportation Administration Region V Standard Operating Procedures of November 1978. USEPA believes that the State has satisfactorily addressed the cited deficiency.

Therefore, USEPA approves the transportation control plan for the Springfield area.

Peoria Metropolitan Area

Although the State has demonstrated that the Peoria Metropolitan Area will attain the ozone standard by December 31, 1982, the lead local agency has developed a transportation control plan in order to obtain additional emission reduction credits and to accommodate new growth. USEPA identified six areas of the Peoria transportation control plan which in USEPA's judgment did not satisfy the requirements of the Act in the July 2, 1979 Federal Register. The State has made a commitment to resolve the six deficiencies as described below within six months of the effective date of this final rulemaking.

A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule appears elsewhere in today's Federal Register. USEPA approves the transportation plan for the Peoria Metropolitan area on the condition that the State satisfy the requirements outlined below within the specified time frame.

1. USEPA requested a more detailed description of the transportation planning process. The State will provide additional documentation to show how a sample project would proceed from the project selection phase to actual implementation stage including an indication of the timing involved in each step as well as an identification of the involved decision-maker.

2. The Tri-County Regional Planning Commission (Tri-County) was asked to provide a description of procedures which will be used to annually determine the consistency and conformity of the transportation control plan with the SIP. These procedures will be jointly developed by Tri-County, USEPA, and IEPA.

3. USEPA requested details indicating how the emissions impact of implemented transportation projects will be annually assessed and reported. A system for assessing these impacts will be developed.

4. USEPA requested an assessment of the social, economic, health, energy, air quality and welfare impacts of transportation control measures. These impacts will be addressed by Tri-County in its study of each transportation control measure scheduled for detailed evaluation.

5. USEPA requested an identification of all potential CO hotspots in the Peoria Metropolitan Area. Tri-County and IEPA have committed themselves to develop an inventory of all potential CO hotspots. In addition, Tri-County and IEPA have committed to submit a strategy for the elimination of the identified CO hotspots.

6. USEPA requested that the State identify a mechanism for informing elected officials and implementors of progress towards meeting emission reduction goals and projects needed to meet these goals. Tri-County will prepare these and submit systems which will satisfy USEPA's requests.

Northeast Illinois (Chicago) Area

The six county northeast Illinois area is designated as nonattainment for ozone. Portions of this area are also designated as nonattainment for carbon monoxide. The Illinois submittal contains a request for an extension of the statutory deadline to attain the ozone and carbon monoxide standards until December 31, 1987. USEPA believes that the State has demonstrated that attainment is not possible in the northeast Illinois area by December 31, 1982 despite the implementation of all reasonably available measures. Therefore, USEPA approves an extension until December 31, 1987 of the statutory attainment deadline for ozone and carbon monoxide.

USEPA identified thirteen deficiencies in the Northeastern Illinois transportation control plan in the July 2, 1979 proposed rulemaking. As described below, the State has resolved a number of these deficiencies to USEPA's satisfaction, and has made a commitment to resolve the remaining deficiencies within six months of the effective date of this final rulemaking.

A Notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule appears elsewhere in today's Federal Register. USEPA approves the transportation control plan for Northeastern Illinois on the condition that the State satisfies the requirements outlined below. For all requirements except the requirements of implementor commitments and the formal adoption of representative transportation measures, the State must satisfy the conditions within six months of the effective date of this regulation.

1. USEPA requested a schedule identifying when transportation study areas will be defined. The State has made a commitment to complete this process within six months of the effective date of this final rulemaking.

2. USEPA requested additional information on the objectives of the Chicago Area Transportation Study (CATS) Air Quality Advisory Committee. The State will submit to USEPA the resolution creating this committee and identifying the objectives of the Committee.

3. USEPA required an identification of representative air quality measures from adopted Transportation Improvement Programs (TIPs) and Transportation System Management (TSM) programs.

In a letter dated January 25, 1980, the State submitted a list of twelve transportation measures which are representative of the section 108 reasonably available transportation control measures.

A listing of the twelve representative measures, the project implementors, and the associated emission reductions is contained in the table below. These measures are included as part of the Chicago Metropolitan Area's TIP/TSM Program. While these representative measures have been submitted to USEPA as part of the SIP, the measures have not been formally adopted by the Chicago Area Transportation Study (CATS) Policy Committee as SIP air quality strategies. The State has made a commitment to seek adoption of these strategies at the March, 1980 meeting of the CATS Policy Committee and has further committed to submit evidence of their adoption to USEPA by April 30, 1980. In addition, USEPA required a demonstration that the analysis of transportation control measures outlined in section 108 of the Act is integrated into the ongoing planning and programming cycle. USEPA now believes that this requirement was substantially satisfied in the original submittal. The Chicago Area Transportation Study will, however, review the transportation plan, make changes to document how air quality planning is conducted in the transportation sector, and delineate the timing of significant decision points.

Project name	Project implementor	Location/description	Funding source	1982 HC reductions (tons)	1982 CO reductions (tons)
1. Projects that reduce UMT:
A. State Street Mall	City of Chicago	Chicago CBD—State from Wacker to Congress	UMTA (43.3%), FHWA (32.2%), Local (24.5%)	31.36	(¹)
B. Bicycle Racks at Commuter Railroad Stations	IDOT	Placed at nine stations providing space for 457 bicycles.	IDOT	1.99	22.45
C. Park-and-Ride Lot at Midway Airport	City of Chicago	Portion of existing Midway Airport facility	City of Chicago	5.01	52.45
2. Projects that improve traffic flow:
A. Lincoln Square Mall	City of Chicago	Lincoln from Leland to Ainslie and intersection improvements at affected locations.	Economic Development Administration (90%), Local (10%)	(²)	(²)
B. LaSalle Drive	City of Chicago	Widen and improve intersections Stockton-Clark	FAU (75%), Local (25%)	5.0	100.0
C. Stoney Island Avenue	City of Chicago	Flow improvement—widen and improve from 65th to 69th.	FAU (75%), Local (25%)	10.94	(¹)
3. Projects that increase vehicle occupancy:
A. Oakbrook Ridesharing Program	RTA	Village of Oakbrook—encourage through 16 firms	RTA (100%)	13.66	160.81
B. Proposed RTA Ridesharing Program	RTA	Encourage ridesharing in six-county metro area	USDOT (33 1/3%), UMTA (33 1/3%), Local (33 1/3%)	147.48	2,123
C. Commuter Railroad Station Carpool Matching Program	CATS	Encourage carpooling to and from train station—matching board at 69 stations.	UMTA (44.5%), PL (55.5%)	2.54	28.69
4. Projects that improve mass transit:
A. O'Hare Rapid Rail Extension	City of Chicago	Extend Kennedy rapid transit line 7.6 miles to O'Hare.	UMTA (80%), IDOT (13.7%), City of Chicago (6.3%)	124.82	(¹)
B. Park Forest South (ICG) Commuter Rail Extension	RTA	2.2 mile extension from Richton Park to Park Forest South and 320 space park and ride lot.	UMTA (76%), IDOT (22.7%), Local (1.3%)	12.77	121.05
C. RTA Feeder Bus Expansion	RTA	Feeder bus to rail stations—improvements made to 40 routes in fiscal year 1979.	Farebox (27%), Local (73%), State (73%), Federal (73%)	12.1	344.4

² There was a slight emissions increase in the immediate project vicinity because of increased traffic volumes. This traffic previously used nearby routes and, thus, the project probably resulted in a net emissions decrease. This decrease cannot be estimated.

4. USEPA required documentation that an ongoing process exists for disseminating information to locally elected officials. USEPA believes that this requirement is satisfied by Section D of the transportation control plan. Additionally, the Chicago Area Transportation Study will submit information documenting current activities conducted pursuant to this section of the plan.

5. USEPA required a schedule identifying when public education, information, and elected official consultation will take place. USEPA believes that this requirement is satisfied by Section E of the transportation control plan.

6. USEPA requested that the State identify both the cost of strategies and available funding sources. The State will identify the cost and potential funding sources for the representative air quality measures discussed in item 3 above. Further, the State will list all available funding sources.

7. USEPA requested an explanation of the approach used in evaluating emission reductions from transportation projects. In addition, USEPA required the submittal of a reasonable further progress line for mobile sources in the Northeastern Illinois area and resolution of an inconsistency between the transportation control plan and the general discussion in the submittal. In order to demonstrate the approach used in calculating emission reductions from transportation projects, the State will provide sample calculations. USEPA has determined that an adequate reasonable further progress line for mobile sources in Northeastern Illinois is contained in the SIP submittal so that the State need not submit additional material. An inconsistency in a table on page 47 of the transportation control plan will be corrected to be consistent with Chapter 10 of the SIP.

8. USEPA requested implementor commitments in the July 2, 1979 notice of proposed rulemaking. The January 25, 1980 state letter submitted as a SIP revision partially satisfies this requirement. USEPA has determined that these commitments for additional measures cannot be obtained until completion of the alternatives analysis in July, 1980. The analysis of measures described in section 108 of the Clean Air Act will develop information essential to local decisionmaking on the costs and effects of various actions. Upon completion of the alternatives analysis, local elected officials will be required to make decisions regarding the expeditious implementation of all reasonably available measures.

9. USEPA requested that the State guarantee that public transit receive priority in the transportation planning process pursuant to sections 172(b)(2), 110(a)(3)(d), and 110(c)(5)(d) of the Act. USEPA agrees with the State that this requirement has been met and no additional action need be taken on it.

10. USEPA requested documentation of specific mobile source emission decreases. The State will provide this documentation within six months of the effective date of this final rulemaking.

11. USEPA requested that the State identify procedures for annually determining the consistency and conformity of the transportation control plan with the SIP. The Chicago Area Transportation Study (CATS) has made a commitment to review the plan, make a determination, and submit a resolution from the CATS Policy committee reflecting its determination. The Illinois EPA has made a commitment to review the determination and resolution.

12. USEPA requested accelerated implementation of transportation control measures which will be adopted shortly. USEPA believes that the State's commitment under item 3 above also fulfills this requirement.

13. USEPA requested additional information on reasonable further progress in eliminating carbon monoxide hotspot intersections and links. The State will submit an inventory identifying the location of carbon monoxide hotspots and a schedule for hotspot elimination.

St. Louis Metropolitan Area (Illinois Portion)

The Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan area has been designated as nonattainment for ozone. The Illinois submittal contains a request for an extension of the statutory deadline to attain the ozone standards until December 31, 1987. USEPA believes that the State has demonstrated that attainment is not possible in the St. Louis Metropolitan Area despite the implementation of all reasonably available control measures. Therefore, USEPA approves an extension until December 31, 1987 of the statutory attainment deadline for ozone.

USEPA identified five areas in the transportation control plan for the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area which in its judgment did not satisfy the requirements of the Act. As discussed below, the lead local agency, East-West Gateway Coordinating Council (EWGCC), has corrected three of these deficiencies and made a commitment to resolve the remaining deficiencies on specified schedules. A notice soliciting public comment on the acceptability of the schedules appears elsewhere in today's Federal Register. USEPA approves the transportation plan for the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area on the condition that the State satisfy the requirements outlined below.

1. USEPA requested a more detailed description of the transportation planning process including the criteria used by the lead local agency to assess impacts of strategies. This request was complied with on page 35 of the section 175 grant application.

2. USEPA requested that implementor commitments be obtained and submitted. The January 25, 1980 letter from the State included a representative list of transportation measures for the Illinois portion of the St. Louis interstate area. This letter, submitted as a SIP revision, partially satisfies this requirement. The lead local agency acknowledged in an August 27, 1979 letter to USEPA that implementor commitments for additional measures will be obtained upon completion of the analysis of alternative strategies in July 1980.

Additionally, the lead local agency has made a commitment to provide implementor commitments on transportation control measures having emission reductions of 6.45% within twelve months of the effective date of this rulemaking.

3. USEPA requested the State to submit a schedule for conducting the analysis of the strategies in section 108 of the Act. This request was satisfactorily addressed on pages 39 and 47 of the section 175 grant.

4. USEPA requested that the State identify procedures for annually determining the consistency and conformity of the transportation control plan with the SIP. East-West Gateway Coordinating Council satisfactorily addressed this requirement on page 39 of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area Ozone Volume of the Illinois SIP.

5. USEPA requested additional information concerning a credit taken in the transportation control plan for a fifty percent increase in mass transit ridership. East-West Gateway Coordinating Council stated in their August 27, 1979 letter to USEPA that they will examine the feasibility of generating a fifty percent increase in the next year under a section 175 grant. EWGCC stated that because they have not yet had the opportunity to evaluate the means for achieving the increase, they cannot commit any resources to achieving the goal. USEPA believes this is a reasonable approach. EWGCC has made a commitment to secure necessary implementor commitments after the July 1980 completion of the analysis of alternative measures in section 108 of the Act for those projects which will effect the fifty percent ridership increase. Approval of the transportation control plan is conditioned upon the submittal of these commitments to USEPA within one year of the date of publication of this final rulemaking.

USEPA notes the possibility, however, that the alternatives analysis may demonstrate that the fifty percent increase in ridership cannot be achieved. This would prevent the associated emission reductions necessary to meet the ozone standard from being achieved. If this occurs, the alternatives analysis must produce substitute measures to achieve the necessary emission reductions.

USEPA acknowledges one additional issue pertaining to the requirement outlined in the USEPA Region VII Notice of Proposed Rulemaking which appeared in the Federal Register on October 25, 1979 for the St. Louis Metropolitan Area. In this Notice, USEPA requested a list of representative programmed transportation projects. In a letter dated January, 25, 1980, the State of Illinois satisfied this requirement by submitting a list of currently adopted and programmed transportation control measures for the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area. The overall demonstration of attainment for the St. Louis Metropolitan Area will be addressed in a Notice of Final Rulemaking to be published shortly by USEPA's Region VII Office.

Vehicle Inspection and Maintenance

"Inspection/Maintenance" (I/M) refers to a program whereby motor vehicles receive periodic inspections to assess the functioning of their exhaust emission control systems. Vehicles which have excessive emissions must then undergo mandatory maintenance. Generally, I/M programs include passenger cars, although other classes of vehicles can be included as well. Enforcement can be accomplished by requiring proof of compliance in order to purchase license plates or to register a vehicle.

Section 172 of the Clean Air Act requires that State Implementation Plans (SIPs) for nonattainment areas must meet certain criteria. For areas which demonstrate that they will not be able to attain the ambient air quality standards for ozone or carbon monoxide by the end of 1982, despite the implementation of all reasonably available measures, an extension up to 1987 may be granted. In such cases, section 172(b)(11)(B) requires that: "the plan provisions shall establish a specific schedule for implementation of a vehicle emission control inspection and maintenance program * * *

USEPA issued guidance on February 24, 1978, on the general criteria for SIP approval, including I/M, and on July 17, 1978, regarding the specific criteria for I/M SIP approval. Both of these items are part of the SIP guidance material referred to in the General Preamble for Proposed Rulemaking, 44 FR 23072, 20373, n.6.

Though the July 17, 1978, guidance should be consulted for details, the key elements for I/M SIP approval are as follows:

Legal Authority—States or local governments must have adopted the necessary statutes, regulations, ordinances, or other legally enforceable documents to implement and enforce the inspection/maintenance program. (Section 172(b)(10)).

Commitment—The appropriate governmental unit(s) must be committed to implement and enforce the I/M program. (Section 172(b)(10)).

Resources—The necessary finances and resources to carry out the I/M program must be identified and committed. (Section 172(b)(7)).

Schedule—A specific schedule to establish the I/M program must be included in the State Implementation Plan. (Section 172(b)(11)(b)). Interim milestones are specified in the July 17, 1978, memorandum in accordance with the general requirement of 40 CFR 51.15(c).

Program Effectiveness—As set forth in the July 17, 1978, guidance memorandum, the I/M program must achieve at least a 25 percent reduction in passenger car exhaust emissions of hydrocarbons and a 25 percent reduction for carbon monoxide. This reduction is measured by comparing the levels of emissions projected to December 31, 1987, with and without the I/M program. This policy is based on section 172(b)(2) which states that "the plan provisions * * * shall * * * provide for the implementation of all reasonably available control measures * * *". Specific detailed requirements of these five provisions are discussed below.

To be acceptable, I/M legal authority must be adequate to implement and effectively enforce the program and must not be conditioned upon further legislative approval or any other substantial contingency. However, the legislation can delegate certain decision making to an appropriate regulatory body. For example, a State department of environmental protection or department of transportation may be charged with implementing the program, selecting the type of test procedure as well as the type of program to be used, and adopting all necessary rules and regulations. I/M legal authority must be included with plan revisions which include I/M (i.e., a plan which establishes an attainment date beyond December 31, 1982) unless an approved extension to certify legal authority is granted by USEPA. The granting of such an extension, however, is an exceptional remedy to be utilized only when a State legislature has had no opportunity to consider enabling legislation.

Written evidence is also required to establish that the appropriate governmental bodies are "committed to implement and enforce the appropriate elements of the plan." (Section 172(b)(10).) Under section 172(b)(7), supporting commitments for the necessary financial and manpower sources are also required.

A specific schedule to establish an inspection/maintenance program is required. (Section 172(b)(11)(B)). The July 17, 1978, guidance memorandum established as USEPA policy the key milestones for the implementation of the various I/M programs. These milestones were the general SIP requirement for compliance codified at 40 CFR 51.15(c). This section required that increments of progress be incorporated for compliance schedules of over one year in length.

To be acceptable, an I/M program must achieve the requisite 25 percent reductions in both hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide exhaust emissions from passenger cars by the end of Calendar Year 1987. The Act mandated "implementation of all reasonably available control as expeditiously as practicable." Section 172(b)(2). At the time of passage of the Clean Air Act Amendments of 1977, several inspection/maintenance programs were already operating, including mandatory programs of New Jersey and Arizona, operating at about 20 percent stringency. (The stringency of a program is defined as the initial proportion of vehicles which would have failed the program's standards if the affected fleet has not undergone I/M before. Because some motorists tune their vehicles before I/M tests, the actual proportion of vehicles failing is usually a smaller number than the stringency of the program.) Depending on program type (private garage or centralized inspection), a mandatory I/M program may be implemented as late as December 31, 1982, and the attainment date may be as late as December 31, 1987. Based on an implementation date of December 31, 1982, and a 20 percent stringency factor, USEPA predicts the reductions of both CO and HC exhaust emissions of 25 percent can be achieved by December 31, 1987. Earlier implementation of I/M will produce greater emission reductions. Thus, because of the Act's requirement for the implementation of all reasonably available control measures and because New Jersey and Arizona have effectively demonstrated practical operation of I/M programs with 20 percent stringency factors, it is USEPA policy to use a 25 percent emission reduction as the criterion to determine compliance of the I/M portion with section 172(b)(2).

In its State Implementation Plan, Illinois included provisions for an I/M program. Eight Illinois counties will be included in the I/M program: Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, Will, Madison, and St. Clair Counties. These counties constitute the Illinois portions of the Chicago and St. Louis metropolitan areas. The SIP makes a demonstration that Cook, DuPage, Kane, Lake, McHenry, and Will counties cannot attain the primary national ambient air quality standards for O₃ and CO by 1982, and that Madison and St. Clair counties cannot attain the O₃ standard by 1982. Vehicle categories covered by the program will include gasoline powered light duty passenger cars, light duty trucks, and heavy duty vehicles and provides for annual inspection. Light duty passenger cars and light duty trucks older than 13 years old will be exempted from testing.

Inspections would be carried out by a private contractor working for the State. An idle mode inspection test will be used. Vehicles failing inspection must be repaired and reinspected. Enforcement of the program will be carried out through the State's vehicle registration system. Mandatory inspection and repair of vehicles is scheduled to start no later than December 31, 1982. The SIP identifies the financial resources required to implement and operate the I/M program. Total program costs for five years of operation (1983-1987) are estimated to be $31,600,000. The program will be largely self-supporting through the imposition of an annual inspection fee which is expected to be approximately $6.50 for light duty cars and trucks and $12.67 for heavy duty trucks. Any program expenditures not covered by the inspection fee will be supported by legislative appropriation. Through its I/M Implementation Schedule, Illinois makes a commitment to seek the appropriation of necessary funds to establish the program during the time period between January 1, 1980, to June 30, 1980.

Based on information in the SIP, in 1987 the I/M program will achieve a 32.2 percent reduction in HC exhaust emissions and a 43.2 percent reduction in CO exhaust emission for the Chicago metropolitan area, and a 20.3 percent reduction in HC exhaust emission and a 48.7 percent reduction in CO exhaust emissions for the St. Louis metropolitan area. These emission reductions were calculated by comparing total mobile source exhaust emissions in 1987 with and without the I/M program. The calculations are based on the assumptions that the I/M program will have a 30 percent stringency factor and that a mechanics training program will be implemented.

The Illinois submittal contains a certification that the State has sufficient legal authority to implement and enforce an I/M program. The basis for the State's certification of legal authority is the Illinois Environmental Protection Act (Ill. Rev. Stat., 1977, ch. 111 1/2, §§ 1005-1051, as amended), which gives the Pollution Control Board the authority to adopt regulations requiring the inspection of any vehicle which may cause or contribute to air pollution (Title 2, § 10(f)); and which prohibits any State, department or agency from licensing any vehicle not in compliance with Board regulations (Title 12, § 48(a)). The I/M implementation schedule contains a commitment by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency to develop an I/M regulatory proposal and submit it to the Pollution Control Board this year. The Environmental Protection Act (Title 8, § 78) requires the Board to schedule a public hearing on any regulatory proposal submitted by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, and to adopt rules and regulations shown to be needed to carry out the intent of the Act (Title 2, § 10).

In the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking on the Illinois SIP (44 FR 128, July 2, 1979), USEPA proposed to approve the I/M portion of the SIP with the minor condition that the State commit to the implementation of a mechanics training program. Illinois EPA's response to the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking recognized the need for mechanics training and made a commitment to the development of such a program.

This response satisfies USEPA's condition on the necessary commitment to mechanics training. No other comments were received by USEPA with regard to the proposed approval of the I/M portion of the SIP. Therefore, USEPA is approving the I/M portion of the State of Illinois' SIP. As discussed above, the Illinois submission meets all of USEPA's criteria for I/M SIP approval: The State has legal authority to implement and enforce an I/M program, the program's projected emission reductions comply with the USEPA requirement for a 25 percent reduction in CO and HC exhaust emissions, the State is committed to obtain the necessary resources to establish the program, and the State's I/M implementation schedule contains the necessary milestones which will permit full implementation of the program by December 31, 1982.

Carbon Monoxide

Two areas of Illinois are designated as nonattainment for carbon monoxide. These areas include portions of Peoria County and Cook County. The Illinois SIP relies primarily on controlling emissions for mobile sources to attain the carbon monoxide NAAQS. As discussed above in the section of this notice on Transportation Control Plans, USEPA is conditionally approving the transportation control plans for the Peoria Metropolitan Area and Northeastern Illinois. Therefore, USEPA approves the portion of the Illinois SIP addressing attainment and maintenance of the carbon monoxide standards on the condition that the State satisfy the conditions specified above under the discussion of the Peoria and Northeast Illinois transportation control plans. These conditions must be satisfied within six months of the effective date of this rulemaking.

Nitrogen Dioxide

A portion of the Chicago Central Business District is designated as not attaining the nitrogen dioxide National Ambient Air Quality Standard. In the July 2, 1979 notice of proposed rulemaking, USEPA noted that evidence existed indicating that the nitrogen dioxide problem in Illinois was more extensive than originally indicated. Consequently, USEPA proposed approval of the portion of the SIP addressing nitrogen dioxide on the condition that the State commit itself to make additional analyses of the problem and, if necessary to adopt and implement any additional measures necessary to assure attainment. In its comments on the notice of proposed rulemaking, the State of Illinois made a commitment to perform the necessary analyses to determine if there is a need to change the SIP for nitrogen dioxide in the designated nonattainment area. The State has made a commitment to complete the analysis and develop any necessary regulatory proposals by July 1, 1980. In addition, the State has made a commitment to seek adoption of any necessary regulations so that attainment of the standard will be demonstrated by December 31, 1982. USEPA approves the nitrogen dioxide portion of the Illinois SIP on the condition that the State fulfills the conditions outlined above within the specified timeframes.

USEPA believes that the commitment to submit any necessary regulations to the IPCB is an adequate commitment by the State. USEPA recognizes that the State cannot legally prejudice the outcome of statutorily mandated regulatory proceedings. Nonetheless, in order to guarantee that the deficiencies are adequately addressed and that the plan is adequate to satisfy the requirements of the Act, USEPA imposes the additional condition that any necessary regulations can be finally promulgated by the State and submitted to USEPA by July 1, 1981.

In establishing the date by which any necessary regulations must be promulgated, USEPA has taken into consideration the complex IPCB rulemaking procedures which require technical as well as economic hearings and findings on all rulemaking actions. A notice of soliciting public comment on the acceptability of this schedule will appear in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published shortly.

New Source Review

Background

In March of 1979 the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) drafted new source review rules which provided for the issuance of construction permits to new or modified sources in nonattainment areas. The draft of the rules was submitted to USEPA on April 3, 1979 as part of Illinois draft State Implementation Plan (SIP) for nonattainment areas. The rules were subsequently filed April 24, 1979 by IEPA with the Illinois Secretary of State pursuant to Sections 5 (b) and (e) of the Illinois Administrative Procedure Act (IAPA), (Illinois Rev. Stat. Chapter 127, Section 1005) so as to become immediately effective. Section 5 (b) of the IAPA provides that:

If any agency finds that an emergency, reasonably constituting a threat to the public interest, safety, or welfare, requires adoption of a rule upon fewer than 45 days notice and states in writing its reasons for that finding, it may proceed without prior notice or hearing or upon any abbreviated notice and hearing that it finds practicable, to adopt an emergency rule. The rule may be effective for a period of not longer than 150 days but the Agency's authority to adopt an identical rule under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section is not precluded.

Section 5(e) provides that:

If any agency is required by Federal law or Federal rules and regulations or by an order of court to adopt a rule under conditions which preclude the agency's compliance with the notice or hearing requirement of this Act, the agency may proceed to adopt such a rule upon filing with the Secretary of State. (Amended by PA 80-1035)

In its July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (44 FR 38587), USEPA solicited comment on the proposed rules and noted several deficiencies therein. These rules were subsequently subjected to public comment requirements of Section 5(a). As a result of public comment received, the IEPA submitted a revised set of rules to the Secretary of State on September 4, 1979. These rules were also effective immediately under Section 5 of the IAPA. The September 4, 1979 regulations included provisions which had not been previously submitted to USEPA for review. They also contained different numerical designations.¹ IEPA had 150 days from September 4, 1979 to finalize these rules by holding hearings and providing for a 45 day comment period or longer, if needed. The revised set of rules was published in the Illinois Register on September 14, 1979. Hearings were held before the legislative Joint Committee on Administrative Rules in October 1979. IEPA finalized these rules January 16, 1980.

On January 25, 1980 IEPA submitted the final new source review rules to USEPA. In doing so, the IEPA specifically reserved two provisions which differed significantly from the rules which USEPA proposed to approve on July 2 (44 FR 38587). The provisions are contained in Sections 5.1(a)(2)(ii) and 5.1(a)(2)(iii). These two new provisions will be formally submitted to USEPA shortly as a separate SIP revision action and will be the subject of a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. In the interim, no permits will be issued under the reserved provisions.

The final rules also included other new material. Because this new material was not previously available for public review and comment, USEPA is also withholding rulemaking on this new material which is as follows: (1) The definition of reconstruction in Section 4.7; (2) the expansion of Section 4.11 (Section 3.10 April submittal) to include as allowable emissions "a reasonable estimate of emissions in excess of applicable standards during startup, malfunction or breakdown"; and (3) the Illinois' external offset procedures contained in Section 10. These provisions will be announced for public review and comment in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking. In the Interim, no externally provided offsets will be available to sources seeking a construction permit under Illinois' New Source Review Regulations, nor will any permits be issued by IEPA under Sections 5.1(a)(ii) and 5.1(a)(2)(ii).

Comments

In response to the July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (44 FR 38587), USEPA received comments regarding the proposed new source review rules from three different commentators.

Comment: One commentator challenged the validity of IEPA's use of the emergency procedure contained in the IAPA for the adoption of rules. The commentator claimed that not only did IEPA fail to establish any "emergency" which triggered use of the rule but, in addition, the IEPA lacked statutory authority under the Illinois Environmental Protection Act to promulgate any substantive new source rules. This commentator, (representing an industry), and another commentator, (representing an environmental group), asserted that IEPA exceeded its authority in adopting Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas because the rules impose substantive requirements upon new sources intending to build and upon existing sources intending to make modifications to their existing plants. They commented that these rules are substantive because they contain the following provisions: The adoption of environmental standards for the issuance of construction permits, and the requirement that new or modified sources reduce emissions to the lowest achievable emission rate.

These commentators claim that under the Illinois Environmental Protection Act, rules which contain substantive provisions such as requirements for emission offsets and LAER must be promulgated by the Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB); and that the IEPA had no authority to issue the rules.

The rules promulgated by IEPA cite Sections 4 and 39 of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act and Rule 103 of the Illinois Pollution Control Board Rules and Regulations as its authority for promulgating the Rules. Section 4(g) of the Act provides that:

The Agency shall have the duty to administer, in accord with Title X of this Act, such permit and certification systems as may be established by this Act or by regulations adopted thereunder.

Title X, Section 39(a) of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act requires the Agency to issue a permit to an applicant upon proof by the applicant that it will not cause a violation of the Act or of regulations promulgated under the Act. Section 39(a) provides further that the Agency in granting permits:

May impose such conditions as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of [the] Act, and as are not inconsistent with the regulations promulgated by the Board * * *

Rule 103 of the Illinois Pollution Control Board Rules and Regulations, promulgated by the Board, is an existing regulation which provides for the issuance of construction and operating permits. Under IPCB Rule 103(a)(2) the Agency is given the authority to "adopt procedures which require data and information * * * which are reasonably designed to determine compliance with the Act, [the] Chapter, and ambient air quality standards * * *" and is given additional authority to impose "such conditions in a Construction Permit as may be necessary to accomplish the purpose of the Act, and as are not inconsistent with the Regulations promulgated by the Board * * *".

Illinois also received similar comments at its public hearings held in May 1979, i.e., that the nonattainment area policy exceeded the statutory authority of IEPA. The commentors claimed that the Rules promulgated by IEPA require IEPA to determine the Lowest Achievable Emission Rate [LAER] for sources subject to the policy and that the authority to determine such emission limitations was given only to the IPCB. Illinois responded to these comments by citing Sections 4 and 39 of the Illinois Environmental Protection Act discussed above and by asserting that the stated purpose of the Act was the attainment and maintenance of air quality standards and "without the nonattainment area policy the Agency could not issue permits to sources upon which the attainment area policy places requirements." IEPA noted that LAER was not being enforced as an "emission standard" but as a "general policy for the improvement of air quality in nonattainment areas."

Response: USEPA is concerned about the commentors' assertion of IEPA's lack of statutory authority to promulgate the New Source Review Rules. While the Rules have been filed with the Secretary of State and have been reviewed by the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules which reviews, among other things the legal authority under which the rules were promulgated, USEPA is approving the rules on the condition that Illinois submit within one hundred and eighty days (180) a determination signed by the Illinois Attorney General that the promulgation of the New Source Review Rules is consistent with Illinois law; or, in the alternative, submit to USEPA for approval another nonattainment area new source review plan which is consistent with Illinois law and meets the requirement of the Clean Air Act.

Comment: LAER and offset determination for individual sources should be submitted to USEPA as SIP revisions so that they will be enforceable by citizen groups as well as USEPA.

Response: Illinois is presently adopting procedures providing for public comment on its issuance of permits and Section 304 of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7604) provides for enforcement of construction permits by citizens.

Comment: One commentor questioned the authority of the Agency to treat an offset as an amendment to an operating permit on the basis that neither the Illinois Environmental Protection Act nor the IPCB's regulations require that an offset determination be considered in the process. This comment is directed to procedures for determination of external emission offsets and will be considered in a separate Notice of Proposed Rulemaking to be published at a later date.

Comment: One commentor stated that in order to provide for reasonable further progress, the growth allowance should be quantified and then recalculated each time a source draws upon it.

Response: States are free under the Clean Air Act to select their own emission offset procedure so long as the procedure meets the requirements of the Act and will provide reasonable further progress toward attainment. Illinois has in Section 12 of its New Source Review Regulations (Section 11, April submittal) provided that the demonstration of improvement in air quality shall not include "paper offsets" but shall include only actual emission reductions. Additionally § 173(b)(3) of the Clean Air Act requires periodic demonstrations of reasonable further progress in the interim between plan approval and attainment of NAAQS. Therefore, USEPA believes that the State new source review procedures meet these requirements of the Act.

Comment: Other comments received concerned the exemption provided for in Sections 4.1(a)(3) and 5.1(c) of the April submittal and specified in Section 10 of the April submittal (Section 11, November submittal). These provisions exempted certain sources from the requirement of the certification of compliance required by Section 173(3) of the Clean Air Act. The requirement was waived for sources actively seeking to overturn a violated regulation based upon technical infeasibility or economic unreasonableness. One commentor claimed that it was contrary to Section 173 of the Act and the other commentor believed it to be a reasonable exception.

Response: USEPA cited this exemption as a deficiency in its July 2 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking since such exemption is not permissible under Section 173 of the Act. Illinois has corrected this deficiency by deleting this exemption from Section 11 of the November submittal, (Section 10, April submittal).

Comment: One commentor challenged USEPA's action in the July 2 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking wherein USEPA cited the deficiencies in Illinois' New Source Review Rules. The challenge was based on the fact that the rules were not final rules, and on the allegation that the deficiencies were not a failure of meeting the requirements of Section 173.

Response: Responses to the question of the legality of USEPA proposing rulemaking on rules still to be finalized on the USEPA's authority to determine deficiencies in state plans which must be corrected before final plan approval are contained in the general preamble of this Notice.

Response of IEPA to Deficiencies Noted by USEPA in its July 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking

1. One deficiency of Illinois' New Source Review Rules pertained to the fact that Illinois does not have regulations which require a public comment period on permit applications (See 40 CFR 51.18). In its response to this deficiency, IEPA has made a commitment to adopt such regulations. In a letter dated December 11, 1979 IEPA has provided USEPA a copy of the proposed regulations filed with the Secretary of State. Hearings have been held on the rules and they are expected to be finally adopted early in 1980.

USEPA Response: Submission of these rules to USEPA for inclusion in the SIP will remove this longstanding SIP deficiency. Since the public notice provisions of 40 CFR 51.18 are not specifically required under Part D of the Act, and since the State is moving to correct the deficiency in an expeditious manner, this deficiency will not result in disapproval of the New Source Review portion of the State's nonattainment SIP.

2. Other deficiencies noted by USEPA in its April 2, 1979 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking pertained to the procedures for determining emission offsets in Section 9 of the April submittal of the Rules (Section 10, November submittal).

Sections in the Rule could have been interpreted to allow "paper offsets" and also contained references to a prohibition which would prevent overcomplying sources from increasing actual emissions. This prohibition was not contained in any Illinois regulation. Illinois corrected these deficiencies by changing the language in the new source review procedures to remove references to the nonexistent prohibition on increasing emissions, and to indicate that "paper offsets" (defined in the Illinois regulation as "offsets from the allowable emissions where no actual reductions in emissions occur") are not permissible in any air quality improvement demonstration.

USEPA Response: In USEPA's opinion, these changes resolve the noted deficiency.

3. Another deficiency cited by USEPA was that Section 8 of the April submittal (Section 9, November submittal) specified that in making lowest achievable emission rate (LAER) determinations, the Illinois EPA will depend on information reasonably available to the applicant. USEPA found that this determination of LAER was not consistent with the Clean Air Act, and that disputes over what was or was not reasonably available "to the applicant" would result in unnecessary litigation. USEPA requested the State to correct the deficiency by defining LAER in a manner consistent with the statutory definition in the Clean Air Act.

Illinois corrected this deficiency by eliminating the words "to the applicant".

USEPA Response: USEPA accepts this change as a correction of the deficiency.

4. USEPA cited the exemption of certain sources from certifying compliance as being too broad and not in concert with Section 173(3) of the Act. Illinois corrected this deficiency by narrowing the exemption to only those permitted under the Act.

USEPA Response: USEPA accepts this change as a correction to the noted deficiency.

5. The last deficiency cited by USEPA concerned the lack of criteria in the Rules for making air quality analyses. Illinois has corrected this deficiency by adding a section (Section 4.13) entitled "Acceptable Dispersion Modeling." The appropriate criteria for performing the required air quality analyses are specified in this provision.

USEPA Response: This action by Illinois corrects the deficiency.

Final Determination

USEPA conditionally approves Illinois New Source Review Rules on file with the Illinois Secretary of State with the exception that no action is being taken at this time on those portions of Section 5 which were reserved by IEPA; on the definitions in Section 4.7 and the new material in Section 4.11; and in Sections 10.1 and 10.2 of the November submittal which contains the procedure allowing external offsets. The approval is subject to the condition that Illinois submit within one hundred eighty days a determination signed by the Illinois Attorney General that the promulgation of the New Source Review Rules is consistent with Illinois law; or, in the alternative, submits to USEPA for approval another nonattainment area new source review plan which is consistent with Illinois law and meets the requirements of Sections 172(b)(6) and 173 of the Clean Air Act.

The 1978 edition of 40 CFR Part 52 lists in the subpart for each state the applicable deadlines for attaining ambient standards (attainment dates) required by Section 110(a)(2)(A) of the Act. For each nonattainment area where a revised plan provides attainment by the deadline required by Section 172(a) of the Act, the new deadlines will be substituted on the attainment date charts. The earlier attainment dates under Section 110(a)(2)(A) will be referenced in a footnote to the charts. Sources subject to plan requirements and deadline established under Section 110(a)(2)(A) prior to the 1977 Amendments remain obligated to comply with those requirements, as well with the new Section 172 plan requirements.

Congress established new deadlines under Section 172(a) to provide additional time for previously regulated sources to comply with new, more stringent requirements and to permit previously uncontrolled sources to comply with newly applicable emission limitations. If these new deadlines were permitted to supersede the deadlines established prior to the 1977 Amendments, sources that failed to comply with the pre-1977 plan requirements by the earlier deadlines would improperly receive more time to comply with those requirements. Congress, however, intended that the new deadlines apply only to new, additional control requirements and not to earlier requirements. As stated by Congressman Paul Rogers in discussing the 1977 Amendments:

Section 110(a)(2) of the Act made clear that each source has to meet its emission limits "as expeditiously as practicable" but not later than three years after the approval of a plan. This provision was not changed by the 1977 Amendments. It would be a perversion of clear congressional intent to construe Part D to authorize relaxation or delay of emission limits for particular sources. The added time for attainment of the national ambient air quality standards was provided, if necessary, because of the need to tighten emission limits or bring previously uncontrolled sources under control. Delays or relaxation of emission limits were not generally authorized or intended under Part D. (123 Cong. Rec. H 11958, daily ed. November 1, 1977).

To implement fully Congress' intention that sources remain subject to pre-existing plan requirements, sources cannot be granted variances extending compliance dates beyond attainment dates established prior to the 1977 Amendments. Such variances would impermissibly relax existing requirements beyond the applicable Section 110(a)(2)(A) attainment date under the plan. Therefore, for requirements adopted before the 1977 Amendments, USEPA will not approve a compliance date extension beyond pre-existing 110(a)(2)(A) attainment dates, even though a Section 172 plan revision with a later attainment date has been approved.

However, in certain exceptional circumstances, extensions beyond a pre-existing attainment date are permitted. For example, if a Section 172 plan imposes new, more stringent control requirements that are incompatible with controls required to meet the pre-existing requirements and deadlines may be revised if a state makes a case-by-case demonstration that a relaxation or revocation is necessary. Any such exemption granted by a state will be reviewed and acted upon by USEPA as a SIP revision. In addition, as discussed in the April 4, 1979 Federal Register (44 FR 20373), an extension may be granted if it will not contribute to a violation of an ambient standard or a PSD increment.

Under Executive Order 12044, USEPA is required to judge whether a regulation is "significant" and therefore subject to the procedural requirements of the Order or whether it may follow other specialized development procedures. USEPA labels these other regulations "specialized". I have reviewed this regulation and determined that it is a specialized regulation not subject to the procedural requirements of Executive Order 12044.

This notice of final rulemaking is issued under the authority of Sections 110(a) and 172 of the Clean Air Act, as amended (42 U.S.C. 7410(a), 7502).

Dated: February 13, 1980.

Barbara Blum,
Acting Administrator.

Title 40 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Chapter I, Part 52 is amended as follows:

1. Section 52.720(c) is amended by adding new subparagraphs (16)–(21) to read as follows:

§ 52.720 Identification of plan.

(c) * * *

(16) On April 4, 1979, the State submitted its draft nonattainment area plan for all areas designated nonattainment as of March 3, 1978 and as revised on October 5, 1978. This submittal contained a request for extensions of the statutory attainment deadline for CO and O₃. The submittal also included a vehicle emission inspection and maintenance program and a new source review plan. Although the State submittal also included the following provisions, USEPA is taking no action to include them in the federally approved SIP at this time: Rule 203(d)(5) which controls particulate emissions from iron and steel sources, the portions of Rules 101, 103, and 105 relating to the provisions addressing malfunctions in general requirements of the Clean Air Act which are not Part D requirements, and the provisions covering open burning, mobile source emission standards, diesel locomotive emission standards, adoption of ambient air quality standards, organic emissions from organic water separation, carbon monoxide emissions from petroleum and petroleum chemical catalyst incinerators, sulfuric acid mist emissions, sulfur dioxide emissions for fuel combustion sources in other than major metropolitan areas, emissions from hydrogen sulfide flares at chemical manufacturing plants, compliance dates for organic emission limitations, carbon monoxide from polybasic organic acid partial oxidation processes, nitrogen dioxide emissions from new facilities burning coal refuse, emission limitations for air furnaces, particulate emissions from low carbon waste incinerators, and adoption of Federal New Source Performance Standards. In addition, USEPA is not rulemaking at this time on those portions of the following rules which contain specified changes made between the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and the final rulemaking action: (i) The exemption in Rule 203(f)(3)(A) lifting control requirements from storage piles if the owner of the pile proves that fugitive emissions from the pile do not cross the property line; (ii) The deletion of the 10% opacity in Rule 203(f)(3)(C) for conveying operations; (iii) The provision of Rule 205(K)(1)(A) or (b) from all provisions of Rules 205(K) (2) and (3); (iv) The new materials in Section 4.11 of the Rules for Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources; (v) The addition of a definition of "reconstruction" in Section 4.7 of the Rules for Issuance of Permits; (vi) The procedure allowing external offsets contained in Section 10 of the Rules for Issuance of Permits.

(17) On August 29, 1979, the State submitted additional information and clarification for the nonattainment area plan in response to USEPA's July 2, 1979 notice of proposed rulemaking.

(18) On September 20, 1979, the State submitted a summary of public hearing comments on the plan.

(19) On October 30, 1979, the State submitted copies of Illinois Pollution Control board final orders for control of VOC emissions from stationary sources (Rule 205) and sources of fugitive particulates (Rule 203(f)).

(20) On December 20, 1979, the State submitted a letter containing the dates that most of the regulatory and nonregulatory portions of the nonattainment area plans were finally adopted by the Illinois Pollution Control Board. Rule 205 containing RACT controls for stationary sources of VOC was effective in the State on July 18, 1979. Rule 203(f) governing fugitive dust emissions was effective in the state on September 18, 1979.

(21) On January 25, 1980, the State submitted a copy of finally enacted "Rules for the Issuance of Permits to New or Modified Air Pollution Sources Affecting Nonattainment Areas." Sections 5.1(a)(2)(ii) and 5.1(a)(2)(iii) of these rules were reserved by the State. The effective date of these Rules was January 16, 1980.

§ 52.721 [Heading Revised]

2. Section 52.721 is revised by changing the heading "Photochemical Oxidants (hydrocarbons)" to "Ozone".

3. Section 52.722 is revised to read as follows:

§ 52.722 Approval status.

With the exceptions set forth in this subpart, the Administrator approved Illinois' plan for the attainment and maintenance of the National Ambient Air Quality Standards under section 110 of the Clean Air Act. Furthermore, the Administrator finds the plan satisfies all requirements of Part D, Title I of the Clean Air Act as amended in 1977, except as noted below. In addition, continued satisfaction of the requirements of Part D for the ozone portion of the SIP depends on the adoption and submittal of RACT requirements by July 1, 1980 for the sources covered by CTGs between January 1978 and January 1979 and adoption and submittal by each subsequent January of additional RACT requirements for sources covered by CTGs issued by the previous January.

4. Section 52.723 is revised as follows:

§ 52.723 Extensions.

(a) The Administrator hereby extends until December 31, 1987 the attainment date for the national standards for CO and O₃ in the Northeastern Illinois (Chicago) nonattainment area.

(b) The Administrator hereby extends until December 31, 1987 the attainment date for the national O₃ standard in the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan nonattainment area.

5. Section 52.724 is revised as follows:

§ 52.724 Control strategy: sulfur dioxide.

(a) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following condition is satisfied:

(1) The plan includes a reanalysis of the Pekin, Illinois area, a submittal of the analysis results to USEPA; the proposal of any necessary, additional regulations to the Illinois Pollution Control Board to insure attainment and maintenance of the sulfur dioxide standard; and the promulgation of any necessary regulations. Any promulgated regulations must be submitted to USEPA.

6. Section 52.725 is revised as follows:

§ 52.725 Control strategy: particulates.

(a) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The State utilizes emission factors for determining potential emissions, promulgates rules specifying the manner in which these emission factors will be used, and submits these rules to the Illinois Secretary of State and USEPA.

(2) The State conducts an analysis of the potential air quality impact from storage piles with uncontrolled emissions of less than 50 tons/year, submits the results of the analysis to USEPA, submits any necessary regulations to the Illinois Pollution Control Board, and promulgates and submits any necessary regulations to USEPA.

(b) Part D—Disapproval—USEPA disapproves the provisions of Rule 203(f) which allow the use of an equivalent method without review and approval of that method. Any source subject to Rule 203(f) which chooses to use an equivalent method must have that equivalent method submitted to USEPA and approved as a SIP revision. This disapproval does not in and of itself result in the growth restrictions of section 110(a)(2)(I).

(c) Part D—No Action—USEPA takes no action on the adequacy of rules submitted by Illinois to control particulate emissions from the iron and steelmaking industry.

7. Section 52.726 is revised as follows:

§ 52.726 Control Strategy: Ozone

(a) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following conditions are satisfied.

(1) The State conducts a study to demonstrate that the three pound per hour, 15 pound per day exemption for solvent metal cleaners contained in Rule 205(k) represents reasonably available control technology (RACT), submits the results of the study to USEPA and, submits any necessary revisions to the regulations to the Illinois Pollution Control Board, promulgates any necessary revised regulations and submits them to USEPA.

(2) The State conducts a study to demonstrate that the 75% overall control efficiency requirement in Rule 205(n) represents RACT, submits the results of the study to USEPA, submits any necessary regulations representing RACT to the Illinois Pollution Control Board, promulgates and submits any necessary regulations to USEPA.

(b) Part D—Disapproval—USEPA disapproves the compliance schedule in Rule 205(j) as it applies to loading rack controls for all emission sources subject to Rule 205(b)(1), as approved by USEPA on May 31, 1972, which were required to be in compliance by December 31, 1973. This disapproval does not in and of itself result in the growth restrictions of section 110(a)(2)(I).

8. Section 52.727 is revised to read as follows:

§ 52.727 Attainment Dates for National Standards.

The following table presents the latest dates by which the national standards are to be attained. The dates reflect information presented in Illinois' plan, except where noted.

d. July 1975.

NOTE.—Dates or footnotes which are italicized are prescribed by the Administrator because the plan did not provide a specific date or the date provided was not acceptable. These dates may be changed through revisions to the SIP by the State.

NOTE.—Sources subject to the plan requirements and attainment dates established under section 110(a)(2)(A) prior to the 1977 Clean Air Act Amendments remain obligated to comply with these requirements by the earlier deadlines. The earlier attainment dates are set out at 40 CFR 52.727.

NOTE.—For actual nonattainment designations, refer to 40 CFR Part 81.

9. Section 52.178 is revised as follows:

§ 52.728 Control strategy: Nitrogen Dioxide.

(a) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following condition is satisfied:

(1) The State conducts analyses to determine the need to revise the SIP for nitrogen dioxide, develops any necessary additional regulatory proposals, promulgates any necessary regulations, and submits them to USEPA.

10. Section 52.729 is amended by adding new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

§ 52.729 Control Strategy: Carbon Monoxide.

(b) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following condition is satisfied:

(1) The State corrects the deficiencies in the transportation control plans for the Peoria Metropolitan Area and the Northeastern Illinois (Chicago).

11. Section 52.737 is revised to read as follows:

§ 52.737 Transportation Control Plans.

(a) Part D—Conditional Approvals—The transportation control plan for the Peoria Metropolitan Area is approved provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The State provides a more detailed description of the transportation planning process.

(2) The State provides a description of procedures to annually determine the consistency and conformity of the transportation plan with the SIP.

(3) The State details how the emissions impact of implemented transportation projects will be annually assessed.

(4) The State assesses the social, economic, health, energy, air quality, and welfare impacts of transportation control measures.

(5) The State identifies all potential CO hotspots in the Peoria Metropolitan Area and develops an acceptable strategy for eliminating them.

(6) The State identifies a mechanism for informing elected officials and implementors of progress towards meeting emission reduction goals and projects needed to meet these goals.

(b) Part D—Conditional Approvals—The transportation control plan for the Northeast Illinois (Chicago) Area is approved provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The State submits a schedule identifying transportation study areas.

(2) The State submits additional information on the objectives of the Chicago Areas Transportation Study Air Quality Advisory Committee.

(3) The State submits formally adopted representative air quality measures from the Transportation Improvement Programs and Transportation System Management programs. The State reviews the transportation plan, makes changes documenting air quality planning in the transportation sector.

(4) The State identifies both the cost of implementing strategies and available funding sources.

(5) The State explains the approach used in evaluating emission reductions from transportation projects.

(6) The State submits implementor commitments upon completion of the alternatives analysis.

(7) The State documents specific mobile source emission decreases.

(8) The State identifies procedures for annually determining the consistency and conformity of the transportation control plan with the SIP.

(9) The State submits additional information on reasonable further progress in eliminating carbon monoxide hotspot intersections and links.

(c) Part D—Conditional Approval—The transportation control plan for the Illinois portion of the St. Louis Metropolitan Area is approved provided that the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The State submits implementor commitments upon completion of the alternatives analysis.

(2) The State submits additional information including funding sources concerning a credit taken in the transportation control plan for a fifty percent increase in mass transit ridership.

§ 52.736 [Revised]

12. Section 52.736 is revoked because of legal termination by Section 110(a)(5) of the Clean Air Act (42 U.S.C. 7410(a)(5)) and is revised to read as follows:

(a) Part D—Conditional Approval—The Illinois plan is approved provided that the following condition is satisfied:

(1) The State submits a determination signed by the Illinois' Attorney General that the promulgation of the New Source Review rules is consistent with Illinois law; or, in the alternative, submits to USEPA for approval another nonattainment area New Source Review plan which is consistent with Illinois law and meets the requirements of Sections 172(b)(6) and 173 of the Clean Air Act.

40 CFR Part 52

[FRL 1417-5]

Approval and Promulgation of State Implementation Plan; Revision for Michigan; Correction

AGENCY: U.S. Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Final rulemaking; correction.

SUMMARY: On December 21, 1979 (44 FR 75635) the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) published a Notice of Final Rulemaking, citing final approval of the Michigan Air Pollution Control Commission's Order as a revision to the Michigan Implementation Plan (SIP). The Order extends the compliance date for meeting sulfur dioxide emission limitations to January 1, 1985, subject to certain conditions.

The conditions outlined under Section (D) (Excursions Above Air Quality Standards) on page 75636, omitted a line of type. The notice read, "An excursion is a single ambient concentration above 365 $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ (0.14 ppm) calculated on a running 3-hour average." It should have read, "An excursion is a single ambient concentration above 365 $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ (0.14 ppm) calculated on a running 24-hour average or above 1,300 $\mu\text{g}/\text{m}^3$ (0.50 ppm) calculated on a running 3-hour average. On page 75635, in the summary, the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking page number was incorrectly listed as July 12, 1979 (44 FR 26765). The page number of the notice should have read (44 FR 40655). This correction notice contains the omitted information and the correct page number of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking.

WRITTEN COMMENTS SHOULD BE SENT TO:

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Notice of Final Rulemaking (44 FR 75635, December 21, 1979) USEPA published supplementary information regarding the conditions for extending the sulfur dioxide emission limitations compliance date to January 1, 1985 for the Detroit Edison Monroe County Power Plan in Michigan.

This correction notice adds the additional information to Section D (Excursions Above Air Quality Standards) on page 75636 of the December 21, 1979 (44 FR 75635). The corrected version should read as follows:

Also in the summary, on page 75635 of the notice, the page for the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking was incorrectly cited as 26765. The page number of the Notice should have read 44 FR 40655.

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Office of the Secretary

49 CFR Part 27

Nondiscrimination on the Basis of Handicap in Federally-Assisted Programs; Intent to Prepare an Environmental Impact Statement; Scoping Meeting

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, DOT.

ACTION: Notice of Intent to Prepare Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) and Notice of Scoping Meeting.

SUMMARY: The Department of Transportation has been ordered by the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to prepare an environmental impact statement (EIS) on its regulation (49 CFR Part 27) implementing section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The regulation addresses the accessibility of federally assisted transportation systems to handicapped persons. The Department will prepare an EIS which considers alternatives to the regulation. To help the Department to determine the key issues and the appropriate scope of their treatment in the EIS, the Department will hold a public "scoping" meeting on Friday, March 21, 1980.

DATES: Scoping meeting to be held March 21, 1980. Final EIS to be prepared by September 1, 1980.

ADDRESS: Scoping meeting location: DOT Headquarters Building, Room 2230; 9:30 a.m. 400 7th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: George McDonald, Office of Environment and Safety, Room 9422, Department of Transportation, 400 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590. Telephone 202-426-4492. Office hours 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of Transportation (DOT) will prepare an environmental impact statement (EIS) on a recently issued regulation implementing section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. section 794) in financial assistance programs of DOT. The regulation also implements section 16 of the Urban Mass Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. section 1612) and section 165(b) of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1973 as amended in 1974 (Pub. L. 93-643, 23 U.S.C. 142 nt.).

Background

In adopting this regulation on May 25, 1979, (44 FR 31477, May 31, 1979) the Department issued a "Negative Declaration" indicating that the regulation was not expected to have a significant environmental impact. As a result of subsequent litigation ("American Public Transit Association, et al. v. Neil Goldschmidt, et al."), the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia on February 7, 1980, ordered the Department to prepare an environmental impact statement for Subpart E of its regulation and to file the EIS with the Court by September 1, 1980. Subpart E covers the Department's program of assistance to mass transportation. The Department intends to prepare an EIS covering the entire section 504 regulation. The EIS will be prepared in accordance with the regulations of the Council on Environmental Quality (40 CFR 1500-1508) and the procedures of the Department of Transportation (DOT Order 5610.1C).

Section 504 provides that:

"No otherwise qualified handicapped individual in the United States . . . shall, solely by reason of his handicap, be excluded from the participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving federal financial assistance . . ."

Executive Order 11914 gives to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW) authority to issue government-wide guidelines for the implementation of section 504. The HEW guidelines were issued on January 13, 1978 (43 FR 2132-2139) and the DOT regulation was found by HEW to comply with the guidelines.

The DOT regulation sets forth requirements for achieving "program accessibility" to handicapped persons in programs receiving financial assistance from this Department. The regulation also has provisions relating to nondiscrimination against handicapped persons in employment in such programs, provisions relating to complaint processing, and related matters.

The "proposed action" of the Department, which the EIS will address, is the section 504 regulation as promulgated. Alternatives to this action which will be considered include the following:

(a) Seek changes in the provisions of the HEW guidelines, and possibly the statutes involved, to permit DOT to amend the 504 regulation so as (1) to eliminate the requirement for "program accessibility" as defined in the regulation, including the requirement that new mass transit vehicles purchased with DOT funds be accessible to handicapped persons after specified dates (with some exceptions), or (2) in addition to the foregoing, to leave preexisting regulations of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration in effect (those regulations permitted local option in providing transportation services to the handicapped, including a paratransit option).

(b) Modify Subpart E of the regulation in one or more of the following ways:

—Extend or reduce the time frame for compliance;

—Require that a smaller or larger percentage of transit stations in those cities having rail transit systems be made accessible to handicapped persons;

—Make more or less stringent, or eliminate, the provisions allowing a waiver, in specified circumstances, of certain of the requirements regarding rail transit;

—Provide waiver provisions for cities having bus transit fleets below a specified size.

(c) Modify Subpart D of the regulation to extend or reduce time periods for compliance.

Scoping Process

The Department is initiating an immediate process to determine the scope of issues to be addressed in the EIS and to identify any significant environmental impacts related to the proposed action, pursuant to section 1501.7 of the CEQ regulations and paragraph 3(c) of DOT 5610.1C. The scoping process will assist the Department to identify the significant issues to be analyzed in depth in the EIS and to identify and eliminate from detailed study issues which are not significant. The process will include the receipt of written recommendations or suggestions from any interested party and the holding of a scoping meeting at which these questions will be discussed. The Department requests that any written suggestions with respect to the scope of the EIS be submitted as soon as possible, but not later than the date of the scoping meeting.

The scoping meeting will be held on Friday, March 21, 1980, commencing at 9:30 a.m., in room 2230 of the DOT Headquarters Building, 400 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. For persons wishing to attend the scoping meeting, the most convenient point of access to room 2230 is via the building entrance near the corner of Sixth and E Streets, S.W. Access for persons using wheelchairs is most convenient via Seventh Street or E Street entryways into the building plaza.

Although there is no limitation on attendance at or participation in the scoping meeting, the Department would appreciate receiving notification from those parties who expect to participate. The Department would also appreciate learning of the principal areas of interest of the potential participants. Based upon the notifications of likely participation and areas of interest, the Department may issue a second notice establishing an agenda for the meeting and guidelines for the conduct of the meeting.

The person who can answer questions about the proposed action and the forthcoming EIS is Mr. George McDonald, Office of Environment and Safety, Room 9422, Department of Transportation, 400 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20590 (telephone 202-426-4492). Submissions concerning the scope of the EIS and expressing intent to attend the scoping meeting should be addressed to Mr. McDonald.

Issued in Washington, D.C. Tuesday, February 19, 1980.

Donald F. Mazziotti,

Deputy Assistant Secretary for Policy and International Affairs.

BILLING CODE 4910-62-M

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE

National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration

50 CFR Parts 611 and 656

Atlantic Mackerel Fishery; Fishery Management Plan

AGENCY: National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA)/Commerce.

ACTION: Promulgation of final regulations.

SUMMARY: These final regulations implement the fishery management plan for the Mackerel Fishery of the Northwest Atlantic Ocean (FMP) prepared by the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council (Council) under authority of the Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976, 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq., as amended (the Act). These final regulations control domestic and foreign vessels within the United States fishery conservation zone (FCZ), fishing for Atlantic mackerel (Scomber scombrus). The final regulations provide:

- (1) Annual catch quotas for both domestic and foreign fishermen;
- (2) A fishing year for Atlantic mackerel from April 1, 1979, through March 31, 1980;
- (3) Recreational and commercial allocations of the annual domestic catch quota, and criteria for reallocating between these two user groups;
- (4) Mandatory catch reporting by vessel operators and reporting by dealers/processors who purchase Atlantic mackerel; and
- (5) A permit system for all commercial vessels and all party and charter boats catching Atlantic mackerel in the FCZ.

All regulations governing foreign fishing for Atlantic mackerel contained in 50 CFR Part 611 are incorporated in these regulations implementing the FMP. Those regulations are repromulgated to implement portions of the FMP.

Proposed regulations and approval and partial disapproval of the FMP were published on September 13, 1979 (44 FR 53191); public comment was invited for a 60-day period. No public comments were received.

EFFECTIVE DATES: These regulations are effective February 21, 1980, with the exception of § 656.4, § 656.5, and § 656.6, which are effective on March 1, 1980. The delay in implementing §§ 656.4-656.6 will allow domestic fishermen harvesting Atlantic mackerel to become familiar with the requirements for establishing fishing permits, reporting and recordkeeping and vessel identification.

ADDRESS: Copies of the approved FMP and the final regulatory analysis (RA) may be obtained by writing to the person listed below.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Allen E. Peterson, Jr., Regional Director, Northeast Region, National Marine Fisheries Service, 14 Elm Street, Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930, telephone (617) 281-3600.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Assistant Administrator for Fisheries, NOAA, approved the FMP July 3, 1979. The FMP and these regulations supersede the Preliminary Fishery Management Plan and regulations for Atlantic mackerel, which controlled the fishery conducted by foreign vessels since March 1, 1977. The FMP, along with the implementing regulations, will terminate on April 1, 1980.

Several changes made in these regulations are discussed on a section-by-section basis below. Other technical and editorial changes of a minor nature were made in the final regulations.

§ 656.2 Definitions.

The definition of "commercial fishing" has been modified and the definition of "personal use" has been deleted from the proposed regulations. The intent of the FMP to exempt from permit requirements "recreational fishermen taking mackerel for their personal use" has been implemented by amending § 656.4(a) (see below).

"Person who receives mackerel for a commercial purpose" has been clarified to indicate that only a first purchaser is required to maintain fish dealer/processor reports under § 656.5(b).

§ 656.4 Vessel permits and fees

Paragraph 4(a) has been changed by exempting from the permit requirement recreational vessels which catch no more than 100 pounds of mackerel per trip. All charter and party boats fishing for mackerel, however, must have permits. Difficulties in defining the "personal use of mackerel" led the agency to substitute a simpler exemption for recreational vessels which catch small amounts of mackerel.

The circumstances under which a permit expires have been expanded to include changes in length, gross tonnage, fish hold capacity of the vessel, home port, or regulated fisheries in which the vessel is engaged; these are in addition to changes in ownership or name of the vessel. The change is made to reflect the conditions and information stated on the permit.

§ 656.5 Recordkeeping and reporting

This section requires recordkeeping by fishing vessel operators and fish dealers/processors. An attempt is being made to standardize the recordkeeping provisions for all regulated Northwest Atlantic Ocean fisheries, because a single comprehensive recordkeeping form will be used for U.S. participants in these regulated fisheries. Many of the changes in this section are a result of this standardization process.

In regard to fishing vessels, the term "fishing logbook report" was used in the proposed regulations. This has been replaced with "fishing vessel record," in order to establish internal consistency between the paragraph's heading and text.

In paragraph (b), the word "first" has been added to clarify the intention that only first transfers, purchases or receipts of fish are required to be reported. Subsequent transactions between dealers, wholesalers, etc., are not subject to this reporting requirement.

Language has been added to require negative reporting (i.e., that no regulated species were taken over the reporting period). Without such a provision, it is impossible to determine whether all permitted vessels are complying with the recordkeeping requirements. Exemptions from negative reporting may be granted for periods of two to ten months for vessels permitted under this Part which are not catching mackerel for that period of time. This exemption is intended to accommodate those vessels catching mackerel on a seasonal basis only, or vessels under repair.

§ 656.22 Reallocation

This section has been rewritten to incorporate the section entitled "Catch Quotas" in the proposed regulations and to clarify the reallocation process. The meaning and intent of this section remain unchanged. The FMP established guidelines for the expected harvest of Atlantic mackerel in the FCZ as follows:

(A) 4,500 mt for vessels engaged in recreational fishing, and

(B) 3,500 mt for vessels engaged in commercial fishing.

When 70 percent of these expected harvest levels is reached a review of the domestic mackerel fishery for reallocation may be required.

FMP Approval

The Assistant Administrator finds that the plan is consistent with the national standards, other provisions of the Act, and other applicable law.

National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA)

Development and implementation of the FMP have been deemed a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment. An environmental impact statement (EIS) has been prepared and a notice of availability was published January 2, 1979 (44 FR 109).

Executive Order 12044

A regulatory analysis, required by Executive Order 12044, has been prepared. Persons wishing to inspect this document may do so by contacting the Regional Director (see "address" above).

Administrative Procedure Act Cooling Period

The Assistant Administrator for Fisheries has determined that the 30-day "cooling" period required under the Administrative Procedure Act (APA) should be waived in order to prevent further delay in implementing the FMP, which will expire along with these regulations on April 1, 1980.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 15th day of February, 1980.

Winfred H. Meibohm,

Executive Director, National Marine Fisheries Service.

(16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.)

1. Those regulations in Part 611 governing foreign fishing for Atlantic mackerel which were promulgated pursuant to a Preliminary Fishery Management Plan are retained and remain in effect under the authority of the final Fishery Management Plan as it was published on September 13, 1979 (44 FR 53191).

2. Part 656 is adopted as final to read as set forth below:

PART 656—ATLANTIC MACKEREL FISHERYSubpart A—General Provisions

Sec.

- 656.1 Purpose and scope.
- 656.2 Definitions.
- 656.3 Relation to other laws.
- 656.4 Vessel permits and fees.
- 656.5 Recordkeeping and reporting requirements.
- 656.6 Vessel identification.
- 656.7 Prohibitions.
- 656.8 Enforcement.
- 656.9 Penalties.

Subpart B—Management Measures

Sec.

- 656.20 Fishing year.
- 656.21 Allowable levels of harvest.
- 656.22 Reallocation.
- 656.23 Closure of fishery.
- 656.24 Area/time restrictions [reserved].
- 656.25 Gear/Vessel equipment restrictions [reserved].
- 656.26 Effort restrictions [reserved].

Authority: 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.

Subpart A—General Provisions§ 656.1 Purpose and scope.

(a) These regulations in this Part: (1) implement the Fishery Management Plan for the Atlantic Mackerel Fishery of the Northwest Atlantic Ocean, which was prepared and adopted by the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council and approved by the Assistant Administrator; and (2) govern fishing for Atlantic mackerel by fishing vessels of the United States within that portion of the Atlantic Ocean over which the United States exercises exclusive fishery management authority.

(b) The regulations governing fishing for Atlantic mackerel by foreign vessels in the fishery conservation zone are contained in 50 CFR Part 611.

§ 656.2 Definitions.

In addition to the definitions in the Act, the terms used in this Part shall have the following meanings:

Act means the Fishery Conservation and Management Act of 1976, as amended, 16 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.

Assistant Administrator means the Assistant Administrator for Fisheries of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, Department of Commerce, or an individual to whom appropriate authority has been delegated.

Atlantic mackerel or mackerel means the species Scomber scombrus.

Authorized Officer means:

- (a) Any commissioned, warrant, or petty officer of the U.S. Coast Guard;
- (b) Any certified enforcement officer or special agent of the National Marine Fisheries Service;
- (c) Any officer designated by the head of any Federal or State agency which has entered into an agreement with the Secretary of Commerce and the Commandant of the U.S. Coast Guard to enforce the provisions of the Act; or
- (d) Any U.S. Coast Guard personnel accompanying and acting under the direction of any person described in paragraph (a) of this definition.

Catch, take, or harvest includes, but is not limited to, any activity which results in mortality to any mackerel or in bringing any mackerel on board a vessel.

Charter or party boat means any vessel which carries passengers for hire to engage in fishing.

Commercial fishing means fishing with the purpose of selling part or all of any fish harvested.

Fishery Conservation Zone (FCZ) means that area adjacent to the United States which, except where modified to accommodate international boundaries, encompasses all waters from the seaward boundary of each of the coastal States to a line on which each point is 200 nautical miles from the baseline from which the territorial sea of the United States is measured.

Fishery Management Plan (FMP) means the Fishery Management Plan for the Atlantic Mackerel Fishery of the Northwest Atlantic Ocean, and any amendments thereto.

Fishing includes any activity, other than scientific research activity conducted by a scientific research vessel, which involves:

- (a) The catching, taking, or harvesting of mackerel;
- (b) The attempted catching, taking, or harvesting of mackerel;
- (c) Any other activity which can reasonably be expected to result in the catching, taking, or harvesting of mackerel; or

(d) Any operations at sea in support of, or in preparation for, any activity described in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this definition.

Fishing trip means a period of time during which fishing is conducted, beginning when the vessel leaves port and ending when the vessel returns to port.

Fishing vessel means any vessel, boat, ship, or other craft which is used for, equipped to be used for, or of a type which is normally used for: (a) fishing; or (b) aiding or assisting one or more vessels at sea in the performance of any activity relating to fishing, including but not limited to, preparation, supply, storage, refrigeration, transportation, or processing.

Fishing week means the weekly period beginning 0001 hours Sunday and ending 2400 hours Saturday.

Operator, with respect to any fishing vessel, means the master or other individual on board and in charge of that vessel.

Owner, with respect to any fishing vessel, means:

- (a) Any person who owns that vessel in whole or in part;
- (b) Any charterer of the vessel, whether bareboat, time or voyage;
- (c) Any person who acts in the capacity of a charterer, including but not limited to parties to a management agreement, operating agreement, or any similar agreement that bestows control over the destination, function, or operation of the vessel; or

(d) Any agent designated as such by a person described in paragraphs (a), (b) or (c) of this definition.

Person means any individual (whether or not a citizen or national of the United States), corporation, partnership, association, or other entity (whether or not organized or existing under the laws of any State), and any Federal, State, local, or foreign government or any entity of any such government.

Person who receives Atlantic mackerel for a commercial purpose means any person (excluding governments and governmental entities) engaged in commerce who is the first purchaser of mackerel. The term includes, but is not limited to, dealers, brokers, processors, cooperatives, or fish exchanges. It does not include a person who only transports mackerel between a fishing vessel and a first purchaser.

Recreational fishing means fishing other than commercial fishing, and includes fishing by charter or party boats.

Regional Director means the Regional Director, Northeast Region, National Marine Fisheries Service, Federal Building, 14 Elm Street, Gloucester, Massachusetts 01930; or a designee.

Regulated species means any species for which fishing by a vessel of the United States is regulated pursuant to the Act.

United States harvested mackerel means mackerel caught, taken, or harvested by vessels of the United States under this Part, whether or not such mackerel is landed in the United States.

Vessel of the United States means:

- (a) Any vessel documented or numbered by the United States Coast Guard under United States law; or
- (b) Any vessel under five net tons which is registered under the laws of any State.

§ 656.3 Relation to other laws.

(a) Persons affected by these regulations should be aware that other Federal and State statutes and regulations may apply to their activities.

(b) All fishing activity, regardless of species sought, is prohibited pursuant to 15 CFR Part 924, on the U.S.S. Monitor Marine Sanctuary, which is located approximately 15 miles southwest of Cape Hatteras off the coast of North Carolina (35°00'23"N., 75°24'32"W.).

§ 656.4 Vessel permits and fees.

(a) General. Every fishing vessel which fishes for Atlantic mackerel under this Part must have a fishing permit issued under this section. Recreational vessels, other than party and charter boats, are exempt from this requirement if they catch no more than 100 pounds of mackerel per trip.

(b) Eligibility [Reserved].

(c) Application. (1) An application for a fishing permit under this Part must be submitted and signed by the owner or operator of the vessel on an appropriate form obtained from the Regional Director. The application must be submitted to the Regional Director at least 30 days prior to the date on which the applicant desires to have the permit made effective.

(2) Applicants shall provide all the following information:

- (i) The name, mailing address including ZIP code, and telephone number of the owner of the vessel;
- (ii) The name of the vessel;
- (iii) The vessel's United States Coast Guard documentation number or the vessel's State registration number for vessels not required to be documented under provisions of Title 46 of the United States Code;
- (iv) The home port or principal port of landing, gross tonnage, radio call sign, and length of the vessel;
- (v) The engine horsepower of the vessel and year the vessel was built;
- (vi) The type of construction, type of propulsion, and type of echo sounder of the vessel;
- (vii) The permit number of any current or previous fishing permit issued to the vessel;
- (viii) The approximate fish hold capacity of the vessel;
- (ix) The type and quantity of fishing gear used by the vessel;
- (x) The average size of the crew, which may be stated in terms of a normal range; and
- (xi) Any other information concerning vessel and gear characteristics requested by the Regional Director.

(3) Any change in the information specified in paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall be submitted in writing to the Regional Director by the owner within 15 days of any such change.

(d) Fees. No fee is required for any permit issued under this Part.

(e) Issuance. The Regional Director shall issue a permit to the applicant not later than 30 days from the receipt of a completed application.

(f) Expiration. A permit shall expire upon any change in vessel ownership, registration, name, length, gross tonnage, fish hold capacity, home port or the regulated fisheries in which the vessel is engaged.

(g) Duration. A permit shall continue in effect until it expires or is revoked, suspended, or modified pursuant to 50 CFR Part 621.

(h) Alteration. No person shall alter, erase, or mutilate any permit. Any permit which has been intentionally altered, erased, or mutilated is invalid.

(i) Replacement. Replacement permits may be issued by the Regional Director when requested in writing by the owner or operator stating the need for replacement, the name of the vessel, and the fishing permit number assigned. An application for a replacement permit shall not be considered a new application.

(j) Transfer. A permit issued under this Part is not transferable or assignable. A permit shall be valid only for the fishing vessel and owner for which it is issued.

(k) Display. A permit issued under this Part must be carried on board the fishing vessel at all times. The operator of a fishing vessel shall present the permit for inspection upon request of any Authorized Officer.

(l) Sanctions. Subpart D of 50 CFR Part 621 (Civil Procedures) governs the imposition of sanctions against a permit issued under this Part. As specified in that Subpart D, a permit may be revoked, modified, or suspended if the permitted fishing vessel is used in the commission of an offense prohibited by the Act or these regulations, or if a civil penalty or criminal fine imposed under the Act is not paid.

§ 656.5 Recordkeeping and reporting requirements.

(a) Fishing vessel records. (1) The operator of any fishing vessel issued a permit to fish for mackerel under this Part shall:

(i) Maintain on board the vessel an accurate and complete fishing vessel record on forms supplied by the Regional Director; according to the requirements of § 656.5(a)(2). The vessel record shall contain information on a daily basis for the entirety of any trip during which any regulated species are caught, and shall contain information for all fish which are caught;

(ii) Make the fishing vessel record available for inspection or reproduction by an Authorized Officer, or an employee of the National Marine Fisheries Service designated by the Regional Director to make such inspections, at any time during or after a fishing trip;

(iii) Keep each fishing vessel record for one year after the date of the last entry in the fishing vessel record; and

(iv) Submit fishing vessel records, as specified in § 656.5(a)(2).

(2) the owner or operator of any fishing vessel conducting any fishing operation subject to this Part shall:

(i) Submit a complete fishing vessel record to a location designated by the Regional Director 48 hours after the end of any fishing week or fishing trip (whichever time period is longer) during which any regulated species were taken; or

(ii) Submit a statement to a location designated by the Regional Director 48 hours after the end of any calendar week within which no fishing for any regulated species occurred.

(3) Fishing vessel records shall contain information on a daily basis for the entirety of any trip during which mackerel or any other regulated species are caught, and shall contain information for all fish which are caught.

(4) A request for exemption from the provisions of paragraph (a)(2)(ii) of this section shall be submitted in writing to the Regional Director. Such request shall state the reason for the request and the period of time for which the exemption is to apply. The Regional Director may issue an exemption for a period of time greater than two months and less than ten months. If an exemption is issued, the Regional Director must be notified in writing of the operator's intent to resume fishing before fishing may be resumed.

(5) The Assistant Administrator may revoke, modify, or suspend the permit of a fishing vessel whose owner or operator falsifies or fails to submit the records and reports prescribed by this section, in accordance with the provisions of 50 CFR Part 621.

(b) Fish dealer or processor reports. Any person who receives Atlantic mackerel for a commercial purpose from a fishing vessel subject to this Part shall:

(1) File a weekly report (Sunday through Saturday) to a location designated by the Regional Director on forms supplied by the Regional Director within 48 hours of the end of any week in which mackerel is received. This report shall include information on all first transfers, purchases, or receipts of mackerel and all other fish made during the week; and

(2) Permit an Authorized Officer, or an employee of the National Marine Fisheries Service designated by the Regional Director to make inspections, to inspect or reproduce any records or books relating to any first transfers, purchases, or receipts of mackerel. These inspections may take place at the principal place of business or at the location where these required records regularly are kept.

§ 656.6 Vessel identification.

(a) Official number. Each fishing vessel subject to this Part and over 25 feet in length shall display its Official Number on the port and starboard sides of the deckhouse or hull and on an appropriate weather deck so as to be clearly visible from enforcement vessels and aircraft. The Official Number is the documentation number issued by the U.S. Coast Guard for documented vessels or the registration number issued by a State of the U.S. Coast Guard for undocumented vessels.

(b) Numerals. (1) The Official Number shall be at least 18 inches in height for fishing vessels over 65 feet in length and at least 10 inches in height for all other vessels over 25 feet in length.

(2) The Official Number shall be permanently affixed to or painted on the vessel and shall be painted legibly in block Arabic numerals in contrasting color. However, charter or party boats may use nonpermanent markings to display the Official Number whenever the vessel is fishing for mackerel.

(c) Vessel length. The length of a vessel, for purposes of this section, is that length set forth in U.S. Coast Guard or State records.

(d) Duties of operator. The operator of each fishing vessel shall:

(1) Keep the Official Number clearly legible and in good repair, and

(2) Ensure that no part of the fishing vessel, its rigging, or its fishing gear obstructs the view of the Official Number from an enforcement vessel or aircraft.

§ 656.7 Prohibitions.

It is unlawful for any person to:

(a) Use any vessel for the taking, catching, harvesting, or landing of any Atlantic mackerel (except as provided for in section 656.4(a)), unless the vessel has a valid permit issued pursuant to this Part, on board the vessel;

(b) Fail to report to the Regional Director within 15 days any change in the information contained in the permit application for a vessel;

(c) Falsify or fail to make, keep, maintain, or submit any fishing vessel record or fish dealer/processor report, or other record or report required by this Part;

(d) Make any false statement, oral or written, to an Authorized Officer, concerning the taking, catching, landing, purchase, sale, or transfer of any mackerel;

(e) Fail to affix and maintain vessel markings as required by § 656.6 of this part;

(f) Possess, have custody or control over, ship, transport, offer for sale, sell, purchase, import, export, or land any

Atlantic mackerel taken in violation of the Act, this Part, or any regulation promulgated under the Act;

(g) Fish for, take, catch, or harvest any Atlantic mackerel from the FCZ after the fishery has been closed pursuant to § 656.23;

(h) Transfer directly or indirectly, or attempt to so transfer, any United States harvested mackerel to any foreign fishing vessel, while such vessel is within the FCZ, unless the foreign fishing vessel has been issued a permit under section 204 of the Act, which authorizes the receipt by such vessel of the United States harvested mackerel;

(i) Refuse to permit an Authorized Officer, or an employee of the National Marine Fisheries Service designated by the Regional Director to make such inspections, to inspect any fishing vessel record, fish dealer/processor reports, or other records relating to the taking, catching, harvesting, landing, first purchase, or sale of Atlantic mackerel;

(j) Refuse to permit an Authorized Officer to board a fishing vessel subject to such person's control for purposes of conducting any search or inspection in connection with the enforcement of this Act, this Part, or any other regulation promulgated under the Act;

(k) Fail to comply immediately with enforcement and boarding procedures specified in § 656.8;

(l) Forcibly assault, resist, oppose, impede, intimidate, threaten or interfere with an Authorized Officer in the conduct of any search or inspection under the Act;

(m) Resist a lawful arrest for any act prohibited by this Part;

(n) Interfere with, obstruct, delay, or prevent by any means the apprehension or arrest of another person knowing that such other person has committed any act prohibited by this Part;

(o) Interfere with, obstruct, delay, or prevent by any means the lawful investigation or search in the process of enforcing this Part;

(p) Violate any other provision of this Part, the Act, or any regulation promulgated pursuant thereto.

§ 656.8 Enforcement.

(a) General. The operator of any fishing vessel subject to this Part shall immediately comply with instructions issued by an Authorized Officer to facilitate safe boarding and inspection of the vessel, its gear, equipment, fishing record, and catch for purposes of enforcing the Act and this Part.

(b) Signals. Upon being approached by a U.S. Coast Guard vessel or aircraft, or other vessel or aircraft authorized to enforce the Act, the operator of the fishing vessel shall be alert for communications conveying enforcement instructions. VHF-FM radiotelephone is the normal method of communication between vessels. Should radiotelephone communications fail, however, other methods of communication, including visual signals, may be employed. The following signals extracted from the International Code of Signals are among those which may be used, and are included here for the safety and information of fishing vessel operators:

(1) "L" means "You should stop your vessel instantly";

(2) "SQ3" means "You should stop or heave to; I am going to board you; and

(3) "AA AA AA etc.," which is the call to an unknown station, to which the signaled vessel shall respond by illuminating the vessel's Official Number required by § 656.6.

(c) Boarding. A vessel signaled to stop or heave to for boarding shall:

(1) Stop immediately and lay to or maneuver in such a way as to permit the Authorized Officer and his/her party to come aboard.

(2) Provide a safe ladder for the Authorized Officer and his/her party;

(3) When necessary to facilitate the boarding and/or when requested by an authorized Officer, provide a man rope, safety line and illumination for the ladder; and

(4) Take such other actions as necessary to insure the safety of the Federal Law Enforcement Officer and his/her party to facilitate the boarding.

§ 656.9 Penalties.

Any person or fishing vessel found to be in violation of this Part will be subject to the civil and criminal penalty provisions and forfeiture provisions prescribed in the Act, and to 50 CFR Part 620 (Citations) and Part 621 (Civil Procedures).

Subpart B—Management Measures

§ 656.20 Fishing Year.

The fishing year for Atlantic mackerel is the 12-month period beginning April 1 and ending on March 31 of the following year.

§ 656.21 Allowable Levels of Harvest.

(a) Catch Quotas. The allowed levels of harvest on a fishing year basis for Atlantic mackerel are divided into annual catch quotas for vessels of the United States and vessels of foreign nations as follows:

(1) Domestic fishery. The annual catch quotas of Atlantic mackerel for vessels of the United States are 9,000 mt for vessels engaged in recreational fishing and 5,000 mt for vessels engaged in commercial fishing.

(2) Foreign fishery. The annual catch quota of Atlantic mackerel for vessels of foreign nations is 1,200 mt.

(b) Territorial waters. These regulations do not limit harvests of Atlantic mackerel in the waters landward of the FCZ. Harvests from these waters, however, shall be subtracted from the annual domestic quotas set forth in paragraph (a)(1) of this section.

§ 656.22 Reallocation.

(a) General. This section establishes a procedure which will be followed to make timely reallocations of catch quotas between domestic recreational and domestic commercial fisheries.

(b) Procedure. (1) Time of review. The Assistant Administrator shall review the status of the mackerel fishery when the first of the following occurs:

(i) the domestic recreational catch reaches 5,000 mt;

(ii) the domestic commercial catch reaches 5,000 mt;

(iii) the recreational catch in the FCZ reaches 3,150 mt;

(iv) the commercial catch in the FCZ reaches 2,450 mt; or

(v) October 1.

(2) Initial determination. If the Assistant Administrator determines, based upon relevant past catch data and projections of future harvesting performance for the remainder of the fishing year, that either the commercial or recreational levels of harvest will not be attained, he may reallocate amounts of mackerel that are projected not to be harvested between the commercial and recreational catch quotas. The purpose of reallocation is to minimize the possibility of closure in either fishery and to assist in attaining the domestic quota and optimum yield.

(3) Public comment. The public shall be given no less than 15 days from the date of publication of the notice of intent to reallocate to submit written comments concerning the amount of Atlantic mackerel to be reallocated. Comments shall be sent to the Regional Director.

(4) Consultation. During the 15-day public comment period, the Assistant Administrator or a designee shall consult with the appropriate committee of the Mid-Atlantic Fishery Management Council to assist his determination whether the proposed reallocation of Atlantic mackerel is consistent with the objectives contained in the FMP.

(5) Final determination. The Assistant Administrator shall make a final determination of the amount of Atlantic mackerel to be reallocated after taking into account:

(i) The intent and capability of U.S. fishing vessels to harvest Atlantic mackerel during the remainder of the fishing year;

(ii) The consistency of any reallocation with the objectives contained in the FMP;

(iii) The most current information available concerning the biological status of the species of Atlantic mackerel; and

(iv) Any other information determined by the Assistant Administrator to be relevant.

(6) Publication of reallocations. The Assistant Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register any reallocation of Atlantic mackerel pursuant to paragraph (b)(5) of this section approximately 15 days prior to the effective date of the reallocation. Comments received during the comment period, all relevant information used by the Assistant Administrator in making a final determination on reallocation, and the most recent catch statistics for domestic harvest of Atlantic mackerel to be reallocated shall be summarized in the Federal Register.

§ 656.23 Closure of fishery.

(a) General. The Regional Director shall periodically monitor catches and landings of Atlantic mackerel.

(b) Decision to close. When 80 percent of either of the annual domestic catch quotas specified in § 656.21 (as modified by any reallocation under § 656.22) has been harvested, the Assistant Administrator shall close the affected fishery.

(c) Notice of closure. If the Assistant Administrator determines that a closure of either the domestic recreational or commercial fishery for mackerel is necessary, the Assistant Administrator shall:

(1) Notify in advance the Executive Directors of the Mid-Atlantic, New England, and South Atlantic Fishery Management Councils of the closure;

(2) Mail notifications to all holders of permits issued under § 656.5 of the closure at least 72 hours prior to the effective date of the closure; and

(3) Publish a notice of closure in the Federal Register.

(d) Incidental Catch. During a period of closure, fishing vessels may catch, take, or harvest Atlantic mackerel incidental to fishing for other species of fish, provided that the amount of Atlantic mackerel constitutes no more than 10 percent by weight of the total catch of all other fish on board the vessel at the end of any fishing trip.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

10 CFR Part 73

Physical Protection of In-Transit Special Nuclear Material of Moderate Strategic Significance

AGENCY: U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: On January 14, 1980, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) published in the Federal Register (45 FR 2657) proposed amendments to 10 CFR Part 73 to allow the NRC to delay the shipments of certain quantities of Special Nuclear Material (SNM) of moderate strategic significance. The NRC is republishing these proposed amendments to explain how the scheduling control for preventing concurrent shipment of two or more quantities of SNM of moderate strategic significance totalling more than a formula amount will be implemented and to include additional requirements in subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) of 10 CFR 73.67(e)(6). The comment period has also been extended.

DATES: Comments due on or before March 24, 1980.

ADDRESSES: Written comments or suggestions for consideration in connection with the proposed amendments should be sent to the Secretary of the Commission, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Docketing and Service Branch. Copies of comments received may be examined at the Commission's Public Document Room at 1717 H Street, NW., Washington, D.C.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. C. K. Nulsen, Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555 (Phone 301-427-4181).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Commission has been concerned that possible theft of concurrent shipments of SNM of Moderate strategic significance could result in the accumulation by an adversary of a formula quantity of SSNM. In the Physical Protection Upgrade Rule (44 FR 68184 November 28, 1979), the Commission prohibits the coincident transport by a single licensee of two or more shipments of SNM of moderate strategic significance if in the aggregate the series amounts to a formula quantity of SSNM. The NRC now proposes an amendment that would allow the NRC to delay the dispatching of one or more shipments of SNM of moderate strategic significance by two or more licensees whenever it appears a formula quantity of SSNM would be enroute at the same time. Implementation of this amendment would (1) help to assure that a formula quantity of SSNM could not be lost or stolen while in transit, and (2) provide the NRC with the capability of preventing the loss of additional material to an adversary before an accounting of a lost shipment has been made.

The NRC intends to institute the following procedures to implement this proposed amendment. A licensee shipper of an amount of SNM of moderate strategic significance is required by 10 CFR 73.72 to notify the appropriate NRC Inspection and Enforcement (IE) Regional Office by both mail and telephone at least seven (7) days in advance of any shipment of SNM of moderate strategic significance. IE Headquarters will in turn notify the Division of Safeguards, Office of Nuclear Material Safety and Safeguards (NMSS), of scheduled shipments of SNM of moderate strategic significance. Division of Safeguards staff will call the licensee to determine the actual start and end times and dates of the shipment and will, no later than two days prior to the forecast shipment date, determine if a formula quantity or more will be enroute at the same time and will recommend to the Director, Division of Safeguards whether to delay any shipment of SNM of moderate strategic significance. According to proposed § 73.67(e)(6)(ii), confirmation of the receipt of the SNM at its destination will be made by the receiver or the shipper, if the receiver is not a licensee, and the Commission will be notified. If the Director determines to delay a shipment of SNM of moderate strategic significance, NRC will then notify the affected licensee of the delay by both telephone and telegraph. Decisions for delaying a shipment will be based on the following: (1) Total time needed to complete the shipment, (2) the impact of a schedule delay on the use of the SNM at the delivery site, (3) expected routing, (4) relationship of the material to the national defense or to other essential programs, and (5) whether a licensee might volunteer to delay shipment. Under the rule, advance approval of shipments is not required, the burden is on NRC to order the delay of a shipment if appropriate.

Pursuant to the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended, the Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, as amended, and section 553 of title 5 of the United States Code, notice is hereby given that adoption of the following amendment to Title 10, Chapter I, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 73 is contemplated.

PART 73—PHYSICAL PROTECTION OF PLANTS AND MATERIALS

§ 73.67 [Amended]

1. New subdivisions (i), (ii) and (iii) are added to § 73.67(e)(6) of 10 CFR Part 73 to read as follows:

* * * * *

(e) In-Transit Requirements for Special Nuclear Material of Moderate Strategic Significance.

* * * * *

(6) If, after receiving advance notice of shipment of special nuclear material pursuant to § 73.72, it appears to the Commission that two or more shipments of special nuclear material of moderate strategic significance, constituting in the aggregate an amount equal to or greater than a formula quantity of strategic special nuclear material, may be en route at the same time, the Commission may order one or more of the shippers to delay shipment according to the following procedures:

(i) The shipper shall provide to the Commission, upon request, additional information regarding a proposed shipment pertinent to the decision on whether to delay such shipment.

(ii) The receiver, or the shipper if the receiver is not a licensee, shall confirm receipt and integrity of a given shipment and notify the Director of the appropriate Nuclear Regulatory Commission Inspection and Enforcement Regional Office listed in Appendix A by telephone no later than 24 hours after receipt.

(iii) The Commission shall notify the affected shippers no later than two days before the scheduled shipment date that a given shipment is to be delayed.

[Petition Notice No. PR-79-3B]

Grant of Petition for Rulemaking of the National Federation of the Blind

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Publication of Grant of petition for rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This notice published the Grant of the petition for rulemaking of the National Federation of the Blind (NFB), dated September 14, 1977, for repeal and amendment of various sections of Parts 121 and 123 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, (FAR) 14 CFR Parts 121 and 123. The petition was granted to allow the initiation of rule making to permit the readily accessible storage of flexible travel canes and the initiation of rule making concerning the amendment of regulations pertaining to the carriage of persons who may need assistance of others in the event of an emergency evacuation.

Availability of Notice

Any person may obtain a copy of this notice by submitting a request to the Federal Aviation Administration, Office of Public Affairs, Attention: Public Information Center, APA-430, Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591, or by calling (202) 426-8058. Communications must identify the notice number of this document.

Grant of the NFB Petition

The Federal Aviation Administration publishes verbatim the following Grant of petition for rule making of the National Federation of the Blind, dated January 18, 1980.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on February 15, 1980.

Edward P. Faberman,

Acting Assistant Chief Counsel, Regulations and Enforcement Division.

[Regulatory Docket No. 17320]

National Federation of the Blind; Grant of Petition

In the matter of the petition of National Federation of the Blind, to revoke portions of Parts 121 and 123 of the Federal Aviation Regulations.

By letter dated September 14, 1977, Mr. James Cashel, Chief, Washington Office, the National Federation of the Blind ("NFB"), Suite 212, Dupont Circle Building, 1346 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C., 20026 petitioned the Administrator to revoke those portions of Parts 121 and 123 of the Federal Aviation Regulations which deal with air transportation of persons who may need evacuation assistance. The Federal Aviation Administration ("FAA") denied the petition on March 10, 1979 (Docket No. 17320). Subsequently, the NFB sought review of FAA's denial in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. On January 10, 1979, the Court granted an FAA motion giving the agency time in which to reconsider the NFB petition for rule making. The motion was, in part, based upon a request by FAA's Deputy Administrator that the Civil Aeromedical Institute ("CAMI") in Oklahoma City conduct additional tests regarding the feasibility and safety of allowing blind persons to keep long rigid canes at their seats during takeoff and landing. CAMI accomplished the requested additional testing and on May 3, 1979, the FAA published in the Federal Register (44 FR 25879) a copy of the petition and a summary of the CAMI report for public comment (the entire CAMI report was available on request). The petition and summary of the CAMI report were published as part of the agency's policy to maximize public involvement in the regulatory process. In addition, this enabled the agency to solicit all available information before a review of the issues presented by the NFB petition was completed to ensure that all regulatory alternatives were considered. This publication was also consistent with Executive Order 12044, signed by President Carter on March 23, 1978.

The NFB petition requested the following:

1. The repeal of the amendment to § 121.13(a) which inserts the phrase "121.586" after the phrase "121.575."
2. The repeal of § 121.586 of Part 121.
3. The amendment of § 121.589(a) to exclude from those items which must be stowed away from the passenger the flexible travel canes of blind persons.
4. The repeal of the amendment of § 123.27(k) which deleted the phrase "and § 121.574" and inserted, instead, the phrase "121.574 and 121.586."

Section 121.13(a) specifies the Part 121 rules which are applicable to helicopter operations.

Section 121.586 states, in pertinent part, that no certificate holder may refuse transportation to a person who may need evacuation assistance unless the certificate holder has established procedures (including reasonable notice requirements) and the passenger fails to comply with the notice requirements or cannot be carried in accordance with the certificate holder's procedures.

Section 121.589(a) states, in pertinent part, that no certificate holder may permit an airplane to take off or land unless each article of baggage is properly stowed.

Section 123.27 specifies the rules of Part 121 which are applicable to holders of air travel club certificates.

For purposes of this petition it must be assumed that the term "flexible travel canes" does not include folding or telescoping canes since those canes can presently be carried in accordance with § 121.589(a).

The NFB stated the following in support of its petition:

"Our interest in the repeal of the above-listed FAR sections is as follows: The sections enforce procedures for the carriage of the handicapped on air carriers. The procedures work unreasonable hardship on the blind citizens of the United States in pursuit of their constitutionally protected activities for the following reasons:

"(1) The sections require blind citizens to follow procedures set up arbitrarily by private air carriers, which procedures are kept secret from those who must follow them.

"(2) The sections enforce humiliating, discriminatory, and unnecessary procedures to ensure "safety," although there is no evidence that the safety hazards cited actually exists.

"(3) The sections do not prohibit illegal discrimination in treatment of the handicapped by private air carriers.

"(4) The sections were published by the FAA after a long rule-making process. The FAA published proposed regulations and elicited comment and held hearings on the proposed rules. The sections published as final regulations, however, bore so little similarity to the proposed rules as to nullify the validity of the process leading to their publication. These sections have not been submitted for public comment."

Published with the NFB petition was a summary of a CAMI report entitled "Considerations Relative To The Use Of Canes By Blind Travelers In Air Carrier Cabins". This report was completed in 1979 and reported the results of tests accomplished to reveal some of the safety implications of allowing blind travelers to retain rigid canes at their seats during takeoff and landing. Among the issues considered in establishing the test program were the impact cane retention would have on an emergency evacuation, the relative utility of folding or telescoping canes versus rigid ones, the movement of an unsecured cane during high "g" decelerations and the potential of canes for injuring passengers on damaging evacuation slides.

The CAMI report disclosed, in part, that an evacuation flow rate disruption time of 2.7 seconds was experienced when canes were not present for use by the blind subjects. This evacuation flow delay represents a 1.3 second increase over the average flow delay measured when canes were available for use by blind subjects. The crash tests also showed that the retention of rigid canes at the seat may adversely affect safety by injuring their holder or other passengers. The static tests showed that canes made of plastic, wood, fiberglass, and of solid construction usually splinter when failed whereas thin-walled aluminum canes merely bend and jointed canes split at the joint.

The publication of the NFB petition, the CAMI report summary, and the questions posed by the FAA resulted in the receipt of one hundred and twenty comments from various individuals, organizations affiliated with blind persons and aviation organizations. The majority of commenters did not, however, address that portion of the NFB petition requesting the repeal of § 121.586 governing the air transportation of persons who may need assistance in the event of an emergency evacuation. The vast majority of the commenters addressed the issues raised concerning § 121.589(a). The majority of these commenters expressed the view that blind passengers should be permitted to retain rigid canes at, or in the immediate vicinity of, their seats. Only one commenter voiced a substantive objection to this majority view, and that commenter cited the sufficiency of the CAMI data as supporting the existing stowage requirements. Further, most commenters were against any regulation governing the carriage of canes. All of the commenters that expressed an opinion objected to the prohibition against carrying canes because they believed them to be less dangerous than carrying umbrellas, brief cases, handbags, and in some cases, children. Most of the commenters believed that there are adequate places to store canes near seats. In this regard specific note is made of the comments of the Association of Flight Attendants whose consultant suggested the use of Velcro tape to secure an otherwise unrestrained cane in the vicinity of its owner's seat.

The 1979 CAMI study conclusively shows that the average additional delay encountered in evacuations when canes were used by blind subjects was 1.3 seconds. This figure represents only 1 percent of the present standard 90-second evacuation time. Thus, while there is a technical possibility of some additional small evacuation delay arising from the use of canes by some passengers, given the myriad of variables present in both actual and simulated evacuations, the 1.3 second delay is not a safety hazard of sufficient magnitude so as to require denial of the NFB's petition for rule making concerning § 121.589(a).

The CAMI study also considered the potential of unsecured canes to present possible hazards in a sudden deceleration such as that which would occur in the event of an aircraft crash. CAMI determined that an unsecured cane would pose a substantial hazard in the event of sudden deceleration. However, an appropriately stowed cane, even if readily accessible, would not constitute a safety hazard.

Finally, the CAMI study addressed the possibility of canes damaging an evacuation slide. The physical and engineering data gleaned from the test program demonstrate the existence of such a possibility. However, the uniqueness of every crash situation precludes a prior determination that this is a safety hazard which, in the absence of other data substantiating its nature and probable frequency of occurrence, provides a sufficient basis to deny the NFB's petition for rule making concerning § 121.589(a).

Review of the NFB petition, the public's comments, and the research conducted by CAMI has not established a data base sufficient to substantiate a safety hazard of a magnitude to require denial of that portion of the NFB petition requesting the amendment of § 121.589(a) to permit the stowage of the flexible travel canes in readily accessible locations. The petition is granted to allow the initiation of rule making to permit the readily accessible stowage of flexible travel canes. Undoubtedly a number of hypothetical situations can be postulated in which canes may pose safety hazards of varying degrees, but there is no satisfactory historical experience with such problems, nor do the hypothetical hazards associated with canes—particularly those capable of being constructed in experimental settings—have a sufficiently high probability of occurrence so as to constitute a safety hazard. Further, with appropriate stowage, the special utility that canes have for blind passengers can be preserved while at the same time any conceivable safety hazard posed by their near-seat placement in readily accessible locations can be minimized.

In addition, that portion of the NFB petition that requires the initiation of rule making concerning the amendment of § 121.586 which governs the carriage of persons who may need the assistance of others in the event of an emergency evacuation is granted. Inasmuch as § 121.586 was promulgated for the benefit of an airline passenger population that greatly exceeds the potential airline passengers currently represented by the NFB, and since there was virtually no comment from the public on that section when the NFB petition was published, comment will be sought from the public before any action is taken to amend or repeal its protective provisions.

In consideration of the foregoing, I find that the rule making requested by petitioner to be in the public interest. Therefore, in accordance with the provisions of Part 11 of the Federal Aviation Regulations, the petition of the National Federation of the Blind for the initiation of rule making concerning certain sections of Parts 121 and 123 of the Federal Aviation Regulations is, as set forth above, hereby granted.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on January 18, 1980.

Kenneth S. Hunt,

Director of Flight Operations.

Airworthiness Directives; Piper (Ted Smith) Aerostar Model 600 Airplanes

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) DOT.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This notice proposes to adopt an airworthiness directive (AD) that would require installation of metal nacelle aft fairing in place of the present fiberglass aft fairing on Piper Aerostar airplanes. The proposed AD is required to prevent the reentry of an engine fire into the underwing structure behind the engine nacelle.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before April 21, 1980.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on the proposal to: Department of Transportation, Federal Aviation Administration, Western Region, Attention: Regional Counsel, Airworthiness Rule Docket, P.O. Box 92007, Worldway Postal Center, Los Angeles, California 90009.

The applicable service information may be obtained from: Piper Aerostar, Customer Service Department, 2560 Skyway Drive, Santa Maria, California 93454.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jerry Presba, Executive Secretary; Airworthiness Directive Review Board, Federal Aviation Administration, Western Region, P.O. Box 92007, World

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Interested persons are invited to participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views, or arguments as they may desire. Interested persons are also invited to comment on the economic, environmental and energy impact that might result because of adoption of the proposed rule. Communications should identify the regulatory docket number and be submitted in duplicate to the address specified above. All communications received on or before the closing date for comments will be considered by the Administrator before taking action on the proposed rule. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available, both before and after the closing date for comments, in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons. A report summarizing each FAA-public contact, concerned with the substance of the proposed AD, will be filed in the Rules Docket.

FAA review of the service experience indicates that five cases of in-flight engine nacelle fires have been encountered on Piper Aerostar Model 600 airplanes. Investigation of these incidents reveals that the fiberglass fairing under the wing and aft of the engine nacelle does not provide adequate underwing fire protection.

Since this condition is likely to exist or develop on other airplanes of the same type design, the proposed AD would require the replacement of the present fiberglass nacelle aft fairing with a metal nacelle aft fairing on Piper Aerostar Model 600 series airplanes.

Proposed Amendment

Accordingly, the Federal Aviation Administration proposed to amend Section 39.13 of Part 39 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 39.13) by adding the following new Airworthiness Directive:

Piper, (Ted Smith): Applies to Aerostar Model 600, 601, 601P airplanes certified in all categories:

Compliance required as indicated, unless already accomplished.

To prevent the reentry of an engine fire into the underlying structure behind the engine nacelle, accomplish the following:

(a) Within the next 300 hours' time in service, or ninety days after the effective date of this AD, whichever occurs sooner, install a metal fairing, P/N 230090-1 and -2, in place of the existing fiberglass fairing, P/N 230023-501 and 502, in accordance with Piper Service Bulletin SB 600-83, dated November 21, 1979.

(b) Special flight permits may be issued in accordance with FAR 21.197 and 21.199 to operate airplanes to a base for the accomplishment of this AD.

(c) Alternative inspections, modifications or other actions which provide an equivalent level of safety may be used when approved by the Chief, Aircraft Engineering Division, FAA Western Region.

[Secs. 313(a), 601, and 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423); Sec. 6(c) Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); and 14 CFR 11.85]

BILLING CODE 4910-13-M

14 CFR Part 39

(Docket No. 79-NE-18)

Airworthiness Directives; Pratt & Whitney Aircraft JT8D -1, -1A, -1B, -7, -7A, and -7B Turbofan Engines

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Extension of public comment period.

SUMMARY: This action extends the closing date for the submission of comments on Docket No. 79-NE-18 to March 12, 1980. The original closing date of February 12, 1980, provided insufficient time for interested parties to gather and submit data in support of their comments on the proposed airworthiness directive (AD).

DATES: Comments must now be received on or before March 12, 1980.

ADDRESSES: Send comments on the proposal in duplicate to: Federal Aviation Administration, Office of the Regional Counsel, New England Region, Attn: Rules Docket No. 79-NE-18, 12 New England Executive Park, Burlington, Massachusetts 08103.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Jay Pardee, (617) 273-7347.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: A notice of proposed rule making (NPRM) proposing to adopt an AD requiring a visual and ultrasonic inspection of second stage fan blades to detect cracks and surface damage at the base of the attachment strap and inner diameter of the strap pinholes on JT8D-1, -1A, -1B, -7, -7A, and -7B turbofan engines by July 1, 1981, was published in the Federal Register on December 13, 1979 (44 FR 72181). The closing date for the submission of comments by interested parties was February 12, 1980.

On February 6, 1980, the Air Transport Association of America, on behalf of ATA member JT8D operators, filed a petition for extension of the comment period to March 12, 1980. According to the petition: Due to the complexity of the proposed AD, the airlines need additional time to prepare final comments on Docket No. 79-NE-18.

The FAA believes the extension of the closing date for the submission of comments on the proposed AD would be in the public interest, and would not adversely affect air safety. Such an extension, to March 12, 1980, would permit interested parties to assemble and prepare meaningful data in support of their respective positions. It will not adversely affect air safety as this extension has no effect on the proposed compliance date.

Extension of Comment Period

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, the closing date for the submission of comments on Docket No. 79-NE-18 is hereby extended from February 12, 1980, to March 12, 1980.

[Secs. 313(a), and 603, Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, (49 U.S.C. 1354(a), 1421, and 1423); Section 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); 14 CFR 11.85]

Note.—The Federal Aviation Administration has determined that this document does not contain a major proposal requiring preparation of an Economic Impact Statement under Executive Order 11821, as amended by Executive Order 11949, and OMB Circular 107.

Issued in Burlington, Massachusetts, on February 11, 1980.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Comments Invited

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should identify the airspace docket number, and be submitted in duplicate to the Operations, Procedures and Airspace Branch, Air Traffic Division, Federal Aviation Administration, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64106. All communications received on or before March 26, 1980, will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. The proposal contained in this Notice may be changed in light of the comments received. All comments received will be available both before and after the closing date for comments in the Rules Docket for examination by interested persons.

Availability of NPRM

Any person may obtain a copy of this NPRM by submitting a request to the Federal Aviation Administration, Operations, Procedures and Airspace Branch, 601 East 12th Street, Kansas City, Missouri 64106 or by calling (816) 374-3408. Communications must identify the notice number of this NPRM. Persons interested in being placed on a mailing list for further NPRMs should also request a copy of Advisory Circular No. 11-2 which describes the application procedure.

The Proposal

The FAA is considering an amendment to Subpart G, Section 71.181 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Section 71.181) by designating a 700-foot transition area at Cabool, Missouri. To enhance airport usage by providing instrument approach capability to the Cabool Memorial Airport, the City of Cabool, Missouri, is installing a Non-Directional Radio Beacon (NDB) on the airport. This radio facility will provide new navigational guidance for aircraft utilizing the airport. The establishment of a new instrument approach procedure based on this navigational aid entails designation of a transition area at Cabool, Missouri, at and above 700 feet above ground level (AGL) within which aircraft are provided air traffic control service. The intended effect of this action is to ensure segregation of aircraft using the approach procedure under Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) and other aircraft operating under Visual Flight Rules (VFR). Accordingly, Federal Aviation Administration proposes to amend Subpart G, Section 71.181 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 71.181) as republished on January 2, 1980 (45 FR 445) by adding the following new transition area:

Cabool, Mo.

That airspace extending upwards from 700 feet above the surface within a 5-mile radius of the Cabool Municipal Airport (latitude 37°07'59"N; longitude 92°05'00"W), and within 3 miles each side of the NDB 032° bearing extending from the 5-mile radius area to 8.5

miles NE of the NDB, and within 3 miles each side of the NDB 209° bearing; extending from the 5-mile radius area to 8.5 miles SW of the NDB, and within 3 miles each side of the Maples, Missouri VORTAC R205°, extending from the 5-mile radius area to 6.5 miles NE of the Cabool Municipal Airport.

(Sec. 307(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958 as amended (49 U.S.C. 1348); Sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1855(c)); Sec. 11.65 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR 11.65).)

Note.—The FAA has determined that this document involves a proposed regulation which is not significant under Executive Order 12044, as implemented by DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). Since this regulatory action involves an established body of technical requirements for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current and promote safe flight operations, the anticipated impact is so minimal that this action does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation.

14 CFR Part 93[Docket No. 13817; Notice No. 76-5]*Nellis AFB Special Air Traffic Rule; Withdrawal of NPRM*AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.ACTION: Withdrawal of notice of proposed rule making.

SUMMARY: This notice withdraws Notice No. 76-5 published in the Federal Register on March 4, 1976 (41 FR 9372) that proposed to establish special air traffic rules for operating areas that would be established adjacent to Nellis Air Force Base (AFB) and Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) restricted areas located generally north of Las Vegas, Nev. The proposed using agency (Department of the Air Force) has determined that they are unable to provide the radio and radar coverage of the area as required by the proposal.

EFFECTIVE DATE: February 21, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Wray McClung, Airspace Regulations Branch (AAT-230), Airspace and Air Traffic Rules Division, Air Traffic Service, Federal Aviation Administration, 800 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20591; telephone: (202) 426-8488.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On March 4, 1976, the FAA published for comment a proposal to amend Part 93 of the Federal Aviation Regulations (14 CFR Part 93) to establish special air traffic rules for operating areas that would be established adjacent to Nellis AFB and Energy Research and Development Administration (ERDA) restricted areas located generally north of Las Vegas, Nev. (41 FR 9372).

A prerequisite for implementation of this proposal was for the proposed using agency (Department of the Air Force) to provide sufficient radar surveillance and communications capability to insure complete separation of aircraft operating within these areas. However, the Department of the Air Force has now determined that they are unable to fulfill this requirement at this time. For this reason, this notice is withdrawn. The withdrawal of this notice does not preclude the future issuance of a similar notice by the FAA.

Withdrawal of the Proposal

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator, Docket No. 13817; Notice No. 76-5, Notice of Proposed Rule Making (41 FR 9372) and amended (41 FR 19127 and 35073), is hereby withdrawn.

(Secs. 307(a) and 313(a), Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (49 U.S.C. 1348(a) and 1354(a)); Sec. 6(c), Department of Transportation Act (49 U.S.C. 1655(c)); and 14 CFR 11.65.)

The FAA has determined that this document involves a regulation which is not significant under Executive Order 12044, as implemented by DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979). Since this regulatory action involves an established body of technical requirements for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current and promote safe flight operations, the anticipated impact is so minimal that this action does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation.

Public Hearings on Proposed Metropolitan Washington Airports Policy and Regulations

AGENCY: Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), DOT.

ACTION: Notice of public hearings:

SUMMARY: The purpose of the hearings is to provide a further opportunity to the interested public to comment on the proposed policy and regulations and to better enable the FAA to obtain the views of the air carrier industry and the communities that may be affected. The FAA will consider the comments and views in determining how to proceed with the policy proposals.

DATES: Hearings will be held March 20 and 27 and March 25, 1980.

ADDRESSES: March 20 and 27 at the Key Bridge Marriott Hotel, 1401 Lee Highway, Rosslyn, Virginia. Hearings will convene at 7:30 p.m.

March 25 at the Dulles Marriott Hotel, Dulles International Airport. Hearing will convene at 7 p.m.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: either Charles Erhard or David Hess, Office of the Director, Metropolitan Washington Airports, Hangar 9, Washington National Airport, Washington, D.C. 20001. Telephone: Charles Erhard (703) 557-0972, David Hess (703) 577-1155.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 15, 1980, the DOT/FAA issued a Notice of Proposed Policy and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking relating to the operation and development of Washington National and Dulles International Airports and to abate aircraft noise in the communities near National Airport. (45 FR 4314, January 21, 1980) It is proposed that Dulles International Airport shall continue to serve all types of air transportation needs and that its facilities be improved and expanded as needed to fulfill that role. At National, FAA proposes that the future growth of aviation activity be controlled and that measures be taken to assure that no more than 18 million annual passengers use the airport in future years. FAA proposes to reduce hourly certificated air carrier scheduled operations at National from the present 40 to 36. This would immediately slow down the rate of growth in passenger activity at the airport and make available additional operating positions for commuter air carriers. A reduction in the number of operating slots reserved for general aviation from 12 to 9, with three additional slots to be made available to commuter air carriers, is also under consideration.

FAA proposes to adjust the hours of operation of Washington National Airport. The certificated and commuter air carriers will not be permitted to schedule operations after 9:30 p.m. It is proposed that a curfew be established which will close the airport to all traffic, except in emergencies, after 10:30 p.m. and before 7 a.m. These measures will reduce potential certificated air carrier operations at National by 118, an 18.6 percent reduction. Also, it is proposed to allow two- and three-engine widebody aircraft to use National Airport subject to a determination by the airport management that the operation is compatible with airport facilities. In addition, consideration is being given to formally adopting a perimeter rule which limits the distance of nonstop flights to and from National Airport. Either the existing informal 650-mile perimeter with continuing exceptions for seven cities beyond 650 miles will be maintained or the perimeter will be redefined as 1000 miles, which is approximately the distance to the furthest city now permitted nonstop service under the exceptions to the current practice. Adoption of this latter proposal would eliminate the potentially discriminatory treatment of closer-in cities. National Airport's role as that of a "medium" and "short-haul" airport would be maintained in either case.

Environmental Impact Statement

A supplement to the FAA Draft Environmental Impact Statement issued in March 1978 has been prepared. The Statement contains FAA's assessment of the probable impact of the proposed policy and a comparison of the impacts from the principal alternatives. The Environmental Impact Statement has been distributed to area public libraries. A limited number will be available for review at the hearings.

These hearings have been scheduled to assist the FAA in obtaining the views of the interested public, particularly those in the aviation industry or those who are residents in neighboring communities who may be affected by the proposals. It is likely that the information presented at the hearings will assist the FAA in determining how to proceed with the proposed policy. The public comment period closes on April 15, 1980. All comments received by that date will be considered.

Persons planning to speak should request that their names be placed on the agenda for one of the hearings by sending a letter to: Metropolitan Washington Airports, Environmental Policy Section, Hangar 9, Washington National Airport, Washington, D.C. 20001.

Each speaker will be allotted five minutes. Written comments will also be accepted at the hearings.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on February 15, 1980.

James A. Wilding,

Director, Metropolitan Washington Airports.

BILLING CODE 4910-13-M

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

19 CFR Part 200

Employee Responsibilities and Conduct

AGENCY: United States International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rules.

SUMMARY: This notice proposes procedures for administrative enforcement of the restrictions on postemployment activity established by title V of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-521, 92 Stat. 1864 (18 U.S.C. 207) (as amended by Pub. L. No. 96-28, 93 Stat. 76 (1979)) with respect to former employees of the United States International Trade Commission.

DATE: Comments must be received on or before March 24, 1980.

ADDRESS: Interested persons may submit comments in writing to the Secretary to the Commission, 701 E Street NW., Washington, D.C. 20436.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: The Honorable Bill Alberger, Counselor for Employee Responsibilities and Conduct, or Michael B. Jennison, Esq., Acting Deputy Counselor, United States International Trade Commission, 701 E Street, NW., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-523-0133, or 202-523-0189, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On October 26, 1978, Congress enacted the Ethics in Government Act of 1978. Title V of the act amended 18 U.S.C. 207, which restricts postemployment conflicts of interest. Congress further amended 18 U.S.C. 207 on June 22, 1979, with passage of Pub. L. No. 96-28, 93 Stat. 76. Subsection 207(j) of title V provides for administrative sanctions to be applied by an agency to a former officer or employee found to have violated subsections 207 (a), (b), or (c). Agencies are required, in consultation with the Director of the Office of Government Ethics, to establish procedures to carry out subsection 207(j).

These regulations establish procedures for handling allegations of a violation of subsections (a), (b), or (c), affording the affected former officer or employee notice and opportunity for a hearing, and applying an administrative sanction if a violation is found.

It is proposed that title 19, part 200, of the Code of Federal Regulations be amended by the addition of a new subpart D, to be composed of §§ 200.735-124 through 126, as follows:

Subpart D—Provisions for Administrative Enforcement of Postemployment Conflict of Interest Restrictions

Sec.

200.735-124. General.

200.735-125. Exemption from restrictions.

200.735-126. Administrative enforcement proceedings.

Authority: Ethics in Government Act of 1978, Pub. L. No. 95-521, 92 Stat. 1864 (18 U.S.C. 207) (as amended by Pub. L. No. 96-28, 93 Stat. 76 (1979)); 45 FR 7402, (1979) (to be codified at 5 CFR Part 737).

Subpart D—Provisions for Administrative Enforcement of Postemployment Conflict of Interest Restrictions

§ 200.735-124. General.

The procedures in this subpart are established pursuant to subsection 207(j) of title 18, United States Code, for the administrative enforcement of the restrictions on postemployment activities in title V of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (18 U.S.C. 207 (a), (b), and (c)) and implementing regulations published by the Office of Government Ethics (5 CFR part 737). Subsections 207 (a), (b), and (c) of title 18, United States Code, prohibit certain forms of representational activity or communications by former Commission employees.

§ 200.735-125. Exemption from restrictions.

(a) Scientific and technological information solicited by the Commission. Communications of a former Commission employee solely for the purpose of furnishing scientific or technological information solicited by the Commission in the course of its statutory investigations are exempted from the restrictions on postemployment practices.

(b) Exemption for persons with special qualifications in a technical discipline.

(1) Applicability. A former Commission employee may be exempted from the restrictions on postemployment practices if the Chairman, in consultation with the Director, Office of Government Ethics (the Director), executes a certification published in the Federal Register that the former Commission employee has outstanding qualifications in a scientific, technological, or other technical discipline; that the former Commission employee is acting with respect to a particular matter which requires such qualifications; and that the national interest would be served by the former Commission employee's participation.

(2) Certification authority.

Certification shall be by the Chairman, or in the absence thereof, by the acting head of the Commission. Consultation with the Director shall precede any certification. The exemption is effective upon the execution of the certification. The Secretary shall immediately transmit the certification to the Federal Register for publication.

(c) Testimony and statement under oath or subject to penalty of perjury.

(1) Applicability. A former Commission employee may testify before any court, board, commission, or legislative body with respect to matters of fact within the personal knowledge of the former Commission employee. This provision does not, however, allow a former Commission employee, otherwise barred under 18 U.S.C. 207 (a), (b), or (c), to testify on behalf of another as an expert witness except (i) to the extent that the former employee may testify from personal knowledge as to occurrences which are relevant to the issues in the proceeding, including those in which the Commission employee participated, utilizing his or her expertise, or (ii) in any proceeding where it is determined that another expert in the field cannot practically be obtained, that it is impracticable for the facts or opinions on the same subject to be obtained by other means, and that the former Commission employee's testimony is required in the interest of justice.

(2) Statements under penalty of perjury. A former Commission employee may make any statement required to be made under penalty of perjury, such as those required in registration statements for securities, tax returns, or security clearances. The exception does not, however, permit a former employee to submit pleadings, applications, or other documents in a representational capacity on behalf of another merely because the attorney or other representative must sign the documents under oath or penalty of perjury.

§ 200.735-126 Administrative enforcement proceedings.

The following are basic guidelines for administrative enforcement of restrictions on postemployment activities:

(a) Initiation of administrative disciplinary hearing.

(1) On receipt of information regarding a possible violation of 18 U.S.C. 207, and after determining that such information does not appear to be frivolous, the Chairman shall expeditiously provide such information, along with any comments or agency regulations, to the Director and to the Criminal Division, Department of Justice. Any investigation or administrative action will be coordinated with the Department of Justice to avoid prejudicing criminal proceedings, unless the Department of Justice informs the Commission that it does not intend to initiate criminal prosecution.

(2) Whenever the Chairman has determined after appropriate review that there is reasonable cause to believe that a former Commission employee has violated 18 U.S.C. 207 (a), (b), or (c) or implementing regulations of the Office of Government Ethics (5 CFR Part 737), he or she shall initiate an administrative disciplinary proceeding by providing the former Commission employee with notice as defined in subsection (b).

(3) The Chairman shall take all necessary steps to protect the privacy of former employees prior to a determination of sufficient cause to initiate an administrative disciplinary hearing.

(b) Notice.

(1) The Chairman shall provide the former Commission employee with notice of an administrative disciplinary proceeding and an opportunity for a hearing.

(2) Notice to the former Commission employee must include—

(i) A statement of allegations and the basis thereof in detail sufficient to enable the former Commission employee to prepare an adequate defense;

(ii) Notification of the right to a hearing;

(iii) An explanation of the method by which a hearing may be requested; and

(iv) A copy of this subpart.

(c) Examiner.

(1) The presiding official at proceedings under this subpart shall be an individual to whom the Chairman has delegated authority to make a recommended determination (hereinafter referred to as examiner).

(2) An examiner shall be an experienced government attorney of high moral character and sound judgment.

(3) An examiner shall be impartial. No individual who has participated in any manner in the decision to initiate the proceedings may serve as an examiner in those proceedings.

(d) Scheduling of hearing.

In setting a hearing date, the examiner shall give due regard to the former Commission employee's need for—

(1) Adequate time to prepare a defense properly, and

(2) An expeditious resolution of allegations that may be damaging to his or her reputation.

(e) Hearing rights. A hearing shall include, at a minimum, the following rights:

(1) To be represented by counsel,

(2) To introduce and examine witnesses and to submit physical evidence,

(3) To confront and cross-examine adverse witnesses,

(4) To present oral argument; and

(5) To obtain a transcript or recording of the proceeding on request.

(f) Burden of proof. In any hearing under this subpart the Commission has the burden of proof and must establish a violation by clear and convincing evidence. The case of the Commission shall be presented by the Office of the General Counsel.

(g) Recommended determination.

(1) The examiner shall make a recommended determination exclusively on matters of record in the proceeding and shall set forth therein all findings of fact and conclusions of law relevant to the matters at issue. The recommended determination shall be delivered to the parties.

(2) Within ten (10) days of the date of receipt of the recommended determination either party may submit to the Chairman exceptions to the recommended determination and alternative findings of fact and conclusions of law.

(h) Final administrative decision.

(1) Within forty (40) days of the date of the recommended determination, the Chairman shall make final administrative decision based solely on the record of the proceedings.

(2) In the event that no hearing is requested, the Chairman shall make a final administrative decision within forty (40) days of the date notice is provided to the former employee and the record of the proceedings shall consist of the statement of allegations as defined in subsection (b)(2)(i) and whatever written response the former employee shall provide.

(3) The Chairman shall specify in the final administrative decision the findings of fact and conclusions of law that differ from the recommended determination of the hearing examiner.

(i) Administrative sanctions. The Chairman may take appropriate action in the case of any individual who is found in violation of 18 U.S.C. 207 (a), (b), or (c) or implementing regulations of the Office of Government Ethics (5 CFR part 737) after a final administrative decision by—

(1) Prohibiting the individual from making, on behalf of any other person (except the United States), any formal or informal appearance before, or, with the intent to influence, any oral or written communication to, the Commission on any matter of business for a period not to exceed five (5) years. This prohibition may be enforced by directing Commission employees to refuse to participate in any such appearance or to accept any such communication;

(2) Taking other appropriate disciplinary action.

(j) Judicial review. Any person found to have participated in a violation of 18 U.S.C. 207 (a), (b), or (c) or these regulations may seek judicial review of the administrative determination. Review shall be before the appropriate United States district court.

Issued: February 15, 1980.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Internal Revenue Service

26 CFR Part 301

Procedure and Administration: Disclosure or Use of Information by Preparers of Returns

AGENCY: Internal Revenue Service, Treasury.

ACTION: Notice of proposed rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This document contains proposed regulations under section 7216 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to disclosure of tax return information by tax return preparers. The regulations affect tax return preparers and provide them with the guidance needed to comply with the law.

DATES: The amendments are proposed to be effective on January 1, 1972. Written comments and requests for a public hearing must be delivered or mailed by April 21, 1980.

ADDRESS: Send comments and requests for a public hearing to: Commissioner of Internal Revenue, Attention: CC:LR:T (LR-251-79), Washington, D.C. 20224.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Catherine Kelly Bouknight of the Legislation and Regulations Division, Office of the Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20224, Attention: CC:LR:T, 202-566-3289, not a toll-free call.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Explanation of Provisions

Section 7216(a) provides that a tax return preparer who discloses or uses any tax return information other than for the specific purpose of preparing, or assisting in the preparation of, any tax return of the taxpayer by or for whom the information was made available to the tax return preparer shall guilty of a misdemeanor. Section 7216(b) provides exceptions to the general rule and subparagraph (3) thereof provides that section 7216(a) shall not apply to a disclosure or use of tax return information which is permitted by regulations.

A Treasury decision containing amendments to § 301.7216-2 is being issued contemporaneously with this notice of proposed rulemaking. The amendments contained in the Treasury decision were initially published in the Federal Register for December 12, 1974 (39 FR 43312) in the appendix to a notice of proposed rulemaking. These amendments expand the list of disclosures or uses of tax return information which can be made without violating section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1. This notice of proposed rulemaking contains additional proposed amendments to § 301.7216-2.

Under existing § 301.7216-2(c)(2), disclosure of tax return information is excepted from the provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 if made pursuant to an administrative order, demand, summons or subpoena issued by any Federal regulatory agency in the performance of its duties which clearly identifies the information to be disclosed. An amendment is proposed to § 301.7216-2(c)(2) to extend this exception to such disclosure to any Federal agency or to a State agency, body or commission charged under the laws of the State or a political subdivision of the State with licensing, registration, or regulation of tax return preparers.

Present § 301.7216-2(n) excepts from the provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 disclosure of any tax return information to "the proper Federal or State official" in order, and the extent necessary, to inform such official of activities which may constitute, or may have constituted, a violation of Federal or State criminal laws. The proposed amendment would extend this exception to "the proper Federal, State or local official to inform the official of activities which may constitute, or may have constituted, a violation of any criminal law."

Comments and Requests for a Public Hearing

Before adopting these proposed regulations, consideration will be given to any written comments that are submitted (preferably six copies) to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue. All comments will be available for public inspection and copying. A public hearing will be held upon written request to the Commissioner by any person who has submitted written comments. If a public hearing is held, notice of the time and place will be published in the Federal Register.

Drafting Information

The principal author of these regulations is Catherine Kelly Bouknight of the Legislation and Regulations Division of the Office of Chief Counsel, Internal Revenue Service. However, personnel from other offices of the Internal Revenue Service and Treasury Department participated in developing the regulation, both on matters of substance and style.

Proposed Amendments to the Regulations

The Regulations on Procedure and Administration (26 CFR Part 301) are proposed to be amended by revising § 301.7216-2 (c) and (n), to read as follows:

§ 301.7216-2 Disclosure or use without formal consent of the taxpayer.

* * * * *

(c) Disclosure pursuant to an order of a court or of a Federal or State agency. The provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to any disclosure of tax return information if such disclosure is made pursuant to any one of the following documents:

(1) The order of any court of record, Federal, State, or local, or

(2) An administrative order, demand, summons, or subpoena which is issued in the performance of its duties by—

(i) Any Federal agency, or

(ii) A State agency, body, or commission charged under the laws of the State or a political subdivision of the State with the licensing, registration, or regulation of tax return preparers.

Information must be clearly identified in the document in order to be disclosed under this paragraph (c).

* * * * *

(n) Disclosure to report the commission of a crime. The provisions of section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1 do not apply to the disclosure of any tax return information to the proper Federal, State or local official in order, and to the extent necessary, to inform the official of activities which may constitute, or may have constituted, a violation of any criminal law. In addition, such a disclosure made in the bona fide but mistaken belief that the activities constituted a violation of criminal law is not subject to section 7216(a) and § 301.7216-1.

FEDERAL MARITIME COMMISSION

46 CFR Part 525

[Docket No. 78-11]

Exemption of Certain Collective Bargaining Agreements; Proposed Rulemaking

AGENCY: Federal Maritime Commission.

ACTION: Proposed Rulemaking.

SUMMARY: This rule is proposed to establish the Commission's policy with regard to the exemption of certain collective bargaining agreements between labor unions and maritime multi-employer collective bargaining units from the filing and approval requirements of section 15, Shipping Act, 1916.

DATE: Comments due on or before March 24, 1980.

ADDRESSES: Comments (original and fifteen copies) to: Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, 1100 L Street NW., Room 11101, Washington, D.C. 20573.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Francis C. Hurney, Secretary, Federal Maritime Commission, 1100 L Street NW., Room 11101, Washington, D.C. 20573, (202) 523-5725.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Notice is hereby given that the Federal Maritime Commission is considering the adoption of a rule to exempt certain collective bargaining agreements in the maritime industry from the filing and approval requirements of section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (the Act).

Background

On March 1, 1978, the Supreme Court of the United States held that collective bargaining agreements as a class are not categorically exempt from the filing requirements of section 15 of the Act, and that " * * * the Commission is the public arbiter of competition in the shipping industry." Federal Maritime Commission v. Pacific Maritime Association, 435 U.S. 40 (PMA). The Supreme Court recognized however that the Commission need not require the filing of all or even most collective bargaining contracts entered into in the shipping industry. The Court explained that, while the only collective bargaining agreements covered by section 15 are agreements between a union and a multi-employer bargaining unit, not all such agreements are necessarily subject to the requirements of section 15. And to the extent such agreements may be subject to the section 15 requirements, the Court noted the Commission's authority under section 35 of the Act to exempt from the requirements "any class of agreements between persons subject to this chapter or any specified activity of such persons * * *." (Citing United Stevedoring Corporation v. Boston Shipping Association, 16 F.M.C. 7 (1972) (BSA)).

Because of its concern that if all collectively bargained agreements between unions and maritime multi-employer collective bargaining units (hereafter "employer units") on all U.S. coasts were filed for approval under section 15, needless uncertainty and delay in the collective bargaining process could result, the Commission sought to develop an expedited procedure for permitting such agreements to take effect. Therefore, on April 26, 1978, the Commission published in the Federal Register (43 FR 17845) an Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, to solicit comments on a Commission proposal which would either exempt certain collective bargaining agreements from the pre-implementation approval requirements of section 15 of the Act, or grant such agreements interim, conditional, or final approval under that section.¹ These comments have been considered in the preparation of the rule proposed herein.

Proposed Exemption

The Commission is aware of the sensitivity of collective bargaining and the overriding public need for maritime labor peace. Therefore, as a matter of public policy, the Commission will try to ensure that its regulatory authority be exercised, if needed, with measured restraint, mindful at all times of its potential impact.

The Commission concurs with the consensus of opinion expressed in the comments on the Advance Notice of Proposed Rulemaking that any procedure which effectively leaves the legitimacy of a collective bargaining agreement (or any provision(s) thereof) in limbo pending Commission review—regardless of the dispatch with which such review could be undertaken—has a potential for disrupting the collective bargaining process to a considerable extent. The clear pattern of collective bargaining in the maritime industry is that immediate implementation is called for once a settlement has been reached. The adoption of any pre-implementation filing requirement would cause delay and introduce a destabilizing element into the collective bargaining process which could precipitate or prolong strikes and cause substantial harm to the industry, its employees, its customers and the national interest. Moreover, the uncertainty associated with potential disapproval of such agreements, even if they were permitted to be implemented prior to section 15 finality, may hamper labor-management negotiations and relations in a manner contrary to the national labor policy of the United States without any corresponding Shipping Act benefit.

Section 35 of the Act provides an appropriate remedy for accommodating the conflicting labor and shipping policies presented by collective bargaining agreements which involve persons subject to the Commission's jurisdiction under the Act. Section 35 provides that the Commission, upon application or on its own motion, may by order or rule exempt any class of agreements between persons subject to the Act, or any specified activity of such persons from any requirement of the Act where it finds that such exemption will not impair effective regulation by the Commission, be unjustly discriminatory, or be detrimental to commerce. It further provides that the Commission may attach conditions to any such exemption.

Pursuant to the Commission's exemption authority under section 35, the rule proposed herein contemplates the exemption of collective bargaining agreements from the filing and approval requirements of section 15. The exemption is on the condition that the parties to a collective bargaining agreement who are subject to the Act execute and file with the Commission the certification set forth in the rule. The certification provides that such parties agree to make reparation for or otherwise remedy any loss or injury to any person caused by any provision of the agreement or by any practice in implementation of the agreement which is found to violate any provision of the Act. The certification also provides that a copy of each of the collective bargaining agreements to which it applies will be provided to the Commission upon request.

Such an exemption would facilitate the Commission's administration of the Act in a manner consonant with the national labor policy without impairing either the Commission's effective regulation of activities engaged in by parties subject to the Act under the agreements, or the protection of parties of interest with respect to activities found to be unjustly discriminatory or unfair or which grant an unreasonable preference or advantage within the meaning of section 16 First and 17 or are otherwise violative of the laws administered by the Commission.

The rule proposed herein addresses collective bargaining agreements exclusively. The Commission will examine the status of maritime multi-employer collective bargaining units as a separate matter.

It is proposed to add Part 525 to read as follows:

PART 525—EXEMPTION OF CERTAIN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS

Sec.

525.1 Purpose and scope.

525.2 Definitions.

525.3 Certification; filing; effective date.

Authority: Sections 15, 35 and 43; 46 U.S.C. 814, 833a and 841a.

¹ From the comments received, it was evident that there was a need to notify the public of the action the Commission would take with regard to collective bargaining agreements which are filed with the Commission during the period prior to adoption of a final rule in this proceeding. Consequently, on June 12, 1978, the Commission served an Interim Policy Statement—Collective Bargaining Agreements, (46 C.F.R. 530.9) which established procedures for interim approval and/or temporary exemption of collective bargaining agreements becoming effective after June 9, 1978. The final rule in this proceeding will supersede the procedures set forth in (46 C.F.R. 530.9).

§ 525.1 Purpose and scope.

Section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (the Act), requires that certain agreements between persons subject to the Act be filed with and approved by the Commission prior to implementation. Section 35 of the Act provides that the Commission, upon application or on its own motion, may by order or rule exempt any class of agreements between persons subject to the Act, or any specified activity of such persons from any requirement of the Act where it finds that such exemption will not impair effective regulation by the Commission, be unjustly discriminatory, or be detrimental to commerce. It further provides that the Commission may attach conditions to any such exemption. This part establishes a procedure for the exemption of maritime collective bargaining agreements from the filing and approval requirements of section 15 in order to facilitate the Commission's administration of the Act in a manner consonant with national labor policy. The exemption granted in this part extends to any collective bargaining agreement, otherwise subject to the Act, in connection with which the parties subject to the Act agree to remedy any injury or loss occasioned by the operation of any provision of that agreement found violative of the Act. The grant of an exemption under such condition will impair neither the effective regulation by the Commission of the activities engaged in pursuant to these agreements by parties subject to the Act, nor the protection of the rights of parties of interest with respect to agreements or provisions found to be unjustly discriminatory, unreasonable or otherwise violative of the Act.

§ 525.2 Definitions.

As used in this part:

(a) "Employer" means any association of employers of maritime labor, established for the purpose of negotiating and administering collective bargaining agreements, to which two or more persons subject to the Shipping Act, 1916, as set forth in section 1 of that Act, are party.

(b) "Employee" means any association of employees established for the purpose of dealing with employers on matters relating to grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of pay, hours of employment or conditions of work.

(c) "Collective bargaining agreement" includes any agreement, or any amendment of an agreement, between an employer and an employee which regulates terms and conditions of employment. It does not include an agreement among employer members, to which the employee is not a signatory, such as an intra-employer assessment agreement for funding benefits.

§ 525.3 Certification; filing; effective date.

(a) An exemption from the filing and approval requirements of section 15 of the Act is hereby granted to any collective bargaining agreement in connection with which the parties to that agreement who are subject to the Act have executed, under oath, and filed with the Commission the following certification:

The undersigned hereby agree to make reparation for or otherwise remedy any loss or injury to any person caused by any provision of [here identify the collective bargaining agreement(s) to which this certification applies] or by any practice in implementation of that (those) contract(s) which is found to violate any provision of the Shipping Act, 1916. A copy of (each of) the collective bargaining agreement(s) to which this certification applies will be provided to the Commission upon request.

(b) The certification provided in paragraph (a) of this section may be filed either prior to or upon the execution of the collective bargaining agreement(s) to which it applies.

(c) The exemption granted in this part will be effective upon receipt of the certification required by paragraph (a) of this section or execution of any collective bargaining agreement to which it applies, whichever is later.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 37554; Order 80-2-69]

Pan American World Airways, Inc.; Order of Suspension and Investigation and Institution of International Zones of Reasonableness

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of January 1980.

By tariff revisions filed December 20, 1979, for effectiveness February 18, 1980, Pan American World Airways, Inc. (Pan American) proposes general increases of seven percent in Latin American fares and eight percent in Pacific fares.¹ Braniff Airways, Inc. (Braniff) proposes a 3.5 percent increase in all South American fares, effective February 5, 1980.² Trans World Airlines, Inc. (TWA) proposed on December 28, 1979, to increase all transatlantic fares by eight percent, effective February 26, 1980. All three have requested permission to implement the increases on less than statutory notice.

In order to fulfill the intent of Congress that the Board adopt a fully automatic cost pass through, particularly for fuel cost increases, we have attempted to analyze the present filings in light of the guidelines set forth in the pending International Air Transportation Competition Act of 1979

² Braniff has already withdrawn U.S.-South America partly "unbundled" normal economy fares which represented reductions of 0.1 to 18.6 percent from previous normal fares. Braniff states that most foreign governments on its routes had disapproved the fares, and it was not possible to maintain a dual structure of normal fares and service amenities for different markets on the same route. More recently Braniff amended its filing to provide for the same seven percent increase as proposed by Pan American, stating that it relied on Pan American's justification.

(IATCA). (See infra.) Since our current action is our first attempt to focus on the new legislative criteria, it should not be construed as necessarily a final or definitive construction of the legislation.

As explained in greater detail below, our calculations are premised on projected fuel costs which are actually higher than those presented in Pan American's submission. In addition, for the Pacific area, we have made certain upward adjustments which permit fare increases above those statutorily required. And, in European markets, our analysis of public interest factors has led us to conclude that a significant degree of upward flexibility, above the statutory ceilings, is desirable. At the same time, we have very selectively exercised our powers to deny fare increases in those markets where failure to do so could jeopardize negotiating objectives, and would be counterproductive to the long-run interests of U.S. consumers and carriers. We are allowing all the proposed increases to take effect as filed in markets where the United States has liberal bilateral agreements which guarantee a substantial degree of pricing freedom. To summarize our conclusions at the outset, we will allow, with minor exceptions, increases over October 1, 1979, levels of 10.6 percent in European markets, 5.6 percent in other Atlantic markets, 7.5 percent in Pacific markets, and 5.5 percent in Latin American markets. Further increases will be permitted when we next review this subject in two months.

In support of its proposal, Pan American states that it has followed the approach of the "imminent" International Air Transportation Competition Act in an effort to begin to systematize the analyses and judgments needed to cope with rising fuel costs. The IATCA was reported out of a House/Senate Conference Committee on December 19, 1979 (H. Rep. 96-716); passage of the bill is expected early in the 1980 session of Congress. To the extent pertinent here, the bill would require the Board to establish standard foreign fare levels (SFFL) and to adjust SFFL's periodically by the percentage change in actual operating cost per available seat-mile (ASM). The SFFL thus compiled would form the ceiling of a statutory no-suspend zone similar to the zones of reasonableness established by the Airline Deregulation Act and set forth in section 1002(d) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958.

Pan American states that it has calculated the cost change per ASM from the October 1, 1979, base period at 7.18 percent for Latin America and 8.22 for the Pacific for all U.S. carriers; it has followed the Board's domestic standard industry fare level (SIFL) methodology with some adjustments;³ unprecedented increases in fuel costs are continuing unabated and all costs, triggered by energy and other inflationary factors, are increasing rapidly; and immediate fare relief is urgently needed.

TWA, in its justification, asserts that the proposed increase is prompted not only by the latest of several crude oil price increases which are being passed on to airlines "virtually overnight", but also by the "failure of the current regulatory system to produce the rapid pass-through of prior fuel cost increases that (the carriers) require";⁴ although it is sensitive to the Board's view that all markets should not necessarily be treated the same in fare filings, TWA could not conclude that cost or

Pan American excluded Northwest Airlines data which were considerably distorted by Northwest's 1978 strike. In the absence of international all-cargo cost data, Pan American has departed from the domestic methodology by using a breakeven revenue offset assumption to exclude both freighter and belly cargo operations; and it has not attempted to exclude expenses of non-scheduled passenger operations because it questions the Board's assumption in the SIFL methodology that such services operate at a five percent profit margin. (In SIFL, the Board excludes 95 percent of the non-scheduled passenger revenue.)

marketing differences by route or fare type warranted different treatment in this instance, and the emergency nature of the situation requires increases in all fares; TWA is now paying 85 cents per gallon for fuel and estimated an average 1980 price of $1.03 per gallon; TWA has already improved productivity markedly, but because of rising fuel costs has experienced declining earnings, so it will incur a pre-tax loss of $84.8 million and a -6.9 percent return on investment (ROI) in Atlantic operations in 1980 absent fare relief; and even with the proposed higher fares its ROI will be only 0.6 percent.

Discussion

As noted, the IATCA provides for a fare flexibility zone within which the Board could not (with certain exceptions) suspend a passenger fare on grounds that the fare is unreasonable. The base (SFFL) for the zone would, for the first six months after enactment, be fares filed for and permitted by the Board to go into effect on or after October 1, 1979. For the first six months, the ceiling for the non-suspendable zone would be those base fares plus percentage adjustments representing increases or decreases in the actual operating cost per available seat mile. Fare decreases up to 50 percent below the SFFL would be permitted without suspension. The Board is not to make adjustments to costs actually incurred. SFFL adjustments are required 30 days after enactment, and every six months thereafter, except that adjustments with respect to fuel costs are to be made not less often than every 60 days.⁵

Fares found to be unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial, unjustly discriminatory or predatory, or where suspension is in the public interest because of unreasonable regulatory actions by a foreign government with respect to fare proposals of an air carrier, would remain subject to suspension by the Board even if within the fare flexibility zone.

Even before the present filings were initiated, our staff had been investigating whether zones of reasonableness similar to those established by PS-80 and the Airline Deregulation Act could be extended to international fares and rates. In PSDR-65, the Board recently proposed to establish such zones for international cargo rates. Our approval in October and November of increased international passenger fares⁶ was premised on an analysis of projected cost increases over the levels used in the cost studies prepared in connection with Order 79-9-75 and released as the staff's preliminary international fares study. After careful consideration of the tariff filings, the ceiling zones established here, and other relevant factors, the Board has decided to suspend the increases selectively in all three entities. We are also allowing certain increases in excess of those mandated by the IATCA. As explained below, the increases proposed exceed our estimates of the actual cost changes per ASM. We will, however, permit some of the increases in excess of the ceilings to take effect where we believe the overall public interest warrants approval. In cases where we are suspending fare increases, carriers will be free to refile more moderate increases, on short notice, consistent with the SFFL and regulatory zones set forth in this order, with some exceptions in particular markets.

SFFL Methodology

Our domestic SIFL methodology projects the most recent cost trends, to the midpoint of the period in which the fare ceiling will be in effect. The IATCA, like the analogous provisions for domestic fares, provides for the Board to consider reasonable estimates of foreseeable future costs in our calculations. Since the September 1979 domestic SIFL calculation (see Order 79-8-184) fuel costs have been broken out separately. We take the average escalation for the most recent four month period (here, September-December 1979) and project it forward. In the non-fuel cost area, we compare the escalation shown by a comparison of the most recent 12 month period (here, the 12 months ended September 1979) with the previous 12 month period (the 12 months ended September 1978). This result, too, is projected forward to the midpoint of the rate period.

As explained below, we found that a precise replication of this methodology in the international area would probably understate costs, and we have attempted to correct this. Our calculations attempt to measure inflation from October 1, 1979, to February 29, 1980, the midpoint of the February-March zone established in this order, for three ratemaking entities: Atlantic, Pacific, and Latin America. These inflation factors will be reviewed before April, 1980, when a specific method for dealing with seasonal variations will also be prescribed.

We have projected non-fuel costs through March 1 for the two-month per February-March 1980.⁷ We do not agree with Pan American that adjusted cost data for the Pacific entity should be adjusted by totally excluding the data for highly efficient Northwest Airlines, which was on strike for several months in 1978. In the domestic SIFL, we have made no such adjustments, which arguably do not represent the unadjusted actual costs as prescribed by the Airline Deregulation Act or the IATCA.⁸

As a policy matter in this case, however, we have taken the distortions attributable to the Northwest strike into consideration, as described below. We have also noted discrepancies between Pan American data entries and figures reported on official Form 41's as received in our offices; of course, we must rely on the latter. Finally we have adjusted projected fuel prices upward, above Pan American's own projections, to reflect a significant increase in the rate of fuel cost escalation within the last several weeks.⁹

Our upward adjustment of fuel costs not only is above Pan American's projections, but also exceeds results

⁷ Pan American erred, in our judgment, in projecting non-fuel costs past the actual midpoint of the period in which the SFFL will be effective. Thus, Pan American projected non-fuel costs to March 31, 1980, to determine a cost level for a two-month period ending February 29, 1980. However, the midpoint of this period would be January 31, not March 31.

⁸ Thus, in our most recent SIFL orders, we have made no adjustment because of the United Airlines strike in the spring of 1979. Had we normalized, the SIFL would have been lower than it was. The pertinent statutory provisions state that the "Board shall make no adjustment to costs actually incurred." See Section 1002(d)(6)(B) of the Federal Aviation Act and section 24 of the IATCA.

⁹ We note also that Pan American's calculations for Latin America reflected fuel costs for that entire Division, including U.S. overseas operations to and from Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands. In our SFFL calculations we have excluded overseas fuel costs to accurately reflect the actual costs for foreign operations. We have made no further exclusions or segregations of the three basic reporting entities on this occasion, but believe it may be appropriate, where data are available, to continue to separate the operating divisions into the traditional broad market areas for ratemaking purposes; and we mean to explore the matter further.

⁵ Within the first six months after enactment, the Board is to conduct an oral evidentiary hearing to determine the reasonableness of October 1, 1979, fares in a limited number of markets, and may set a different SFFL base in markets where the October 1, 1979, fares are found to be unreasonable. The Board-set SFFL shall come into effect only after expiration of the first six months following enactment. At that time the zone of flexibility would be widened to provide for non-suspension of fares not more than five percent above the SFFL. Fares which become effective during the first six months would remain in effect even if the Board set a SFFL below the adjusted October 1, 1979, fare levels, but future nonsuspendable fare increases would be determined on the basis of the adjusted Board-set SFFL.

produced by application of our domestic methodology. The four month average of September-December increases produced the following monthly rates of escalation: 3.11 cents per gallon in the Atlantic, 2.11 cents per gallon in the Pacific, and 2.83 cents per gallon in Latin America. We have reviewed the weekly fuel reports submitted to us by most U.S. international air carriers since the summer, and observe that per gallon fuel costs have most recently been rising about one cent per week. It is this figure that we have projected forward. The resulting projections are fuel prices of 96.45 cents in the Atlantic, 92.83 cents in the Pacific, and 89.00 cents in Latin America, at March 1, 1980.

Based on our calculations, we find the projected actual cost change per ASM to be 5.6 percent in the Atlantic, 5.9 percent in the Pacific, and 5.5 percent in Latin America. These figures reflect the change in fuel and non-fuel costs from the 12 months ended September 30, 1979, to the projected cost level at March 1, 1980 (the midpoint of the 60 days beginning February 1, 1980). (See Appendices A and B.) The relationships between these cost changes and the proposed fare increases, of course, imply nothing about the reasonableness of the October 1, 1979, base fares, which will be at issue in the hearing mandated by the IATCA.

Our review of the results of the calculations, however, prompts us, as a matter of regulatory policy, to permit increases above the ceilings in some instances. First, while it was incorrect for Pan American to simply discard Northwest non-fuel data, the latter's strike (April 29-August 14, 1978) does distort the calculations. The strike resulted in a precipitous drop in ASM's without fully corresponding cost decreases. Thus, the cost per ASM in the September 30, 1978, test period is higher than it would otherwise be, and the escalation to the test period September 30, 1979, which our methodology projects forward to March 1, 1980, is less than it would otherwise be. Because the strike was so lengthy, and Northwest is a major carrier to the Orient, as adjustment is necessary.¹⁰ We believe Northwest's experience should not be excluded entirely, but we should normalize for it. To do so, we constructed non-fuel costs for the strike months by assuming constant relationships between market share and expense, and otherwise holding costs constant. See Appendix C. This is highly conservative, because Northwest actually had a lower non-fuel cost per ASM at the end of the September 30, 1978, period than at the beginning. The normalization adds an additional 1.6 percent to the 5.9 percent previously calculated, for a total of 7.5 percent which we will adopt administratively as the regulatory non-suspend ceiling.

Second, we have observed generally low rates of non-fuel cost escalation produced by our methodology, particularly in the Atlantic Division.¹¹

Apparently, large productivity gains were realized in the 1978-1979 period by, inter alia, introduction of denser seating, continued replacement of old inefficient capacity, and an increase in stage lengths. In the U.S.-Europe market, the potential for such continuation of marked productivity improvements appears to be rather limited for the near future. For this reason we have determined that in the U.S.-Europe market, we should generally permit the carriers five percent upward flexibility above the ceiling at this time. We have decided not to permit any upward flexibility above the SFFL in Latin America and certain Pacific markets, where we have in the past pointed out that even discount fares may exceed their relevant costs.

Third, we will permit all the increases in first class fares to become effective as filed, except where we are suspending all fare increases in a particular market. Similarly, we will also permit increases in bundled normal economy fares (such as business class fares) above the ceiling in markets where an unbundled normal economy fare is available. Although we could, under the provisions of the IATCA, suspend all such increases above the SFFL ceiling, in our judgment the public interest would best be served by refraining from such action. We have taken a similar approach to domestic first class fares in our interpretation of the Airline Deregulation Act, and believe the same considerations which led us to refrain from applying SIFL ceilings to domestic first class fares are also valid in the international area. Domestic coach fares were already effectively "unbundled" when the SIFL zones were instituted, so no fares comparable to international business class fares are published for domestic travel. However, many of the same considerations which argue for permitting first class increases above the SFFL ceiling apply to business class and similar fares as well, and we believe the public interest would be best served by allowing the increases to take effect as filed.

Pan American's increases of eight percent in the Pacific and seven percent in Latin America, and TWA's 15.6 percent increase in the Atlantic (seven plus eight percent, compounded), are excessive when compared with the measured cost changes, under the criteria established by the IATCA. For this reason we are suspending Pan American's proposed Pacific increases in all economy class fares, but will allow a short-notice refile for a 7.5 percent increase.¹² As explained below, however, we will not permit any increases in any promotional fares between the United States and Japan.¹³ In Latin America we will allow Braniff's initial 3.5 percent filing to take effect, and we will suspend Braniff and Pan American's proposed seven percent increases in economy class fares. Each carrier is free to file on short notice to implement a total increase of 5.5 percent in markets where we are not suspending fare increases for reasons unrelated to the SFFL zone.

In the Atlantic, we will suspend TWA's proposed eight percent increase in normal economy fares. We are not suspending TWA's proposed increase in promotional fares even though the cumulative increase far exceeds the measured cost change. The carrier argues that there is a substantial need for these increases, and we do not consider the resulting fares to be so high as to require suspension. In addition, as indicated, we will in this order permit five percent upward flexibility for most European markets; thus TWA will generally be able to implement up to a

¹³ On the other hand, there are many Pacific markets in which present fares are considerably lower and competitive conditions better than Japan, and we would review proposals to increase fares in such markets by more than the 7.5 percent ceiling on a case-by-case basis. Of course, some of these markets—Korea, Taiwan, Singapore, Thailand—are covered by bilaterals and we will act accordingly. We will also accept all of Pan American's increases between San Francisco and Manila as filed. Pan American's fares in that market are considerably lower per mile than most of its other North/Central Pacific fares, a situation which will continue even if we permit a slightly higher increase between San Francisco and Manila than in the other markets. On the other hand, San Francisco-Manila load factors are generally very high, due in part to capacity restrictions, and it is therefore difficult to determine the carriers' precise needs for revenue relief. Our decision whether to continue to permit fare increases above the SFFL ceiling will depend on an evaluation of the capacity situation and other relevant factors.

¹¹ From the 1978 to the 1979 base period, non-fuel costs increased by averages of 5.66 percent in Latin America, 4.88 percent in the Pacific (adjusted), and only 1.92 percent in the Atlantic.

3.6 percent increase in normal economy fares on short notice.

One of the recognized bases for suspension under the new legislation is unreasonable regulatory actions of foreign governments with regard to fare filings of U.S. carriers. In such cases the IATCA recognizes that the Board may need to take suspension action in order to protect and promote the long-term interests of both U.S. carriers and consumers.¹⁴

Japan has repeatedly refused to accept low fares filed by U.S. carriers. As a result, fares between the United States and Japan are generally higher than those available in other North/Central Pacific markets. Therefore we will not approve the present fare increase filing. We would be justified in suspending all fare increases to and from Japan due to the Japanese Government's past fare actions. We must, however, carefully consider the need of U.S. carriers to offset cost increases in order to provide effective service. For example, Los Angeles-Tokyo normal economy fares are lower per mile than other West Coast-Japan fares; New York-Tokyo fares are relatively high per mile, but the carrier's costs are relatively high due to use of B-747SP equipment. We must weigh these present revenue requirements against the need to respond to unreasonable foreign government fare actions as we seek to further long-term U.S. carrier and consumer interests. In the U.S.-Japan market we have concluded that on balance the public interest supports placing more weight on the carriers' immediate need to recover cost increases. Therefore we will approve a refiled 7.5 percent increase in most normal economy fares between the United States and Japan consistent with the measured cost change.¹⁵ On the other hand, we can refuse any refiled increases in the promotional fares between the United States and Japan without serious harm to our carriers, since these fares are already at high levels and narrowly available.

Venezuela has on numerous occasions disapproved U.S. carrier tariff proposals, and has even directed U.S. Carriers to apply increased fares from Venezuela equal to those adopted in IATA agreements or approved by the Venezuelan Government for use by Viasa. Consequently, U.S. carrier opportunities to exercise management discretion in pricing have been severely constrained, and the public interest requires withholding of all fare increases in this market.¹⁶

In the Atlantic market, TWA proposed on January 22 to reduce its U.S.-France normal economy fares by unbundling. We are encouraged by TWA's proposal and will permit it to become effective. However, its earlier eight percent increase proposal is still on file and must be suspended along with other U.S.-Europe normal economy eight percent fare increases which exceed the SFFL ceiling. Had TWA not unbundled its fares, we would have had to consider U.S.-France fares in light of France's practice of almost routinely disapproving U.S. carrier discount fare initiatives geared to the U.S. carriers' marketing and operational approaches.¹⁷

We recognize that there are other governments which have unreasonably denied U.S. carrier fare filings. However, our determination of whether suspension of fare increases is warranted because of unreasonable foreign government actions necessarily reflects the balancing of the need to suspend fares for the long-run benefit of consumers against the need of carriers for increased revenues to offset rising costs. In each case where we have decided to undertake strategic suspensions, we concluded that denial of fare increases would not have an adverse effect on U.S. carriers' short-term interests severe enough to justify foregoing the opportunity to improve the long-term interests of both consumers and carriers.

Accordingly, pursuant to sections 102, 204(a), 403, 801, and 1002(j) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended:

1. We shall institute an investigation to determine whether the fares and provisions set forth in Appendices E, F, G, and H hereof, and rules and regulations or practices affecting such fares and provisions, are or will be unjust or unreasonable, unjustly discriminatory, unduly preferential, unduly prejudicial or otherwise unlawful; and if we find them to be unlawful to act appropriately to prevent the use of such fares, provisions or rules, regulations, or practices;

2. Pending hearing and decision by the Board, we suspend and defer the use of the tariff provisions in the attached:

Appendix E from February 18, 1980, to and including February 17, 1981,

Appendix F from March 3, 1980, to and including March 2, 1981,

Appendix G from March 11, 1980, to and including March 10, 1981,

Appendix H from February 26, 1980, to and including February 25, 1981,¹⁸ unless otherwise ordered by the Board, and shall permit no changes to be made therein during the period of suspension except by order or special permission of the Board;

3. We shall submit this order to the President¹⁹ and it shall become effective on February 18, 1980, with respect to the tariff provisions in Appendix E; on March 3, 1980, with respect to the tariff provisions in Appendix F; on March 11, 1980, with respect to the tariff provisions in Appendix G; and on February 26, 1980, with respect to the tariff provisions in Appendix H; and

4. We shall file copies of this order in the aforesaid tariffs and serve them on Pan American World Airways, Inc., Barniff Airways, Inc., and Trans World Airlines, Inc.

We shall publish this order in the Federal Register.

Participation by Vessels Built With CDS in the Carriage of Alaskan Oil in the Domestic Trade; Application of Richmond Tankers, Inc.

Notice is hereby given that an application has been filed by Richmond Tankers, Inc. (Richmond), bareboat charterer of the tanker, BAY RIDGE, for written permission for the temporary employment of the vessel in the carriage of oil in the domestic trade from Valdez, Alaska, to Panama.

The BAY RIDGE, a 224,428 deadweight ton tanker built with ¹⁸ Appendices Although H filed as part of the original document.

¹⁹ We submitted this order to the President on January 31, 1980.

²⁰ All members concurred.

¹⁵ We will not, however, permit any increase in normal economy fares between Seattle and Japan. Since the fares are already at very high per mile levels, the U.S. carriers should not suffer losses as a result of this action. We are not prejudging here the Pacific Common Fares case, Docket 30938, in which the issue is whether unjust discrimination exists due to common faring.

construction-differential subsidy, is proposed to operate in the Alaska/Panama oil trade for six months pursuant to a contract of affreightment between Pierce Tanker Corp. (Pierce) and Earth Resources, Inc. (Resources). The initial voyage is scheduled to begin April 1-15, 1980. Resources and Pierce have a need to transport approximately 22,000 barrels per day of Alaskan oil. Additionally, Pierce is to transport Alaskan oil for Alaska Petrochemical Co. (Alpetco), beginning around July 1980. Richmond has agreed to make the BAY RIDGE available to Pierce for said transportation.

Richmond understands that suitable vessels of a competitor are not available for the period of time requested by this application. Richmond further states that no available vessels would fulfill the transportation requirements of Resources and Alpetco.

Interested parties may inspect Richmond's application in the Office of the Secretary, Maritime Administration, Room 3099-B, Department of Commerce Building, 14th and E Streets, NW., Washington, D.C. 20230.

Any person, firm, or corporation who is a "competitor," as defined in § 250.2 of the regulations as set forth in Part 250 of Chapter II, Title 46, of the CFR published in the Federal Register issue of June 29, 1977 (42 FR 33035), and desires to protest such application should submit such protest in writing, in triplicate, to the Secretary, Maritime Administration, Washington, D.C. 20230. Protests must be received on or before February 27, 1980. If a protest is received, the applicant will be advised of such protest by telephone or telegram and will be allowed three working days to respond in a manner acceptable to the Assistant Secretary for Maritime Affairs. Within five working days after the due date for the applicant's response, the Assistant Secretary will advise the applicant, as well as those submitting protests, of the action taken, with a concise written explanation of such action. If no protest is received concerning the application, the Assistant Secretary will take such action as may be deemed appropriate.

Proposal of a New System for Determination of Foreign-Flag Competition for Tentative Subsidy Rate Calculations

An improved method is needed to develop the substantiality and extent of foreign-flag competition for use in making tentative rates which will more accurately reflect actual competition faced by U.S.-flag operators receiving operating-differential subsidy (ODS). There are time lags inherent in the current procedure of using final competitive weights approved by the Maritime Subsidy Board for the calculation of tentative operating-differential subsidy wage rates for subsequent years.

The present procedure is to use the latest available final percentage weights approved by the Board with attendant vessel identification for all tentative rate calculations. This assures that the cargo and vessel data are as accurate as possible, but results in such lengthy delays that the resulting weights no longer reflect the actual competition faced by ODS operators. If somewhat less accurate but more current cargo and vessel data can be accepted as the basis for tentative wage rate calculations, such rates will correspond much more closely to the actual competition faced and the resulting adjustments when final rates are determined will be significantly reduced. No change is being proposed in the procedures for the calculation of tentative rates for items other than wages (the fair and reasonable cost of insurance, maintenance and repairs not compensated by insurance) at this time.

Therefore, it is proposed that the commodity movement monthly (CMM) data base from the Bureau of Census be used to identify the flags of the principal foreign competitors. These data become available approximately three months after actual vessel movement and are approximately 95 percent accurate. The resulting percentage weights are expected to much more accurately reflect the actual competition for tentative wage rate calculations.

The monthly commodity data base does not identify the vessels carrying the cargoes. Another monthly file from Census shows vessel movements, but no cargo data. An existing ADP system merges these files, but has no mechanism for handling flawed records. Only 50-60 percent of the commodity movements can be matched to vessel type by this system (COSIS). However, only the predominant type of foreign-flag vessel needs to be identified for tentative wage rate calculations. Thus, it is considered appropriate to accept this level of accuracy in the data in order to gain a major increase in accuracy due to timeliness.

Therefore, it is also proposed that the COSIS system be used to identify the predominant type of foreign-flag vessel for tentative wage rate calculations.

Any person, firm or corporation having any interest in the subject proposal and desiring to make comments, should by the close of business on March 17, 1980 make such comments to the Secretary, Maritime Subsidy Board, in writing, in triplicate.

Dated: February 15, 1980.

By order of the Maritime Subsidy Board.

Minority Business Development Agency

Financial Assistance Application Announcement; Florida

The Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA), formerly the Office of Minority Business Enterprise, announces that it is seeking applications under its program to operate one project for a twelve month period beginning April 1, 1980 in the counties of Alachua, Columbia, Duval, Putnam and St. Johns, Florida with an office in the city of Jacksonville, Florida. The cost of the project is estimated to be $96,000 and the Project Number is 04-10-30291-00.

Funding Instrument: It is anticipated that the funding instrument, as defined by the Federal Grant and Cooperative Agreement Act of 1977, will be a grant.

Program Description: Executive Order 11625 authorizes MBDA to fund projects which will provide technical and management assistance to minority business enterprises. This proposed project is specifically designed to meet the specifications for a Business Development Organization for the purpose of providing services to promote the establishment, viability and growth of qualified minority owned businesses.

Eligibility Requirements: There are no restrictions. Any for-profit firm or not-for-profit institution is eligible to submit an application.

Application Materials: An application kit for each of the projects may either be requested by writing to the following address: U.S. Department of Commerce, Minority Business Development Agency, Atlanta Regional Office, 1371 Peachtree Street, N.E., Suite 505, Atlanta, Georgia 30309.

In requesting an application kit, the applicant must specify its profit status

(i.e., a State or local Government, Federally recognized Indian Tribal Unit, Educational Institution, Hospital, other type of non-profit organization, or if the applicant is a for-profit firm). This information is necessary to enable MBDA to include the appropriate cost principles in the application kit.

Award Process: All applications that are submitted in accordance with the instructions in the application kit will be submitted to a panel for review and ranking. The applications will be ranked as to their understanding of minority business problems, approach and program methodology, responsiveness to questions, organizational structure, quality of personnel, experience, capacity, and cost. Specific criteria will be included in the application kit.

If an application is approved, an initial award will be made for a period specified for that award. Continuation awards may be made on a noncompetitive basis when determined by the Awards Office to be in the best interest of the Government.

Closing Date: Applicants are encouraged to obtain an application kit as soon as possible in order to allow sufficient time to prepare and submit an application before the closing date of March 14, 1980. Detailed submission procedures are outlined in each application kit.

The MMS master files consist of a complete magnetic record for each Marine serving on active duty for a period in excess of 30 days. The On Line Manpower System (OLMAN) is a subsystem of MMS. It has the capability to directly access an extract of the master file. The procedure used to establish the initial computer record and add the individual to the Marine Corps strength is the accession process. The accession of recruits is accomplished through the Recruit Accession Management Subsystem (RAMS). The Commissioning Accession Management Subsystem (CAMS) is designed to access all officer records into JUMPS/MMS. Accession/reaccession of all nonrecruit enlisted records is accomplished through the Headquarters Accession Management Subsystem (HAMS) at Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps. The Accession Transcription Form (ATF) is an OCR form which contains information extracted from the enlistment contract and transfer/assignment to active duty orders. The ATF is completed and processed to establish the computer record. The Manpower Management Information System (MMIS) consists of models and processes within MMS. These models and processes support manpower planners and programmers to optimize assignments to unaccompanied overseas tours, predict enlisted population by grade and military occupational specialty (MOS) and to test various policies related to unrestricted officer promotion planning.

Some manual files containing substantiating documents and other data relative to each member's JUMPS/MMS record are maintained. These file folders may contain any part of the JUMPS/MMS record and any one or more of the following documents: Military Pay Record, Military Payroll Money List, Military Pay Voucher, Certificate for Performance of Hazardous Duty, Application of Arrears in Pay, Cash Collection Voucher, Authorization/Designation for Emergency Pay and Allowances, Wage and Tax Statement, Employees Withholding Exemption Certificate (IRS W-4), Employees Withholding Exemption Certificate (IRS W-4E), Notice of Levy, General Accounting Office Notice of Exemption, Dependency Certificate (Wife or Child Under 21 Years), Dependency Certificate (Mother or Father), Dependency Certificate (Unmarried Child over 21 Years), Dependency Application, Clothing Checkage, Statement to Substantiate Payment of Family Separation Allowance, Government Property Checkage Personal Financial Records, Unit Diary, Dependent Travel Record, Allotment/Bond Authorization, Certificate for Cost of Living and/or Housing Allowance, Certificate for Temporary Lodging Allowance,

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE OF THE SYSTEM:

Title 10 and 37, U.S. Code Section 5031 and 5201.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSE OF SUCH USES:

Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps and Marine Corps commands, activities and organizations—By officials and employees of the Marine Corps in the performance of their assigned duties in matters relating to a Marine's automated personnel and/or pay record.

Department of Defense and its components—By officials and employees of the Department in the performance of their official duties.

The Attorney General of the U.S.—By officials and employees of the Office of the Attorney General in connection with litigation, law enforcement of other matters under the direct jurisdiction of the Department of Justice or as carried out as the legal representative of the Executive Branch agencies.

Courts—By officials of duly established local, state and federal courts as a result of court order pertaining to matters properly within the purview of said court.

Congress of the U.S.—By the Senate or the House of Representatives of the U.S. or any committee or subcommittee thereof, any joint committee of Congress or subcommittee of joint committee on matters within their jurisdiction requiring disclosure of the files.

The Comptroller General of the U.S.—By the Comptroller General or any of his authorized representatives in the course of performance of duties of the General Accounting Office relating to the Marine Corps.

By officials and employees of the American Red Cross and the Navy Relief Society in the performance of their duties. Access will be limited to those portions of the member's record required to effectively assist the member.

Federal, state and local government agencies—By officials and employees of federal, state and local government through official request for information with respect to law enforcement investigatory procedures, criminal prosecution, civil court action and regulatory order.

To provide information to another agency or to an instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States which has been authorized by law to conduct law enforcement activities pursuant to a request that the agency initiate criminal or civil action against an individual on behalf of the U.S. Marine Corps, the Department of the Navy, or the Department of Defense.

To provide information to individuals pursuant to a request for assistance in a criminal or civil action against a member of the U.S. Marine Corps, by the U.S. Marine Corps, the Department of the Navy, or the Department of Defense.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare (DHEW)—Disclosure of the name, rank or grade, and Social Security Account Number of each Marine Corps active duty military member to the Inspector General of DHEW for the specific purpose of comparison with appropriate rolls reflecting recipients of Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC).

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM: STORAGE:

Data is recorded on magnetic records and discs, punch cards, computer printouts, microform, file folders, and other documents.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The data contained in magnetic records can be displayed on cathode-ray tubes, it can be computer printed on paper, and it can be converted to microform for information retrieval; the data in the supporting file folders and other manual records is retrieved manually. Computerized and conventional indices are required to retrieve individual records from the system. Normally, all types of records are retrieved by Social Security Number and name.

SAFEGUARDS:

Building management employs security guards: building is locked nights and holidays. Authorized personnel may enter and leave the building during nonworking hours but must sign in and out. Records are maintained in areas accessible only to authorized personnel that are properly screened, cleared and trained.

Access to personal information is limited to authorized personnel with a need-to-know. Access is restricted to specific applications programs, records, and files to which personnel have a specific and recorded need-to-know. On line data sets (both tape and disc) pertaining to personal information are password protected, areas are controlled and access lists are used. The files are also protected at a level appropriate to the type of information being processed.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Magnetic records are maintained on all Marine Corps personnel while they are in service, and for a period of 4 months after they are separated from the service. Paper and film records are maintained for a period of 10 years after the final transaction. End calendar and fiscal year "snapshots" of the MMS data base are maintained indefinitely in magnetic form at Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps.

SYSTEM MANAGER(S) AND ADDRESS:

Commandant of the Marine Corps, Headquarters, U.S. Marine Corps Washington, D.C. 20380.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURE:

Requests from individuals for information concerning pay related matters should be addressed to the Commandant of the Marine Corps (Code FD). Requests from individuals for information concerning personnel matters should be addressed to the Commandant of the Marine Corps (Code MP).

Requesting individual must supply full name and Social Security Number.

The requester may visit the Marine Corps Finance Center, 1500 East Bannister Road, Kansas City, Missouri 64197 to obtain information on whether the system contains records pertaining to him or her.

In order to personally visit the above address and obtain information, individuals must present a military identification card, a driver's license, or other suitable proof of identity.

RECORD ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Information on JUMPS may be obtained from the member's local disbursing officer. Information on MMS may be obtained for the member's immediate commanding officer. Requests for information from persons no longer in service should be signed by the person requesting the information. Dates of service, Social Security Number, and full name of requester should be printed or typed on the request. It should be sent to the Marine Corps Finance Center, 1500 East Bannister Road, Kansas City, Missouri 64197.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

The agency's rules for access to records and for contesting contents and appealing initial determinations by the individual concerned may be obtained from the SYSMANAGER.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Recruiting offices, disbursing offices, administrative offices, and the individual Marine are the principal sources of the information contained in the JUMPS/MMS record for that person.

SYSTEM EXEMPTED FROM CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE ACT:

None.

DEPARTMENT OF ENERGYEconomic Regulatory Administration*Action Taken on Consent Orders

AGENCY: Economic Regulatory Administration.

ACTION: Notice of action taken on consent orders.

SUMMARY: The Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) of the Department of Energy (DOE) hereby gives Notice that Consent Orders were entered into between the Office of Enforcement, ERA, and the firms listed below during the month of January. These Consent Orders concern prices charged by retail motor gasoline dealers allegedly in excess of the maximum lawful selling price for motor gasoline. The purpose and effect of these Consent Orders is to bring the consenting firms into present compliance with the Mandatory Petroleum Price Regulations and the General Allocation and Price Regulations, and they do not address or limit any liability with respect to the consenting firms' prior compliance or possible violation of the aforementioned regulations. Pursuant to the Consent Orders, the consenting firms agree to the following actions:

1. Reduce prices for each grade of gasoline to no more than the maximum lawful selling price;

2. (a) Post the maximum lawful selling price, or a certification that the current selling price is equal to or less than the maximum allowed, for each grade of gasoline on each pump used to dispense gasoline, facing each direction from which the pumps are generally viewed by customers, in numbers or letters not less than one-half (1/2) inch high, or (b) post the maximum lawful selling price for each grade of gasoline in a prominent location elsewhere at the retail outlet which is visible to a customer purchasing gasoline in letters not less than four (4) inches high, or (c) post a certification that the current selling price is equal to or less than the maximum allowed in a prominent location elsewhere at the retail outlet which is visible to a customer purchasing gasoline in letters not less than one and one-half (1 1/2) inches high;

3. Properly maintain records required under the aforementioned regulations; and

4. Cease and desist from employing any discriminatory and/or unlawful business practices prohibited by the aforementioned regulations.

ADDRESS: Send comments to Charles L. Croxton, Program Manager for Natural Gas Liquid Processors, Office of Enforcement, Economic Regulatory Administration, 2000 M Street, N.W., Room 5108, Washington, D.C. 20461, telephone (202) 254-5907.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Charles Croxton, Program Manager for Natural Gas Liquid Processors, Office of Enforcement, Economic Regulatory Administration, 2000 M Street, N.W., Room 5108, Washington, D.C. 20461, telephone (202) 254-5907.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 31, 1980, the Office of Enforcement of the ERA executed a proposed Consent Order with Olin Corporation of Stamford, Connecticut. Under 10 CFR 205.199J(b), a proposed Consent Order, which involves a sum of $500,000 or more in the aggregate, excluding penalties and interest, becomes effective only after the DOE has received comments with respect to the proposed Consent Order. Although the ERA has signed and tentatively accepted the proposed Consent Order, the ERA may, after consideration of the comments it receives, withdraw its acceptance and, if appropriate, attempt to negotiate an alternative Consent Order.

I. The Consent Order

Olin Corporation, with its home office located in Stamford, Connecticut, is engaged in the fractionation and sale of NGL products and thus, is or has been subject to the provisions of the Cost of Living Council (CLC) Phase IV Price Regulations, 6 CFR 150, and the DOE Petroleum Allocation and Price Regulations at 10 CFR, Parts 210, 211, and 212. To resolve certain civil actions which could be brought by the Office of Enforcement of the Economic Regulatory Administration as a result of its audit of Olin, the ERA Office of Enforcement and Olin entered into a Consent Order, the significant terms of which are as follows:

1. The Office of Enforcement has examined Olin's books and records and reviewed all pertinent matters relating to Olin's compliance with the CLC and DOE petroleum price regulations in effect during the period from September 1, 1973 through December 31, 1978. All civil actions that could be brought with regard to Olin's compliance with the DOE petroleum price regulations and prices charged by Olin in sales of NGL products during the period September 1, 1973 through December 31, 1978 are resolved by this Consent Order.

2. Olin deposited the sum of $3,546,278, including interest (the refund), as specified in the Consent Order, in an interest-bearing escrow account on November 1, 1979. The refund amount and accrued interest from the escrow account will be conveyed to the United States Department of Energy within ten (10) days after the Consent Order becomes effective.

3. Olin will pay, by certified check made payable to the U.S. Department of Energy, the sum of $7,500 in compromise of civil penalties that could be sought in connection with Olin's failure to file appropriate reports during the period covered by the audit. Payment will be made within ten days of the effective date of this Consent Order.

4. Olin will submit all required EIA-64 forms within sixty days of the effective date of the Consent Order.

5. Execution of the Consent Order constitutes neither an admission by Olin nor a finding by DOE that Olin has violated any statutes or applicable regulations of the Cost of Living Council, the Federal Energy Office, the Federal Energy Administration or the Department of Energy.

6. The provisions of 10 CFR 205.199J, including the publication of this Notice, are applicable to the Consent Order.

II. Disposition of Refunded Overcharges

In this Consent Order, Olin agrees to refund, in full settlement of any civil liability with respect to actions which might be brought by the ERA Office of Enforcement, arising out of the transactions specified in I.1. above, the refund amount of $3,546,278 plus interest accrued on the escrow account established by Olin since November 1, 1979, within 10 days after the Consent Order becomes effective. The refund amount, including the accrued interest, will be in the form of a certified check made payable to the United States Department of Energy and will be delivered to the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement, ERA. These funds will remain in a suitable account pending the determination of their proper disposition.

The DOE intends to distribute the refund amounts in a just and equitable manner in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. Accordingly, distribution of such refunded overcharge requires that only those "persons" (as defined at 10 CFR 205.2) who actually suffered a loss as a result of the transactions described in the Consent Order receive appropriate refunds. Because of the petroleum industry's complex marketing system, overcharges may have been passed through as higher prices to subsequent purchasers. In fact, the adverse effects of the overcharges may have become so diffused that it is a practical impossibility to identify specific, adversely affected persons, in which case disposition of the refunds will be made in the general public interest by an appropriate means such as payment to the Treasury of the United States pursuant to 10 CFR 205.199I(a).

III. Submission of Written Comments

A. Potential Claimant: Interested persons who believe that they have a claim to all or a portion of the refund amount should provide written notification to the ERA at this time. Proof of claims is not now being required. Written notification to the ERA at this time is requested primarily for the purpose of identifying valid potential claims to the refund amount. After potential claims are identified, procedures for the making of proof of claims may be established. Failure by a person to provide written notification of a potential claim within the comment period for this notice may result in the DOE irrevocably disbursing the funds to other claimants.

Other Comments: The ERA invites interested persons to comment on the terms, conditions, or procedural aspects of this Consent Order. You should submit your comments or written notification of a claim on or before March 24, 1980 to Charles L. Croxton, Program Manager for Natural Gas Liquid Processors, Office of Enforcement, Regulatory Administration, 2000 M Street, N.W., Room 5108, Washington, D.C. 20461, telephone (202) 254-5907. You may obtain a free copy of this Consent Order by writing to the same address.

You should identify your comments by written notification of a claim on the outside of your envelope and on the documents you submit with the designation, "Comments on Olin Consent Order." We will consider all comments we receive on or before March 24, 1980. You should identify any information or data which, in your opinion, is confidential and submit it in accordance with the procedures in 10 CFR 205(f).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on the 12th day of February, 1980.

Belvia Stokely; Proposed Remedial Order

Pursuant to 10 CFR Section 205.192(c), the Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) of the Department of Energy (DOE) hereby gives notice of a Proposed Remedial Order which was issued to Belvia Stokely, Chantilly, Virginia, 22021, on November 15, 1979.

This Proposed Remedial Order charges Belvia Stokely with selling one grade of gasoline in excess of the Maximum Lawful Selling Price in violation of 10 CFR Section 212.93. It was determined that Belvia Stokely violated the Federal Energy Pricing Guidelines by selling above the Maximum Lawful Selling Price in the amount of 2.7¢ per gallon for Regular Unleaded. Additionally, Belvia Stokely failed to properly post the Maximum Lawful Selling Price for each grade of gasoline as required by 10 CFR Section 212.129.

Pursuant to 10 CFR Section 205.192, Belvia Stokely is required by the Proposed Remedial Order to reduce its price at the pump to the maximum lawful selling price for one grade to be in compliance with the Federal Energy pricing regulations.

A copy of the Proposed Remedial Order, with confidential information deleted, may be obtained from James C. Easterday, District Manager of Enforcement, Southeast District, Office of Enforcement, 1655 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Phone: (404) 881-2661. On or before March 7, 1980, any aggrieved person may file a Notice of Objection with the Office of Hearings and Appeals, 2000 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20461, in accordance with 10 CFR 205.193.

Issued in Atlanta, Georgia, on the 4th day of February 1980.

James C. Easterday,

District Manager.

Approved for signature.

Delbert Frye; Proposed Remedial Order

Pursuant to 10 CFR Section 205.192(c), the Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) of the Department of Energy (DOE) hereby gives notice of a Proposed Remedial Order which was issued to Delbert Frye, Winchester, Virginia, 22601, on November 20, 1979.

This Proposed Remedial Order charges Delbert Frye with selling two grades of gasoline in excess of the Maximum Lawful Selling Price in violation of 10 CFR Section 212.93. It was determined that Delbert Frye violated the Federal Energy Pricing Guidelines by selling above the Maximum Lawful Selling Price in the amounts of 4.0¢ per gallon for Regular Leaded and 0.4¢ for Regular Unleaded. Additionally, Delbert Frye failed to properly post the Maximum Lawful Selling Price for each grade of gasoline as required by 10 CFR Section 212.129.

Pursuant to 10 CFR Section 205.192, Delbert Frye is required by the Proposed Remedial Order to reduce its prices at the pump to the Maximum Lawful Selling Price for each grade of gasoline to be in compliance with the Federal Energy pricing regulations.

A copy of the Proposed Remedial Order, with confidential information deleted, may be obtained from James C. Easterday, District Manager of Enforcement, Southeast District, Office of Enforcement, 1655 Peachtree Street, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia 30309, Phone: (404) 881-2661. On or before March 7, 1980, any aggrieved person may file a Notice of Objection with the Office of Hearings and Appeals, 2000 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20461 in accordance with 10 CFR Section 205.193.

Gary Energy Corp.; Issuance of Final Decision and Order

On December 21, 1979, we issued a Proposed Decision and Order to the Gary Energy Corporation (Gary) that would permit, pursuant to the provisions of 10 CFR 212.78, market prices for the incremental crude oil produced from Gary's Microemulsion Project in the Bell Creek Field in Montana. The Proposed Decision and Order was published in the Federal Register on January 4, 1980, (45 FR 1133). One comment was received with respect to that Proposed Decision and Order. Gary noted a typographical error in Ordering Paragraph 2 and requested a change in the section of the regulation cited in Ordering Paragraph 4. We have adopted the technical changes requested and have, accordingly, issued a Decision and Order that permits market prices for incremental crude oil from the Bell Creek Field Microemulsion Project as stated in the Proposed Decision and Order.

A copy of the Decision and Order is available in the Public Docket Room, Room B-120, 2000 M Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., between 1:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday and in the Department of Energy Reading Room, Room GA-152, James Forrestal Building, 1000 Independence Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on February 12, 1980.

John Franks and Don H. Duggan; Proposed Remedial Order

Pursuant to 10 CFR 205.192(c), the Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) of the Department of Energy hereby gives notice of a Proposed Remedial Order which was issued to John Franks and Don H. Duggan. This Proposed Remedial Order charges Franks and Duggan with pricing violations in the amounts of $169,988.29 and $84,989.05, respectively, in connection with the sale of crude oil and condensate at prices in excess of those permitted by 10 CFR 212, Subpart D during the time period December 1, 1973 through December 31, 1977, in the State of Louisiana.

A copy of the Proposed Remedial Order, with confidential information deleted, may be obtained from Wayne I. ACTION: Notice of Action Taken on Consent Orders.

SUMMARY: The Economic Regulatory Administration (ERA) of the Department of Energy (DOE) hereby gives Notice that Consent Orders were entered into between the Office of Enforcement, ERA, and the firms listed below during the month of January 1980. The Consent Orders represent resolutions of outstanding compliance investigations or proceedings by the DOE and the firms which involve a sum of less than $500,000 in the aggregate, excluding penalties and interest. For Consent Orders involving sums of $500,000 or more, Notice will be separately published in the Federal Register. These Consent Orders are concerned exclusively with payment of the refunded amounts to injured parties for alleged overcharges made by the specified companies during the time periods indicated below through direct refunds or rollbacks of prices.

For further information regarding these Consent Orders, please contact Kenneth E. Merica, District Manager of Enforcement, P.O. Box 26247 Belmar Branch, Lakewood, Colo., 80226, telephone number 303-234-3195.

Under 10 CFR § 205.199(b), a Consent Order which involves a sum of less than $500,000 in the aggregate, excluding penalties and interest, becomes effective upon its execution.

I. The Consent Order

Western and Excelsior, with their home offices located in Hastings, Nebraska, are firms engaged in the production and sale of condensate, and are subject to the Mandatory Petroleum and Allocation Regulations at 10 CFR, Parts 210, 211, and 212. To resolve certain civil actions which could be brought by the Office of Enforcement of the Economic Regulatory Administration as a result of its audit of Western and Excelsior the Office of Enforcement, ERA, and Kansas-Nebraska through Western and Excelsior entered into a Consent Order, the significant terms of which are as follows:

1. This Consent Order covers the production and sales of condensate by Western and Excelsior during the period September 1, 1973 through September 30, 1979, recovered from a gas pipeline and at the inlet side of a gas processing plant.

2. The reason for the overcharges was Western and Excelsior sold condensate recovered at various installations at prices in excess of the applicable ceiling price, as defined at 6 CFR § 150.354(c) and at 10 CFR § 210.32.

3. It is understood that Kansas-Nebraska does not, by entering into the Consent Order, admit that it has violated any regulations of the DOE.

4. The provisions of 10 CFR § 205.199], including the publication of this Notice, are applicable to the Consent Order.

II. Disposition of Refunded Overcharges

In this Consent Order, Kansas-Nebraska through Western and Excelsior agrees to refund, in full settlement of any civil liability with respect to actions which might be brought by the Office of Enforcement, ERA, arising out of the transactions specified in I.1. above, the sum of $406,578.25, which includes interest as specified in paragraph 1 of the Consent Order. The refund shall be made within 30 days after the Consent Order becomes effective. Such refund will be made to the United States Department of Energy and will be delivered to the Assistant Administrator for Enforcement, ERA. These funds will remain in a suitable account pending the determination of their proper disposition.

NOTICE: Pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of the Federal Emergency Management Agency by the President under Executive Order 12148 effective July 15, 1979, and delegated to me by the Director under Federal Emergency Management Agency Delegation of Authority, and by virtue of the Act of May 22, 1974, entitled "Disaster Relief Act of 1974" (88 Stat. 143); notice is hereby given that, in a letter of February 6, 1980, the President declared a major disaster as follows:

I have determined that the damage in certain areas of the State of Hawaii resulting from severe storms, high surf and flooding during the period January 7-16, 1980, is of sufficient severity and magnitude to warrant a major-disaster declaration under Public Law 93-288. I therefore declare that such a major disaster exists in the State of Hawaii.

The time period prescribed for the implementation of Section 313(a), Priority to Certain Applications for Public Facility and Public Housing Assistance, shall be for a period not to exceed six months after the date of this declaration.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of Federal Emergency Management Agency under Executive Order 12148, and delegated to me by the Director under Federal Emergency Management Agency Delegation of Authority, I hereby appoint Francis S. Manda of the Federal Emergency Management Agency to act as the Federal Coordinating Officer for this declared major disaster.

I do hereby determine the following area of the State of Hawaii to have been affected adversely by this declared major disaster.

GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE

Regulatory Reports Review; Receipt of Report Proposals

The following requests for clearance of reports intended for use in collecting information from the public were received by the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, GAO, on February 12, 1980 (CAB), and February 13, 1980 (ICC). See 44 U.S.C. 3512 (c) and (d). The purpose of publishing this notice in the Federal Register is to inform the public of such receipts.

The notice includes the title of each request received; the name of the agency sponsoring the proposed collection of information; the agency form number, if applicable; and the frequency with which the information is proposed to be collected.

Written comments on the proposed CAB and ICC requests are invited from all interested persons, organizations, public interest groups, and affected businesses. Because of the limited amount of time GAO has to review the proposed requests, comments (in triplicate) must be received on or before March 10, 1980, and should be addressed to Mr. John M. Lovelady, Assistant Director, Regulatory Reports Review, United States General Accounting Office, Room 5106, 441 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20548.

Further information may be obtained from Patsy J. Stuart of the Regulatory Reports Review Staff, 202-275-3532.

Civil Aeronautics Board

The CAB requests an extension without change clearance of Form 433, Foreign Air Carrier Application for Authorization for Off-Route Charter. This form is used by foreign carriers to apply for off-route and wet-lease authority pursuant to Parts 212 and 214 of the Board's Economic Regulations. The CAB estimates reporting burden will average one-half hour per application and that respondents will number approximately 26 foreign air carriers.

The CAB requests an extension without change clearance of Part 249, Preservation of Air Carrier Accounts, Records, and Memoranda. This regulation prescribes the record-retention requirements for approximately 423 U.S. certificated air carriers, foreign air carriers, and tour and charter operators who conduct certain types of charter flights. Retention of the records for the periods prescribed in Part 249 is mandatory under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended. The CAB estimates that no significant burden is involved in the record retention requirements in Part 249 since the records "would be maintained by the respondents under good business management and to meet the requirements of other agencies having control over the respondents, such as IRS."

Interstate Commerce Commission

The ICC requests clearance of revised Form M-3, Annual Financial Report for Class III Common and Contract Motor Carriers of Property, required to be filed by all carriers having annual carrier operating revenues (including interstate and intrastate) of less than $1 million pursuant to order of the Interstate Commerce Commission, 49 CFR 1249.4. The form is revised to conform with the Commission's decision of December 31, 1979, in Docket No. 37211, Revision to Annual Report Form M-3. Form M-3 has been significantly reduced and redesigned. The revised M-3 will be a single-page report. It will require disclosure of (1) the type of operation, (2) the total assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses, (3) a short analysis of revenue equipment owned and leased (categorized by trucks, tractors, semi-trailers and full trailers), and (4) certification. The ICC estimates that respondents will number approximately 12,900 carriers and that reporting burden for each carrier will average 30 minutes per annual report. Reports are mandatory.

Regulatory Reports Review Officer.

Proposal to Consolidate Leased Office Activities, Montgomery Co., Md.; Finding of No Significant Impact

AGENCY: National Institutes of Health, HEW.

ACTION: Proposal to Consolidate Leased Office Activities, Montgomery County, Maryland; Finding of No Significant Impact.

SUMMARY: Pursuant to Section 102(2)(c) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969; the Council of Environmental Quality Regulations for Implementing the Procedural Provisions of The National Environmental Policy Act (40 CFR Parts 1500-1508), the National Institutes of Health (NIH), U.S. Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, has conducted an environmental assessment on a proposal to consolidate leased office activities of the National Institutes of Health in Montgomery County, Maryland.

The environmental assessment of this federal action indicates this project will not cause significant impacts to the environment. For this reason, the National Institutes of Health Agency Environmental Officer, Dr. R. G. Wanner, gives notice that a Finding of No Significant Impact has been prepared and has determined that the preparation and review of an environmental impact statement are not needed for this proposal.

The project concerns the relocation and expansion of office and support activities now conducted by NIH in four rental buildings in Montgomery County and at the NIH campus in Bethesda, Maryland, to a single leased office facility in Montgomery County. The new facility is to be located along the METRO Subway line directionally toward the cities of Rockville and Gaithersburg from Bethesda. The facility will be located within walking distance of a METRO Subway station.

The leased facility is proposed to contain 700,000 net square feet of space and will be occupied by approximately 3,500 NIH employees. Projected occupancy date is 1983.

The Finding of No Significant Impact, and the Environmental Assessment which lead NIH to that conclusion, have been distributed for informational purposes to certain Federal, State, local governmental agencies, regional and local planning organizations and public interest groups.

Desegregation of Public Education; Closing Date for Noncompeting Continuation Projects Applications

AGENCY: Office of Education, HEW.

ACTION: Notice of Closing Date for Noncompeting Continuation Projects—Desegregation Assistance Centers.

SUMMARY: Applications are invited for noncompeting continuation projects under the Desegregation Assistance Center program for desegregation of public education.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Authority for this program is contained in section 403 of Title IV of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. (42 U.S.C. 2000c-2)

Present recipients of awards for race, sex, and national origin desegregation assistance centers are eligible to apply for the continuation of those awards. Under 45 CFR 180.38(c), the Commissioner of Education is authorized to approve the continuation of an existing Desegregation Assistance Center award if the recipient of that award "has complied with the terms of the award, has provided satisfactory assistance, and continues to show promise of success in providing that assistance".

The purpose of these awards is to provide technical assistance (including training) in the preparation, adoption, and implementation of plans for race, sex, and national origin desegregation. This includes assistance in solving educational problems resulting from that desegregation.

Closing Date for Transmittal of Applications: To be assured of consideration for finding, an application for a noncompeting award should be mailed or hand delivered by March 7, 1980.

If the application is late, the Office of Education may lack sufficient time to review it with other noncompeting continuation applications and may decline to accept it.

Applications Delivered by Mail: An application sent by mail should be addressed to the U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, Attention: 13.405D Desegregation Assistance Centers, Washington, D.C. 20202.

An applicant should show proof of mailing consisting of one of the following:

(1) A legibly dated U.S. Postal Service postmark.

(2) A legible mail receipt with the date of mailing stamped by the U.S. Postal Service.

(3) A dated shipping label, invoice, or receipt from a commercial carrier.

(4) Any other evidence acceptable to the U.S. Commissioner of Education.

If an application is sent through the U.S. Postal Service, the Commissioner does not accept either of the following as proof of mailing: (1) A private metered postmark, or (2) a mail receipt that is not dated by the U.S. Postal Service.

An applicant should note that the U.S. Postal Service does not uniformly provide a dated postmark. Before relying on this method, an applicant should check with its local post office.

An applicant is encouraged to use registered or at least first class mail.

Applications Delivered by Hand: An application that is delivered by hand should be taken to the U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, Room 5673, Regional Office Building 3, 7th and D Streets, S.W., Washington, D.C. BILLING CODE 4110-02-M

National Demonstration Projects, Upward Bound, and Special Services for Disadvantaged Students; Extension of Closing Dates for Transmittal of Applications for National Demonstration Projects for Fiscal Year 1980

Notice is given that the March 14, 1980, deadline for transmittal of applications for the National Demonstration Projects under Upward Bound and Special Services for Disadvantaged Students is extended to May 30, 1980. This Notice was originally published in the Federal Register on October 24, 1979.

The October Notice indicated that concept papers which would provide guidance for prospective applicants would be available by January 7, 1980. However, the concept papers will not be available until late March, 1980. Because of the importance of the concept papers to ensure receipt of relevant and commendable applications, this extension has been approved to allow applicants additional time for preparation.

Authority for these programs is contained in section 417B of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended. (20 U.S.C. 1070d-1)

Under the Special Services program, institutions of higher education and combinations of such institutions are eligible to receive awards. Similarly, under the Upward Bound program, institutions of higher education, combinations of institutions of higher education, public and private agencies and organizations (including professional and scholarly associations), and, in exceptional cases, secondary schools and secondary vocational schools are eligible to receive awards.

The Upward Bound National Demonstration projects will differ from the traditional Upward Bound projects in that the participants will be low-income high school youths who have an exceptional potential or demonstrated aptitude to pursue careers requiring a proficiency in natural and applied sciences.

The Special Services National Demonstration projects will differ from the traditional Special Services Projects in that projects will institutionalize the supportive services provided to participants by utilizing faculty members as mentors to provide academic, career, and personal guidance and counseling. The primary focus will be to prepare and assist disadvantaged students to enter graduate and professional schools.

The Commissioner strongly encourages the submission of applications for Upward Bound National Demonstration projects that (1) provide an 8-week summer residential program with a special emphasis in a particular academic discipline in which disadvantaged persons are underrepresented and (2) prepare qualified youths from low-income families for programs of post-secondary education in those disciplines.

The Commissioner also strongly encourages the submission of applications for Special Services National Demonstration projects that provide encouragement to and preparation of juniors and seniors to enable them to enter graduate and professional schools to pursue and complete programs of studies in those areas in which disadvantaged persons, particularly minorities, are underrepresented.

The programs of study in which minorities and women are underrepresented include but are not limited to:

Architecture; Biological Science, Computer Science; Dentistry; Engineering; Law; Mathematics; Medicine; Optometry; Osteopathic Medicine; Pharmacy Sciences; Podiatry; Veterinary Medicine.

Closing Date for Transmittal of Applications: Applications for new awards must be mailed or hand-delivered by May 30, 1980.

Applications Delivered by Mail: An application sent by mail must be addressed to the U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, Attention: 13.482 D (For Special Services for Disadvantaged Students) or 13.492 D (For Upward Bound), Washington, D.C. 20202.

An applicant must show proof of mailing consisting of one of the following:

(1) A legible U.S. Postal Service dated postmark;

(2) A legible mail receipt with the date of mailing stamped by the U.S. Postal Service.

(3) A dated shipping label, invoice, or receipt from a commercial carrier.

(4) Any other proof of mailing acceptable to the U.S. Commissioner of Education.

If an application is sent through the U.S. Postal Service, the Commissioner does not accept either of the following as proof of mailing: (1) a private metered postmark, or (2) a mail receipt that is not dated by the U.S. Postal Service.

An applicant should note that the U.S. Postal Service does not uniformly provide a dated postmark. Before relying on this method, an applicant should check with its local post office.

An applicant is encouraged to use registered or at least first-class mail. Each late applicant will be notified that its application will not be considered.

Applications Delivered by Hand: An application that is hand-delivered must be taken to the U.S. Office of Education, Application Control Center, Room 5673, Regional Office Building 3, 7th and D Streets, SW., Washington, D.C.

The Application Control Center will accept hand-delivered applications between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. (Washington, D.C. time) daily, except Saturdays, Sundays, or Federal holidays.

An application that is hand-delivered will not be accepted after 4:30 p.m. on the closing date.

Program Information: All applications for fiscal year 1980 funds will be treated as new applications. Successful applications will receive up to two (2) year project period grants.

The Office of Education may not fund an applicant for a period of time longer than is requested by the applicant in the application. Applicants requesting two years of funding must submit a detailed work program and budget for the first year and an outline of the work program and a budget summary for the second year.

The Commissioner approves requests for the second year if:

1. The need continues to exist for the services provided by the project;
2. Satisfactory progress has been made in implementing the approved work plan and in achieving the project's goals and objectives;
3. The project continues to offer promise of success;
4. All required reports have been received and accepted by the Commissioner; and
5. Funds are available to continue the project.

An application Preparation Workshop will be conducted in Washington, D.C. in late April. For the time and location of the workshop, contact the Program Development Branch (see address in section on FURTHER INFORMATION).

Available Funds: It is expected that approximately $147.5 million will be available for the Special Programs for Students from Disadvantaged Backgrounds in fiscal year 1980. However, for these two initiatives, the following estimated amounts of money will be available: $3.2 million will be available for National Demonstration Upward Bound, to fund approximately 15 grants each averaging $200,000 and $1.9 million is expected to be available for National Demonstration Special Services, to fund approximately 13 grants each averaging $146,000.

However, these estimates do not bind the U.S. Office of Education to a specific number of grants or to the amount of any grant, unless that amount is otherwise specified by statute or regulations.

Application Forms: Application materials and concept papers will be mailed upon request. Application forms, program information packages, and concept papers are expected to be ready for mailing by late March, 1980. They may be obtained by writing to the Division of Student Services and Veterans Programs, Information Systems and Program Support Branch, U.S. Office of Education (Room 3514, Regional Office Building 3), 400 Maryland Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20202.

Applications must be prepared and submitted in accordance with the regulations, instructions, and forms included in the program information package. The Commissioner strongly urges that the narrative portion of the application not exceed fifty (50) pages in length. The Commissioner further urges that applicants not submit information that is not requested.

Applicable Regulations: Regulations applicable to these programs include the following:

(a) Regulations governing the Upward Bound Program (45 CFR Part 155) and the Special Services for Disadvantaged Students Program (45 CFR Part 157); and
(b) General Provisions Regulations for Office of Education Programs (45 CFR Parts 100 and 100a).

If EDGAR becomes effective before grants are made under these programs, those grants will be subject to the following provisions of EDGAR: Subpart A (General); Subpart E (What conditions Must Be Met by a Grantee?); Subpart F (What are the Administrative Responsibilities of a Grantee?); and Subpart G (What Procedures Does the Education Division Use To Get Compliance?).

Note.—The proposed Education Division General Administrative Regulations (EDGAR) were published in the Federal Register on May 4, 1979 (44 FR 26298). When EDGAR becomes effective, it will supersede the General Provisions Regulations for Office of Education Programs.

Further Information: For further information, contact the Program Development Branch, Division of Student Services and Veterans Program, U.S. Office of Education (Room 3514, Regional Office Building 3), 400 Maryland Avenue, SW., Washington, D.C. 20202, Telephone (202) 245-2511.

BILLING CODE 4110-02-M

Office of the Secretary

Resettling Refugees; Availability of Funding

AGENCY: HEW, Office of Refugee Affairs (ORA), Office of the Secretary.

ACTION: Notice of Availability of Funding.

SUMMARY: This document governs the award of a grant to a public or private nonprofit agency for the purpose of providing technical assistance to those delivering language and vocational training services to refugees from Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos and operating a materials and assistance clearinghouse to aid voluntary agencies, sponsors, educators and others involved in resettling refugees.

DATE: Grant applications must be received by 5:00 p.m. on or before March 24, 1980.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mary C. Spillane 202-245-0403.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Purpose and Scope

ORA is responsible for promoting self-reliance among refugees resettled in the United States. In carrying out this responsibility with regard to refugees from Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos, ORA administers a number of programs nationwide which provide training in English as a Second Language, vocational and employment services, and other supportive services to the refugees. These programs are operated by a variety of organizations, including resettlement agencies, community organizations, community college districts and welfare agencies. ORA intends to award a grant to provide training and technical assistance to language teachers, employment service staff, and administrators of these programs; to develop curriculum materials and guides relevant to the programs' activities; and maintain a nationwide, toll-free information hotline to respond to inquiries concerning refugee language and employment training and resettlement in general.

Successful performance under this grant requires an intimate knowledge of the unique language acquisition problems experienced by the refugees, domestic refugee resettlement patterns and networks, Federal objectives with regard to refugee resettlement, methods of adapting curriculum materials to the needs of the refugees and labor market participation issues as they relate to this population.

II. Authorization

Funds for the activities provided below are provided under the Indochinese Migration and Refugee Assistance Act of 1975, as amended.

III. Eligible Grantees

Eligible grantees are State and local governments, public and incorporated non-profit agencies, or any combination of those. Private for-profit agencies or firms are not eligible for grants.

IV. Allotment of Funds

Approximately $500,000 will be made available for the purposes of this announcement for the twelve month period following the date of award. It is anticipated that this will be a three year project grant. Initial budget support ($500,000) will be provided for the first twelve month period. Support for subsequent budget periods will be based upon successful performance and continued need for services.

V. Application Submission and Approval Procedures

Eligible applicants may request grant applications from the Office of Refugee Affairs, HEW, 330 C Street SW, Washington, D.C. 20201. Telephone, 202-245-0403. An original application and two copies must be received by the Director, Office of Refugee Affairs by 5:00 p.m. (local time) on or before March 24, 1980. No grant applications will be accepted after this date.

A panel will be convened by the Director to review, evaluate and rank proposals received, based on the criteria outlined in Section VI of this notice. The effective date of the award of the grant under this announcement will be April 21, 1980.

VI. Criteria for Evaluating Applications

Project grant applications will be evaluated according to the following criteria:

1. Familiarity of applicant organization with the refugee resettlement effort, and with the language acquisition and instruction problems experienced by refugees, language teachers, and program administrators, and familiarity with the languages and cultures of Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos (0-20 points).

2. Understanding the role of language instruction within the context of self-sufficiency training and comprehensive manpower programs for refugees (0-15 points).

3. Presentation of a clear and feasible methodological description. (How will applicant accomplish the tasks outlined in Section VII?) (0-15 points).

4. Presentation of evidence of institutional capability to carry out required tasks (0-10 points).

5. Demonstration of staff competencies necessary to accomplish project goals: Evidence of past successful experience of proposed project director and key staff members in similar or related projects, appropriateness of time commitment (0-20 points).

6. Procedures for assessing and evaluating the work of the project at appropriate points (0-10 points).

7. Reasonableness of anticipated costs (0-10 points).

VII. Scope of Work

The grantee shall be required to carry out the following tasks: (1) provide on-site, hands on technical assistance and training to language teachers, vocational and employment service staff, and program administrators providing language instruction and self-sufficiency training services to refugees from Vietnam, Cambodia and Laos. Agencies involved in delivery of these services include elementary and secondary schools, colleges and universities, international voluntary resettlement agencies (volags), refugee community agencies, and other community groups. These vary in their degree of familiarity with language instruction to individuals with refugees' linguistic and cultural background.

Facilitating language acquisition among these groups requires specialized skills in the areas of curriculum development, materials adaptation/development and instruction. The grantee must be capable of utilizing its expertise in these areas to provide meaningful, practical training to practitioners dealing directly with refugee clients. Technical assistance will be provided on-site where requested by the provider agencies. It is anticipated that approximately 60 individual on-site technical assistance sessions will be conducted. In addition, the grantee will be required to conduct workshop training in approximately 20 HEW sponsored conferences dealing with refugee self-sufficiency training.

The primary objective of training provided to the refugees is the achievement of self-sufficiency as rapidly as is practicable. It is essential that the grantee be capable of advising service providers as to the role of language instruction activities in a self-sufficiency training program. The technical assistance provided must also be responsive to specific problems/issues raised by practitioners, rather than generalized and theoretical in nature.

(2) Develop/adapt, reproduce and distribute materials relevant to the above tasks. This would include updating and revising publications previously developed under HEW auspices to aid in teaching English to the refugees. Such materials include: Bibliographies of ESL materials, guides for volunteers and tutors, bibliographies of dictionaries/phrasebooks, ESL classroom guides, pronunciation exercises and methodologies for learning English.

Addition materials to be required during the grant period include: a review of refugee camp experiences, especially those of young adults, to acquaint services agencies with the educational needs of refugees; guides to the Laos and Cambodian cultures; a guide to teaching ESL to homebound refugee women; methods and technologies of translation; a bibliography of materials available in the refugees' languages; program models appropriate for refugee language self-sufficiency training.

(3) Maintain a national toll-free hotline, staffed with personnel capable of responding to inquiries concerning language instruction for refugees, appropriate techniques, services and materials available, general refugee resettlement, etc. Inquiries are generated by language instructors, service providers, Volags, agency affiliates, sponsors and others involved in resettlement. As with the on-site activities, hotline assistance must provide practical responses to specific questions on language instruction and resettlement. The hotline is expected to receive approximately 600 calls per week during the grant period.

VIII. Application Content

All applicants will use Standard Form 424, "Federal Assistance" in submitting project proposals. Grant applications must also include the following:

1. Description of the applicant organization. Description of the proposed public agency, private nonprofit consortium, etc. If other than a public agency, description of its organizational mandate, funding sources, principal officers, address, and telephone number must be included. If the applicant is a unit of a larger institution, assurances must be provided that the operation and objectives of this project will not be subordinated to institutional goals.

2. Applicant experience with language training programs, especially refugee and immigrant groups. Experience with refugees from Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos.

3. Staffing plan including position description and qualifications of project director and key staff.

4. Work Plan as provided in Section VII above.

5. Management Plan. A plan for fiscal and program management to accomplish the project objectives. The plan should describe how the proposing organization intends to administer the project, train and supervise staff, monitor subcontracts (if proposed), maintain records, and evaluate performance.

6. Project budget.

IX. Records and Reports

Grantees will be required to maintain such fiscal and operational records as are necessary for Federal monitoring and auditing of the grant. Quarterly project progress reports will be required—due 10 days after the last day of each quarter following the effective date of the grant.

Bernard E. Kelly,

Director, Office of Refugee Affairs.

Health Services Administration

Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Program; Announcement of Competitive Grant Applications

The Bureau of Community Health Services (BCHS), Health Services Administration, announces that competitive applications for Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS) Information and Counseling project grants are now being accepted under the grant program established by Section 1121(b) of the Public Health Service Act (42 U.S.C. 300c-11). There will be two funding cycles during FY 1980.

Section 1121(b) of the Public Health Service Act authorizes project grants to public and nonprofit private entities for support of SIDS projects for the collection, analysis, and furnishing of information (derived from postmortem examination and other means) relating to the causes of SIDS and the provision of information and counseling to families affected by SIDS.

Regulations applicable to this program are set forth at Subpart E of Part 51a of Title 42, Code of Federal Regulations, "Project Grants for SIDS Information and Counseling," published on June 6, 1975 (40 FR 24436).

Scope of This Program Announcement

This program announcement identifies the general program objectives and funding priorities of the Project Grants for SIDS Information and Counseling Program for FY 1980.

A. Program Purposes: There are an estimated 6,500-8,000 cases of SIDS in the United States each year. These deaths occur in all geographical areas and socioeconomic classes, as well as in all ethnic and racial groups. The purposes of these project grants are to provide comprehensive, coordinated, and humanitarian services to families whose infants have died suddenly and unexpectedly and to learn more about this syndrome. The SIDS program, administered by the Office of Maternal and Child Health in BCHS, currently provides grant funds to 37 organizations in 32 States.

B. Eligible Applicants: Any public or nonprofit private entity is eligible to apply for a grant under this announcement. Individuals are not eligible applicants. Applications with evidence of active support of the various community resources necessary to provide a comprehensive approach to this serious problem are encouraged.

C. Available Funds: Of $2,802,000 approved under a second continuing resolution, H.J. Res. 440, by Congress for support of the SIDS Program in FY 1980, the SIDS program expects to award $1,503,391 for new and competing continuation grants.

An application for a new grant is a request for financial assistance for a project not currently receiving Federal support and is awarded on a competitive basis. An application for a competing continuation grant is a request for the extension of support for a project period which would otherwise expire.

It is expected that approximately 24 new and competing continuation grants will be awarded pursuant to this announcement. The range of funds per grant is expected to be from $15,000 to $175,211, with the average award expected to be $75,500. Generally, projects will be supported for periods of 1 to 3 years. The funds currently available will sustain the budget of the new and continuation projects for a 1-year period. Support for any additional time remaining in the project period depends on: (1) the availability of funds; (2) the Secretary's assessment of the grantee's satisfactory performance on the project for which the grant was awarded, and (3) the likelihood of the grantee's continued contribution to the priorities of the SIDS program.

D. Program Objectives and Priorities For Funding: The applicable regulations require grantees to furnish services including: (1) encouraging and, as necessary, arranging for or providing autopsies in sudden and expected deaths of infants; (2) encouraging the use of SIDS as a cause of death on the death certificate where appropriate; (3) prompt notification of the parents about the cause of death, within a 24-hour period, wherever possible; (4) information and voluntary counseling of families affected by a SIDS loss; (5) consultation and arrangements with official and voluntary community resources for referral of families affected by SIDS; (6) education of such resources to deal with SIDS cases including the provision of general information as well as specific short term training activities deemed appropriate by the grantee; and (7) collection and dissemination of information on SIDS cases in the project area to appropriate public officials and interested members of the general public in the project area.

Priority will be given to applicants:

1. which would serve an area with a population of 1 million or more persons,
2. which would be located in a geographic area with an infant mortality rate higher than the national average,
3. which have the available community resources enabling them to meet the requirements of the program (§ 51a.505) and
4. which are assured of community support and provide an indication of how continuation of services will be maintained after Federal funding ceases.

E. The Application Process: A-95 Clearinghouse Project Notification and Review; Health Systems Agency (HSA) Review.

1. A-95 Clearinghouse Project Notification and Review. In compliance with the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's implementation of Office of Management and Budget Circular No. A-95 Revised, applicants which request grant support must, prior to submission of an application, notify both the State and Areawide A-95 Clearinghouses of their intent to apply for Federal assistance. If the application is for a statewide project which does not affect areawide or local planning and programs, the notification need be sent only to the State Clearinghouse (listed at 42 FR 2210, January 10, 1977).

The Clearinghouse must be notified at least sixty (60) days before the deadline for receipt of applications by HEW. Applications will not be formally reviewed without clearinghouse comments (which should be included with the application), or verification that no comments were made within the applicable period available to the clearinghouse for comment.

2. Health Systems Agency Review. Applicants requesting grant support must submit applications to the appropriate health systems agency(s) at least sixty (60) days prior to the deadline for receipt of applications by HEW.

3. Application Consideration. Applications which are late, incomplete or otherwise do not conform to this announcement, will not be accepted for review, and applicants will be notified accordingly. All other applications will be subject to a competitive review and evaluation in accordance with the established objective review process.

For additional program information, including technical assistance for the preparation of applications, please write or telephone: Mrs. Geraldine J. Norris, SIDS Program Director, BCHS, Parklawn Building, Room 7-36, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20857. Telephone: 301 443-6600.

Once the Secretary has decided (see item F of this notice) to disapprove applications, or if funds are not available to support all approved applications, the affected applicants will be notified.

F. Criteria for Review and Evaluation of Applications: Applications will be reviewed and evaluated in terms of criteria which are set forth in SIDS program regulations (42 CFR Part 51a, Subpart E). Applicants will be furnished with application forms and instructions (see item H of this notice).

G. Closing Dates for Receipt of Applications: The closing dates for receipt of applications under this program announcement are April 14, 1980, and May 12, 1980. Applications may be mailed or hand delivered. Hand delivered applications are accepted during the usual working hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

An application will be considered to have arrived by the closing date if: (1) the application is in the Grants Management Branch (see item H, below) on or before the announced closing date, or (2) the application is postmarked at least two (2) days prior to the announced closing date.

H. Availability of Application Forms: Application kits, including all necessary forms, instructions, and information may be obtained from, and completed applications returned to, the address below: Grants Management Branch, Bureau of Community Health Services, Room 6-49, Parklawn Building, 5600 Fishers Lane, Rockville, Maryland 20857.

Dated: February 15, 1980.

BILLING CODE 7035-01-M

[Volume No. 49]

Petitions, applications, finance matters (including temporary authorities), alternate route deviations, intrastate applications, Gateways, and Pack & Crate.

Dated: January 25, 1980.

Petitions for Modification, Interpretation or Reinstatement of Motor Carrier Operating Rights Authority

The following petitions seek modification or interpretation of existing motor carrier operating rights authority, or reinstatement of terminated motor carrier operating rights authority.

All pleadings and documents must clearly specify the suffix numbers (e.g., M1 F, M2 F) where the docket is so identified in this notice.

The following petitions, filed on or after March 1, 1979, are governed by Special Rule 247 of the Commission's General Rules of Practice (49 CFR 1100.247). These rules provide, among other things, that a petition to intervene either with or without leave must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date of publication in the Federal Register with a copy being furnished the applicant. Protests to these applications will be rejected.

A petition for intervention without leave must comply with Rule 247(k) which requires petitioner to demonstrate that if (1) holds operating authority permitting performance of any of the service which the applicant seeks authority to perform, (2) has the necessary equipment and facilities for performing that service, and (3) has performed service within the scope of the application either (a) for those supporting the application, or, (b) where the service is not limited to the facilities of particular shippers, from and to, or between, any of the involved points.

Persons unable to intervene under rule 247(k) may file a petition for leave to intervene under Rule 247(l). In deciding whether to grant leave to intervene, the Commission considers, among other things, whether petitioner has (a) solicited the traffic or business of those persons supporting the application, or, (b) where the identity of those supporting application is not included in the published application notice, has solicited traffic or business indetential to any part of that sought by applicant within the affected marketplace. Another factor considered is the effects of any decision on petitioner's interests.

Samples of petitions and the text and explanation of the intervention rules can be found at 43 FR 50908, as modified at 43 FR 60277.

Petitions not in reasonable compliance with these rules may be rejected. Note that Rule 247(e), where not inconsistent with the intervention rules, still applies. Especially refer to Rule 247(e) for requirements as to supplying a copy of conflicting authority, serving the petition on applicant's representative, and oral hearing requests.

MC 3504 and MC 3504 (Sub-1 M1F), filed July 19, 1979. Applicant: TIP-TOP TRUCKING, INC., 5 Baldarelli Court, Springfield, MA 01104. Representative: Robert B. Pepper, 168 Woodbridge Ave., Highland Park, NJ 08904. Petitioner holds motor common carrier Certificates in MC-3504, and MC-3504 Sub 1F, issued March 5, 1979. MC-3504, and MC-3504 Sub 1F, authorizes transportation, over irregular routes, of general commodities, (except those of unusual value, classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those requiring special equipment), from Bridgeport, CT, to points in CT"; and from Bridgeport, CT, to points in Hampden County, MA, respectfully. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the Certificates by substituting "between Bridgeport, CT, on the one hand, and, on the other, points in CT; and "between Bridgeport, CT, on the one hand, and, on the other points in Hampden County, MA, respectfully."

MC 124964 (Sub-9 M1F), filed July 14, 1979. Applicant: JOSEPH M. BOOTH, d.b.a. J. M. Booth Trucking, Highway 441 and Haines Creek Rd., Tavares, FL 32778. Representative: George A. Olsen, 69 Tonnele Ave., Jersey City, NJ 07306. Petitioner holds motor contract carrier Permit in MC-124964 Sub 9, issued April 5, 1971. MC-124964 Sub 9 authorizes transportation, over irregular routes, of (1)(a) such commodities as are dealt in or used by chain grocery or department stores, and (b) agricultural commodities, the transportation of which is otherwise exempt from economic regulation under section 203(b)(6) of the Act, when transported in the same vehicle at the same time with the commodities described in (1)(a) above, from points in Hudson, Bergen, Essex, Passaic, Union, Somerset Counties, N.J., the plant site of P. J. Ritter & Co., at Bridgeton, N.J., points in Westchester, Nassau, Suffolk, and Rockland Counties, N.Y., Coxsackie, Scotia, Waterford, and Waverly, N.Y., to points in Broward, Dade, Hillsborough, Lake, Orange, Pinellas, and Palm Beach Counties, Fla., and (2)(a) returned shipments of the commodities described in (1)(a) above, and (b) agricultural commodities, the transportation of which is otherwise exempt from economic regulation under section 203(b)(6) of the Act, when transported in the same vehicle at the same time with the commodities described in (2)(a) above, from points in Broward, Dade, Hillsborough, Lake, Orange, Pinellas, and Palm Beach Counties, Fla., to points in Hudson, Bergen, Essex, Passaic, Union, and Somerset Counties, N.J., the plant site of P. J. Ritter & Co., at Bridgeton, N.J., points in Westchester, Nassau, Suffolk, and Rockland Counties, N.Y., Coxsackie, Scotia, Waterford, and Waverly, N.Y., under continuing contract(s) with Grand Union Company of East Paterson, N.J., and Unity Consolidated, Inc., of New York, N.Y. By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the permit by adding "C. F. Mueller Company, of Jersey City, NJ as a contracting shipper."

MC 126305 (Sub-39F), filed August 2, 1979 (Notice of filing of petition to modify the territorial description). Petitioner: BOYD BROTHERS TRANSPORTATION CO., INC., Route 1 Box 18, Clayton, AL 36016. Representative: George A. Olsen, 69 Tonnele Ave., Jersey City, NJ 07306. Petitioner holds common carrier authority in MC 126305 Sub 39, served March 8, 1977, expired December 31, 1977, and the term limitation was removed by Order of Division 1, served February 6, 1978. MC-126305 Sub 39 authorizes the transportation of farm and industrial equipment, and materials and supplies used in connection therewith, over irregular routes, from Newport News, VA, and those points in VA east of U.S. Hwy 258, and those in NC east of U.S. Hwy 301 and north of U.S. Hwy 264, to points in GA, FL, TN, AL, MS, LA, TX, AR, and OK.

By the instant petition, petitioner seeks to modify the origin to read: "from Newport News, VA, and those points in VA east of U.S. Hwy 258, and those in NC east of U.S. Hwy 301 and north of NC Hwy 24".

Motor Carrier Operating Rights Applications

The following applications, filed on or after March 1, 1979, are governed by Special Rule 247 of the Commission's General Rules of Practice (49 CFR 1100.247). These rules provide, among other things, that a petition to intervene either with or without leave must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date of publication in the Federal Register with a copy being furnished the applicant. Protests to these applications will be rejected.

A petition for intervention without leave must comply with Rule 247(k) which requires petitioner to demonstrate that it (1) holds operating authority permitting performance of any of the service which the applicant seeks authority to perform, (2) has the necessary equipment and facilities for performing that service, and (3) has performed service within the scope of the application either (a) for those supporting the application, or, (b) where the service is not limited to the facilities of particular shippers, from and to, or between, any of the involved points.

Persons unable to intervene under Rule 247(k) may file a petition for leave to intervene under Rule 247(l). In deciding whether to grant leave to intervene, the Commission considers, among other things, whether petitioner has (a) solicited the traffic or business of those persons supporting the application, or, (b) where the identity of those supporting the application is not included in the published application notice, has solicited traffic or business identical to any part of that sought by applicant within the affected marketplace. Another factor considered is the effects of any decision on petitioner's interests.

Samples of petitions and the text and explanation of the intervention rules can be found at 43 Fed. Reg. 50908, as modified at 43 Fed. Reg. 60277. Petitions not in reasonable compliance with these rules may be rejected. Note that Rule 247(e), where not inconsistent with the intervention rules, still applies. Especially refer to Rule 247(e) for requirements as to supplying a copy of conflicting authority, serving the petition on applicant's representative, and oral hearing requests.

Broker, Water Carrier and Freight Forwarder Operating Rights Applications

The following applications are governed by Special Rule 247 of the Commission's General Rules of Practice (49 CFR 1100.247). These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date of notice of filing of the application is published in the Federal Register. Failure to seasonably file a protest will be construed as a waiver of opposition and participation in the proceeding. A protest under these rules should comply with section 247(e)(3) of the rules of practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding (including a copy of the specific portions of its authority which protestant believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describing in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use such an authority to provide all or part of the service proposed), and shall specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon, but shall not include issues of allegations phrased generally, protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected.

Permanent Ex-Water Authority Decisions

Decision-Notice

Decided: January 9, 1980.

The following applications are governed by 49 CFR 1062.3. Applicants seek to obtain motor common carrier authority to perform service within the commercial zone of port cities where the shipment has a prior or subsequent movement by maritime carrier. The full text and explanation of the rules are contained at 44 FR 7965, as corrected at 44 FR 37230.

The sole issue upon which these applications can be protested is the applicant's fitness to perform the service. Protests (an original and one copy) must be filed with the Commission within 30 days of the Federal Register publication. The protest must contain the specific facts being relied upon to challenge fitness, and must contain a certification that it has been served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or, if none is listed, upon the applicant. Applicant may file a reply statement to any protest. The filing of these statements will complete the record, unless it is later determined that more evidence must be supplied.

Further processing steps will be by Commission notice, decision, or letter which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication.

Any authority granted may reflect administratively acceptable restrictive amendments to the service proposed below. Some of the applications may have been modified to conform to the Commission's policy of simplifying grants of operating authority.

Findings: With the exception of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved common control, unresolved fitness questions, and jurisdictional problems) we find, preliminarily, that each common carrier applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is required by the present and future public convenience and necessity.

Each applicant is fit, willing, and able to properly perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of Title 49, Subtitle IV, United States Code, and the Commission's regulations. Except where specifically noted, this decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

In those proceedings containing a statement or note that dual operations are or may be involved we find, preliminarily and in the absence of the issue being raised by a protestant, that the proposed dual operations are consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy of 49 U.S.C. 10101 subject to the right of the Commission, which is expressly reserved, to impose such terms, conditions or limitations as it finds necessary to insure that applicant's operations shall conform to the provisions of 49 U.S.C. 10930(a) (formerly section 210 of the Interstate Commerce Act).

In the absence of legally sufficient protests, filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (March 24, 1980) (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of the decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's other authority, such duplication shall be construed as conferring only a single operating right.

Applicants must comply with all specific conditions set forth in the grant or grants of authority within 90 days after the service of the notification of the effectiveness of this decision-notice, or the application of a non-complying applicant shall stand denied.

By the Commission, Review Board Number 2, Members Boyle, Eaton, and Liberman. Member Boyle not participating.

Permanent Property Broker Authority Decision-Notice

Decided: January 9, 1980.

The following applications are governed by 49 CFR 1045A. Applicants seek to obtain authority to operate as brokers of motor carrier transportation of general commodities (except household goods) between all points in the United States. The full text and explanation of the rules are contained at 44 F.R. 53513.

The sole issue upon which these applications can be protested is the fitness of applicant (or business associates) to perform the service. Protests (an original and one copy) must be filed with the Commission within 30 days of the Federal Register publication. The protest must contain the specific facts being relied upon to challenge fitness, and must contain a certification that it has been served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or, if none is listed, upon the applicant. Applicant may file a reply statement to any protest. The filing of these statements will complete the record, unless it is later determined that more evidence must be supplied.

Further processing steps will be by Commission notice, decision, or later which will be served on each party of record.

Findings

With the exception of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved fitness questions), we find, preliminarily, that each applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy of 49 U.S.C. 10101, and that each applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of Title 49, Subtitle IV, United States Code, the Commission's regulations. Except where specifically noted, this action will not significantly affect the quality of the human environment or conservation of energy resources.

In the absence of legally sufficient protests filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of the decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's other authority, such duplication shall be construed as conferring only a single operating right.

Applicants must comply with all specific conditions set forth in the grant or grants of authority within 90 days after the service of the notification of the effectiveness of this decision-notice, or the application of a non-complying applicant shall stand denied.

Decision-Notice

Decided: January 9, 1980.

The following broker, freight forwarder or water carrier applications are governed by Special Rule 247 of the Commission's Rules of Practice (49 CFR § 1100.247). These rules provide, among other things, that a protest to the granting of an application must be filed with the Commission within 30 days after the date notice of the application is published in the Federal Register. Failure to file a protest within 30 days will be considered as a waiver of opposition to the application. A protest under these rules shall comply with Rule 247(e)(3) of the Rules of Practice which requires that it set forth specifically the grounds upon which it is made, contain a detailed statement of protestant's interest in the proceeding, as specifically noted below, and specify with particularity the facts, matters, and things relied upon. The protest shall not include issues or allegations phrased generally. A protestant shall include a copy of the specific portion of its authority which it believes to be in conflict with that sought in the application, and describe in detail the method—whether by joinder, interline, or other means—by which protestant would use this authority to provide all or part of the service proposed. Protests not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. The original and one copy of the protest shall be filed with the Commission. A copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or upon applicant if no representative is named. If the protest includes a request for oral hearing, the request shall meet the requirements of section 247(e)(4) of the special rules and shall include the certification required in that section.

Section 247(f) provides, in part, that an applicant which does not intend timely to prosecute its application shall promptly request that it be dismissed, and that failure to prosecute an application under the procedures of the Commission will result in its dismissal.

Further processing steps will be by Commission notice, decision, or letter which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication.

Any authority granted may reflect administratively acceptable restrictive amendments to the service proposed below. Some of the applications may have been modified to conform to the Commission's policy of simplifying grants of operating authority.

Findings:

With the exceptions of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved common control, unresolved fitness questions, and jurisdictional problems) we find, preliminarily, that each applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is either (a) required by the public convenience and necessity, or, (b) will be consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy of 49 U.S.C. § 10101. Each applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of Title 79, Subtitle IV, United States Code, and the Commission's regulations. Except where specifically noted, this decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

In the absence of legally sufficient protests, filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of this decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's existing authority, such duplication shall not be construed as conferring more than a single operating right.

Applicant's must comply with all specific conditions set forth in the grant or grants of authority within 90 days after the service of the notification of the effectiveness of this decision-notice, or the application of a non-complying applicant shall stand denied.

Permanent Ex-Water Authority Decisions

Decision-Notice

Decided: January 15, 1980.

The following applications are governed by 49 CFR 1062.3. Applicants seek to obtain motor common carrier authority to perform service within the commercial zone of port cities where the shipment has a prior or subsequent movement by maritime carrier. The full text and explanation of the rules are contained at 44 F.R. 7965, as corrected at 44 F.R. 37230.

The sole issue upon which these applications can be protested is the applicant's fitness to perform the service. Protests (an original and one copy) must be filed with the Commission within 30 days of the Federal Register publication. The protest must contain the specific facts being relied upon to challenge fitness, and must contain a certification that it has been served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or, if none is listed, upon the applicant. Applicant may file a reply statement to any protest. The filing of these statements will complete the record, unless it is later determined that more evidence must be supplied.

Further processing steps will be by commission notice, decision, or letter which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication.

Any authority granted may reflect administratively acceptable restrictive amendments to the service proposed below. Some of the applications may have been modified to conform to the Commission's policy of simplifying grants of operating authority.

Findings:

With the exception of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved common control, unresolved fitness questions, and jurisdictional problems) we find, preliminarily, that each common carrier applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is required by the present and future public convenience and necessity.

Each applicant is fit, willing, and able to properly perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of Title 49, Subtitle IV, United States Code, and the Commission's regulations. Except where specifically noted, this decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

In those proceedings containing a statement or note that dual operations are or may be involved we find, preliminarily and in the absence of the issue being raised by a protestant, that the proposed dual operations are consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy of 49 U.S.C. 10101 subject to the right of the Commission, which is expressly reserved, to impose such terms, conditions or limitations as it finds necessary to insure that applicant's operations shall conform to the provisions of 49 U.S.C. 10930(a) (formerly section 210 of the Interstate Commerce Act).

In the absence of legally sufficient protests, filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of the decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's other authority, such duplication shall be construed as conferring only a single operating right.

Applicants must comply with all specific conditions set forth in the grant or grants of authority within 90 days after the service of the notification of the effectiveness of this decision-notice, or the application of a non-complying applicant shall stand denied.

Permanent Authority Decisions

Decision-Notice—Substitution Applications: Single-Line Service for Existing Joint-Line Service

Decided: January 16, 1980.

The following applications, filed on or after April 1, 1979, are governed by the special procedures set forth in Part 1062.2 of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations (49 CFR 1062.2).

The rules provide, in part, that carriers may file petitions with this Commission for the purpose of seeking intervention in these proceedings. Such petitions may seek intervention either with or without leave as discussed below. However, all such petitions must be filed in the form of verified statements, and contain all of the information offered by the submitting party in opposition. Petitions must be filed with the Commission within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice.

Petitions for intervention without leave (i.e. automatic intervention), may be filed only by carriers which are, or have been, participating in the joint-line service sought to be replaced by applicant's single-line proposal, and then only if such participation has occurred within the one-year period immediately proceeding the application's filing. Only carriers which fall within this filing category can base their opposition upon the issue of the public need for the proposed service.

Petitions for intervention with leave may be filed by any carrier. The nature of the opposition; however, must be limited to issues other than the public need for the proposed service. The appropriate basis for opposition, i.e. applicant's fitness, may include challenges concerning the veracity of the applicant's supporting information, and the bona-fides of the joint-line service sought to be replaced (including the issue of its substantiality). Petitions containing only unsupported and undocumented allegations will be rejected.

Petitions not in reasonable compliance with the requirements of the rules may be rejected. An original and one copy of the petition to intervene shall be filed with the Commission, and a copy shall be served concurrently upon applicant's representative, or upon applicant if no representative is named.

Further processing steps will be by Commission notice, decision, or letter which will be served on each party of record. Broadening amendments will not be accepted after the date of this publication.

Any authority granted may reflect administratively acceptable restrictive amendments to the service proposed below. Some of the applications may have been modified to conform to the Commission's policy of simplifying grants of operating authority.

Findings: With the exception of those applications involving duly noted problems (e.g., unresolved common control, unresolved fitness questions, and jurisdictional problems) we find, preliminarily, that each applicant has demonstrated that its proposed service is required by the present and future public convenience and necessity. Each applicant is fit, willing, and able properly to perform the service proposed and to conform to the requirements of Title 49, Subtitle IV, United States Code, and the Commission's regulations. Except where specifically noted, this decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

In those proceedings containing a statement or note that dual operations are or may be involved we find, preliminarily and in the absence of the issue being raised by a petitioner, that the proposed dual operations are consistent with the public interest and the transportation policy of 49 U.S.C. 10101 subject to the right of the Commission, which is expressly reserved, to impose such terms, conditions or limitations as it finds necessary to insure that applicant's operations shall conform to the provisions of 49 U.S.C. 10930 (a) (formerly section 210 of the Interstate Commerce Act).

In the absence of legally sufficient petitions for intervention, filed within 30 days of publication of this decision-notice (March 24, 1980) (or, if the application later becomes unopposed), appropriate authority will be issued to each applicant (except those with duly noted problems) upon compliance with certain requirements which will be set forth in a notification of effectiveness of the decision-notice. To the extent that the authority sought below may duplicate an applicant's other authority, such duplication shall be construed as conferring only a single operating right.

Applicants must comply with all specific conditions set forth in the grant or grants of authority within 90 days after the service of the notification of the effectiveness of this decision-notice, or the application of a non-complying applicant shall stand denied.

By the Commission, Review Board Number 4, Members Fitzpatrick, Fisher and Reed.

MC 24379 (Sub-50F), filed June 11, 1979. Applicant: LONG TRANSPORTATION COMPANY, a corporation 14650 West Eight Mile Road, Oak Park, MI 48232. Representative: A. Charles Tell, 100 East Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215. To operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicles, in interstate or foreign commerce, over regular routes, transporting general commodities, (except those of unusual value, classes A and B explosives, household goods as defined by the Commission, commodities in bulk, and those requiring special equipment), serving Adrian, MI, as an off-route point in connection with applicant's otherwise authorized operations. (Hearing site: Detroit, MI.)

Note.—The sole purpose of this application is to substitute single-line operations for joint-line.

Motor Carrier Alternate Route Deviations

The following letter-notices to operate over deviation routes for operating convenience only have been filed with the Commission under the Deviation Rules—Motor Carrier of Property (49 CFR 1042.4(c)(11)).

Protest against the use of any proposed deviation route herein described may be filed with the Commission in the manner and form provided in such rules at any time, but will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operations unless filed on or before March 24, 1980.

Each applicant states that there will be no significant effect on either the quality of the human environment or energy policy and conservation.

Irregular-Route Motor Common Carriers of Property—Elimination of Gateway Letter Notices

The following letter-notices of proposals to eliminate gateways for the purpose of reducing highway congestion, alleviating air and noise pollution, minimizing safety hazards, and conserving fuel have been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission under the Commission's Gateway Elimination Rules (49 CFR 1065), and notice thereof to all interested persons is hereby given as provided in such rules.

An original and two copies of protests against the proposed elimination of any gateway herein described may be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before March 3, 1980. A copy must also be served upon applicant or its representative. Protests against the elimination of a gateway will not operate to stay commencement of the proposed operation.

Successively filed letter-notices of the same carrier under these rules will be numbered consecutively for convenience in identification. Protests, if any, must refer to such letter-notices by number.

The following applicants seek to operate as a common carrier, by motor vehicles, over irregular routes.

Motor Carrier Temporary Authority Applications

The following are notices of filing of applications for temporary authority under Section 210(a) of the Interstate Commerce Act provided for under the provisions of 49 CFR 1131.3. These rules provide that an original and six (6) copies of protests to an application may be filed with the field official named in the Federal Register publication no later than the 15th calendar day after the date the notice of the filing of the application is published in the Federal Register. One copy of the protest must be served on the applicant, or its authorized representative, if any, and the protestant must certify that such service has been made. The protest must identify the operating authority upon which it is predicated, specifying the "MC" docket and "Sub" number and quoting the particular portion of authority upon which it relies. Also, the protestant shall specify the service it can and will provide and the amount and type of equipment it will make available for use in connection with the service contemplated by the TA application. The weight accorded a protest shall be governed by the completeness and pertinence of the protestant's information.

Except as otherwise specifically noted, each applicant states that there will be no significant effect on the quality of the human environment resulting from approval of its application.

A copy of the application is on file, and can be examined at the Office of the Secretary, Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C., and also in the ICC Field Office to which protests are to be transmitted.

Note.—All applications seek authority to operate as a common carrier over irregular routes except as otherwise noted.

Burlington Northern, Inc., Abandonment Near Moose Lake and Carlton in Carlton County, Minn.; Findings

Notice is hereby given pursuant to 49 U.S.C. 10903 that by a decision decided December 31, 1979, a finding, which is administratively final, was made by the Commission, Review Board Number 5, stating that, subject to the conditions for the protection of railway employees prescribed by the Commission in Oregon Short Line Railroad Co.-Abandonment Goshen, 360 I.C.C. 91 (1979), and further that BN shall keep intact all of the right-of-way underlying the tract, including all bridges and culverts for a period of 120 days from the issuance of a certificate to permit any interested party to negotiate the acquisition for public use of all or any portion of the properties, the present and future public convenience and necessity permit the abandonment by the Burlington Northern Inc. of a line of railroad known as the Moose Lake to Carlton Line extending from railroad milepost 107.50 near Moose Lake, MN, to railroad milepost 129.49 near Carlton, MN, a distance of 21.99 miles in Carlton County, MN. A certificate of abandonment will be issued to the Burlington Northern Inc. based on the above-described finding of abandonment, on or before March 21, 1980, unless on or before March 21, 1980, the Commission further finds that:

(1) A financially responsible person (including a government entity) has offered financial assistance (in the form of a rail service continuation payment) to enable the rail service involved to be continued; and

(2) It is likely that such proffered assistance would:

(a) Cover the difference between the revenues which are attributable to such line of railroad and the avoidable cost of providing rail freight service on such line, together with a reasonable return on the value of such line, or

(b) Cover the acquisition cost of all or any portion of such railroad.

If the Commission so finds, the issuance of a certificate of abandonment will be postponed for such reasonable time, not to exceed 6 months, as is necessary to enable such person or entity to enter into a binding agreement, with the carrier seeking such person or entity to enter into a binding agreement, with the carrier seeking such abandonment, to provide such assistance or to purchase such line and to provide for the continued operation of rail services over such line. Upon notification to the Commission of the execution of such an assistance or acquisition and operating agreement, the Commission shall postpone the issuance of such a certificate for such period of time as such an agreement (including any extensions or modifications) is in effect. Information and procedures regarding the financial assistance for continued rail service or the acquisition of the involved rail line are contained in the Notice of the Commission entitled "Procedures for Pending Rail Abandonment Cases" published in the Federal Register on March 31, 1976, at 41 FR 13691, as amended by publication of May 10, 1978, at 43 FR 20072. All interested persons are advised to follow the instructions contained therein as well as the instructions contained in the above-referenced decision.

Temporary Authority Application;
Decision Notice

As indicated by the findings below, the Commission has approved the following applications filed under 49 U.S.C. 10924, 10926, 10931 and 10932.

We find: Each transaction is exempt from section 11343 (formerly section 5) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and complies with the appropriate transfer rules.

This decision is neither a major Federal action significantly affecting the quality of the human environment nor a major regulatory action under the Energy Policy and Conservation Act of 1975.

Petitions seeking reconsideration must be filed on or before March 12, 1980. Replies must be filed within 20 days after the final date for filing petitions for reconsiderations; any interested person may file and serve a reply upon the parties to the proceeding. Petitions which do not comply with the relevant transfer rules at 49 CFR 1132.4 may be rejected.

If petitions for reconsideration are not timely filed, and applicants satisfy the conditions, if any, which have been imposed, the application is granted and they will receive an effective notice. The notice will indicate that consummation of the transfer will be presumed to occur on the 20th day following service of the notice, unless either applicant has advised the Commission that the transfer will not be consummated or that an extension of time for consummation is needed. The notice will also recite the compliance requirements which must be met before the transferee may commence operations.

Applicants must comply with any conditions set forth in the following decision-notices within 30 days after publication, or within any approved extension period. Otherwise, the decision-notice shall have no further effect.

By the Commission, Review Board Number 5, The Motor Carrier Board, Members Krock, Pohost, and Taylor.

Agatha L. Mergenovich,
Secretary.

No. FD 29229F By decision of January 29, 1980 issued under 49 U.S.C. 10926 and the transfer rules at 49 CFR Part 1151. The Motor Carrier Board approved the transfer to Apex Forwarding Co., Inc., of Fremont, CA, of Permit No. FF-354 issued 12/13/73 to Space Forwarders, Inc., of Baltimore, MD, authorizing the transportation of used household goods and unaccompanied baggage, between points in the United States (including Hawaii but excluding Alaska) and (b) used automobiles, between points in the United States (including Hawaii but excluding Alaska), restricted in (b) to the transportation of export and import traffic.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[701-TA-20 (Preliminary)]

Certain Chains and Parts Thereof From Japan; Determination of the Commission

On the basis of the Record developed in investigation No. 701-TA-20 (Preliminary), undertaken by the United States International Trade Commission under section 703(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, the Commission unanimously determines that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry is materially retarded, by reason of imports of chains and parts thereof from Japan, provided for in items 652.24, 652.27, 652.30, 652.33, and 652.35 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, and alleged to be receiving an additional subsidy over the 2 percent duty now being collected on the basis of the final determination of the Department of the Treasury on August 24, 1978, with respect to such chains and parts thereof from Japan. With respect to the issue of injury by reason of the subsidy practices already found to exist under the final determination of August 24, 1978, the issue is not ripe for determination until such time as the Commission institutes a case under section 104(b) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979.

Section 102(a)(1) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 requires the Commission to conduct preliminary countervailing duty investigations in cases where, on January 1, 1980, the administering authority has begun an investigation, but not yet made a preliminary determination, under section 303 of the Tariff Act of 1930 as to whether a bounty or grant is being paid or bestowed. On January 7, 1980, the Commission received advice from the Department of Commerce (the administering authority effective January 1, 1980) that such an investigation had been instituted prior to January 1, 1980, with respect to imported chains and parts thereof from Japan. Accordingly, effective January 1, 1980, the Commission instituted a preliminary countervailing duty investigation under section 703(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of chains and parts thereof from Japan.

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of the conference held in connection therewith was published in the Federal Register of January 14, 1980 (45 FR 2714). On February 1, 1980, a public conference was held in Washington, D.C., and all persons requesting the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel. The public conference opened as scheduled, but not witnesses appeared.

In arriving at its determination, the Commission gave due consideration to information provided by the administering authority, all written submissions from interested parties, and information adduced at the conference and obtained by the Commission's staff from questionnaires, documented personal interviews, and other sources which are a part of the official record.

Views of Chairman Catherine Bedell, Vice Chairman Bill Alberger, and Commissioners George M. Moore, Paula Stern and Michael J. Calhoun

In order for the Commission to find in the affirmative in a preliminary injury determination under section 701 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1671(b)), it is necessary to find that sufficient information has been presented to show that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of the merchandise which is the subject of the investigation allegedly benefiting from subsidies provided by a foreign government.

In this investigation, we have determined that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded,¹ by reason of the importation from Japan of certain chains and parts thereof provided for in items numbers 652.24, 652.27, 652.30, 652.33, and 652.35 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS), which are alleged to be receiving subsidies from the Government of Japan in excess of the two percent duty presently being collected as a result of a final determination published by the Treasury Department August 24, 1978. We recognize that the Treasury Department reopened that earlier determination when it commenced its consideration of the petitioner's new claim that Japan's yen maintenance program constitutes a bounty or grant. However, notwithstanding the reopening, the administering authority is continuing to collect the two percent duty, and the duty remains in effect until modified or revoked. Thus, there remains outstanding a final countervailing duty order with respect to the product being investigated.

Section 104(b) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979, which establishes for the first time a material injury test with respect to dutiable items subject to countervailing duties, provides that with respect to outstanding final duty orders, there is to be a material injury investigation only in those cases where such an investigation is requested by the country against which the order is issued. In this case, the Government of Japan has not requested such an investigation. Therefore, the Commission would violate section 104(b) if it were to act now on the injury question with respect to the final determination of a two percent subsidy without such a request from the Government of Japan.

The statute also requires that the Commission provide the opportunity for a hearing before ordering revocation of an outstanding countervailing duty order by a finding of no material injury. Even if a request had been made by the Government of Japan, Commission procedures with respect to preliminary inquiries do not provide, or even require, a hearing before the Commission of the type required prior to all determinations under section 104(b).² Therefore, the Commission would violate the spirit, if not the letter, of section 104(b) if it were to consider whether there is reasonable indication of injury with respect to a final countervailing duty order. For these reasons, we have considered only the question of whether material injury or threat thereof exists by reason of the new subsidy allegations by petitioner.

The petitioner has provided no information with respect to this investigation. Members of petitioner's organization did not answer Commission questionnaires. Because petitioner and its constituent organizations did not provide the Commission with information tending to show injury, the record in this case is devoid of any support whatever for the proposition that there is a reasonable indication of injury with respect to imports of goods benefiting from Japan's yen maintenance program. We have therefore determined that there is no reasonable indication of injury with respect to such imports.

Additional Views of Commissioners Alberger, Stern, and Calhoun

With respect to the absence of supporting information in this case, we wish to make two observations.

First, we cannot refuse to make any determination due to insufficient information in the Record. Under the preliminary determination procedures contained within Sections 703(a) and 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 as amended by the Trade Agreements Act of 1979³, the Commission is compelled in all cases to reach a finding on the reasonable indication question. This view is based on the plain language of these two sections that, "The Commission, within 45 days after the date on which a petition is filed * * * shall make a determination * * * of whether there is a reasonable indication" (emphasis added) of material injury or threat thereof or of material retardation of the establishment of an industry.

² Compare Subpart B of Part 207 of the Commission's Rules (19 C.F.R.) with Subpart C, particularly sections 207.15 and 207.23.

We see no ambiguity in this language on its face, but to the extent ambiguity may exist, the legislative history is unequivocal. The Report of the Committee on Ways and Means states, with regard to Section 703(a), that, "[T]he ITC must make a determination of whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is being materially injured" ⁴ (emphasis added). With regard to Section 733(a), which contains identical language in providing for preliminary determinations in antidumping cases, the Committee Report states,

Section 733(a) amends present law by requiring the ITC to make, in every proceeding, a determination within 45 days * * * of whether there is a reasonable indication of injury. ⁵ (Emphasis added.)

The Report of the Committee on Finance is equally clear. With regard both to Sections 703(a) and 733(a) the Finance Committee uses identical language in expressing its views on their meaning: "The ITC would be required to make a determination . . . whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is being materially injured or threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is being materially injured." ⁶ (emphasis added.) Indeed, the Senate Report distinguishes this new provision from prior law by noting, inter alia, the very fact that this new provision establishes the "requirement that the ITC make a reasonable indication determination with respect to injury" ⁷ (emphasis added).

While compelling the Commission to reach a determination in each case, sections 703(a) and 733(a) are extraordinary procedures in that such determinations must be reached within a 45-day period. The changes made by the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 to the timing of decision-making in countervailing duty and antidumping cases, of which sections 703(a) and 733(a) are only a small part, largely grew out of concern that the then established practice and, indeed, the existing law allowed too much time to pass between the initiation of a complaint and the final collection of duties. ⁸ Although the new provisions under the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 extended the time period for preliminary determinations by 15 days but shortened the overall timetable, it was recognized that 45 days was still a very short time within which to reach even a preliminary decision. ⁹

Thus, with this time burden in mind, the language in Sections 703(a) and 733(a) that the Commission determinations should be "based upon the best information available to it at the time of the determination" is most reasonably construed to mean that the Commission is to do the best it can with the information before it in order to arrive at a preliminary decision within the 45 days allowed. Indeed, the Senate Report specifically states, that, "While the Committee recognizes that the ITC cannot conduct a full-scale investigation in 45 days, it expects the Commission to make every effort to conduct a thorough inquiry during that period. The nature of the inquiry may vary from case to case depending on the nature of the information available and the complexity of the issues."

It is, therefore, our view that, notwithstanding the absence of relevant information before it, the Commission is compelled, in all cases, to render a preliminary determination and in cases such as this one the only proper determination must be in the negative as to those subsidies that are properly before the Commission.

As a second matter, it is of concern to us that petitioners in this case have failed to provide any information bearing on the allegations in their petition. In separate views in 731-TA-4 (Microwave Ovens), Commissioners Stern and Calhoun expressed themselves on this matter in the broader context of non-parties and their obligation to come forward with information for the Commission under these procedures for reaching preliminary determinations. With regard to the obligation of parties to the petition to come forward with information reasonably available to them there can be no question: "The burden of proof under Section 703(a) would be on the petitioner." ¹⁰ We read this view of the Senate to be not simply a guidance regarding rules of evidence, but a prescription as to the obligation of parties seeking to invoke the authority of this institution in remedying the alleged adverse circumstances they face.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 14, 1980.

Secretary.

[Investigation No. 731-TA-4 (Preliminary)]

Countertop Microwave Ovens From Japan

On the basis of the information developed during the course of investigation No. 731-TA-4 (Preliminary) (countertop microwave ovens from Japan), the Commission determines unanimously that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured ¹ by reason of the importation of countertop microwave ovens from Japan, provided for in item 684.25 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

Section 102 of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 requires the Commission to conduct preliminary antidumping investigations in cases where, on January 1, 1980, the Administering Authority has begun an investigation, but not yet made a preliminary determination, under section 732 of the Tariff Act of 1930 to determine whether the class or kind of merchandise described in the petition is being, or is likely to be, sold in the United States at less than fair value. On January 7, 1980, the Commission received advice from the Department of Commerce (the administering authority effective January 1, 1980) that such an investigation had been instituted prior to January 1, 1980, with respect to imported countertop microwave ovens from Japan. Accordingly, effective January 1, 1980, the Commission instituted a preliminary antidumping investigation under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of countertop microwave ovens from Japan.

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of the conference held in connection therewith was published in the Federal Register of January 14, 1980 (45 FR 2714). On January 28, 1980, a public conference was held in Washington, D.C., and all persons requesting the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

In arriving at its determination, the Commission gave due consideration to information provided by the Administering Authority, to all written submissions from interested parties, and information adduced at the conference and obtained by the Commission's staff from documented personal interviews, and other sources, all of which have been placed on the administrative record of this preliminary investigation.

Views of Chairman Catherine Bedell, Commissioners, Michael Calhoun, George Moore, and Paula Stern

This preliminary investigation was instituted on January 1, 1980, by the Commission pursuant to section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930 to determine whether, with respect to countertop microwave ovens from Japan, provided for in TSUS item 684.25, there is a reasonable indication that an industry is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of the merchandise allegedly sold or likely to be sold at less than fair value. In order for the Commission to make an affirmative determination under section 733 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673(b)), it is necessary to find that information in the administrative record demonstrates the reasonable indication described above.

Determination

On the basis of the information obtained in this investigation, including the Commission's report on Countertop Microwave Ovens from Japan,¹ we determine that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured or is threatened with material injury by reason of imports of countertop microwave ovens from Japan which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.¹

The Trade Act of 1979 (sec. 733(a)) directs that the Commission "shall make a determination, based upon the best information available to it at the time of the determination * * *." The Act further specifies in section 771(7) 771(7)(B) and (C) that the Commission shall consider, among other factors—(i) the volume of imports of the merchandise which is the subject of this investigation, (ii) the effect of such imports of merchandise on prices for like products, and (iii) the impact of imports of such merchandise on domestic producers of like products. In light of these directives, we base our decision on the following preliminary findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. Imports of countertop microwave ovens from Japan increased from 530,000 units in 1976 to 765,000 units in 1978, or by 44 percent. During this period the market share of such imports increased by six percentage points. Although imports from Japan declined during 1979 by 3.3 percent compared with imports in 1978, market penetration remained at 29 percent.²

2. Capacity utilization in the domestic industry declined from 78 percent in 1976 to 50 percent in 1978.³

3. The number of production and related workers producing countertop microwave ovens declined steadily from 1976 through the first half of 1979 by 33 percent.⁴

4. The Commission was able to obtain profit-and-loss data information for only about 60 percent of the industry. The data obtained revealed that net profits as a share of net sales declined from 14.4 percent in 1976 to 10.1 percent in 1978 and dropped sharply during the first half of 1979 to 2.9 percent compared with the first half of 1978. This decline occurred during a period of expected growth for an industry of this type.⁵

Net sales for this portion of the industry increased steadily from 1976 through November 1979. However, the notable increase in January-November 1979 occurred at a time when imports from Japan declined both absolutely and relatively for the first time.⁶ The decline occurred while antidumping proceedings under the Antidumping Act, 1921 were underway. The Commission was able to obtain information giving a reasonable indication that domestic producers lost sales to imports from Japan allegedly sold at less than fair value.⁷ However, the Commission has yet to obtain information confirming that these lost sales resulted from underselling by the suppliers of Japanese ovens.

5. Although the petitioner in this proceeding alleged that price suppression or depression resulted from imports sold at less than fair value, no evidence of price underselling or of other price effects was received by the Commission. Complex variations among different models of imported Japanese and U.S.-produced microwave ovens prevented any meaningful Commission survey of price comparisons during this 45-day preliminary inquiry.⁸

Additional Views of Commissioners Stern and Calhoun

In determining whether or not a reasonable indication of material injury or threat of material injury exists, the Commission is required to base its decision upon the best information available to it at the time.¹⁰ Unfortunately, the record is incomplete in this case, leaving unanswered important questions on profits and on pricing.

The report of the Senate Committee on Finance in the Trade Act of 1979 remarked that—"While the committee recognizes that the ITC cannot conduct a full-scale investigation in 45 days, it expects the Commission to make every effort to conduct a thorough inquiry during that period. The nature of the inquiry may vary from case to case depending on the nature of the information available and the complexity of the issues.

However, it adds that— "[t]he burden of proof under section 733(a) would be on the petitioner."¹¹

The report from the House Committee on Ways and Means further states that

"[t]he petitioner will be expected to use reasonable efforts to collect information from public and industry sources."¹²

It is thus the stated intention of Congress that the petitioner be charged with a vital role in supplying the Commission with the information necessary in its determination, particularly with respect to the state of the domestic industry, as detailed in 771(7)(C)(iii) of the Act. Accordingly, it is expected that the petitioners and those parties supporting a petition will come forward with information of this nature as well as any information available to them on volume of imports and price effects (771(7)(C)(i) and (ii)). A failure to do so is inexcusable.

We do not interpret this language to require the petitioner to bear the burden of persuading the Commission. The Commission undertakes its own investigation, an obligation which it cannot shirk by concluding that a party has failed to persuade it of the correctness of its position. Rather, the burden of proof placed on the petitioner is the burden of coming forward with necessary information.

Clearly, additional profit-and-loss and pricing information would have been useful in reaching a determination in this investigation, a fact which was underscored several months ago during the Commission's previous investigation of this industry, conducted under the Antidumping Act of 1921.¹³ The petitioner, AHAM, representing a majority of the producers in this industry, failed to supply complete information. Furthermore, a significant producer in this industry, indeed a firm which—though not a member of AHAM—publicly supported the petition, failed to come forward or to supply upon request profit-and-loss data to the Commission. In both cases, this failure to act responsibly is highly questionable.

Views of Vice Chairman Bill Alberger

On the basis of the record developed in investigation no. 731-TA-4 (Preliminary), I determine that there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, by reason of imports from Japan of countertop microwave ovens provided for under item number 684.25 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

In this case, I adopt items 1, 3 and 4 of the attached "Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for an Affirmative Determination on Countertop Microwave Ovens from Japan." Additionally, the following support my judgment that there is a reasonable indication of material injury by reason of these imports from Japan.

1. In a period of increasing consumption of countertop microwave ovens, domestic production remained stable. (See report at p. A-8.)

2. Price and lost sales data are inconclusive. Prices are not available for comparable models produced domestically and those exported from Japan. Our limited information indicates declining prices for both domestic and imported products. (See report Tables 13 and 14 at p. A-20.) It is possible that the imported product does not undersell the comparable domestic product, and thus technical dumping would occur.¹ It is also possible that the imported product is underselling the domestic product. This information will be critical if we have a final injury determination to make in this case.

Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for an Affirmative Determination on Countertop Microwave Ovens From Japan (No. 731-TA-4 (Preliminary))

1. The Commission recently conducted investigation No. AA1921-Inq.-28 concerning Countertop Microwave Ovens from Japan and reported to the Treasury the results of that investigation on September 24, 1979. The Commission, by a unanimous vote, determined that there was a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is being or is likely to be, injured by reason of the importation of Countertop Microwave Ovens from Japan, allegedly sold at less than fair value as indicated by the Department of the Treasury. No new evidence of significantly changed circumstances since the Commission's prior investigation has been presented.

2. In the prior investigation the petitioner alleged significant margins of dumping and that this dumping had several injurious effects, including a substantial loss of market share, price suppression or depression, unemployment, declining profitability, and underutilization of capacity. The Commission's investigation revealed reasonable indications of such injury.

3. Imports of Countertop Microwave Ovens from Japan increased from 530,000 units in 1976 to 765,000 units in 1978, or by 44 percent. During this period the market share of such imports increased by six percentage points. Although imports from Japan declined during 1979 by three percent compared with imports in 1978, the market penetration remained at more than 30 percent.

4. Data submitted to the Commission during the investigation (AA1921-Inq.-28) indicates that U.S. capacity utilization declined from 78 percent in 1976 to 50 percent in 1978. Employment and profit in the industry also declined. The profit-and-loss experience of firms which reported to the Commission (60 percent of the industry) showed that profit declined steadily from 1976 to 1978 and was sharply lower during January-June 1979, compared with January-June 1978.

5. Although interested parties at the public conference on January 28, 1980, submitted information concerning increased sales by U.S. producers of microwave ovens in 1979 compared with earlier years, increased sales by these firms came at a time when imports from Japan had declined. There is a reasonable indication that the domestic producers lost sales to imports from Japan alleged to have been sold at less than fair value.

[701-TA-3 (Preliminary)]

Frozen Potato Products From Canada; Determination of No Reasonable Indication of Material Injury, Threat of Material Injury, or Material Retardation of the Establishment of an Industry

Determination

On the basis of the record in investigation No. 701-TA-3 (Preliminary), the Commission unanimously determines that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of the importation from Canada of frozen potato products, provided for in items 138.40 and 141.86 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada.

Procedural Background

On January 7, 1980, the United States International Trade Commission received notice from the Department of ¹² Report of the Committee on Ways and Means, House of Representatives, p. 60.

Commerce—the designated administering authority under section 771(1) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as added by title I of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979—that a countervailing duty investigation had been initiated, but no preliminary or final determination had been issued in connection with frozen potato products imported from Canada, upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada. Accordingly, effective January 1, 1980, the Commission instituted a preliminary countervailing duty investigation under section 703(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of the merchandise which is the subject of the investigation by the Administering Authority.

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigation and of the public conference to be held in connection therewith was duly given by posting copies of the notice at the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, D.C., and at the Commission's office in New York City, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register of January 14, 1980 (45 FR 2714). The conference was held in Washington, D.C., on January 29, 1980; all persons requesting the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

In arriving at its determination, the Commission gave due consideration to information provided by the Administering Authority, all written submissions from interested parties, and information adduced at the conference and obtained by the Commission's staff from questionnaires, documented personal interviews, and other sources that have been submitted for the record.

Statements of Chairman Catherine Bedell and Commissioners George M. Moore, Paula Stern and Michael J. Calhoun in Support of the Determination

On the basis of the best information available in this investigation, No. 701-TA-3 (Preliminary), we determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded,¹ by reason of the importation from Canada of frozen potato products, provided for in items 138.40 and 141.86 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada.

The following findings and conclusions, based on the record in this investigation, support our determination.

I. No Reasonable Indication of Material Injury

A. Volume of imports. 1. U.S. consumption of frozen potato products nearly doubled during the past decade. During 1975-78 annual apparent consumption rose by nearly 900 million pounds to 3.9 billion pounds, an increase of 29 percent. In the first six months of 1979, such consumption was only slightly less than that in the first six months of 1978. U.S. per capita consumption of frozen potato products rose from 11.1 pounds in 1970 to 17.6 pounds in 1978, equivalent to an average annual rate of growth of 5.9 percent; between 1975 and 1978 per capita consumption rose at an annual rate of 8.1 percent.

2. Canadian exports of frozen potato products to the United States trended downward from 12 million pounds in 1972 to a low of 0.9 million pounds in 1977 before rebounding to 7.6 million pounds in 1978. U.S. imports of frozen potato products have supplied only a negligible share of the domestic market for such items. During 1975-78 and January-June 1979, imports from Canada were equivalent to 0.5 percent or less of apparent domestic consumption.

B. Effect of imports on U.S. prices. 3. The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics' index of prices received by domestic producers of frozen french fried potatoes (which account for 85 percent of U.S. production of frozen potato products) rose 17.8 percent from January 1977 to September 1979, slightly more than the increase in the index of prices received by producers of all frozen vegetables during the period (17.5 percent). The two price indices tended to move in a parallel fashion throughout the entire January 1977-September 1979 period.

4. Data obtained by questionnaires, although incomplete, indicate that there has been no significant price undercutting or price depression or suppression.

C. Impact on affected industry. 5. U.S. production of frozen potato products rose from 3.0 billion pounds in 1975 to 3.8 billion pounds in 1978; output in January-June 1979 amounted to 2.1 billion pounds, slightly more than in the corresponding period in 1978.

6. Although aggregate net operating profits of the responding firms declined from $32 million (8.7 percent of sales) in 1977 to $27 million (6.2 percent of sales) in 1979, the decline appeared to be due to rapid increases in general, selling, and administrative expenses, because gross profit and net sales experienced steady growth during the period.

7. Domestic producers responding to the Commission's questionnaires reported increases during 1977-79 in productive capacity (51 percent), employment (5 percent), man-hours worked by production and related workers (6 percent), and wages paid to such workers (27 percent).

8. U.S. exports increased from an estimated 30 million pounds in 1975 to 53 million pounds in 1978; exports amounted to 35 million pounds in the first six months of 1979, compared with 24 million pounds in the first six months of 1978.

9. Year-end U.S. freezer stocks of frozen potato products during 1975-78 varied between a low of 681 million pounds in 1975 and a peak of 830 million pounds in 1977; no clear trend in such stocks was evident.

10. All producers supplying information on the subject of sales lost to imports of frozen potato products from Canada, in response to Commission questionnaires, reported that they had no specific evidence of sales lost to such imports.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no reasonable indication of material injury to the affected industry.

II. No Reasonable Indication of Threat of Material Injury

The testimony presented on behalf of the petitioner, the Frozen Potato Products Institute, during the course of the Commission's investigation was directed almost entirely to the question of whether a threat of material injury to the domestic industry producing frozen potato products exists by reason of allegedly subsidized imports of such products from Canada. The petitioner contended at the conference that the major components of this threat included (a) rapidly rising imports, (b) severe overcapacity in the Canadian frozen potato processing industry and (c) stagnant demand in the United States for frozen potato products (transcript of conference proceedings, page 30).

11. Report No. 96-317 of the House Committee Ways and Means on the bill (H.R. 4537) which became the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 states (at page 47): "With regard to the standard for a threat of material injury, the Committee intends that the ITC affirmative determination shall be based upon evidence showing that the threat is real and imminent and not upon mere supposition or conjecture." Similarly, Report No. 96-249 of the Senate Committee on Finance on the bill states (pages 88 and 89): "An ITC affirmative determination with respect to threat of material injury must be based upon information showing that the threat is real and injury is imminent, not a mere supposition or conjecture." The House Report continues (at page 47): "In examining threat of material injury, the ITC will determine the likelihood of a particular situation developing into actual material injury. In this regard, demonstrable trends—for example, the rate of increase of the subsidized or dumped exports to the U.S. market, capacity in the exporting country to generate exports, the likelihood that such exports will be directed to the U.S. market taking into account the availability of other export markets * * * will be important."

12. Although levels of U.S. imports of frozen potato products from Canada have risen in 1978 and 1979, and U.S. consumption fell slightly in the first half of 1979 (see paragraphs 1 and 2, above) these changes do not establish a reasonable indication of a threat of material injury which is "real and imminent."

13. On the basis of two shifts per day, Canadian capacity to produce frozen potato products increased only marginally from 1977 to 1978, or from 550 million pounds to 570 million pounds. Based on these capacity estimates, Canada operated at 70 percent of capacity in both years. Over 90 percent of Canadian output of frozen potato products in 1977 and 1978 was for consumption in Canada. Furthermore, Canada's domestic demand continues rapid growth; the restaurant industry, the principal consumer of the product, is expected by the end of 1980 to show sales 60 percent greater than those posted in 1975.

14. Canadian exports to the United Kingdom in the first 10 months of 1979 rose 63 percent over their level for the same period in 1978, reversing a decline during the years 1977 and 1978. Exports to Japan have risen steadily since 1975; for the first 10 months of 1979 such exports were 263 percent greater than those during the corresponding period in 1978.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no "real and imminent" threat of material injury to the affected industry.

Views of Vice Chairman, Alberger

Having considered the full record in investigation No. 701-TA-3 (Preliminary), I determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of the importation from Canada of frozen potato products, provided for in items 138.40 and 141.86 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada.

I adopt in full the findings in I, II and III of the attached "Supporting Statement by the Director, Office of Operations, for a Negative Determination on Frozen Potato Products from Canada." That statement is a part of the record² and accurately analyzes all of the factors we are required by the statute to consider. In addition to that statement, I have added one additional finding that I believe is relevant to my determination: For every year for which we have data, the United States is a clear exporter of frozen potato products. The ratio had not been smaller than 3 to 1 in any period analyzed. Clearly, this industry has a healthy trade balance, and seems to be competitive in world markets.³

Supporting Statement by the Director, Office of Operations, for a Negative Determination on Frozen Potato Products From Canada (Inv. No. 701-TA-3 (Preliminary))

I. Material Retardation

The question of the material retardation of the establishment of an industry in the United States is not an issue in this investigation. Approximately 20 firms produce frozen potato products in the United States.

II. Material Injury

1. U.S. production of frozen potato products rose from 3.0 billion pounds in 1975 to 3.8 billion pounds in 1978; output in January-June 1979 amounted to 2.1 billion pounds, slightly more than in the corresponding period of 1978.

2. Exports increased from an estimated 30 million pounds in 1975 to 53 million pound in 1978; exports amounted to 35 million pounds in the first 6 months of 1979, compared with 24 million pounds in the first 6 months of 1978.

3. Yearend U.S. freezer stocks of frozen potato products during 1975-78 ranged from 681 million pounds in 1975 to 830 million pounds in 1977; no clear trend in such stocks was evident.

² The statement was submitted to the Commission as Action Jacket No. OP1-80-007 and was read into the record at the Commission meeting of Feb. 7, 1980.

³ See Table 1 of this report, p. A-30.

4. The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics' index of prices received by domestic producers of frozen french fried potatoes rose 17.8 percent from January 1977 to September 1979, slightly more than the increase in the index of prices received by producers of all frozen vegetables during the period (17.5 percent). The two price indices tended to move in parallel throughout the entire January 1977-September 1979 period.

5. Domestic producers responding to the Commission's questionnaires reported increased during 1977-79 in productive capacity (51 percent), employment (5 percent), man-hours worked by production and related workers (6 percent), and wages paid to such workers (27 percent). Although the aggregate net operating profits of the respondent firms declined from $32 million (8.7 percent of sales) in 1977 to $27 million (6.2 percent of sales) in 1979, all such producers of frozen potato products realized net profits in each of the years 1977-79.

6. Domestic producers were requested to supply evidence of sales lost to imports of frozen potato products from Canada. All respondents supplying information on this subject reported that they had no specific evidence of sales lost because of such imports.

III. Threat of Material Injury

The testimony presented on behalf of the petitioner, the Frozen Potato Products Institute, during the course of the Commission's investigation was directed almost entirely to the question of whether a threat of material injury to the domestic industry producing frozen potato products exists by reason of allegedly subsidized imports of such products from Canada. The petitioner contended at the conference that the major components of this threat included (1) rapidly rising imports, (2) severe overcapacity in the Canadian frozen potato processing industry, and (3) stagnant demand in the United States for frozen potato products (transcript of conference proceedings, page 30).

Canadian exports of frozen potato products to the United States trended downward from 12 million pounds in 1972 to a low of 0.9 million pounds in 1977 before rebounding to 7.6 million pounds in 1978. U.S. imports of frozen potato products have supplied only a negligible share of the domestic market for such items. During 1975-78 and January-June 1979, imports from Canada were equivalent to 0.5 percent or less of apparent domestic consumption.

2. On the basis of two shifts per day, Canadian capacity to produce frozen potato products increased only marginally from 1977 to 1978, or from 550 million pounds to 570 million pounds. Based on these capacity estimates, Canada operated at 70 percent of capacity in both years. Over 90 percent of Canadian output of frozen potato products in 1977 and 1978 was for consumption in Canada. McCain Foods, Ltd., which in 1978 held about half the Canadian capacity to produce frozen potato products, * * * (deletion of confidential information relating to the operations of McCain Foods, Ltd.)

3. U.S. consumption of frozen potato products nearly doubled during the past decade. During 1975-78 annual apparent consumption rose by nearly 900 million pounds to 3.9 billion pounds, an increase of 29 percent. In the first 6 months of 1979, such consumption was only slightly less than that in the first 6 months of 1978. U.S. per capita consumption of frozen potato products rose from 11.1 pounds in 1970 to 17.6 pounds in 1978, equivalent to an average annual rate of growth of 5.9 percent; between 1975 and 1978 per capita consumption rose at an annual rate of 8.1 percent.

4. According to a memorandum (dated December 31, 1979) from the Director, Office of Policy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Trade Administration, to the General Counsel of the Treasury, the approximate aggregate net benefit accruing to the subject frozen potato products under the various Canadian programs was 2.41 percent ad valorem, f.o.b. value of plant shipments.

5. the report of the House Committee on Ways and Means on the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 states (at page 47) that "With regard to the standard for a threat of material injury, the Committee intends that the ITC affirmative determination shall be based upon evidence showing that the threat is real and imminent and not upon mere supposition or conjecture." (italics added). Similarly, the report of the Senate Committee on Finance on the act states (pages 88 and 89) that "An ITC affirmative determination with respect to threat of material injury must be based upon information showing that the threat is real and injury is imminent, not a mere supposition or conjecture." (italics added).

IV. Recommendation

In conclusion, on the basis of my review of the information developed during this investigation, I recommend that the Commission determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of the importation of frozen potato products from Canada upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 15, 1980.

Secretary.

BILLING CODE 7020-02

[731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary)]

Sodium Hydroxide, in Solution (Liquid Caustic Soda), Provided for Under Item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States From the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom; Determinations of "No Reasonable Indication of Material Injury"

On the basis of the record developed during the course of investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary), undertaken by the United States International Trade Commission under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as added by title I of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979, the Commission has determined unanimously that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide, in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

Section 102(b)(1) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 requires the Commission to conduct preliminary antidumping investigations in cases where, on January 1, 1980, the Secretary of the Treasury (the Administering Authority prior to January 1, 1980), had begun an investigation, but had not yet made a preliminary determination under the Antidumping Act, 1921, as to the question of less-than-fair-value sales. On January 7, 1980, the Commission received advice from the Department of Commerce (the Administering Authority effective January 1, 1980), that such investigations had been instituted prior to January 1, 1980, with respect to sodium hydroxide imported from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom. Accordingly, effective January 1, 1980, the Commission instituted preliminary antidumping investigations under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of such merchandise from the four countries.

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of the conference to be held in connection therewith was published in the Federal Register of January 14, 1980 (45 F.R. 2715). On January 31, 1980, a public conference was held in Washington, D.C., and all persons requesting the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

Statement of Chairman Catherine Bedell and Commissioners George M. Moore and Michael J. Calhoun in Support of the Determinations in the Investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary): Sodium Hydroxide From the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy and the United Kingdom

On the basis of the best information available to the Commission in these investigations, Nos. 731-TA-8, 9, 10, and 11 (Preliminary), we determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide, in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

The following findings and conclusions, based on the record in this investigation, support our determination:

1. No reasonable indication of material injury—A. Volume of imports.

1. Levels of imports from these countries increased from 77,536 short tons in 1976 to 161,188 short tons in 1978, but levels for the interim period of January-October decreased from 132,921 short tons in 1978 to 79,587 short tons in 1979.

¹ The question of the material retardation of the establishment of an industry in the United States was not raised as an issue in this investigation.

2. The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption has remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978, then decreasing from 1.78 percent in January–October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January–October 1979.

B. Effect of imports on U.S. prices.

3. The alleged less than fair value (LTFV) margins indicated in Treasury's file were substantial. However, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, the lowest prices for the bulk of sodium hydroxide sales made by suppliers to distributors are on those sales made by large U.S. producers that supply the area from their domestic production facilities. This situation, in which both imports and the smaller U.S. producers are substantially undersold in the Northeast area by their larger domestic competitors, indicates that any price suppression or price depression that may have occurred is not a result of alleged LTFV imports.

C. Impact on affected industry.

4. Petitioner Linden Chemicals and Plastics, Inc., represents only a minimal percentage of total domestic production of merchandise that is the subject of these investigations, and was not joined in its complaint by any other U.S. producers.

5. Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

6. Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. Total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.

7. Data obtained by questionnaires, although incomplete, indicate that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased, in terms of quantity, from 1976 to 1978, and in the first 11 months of 1979 compared with the corresponding period in 1978.

8. From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period of 1979, the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.

9. Domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977 but has increased since 1977 to 81.3% in 1979, a level higher than in any of the preceding years examined.

10. Consideration of material injury as to producers in the Northeast region as a separate regional industry is inappropriate in this case. (See the definition of "regional industries" in Sec. 771(4)(C) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1677 (4)(C).) Demand in that market is supplied to a substantial degree by producers located elsewhere in the U.S., primarily in the Gulf Coast States.

11. Notwithstanding its claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals and Plastics, during the period under investigation, purchased three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area which Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the alleged LTFV imports.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no reasonable indication of material injury to the affected industry.

II. No reasonable indication of threat of material injury.

12. In providing guidance to the Commission with regard to the standard for finding a threat of material injury, Congress has indicated the following: An affirmative determination shall be based on evidence showing that the threat is real and imminent. Consideration should be given to such trends as the rate of increase of dumped exports to the U.S. market, capacity in the exporting country to generate exports, and the availability of other export markets.²

13. Imports from the four countries involved in this investigation decreased in 1979, both absolutely and relative to U.S. consumption. (See paragraph 1, above.)

14. Recent trends, noted in paragraphs 5 through 9 above, are generally favorable to the domestic industry.

15. No evidence has been presented to the Commission regarding capacity in the exporting countries or availability of other export markets.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no "real and imminent" threat of material injury to the affected industry.

Views of Vice Chairman Bill Alberger

Having considered the record in investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary) through 731-TA-11 (Preliminary), I determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item number 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

I adopt in full findings 1 through 10 of the attached "Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for a Negative Determination * * *". This statement is a part of the record¹ and accurately analyzes the factors which we are required by the statute to consider. In addition, I add the following findings which I believe are relevant to my determination:

(1) The import penetration levels for France, Italy, and the United Kingdom have each remained at less than 1 percent of U.S. consumption during the 1976–78 period. The ratio of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany increased during this same period, but in 1978 amounted to only slightly over 1 percent.² When these figures are compared with the continued increase in U.S. productive capacity of sodium hydroxide since 1976,³ it is evident that there is no reasonable indication of injury to the domestic industry by reason of these imports.

(2) It is my practice to vote separately by country in Commission meetings since separate case numbers are assigned. It is an obligation of each Commissioner to carefully consider "material injury * * * by reason of * * *" questions for each country separately and in various combinations. It is my view after review of the entire record that these imports from these four countries are not causing the requisite degree of injury whether the countries are considered separately or in combination.

Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for a Negative Determination in Sodium Hydroxide, in Solution (Liquid Caustic Soda), From the Federal Republic of Germany (No. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary)), France (No. 731-TA-9 (Preliminary)), Italy (No. 731-TA-10 (Preliminary)), and the United Kingdom (No. 731-TA-11 (Preliminary))

1. Notwithstanding the relatively high LTFV margins that were found for all four countries in Treasury's initial investigatory activities, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, by far the lowest priced suppliers to distributors of 50 percent solution sodium hydroxide are large U.S. producers that supply the region from their domestic production facilities. This situation, in which both imports and the smaller U.S. producers are undersold by large amounts by their larger domestic competitors in the Northeast region indicates that any price suppression or price depression that may have occurred has not occurred as a result of alleged LTFV imports.

2. The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978. The ratio dropped from 1.78 percent in January–October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January–October 1979.

3. Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. In addition, total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.

4. Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

5. From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period in 1979 the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.

6. Available data show that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased from 1976 to 1977.

7. Domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977 but increased since 1977 to a level in 1979 higher than that of any of the preceding years examined.

8. Although the complainant asserted that these investigations should be decided on a regional market basis, I have found that the Northeast area, where all the complainants' production facilities were, until recently, located, and where all of the complainants' sales as well as sales of alleged LTFV imports are concentrated, does not qualify for the definition of a regional market under the antidumping statutes because it is served to a large extent by U.S. producers whose production facilities are located outside the region, primarily in the Gulf Coast States.

9. The complainant, Linden Chemicals & Plastics, Inc., represents only a minimal percentage of total domestic production of merchandise that is the subject of these investigations, and was joined in its complaint by no other U.S. producers.

10. Notwithstanding its claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals & Plastics, Inc., during the period under investigation, purchased three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area that Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the subject imports.

11. Conclusion—On the basis of the above, I recommend a negative determination as to whether there is a reasonable indication of injury with respect to sodium hydroxide in solution which is alleged to be sold at less than fair value from the countries concerned.

Views of Commissioner Stern in Support of the Negative Determinations in Investigations Nos. 731-TA-8, 9, 10 and 11 (Preliminary): Sodium Hydroxide From Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy and United Kingdom

On the basis of the record in these investigations, I determine that there is no reasonable indication (1) that an industry in the United States is either materially injured, threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded,¹ and (2) that any injury is not by reason of the importation of sodium hydroxide from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom. Because the relevant statute is so new, I believe some general consideration of its provisions would be helpful before considering the details of these investigations.

In order for the Commission to find in the affirmative in a preliminary antidumping injury determination under Section 733 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673(b)), it is necessary to find that sufficient information has been presented to show that there is a reasonable indication that (1) an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, and that (2) injury is by reason of imports of the merchandise which is the subject of the investigation allegedly sold or likely to be sold at less than fair value (LTFV).

¹ The question of material retardation of the establishment of an industry in the United States is not an issue in this investigation.

The Tariff Act of 1930 (Sec. 733(a)) directs the Commission to "make a determination based upon the best information available to it at the time of the determination * * *". The Act in Sec. 771(7)(B) mandates that the Commission shall consider (i) the volume of subject imports, (ii) their effect on the domestic price of the like product, and (iii) their impact on the domestic producers of the like product. In Sec. 771(7)(C), the Act further specifies a series of economic factors that the Commission must include in these considerations.² The statute states in Sec. 771(7)(E)(ii) that: "The presence or absence of any factor which the Commission is required to evaluate under paragraph (C) * * * shall not necessarily give decisive guidance with regard to the determination by the Commission of material injury."

No Material Injury to the Domestic Industry

(1) Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

(2) Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. In addition, total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.³

(3) Available data show that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased from 1976 to 1978.

(4) From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period in 1979 the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.⁴

(5) Although domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977,

² 19 U.S.C. 1677(7)(C)(iii) mentions output, sales, market share, profits, productivity, return on investment, capacity utilization, factors influencing domestic prices, cash flow, inventories, employment, wages, growth, ability to raise capital, and investment.

³ No data were made available for 1976 or 1977 for Dow Chemical U.S.A., the largest domestic producer. I did not find the absence of complete data on Dow decisive because: (a) the data that were submitted by Dow do not indicate injury; (b) Dow neither supported the petition nor alleged injury; and (c) the data on the remainder of the industry do not support an affirmative finding.

it has since 1977 grown to a level in 1979 higher than that of any of the preceding years examined.

(6) Notwithstanding the petitioner's claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals and Plastics purchased during the period under investigation three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area that Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the alleged LTFV imports.

(7) No information is found in the record regarding the domestic industry's return on investment, cash flow, and ability to raise capital. The absence of information on these factors was not decisive in this case.

Alleged LTFV Imports Not the Cause of Any Material Injury

(8) Imports from West Germany, France, Italy and the United Kingdom grew from 77,537 short tons in 1978 to 161,188 in 1978. However, in the first ten months of 1979 they declined to 79,587 short tons from the 132,921 short tons imported during the comparable period in 1978.

(9) Notwithstanding the relatively high LTFV margins for all four countries indicated by Treasury's initial investigatory activities, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, large U.S. producers supplying the region from their domestic facilities are by far the lowest priced suppliers to distributors of 50 percent solution sodium hydroxide. Because both importers and the smaller U.S. producers have been significantly undersold by their larger domestic competitors in the Northeast area, any price suppression or depression that may have occurred has not been due to alleged LTFV imports.

(10) The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978. The ratio dropped from 1.78 percent in January-October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January-October 1979.

No Regional Industry

(11) The petitioner asserted that these investigations should be decided on a regional industry basis. The Trade Agreements Act of 1979 amended the Tariff Act of 1930 to include specific conditions for the treatment of producers in a geographical area as a separate regional industry within the meaning of the law.* The domestic producers must sell all or almost all of their production in the area and the demand for the product in that area cannot be supplied to any significant degree from the United States producers not located there. Both conditions must be met.

(12) The Northeast area, where all the petitioner's production facilities were located until recently, and where all the petitioner's sales as well as the sales of the alleged LTFV imports are concentrated, does not qualify as a regional market within the meaning of the antidumping statute because it is served to a large extent by U.S. producers whose production facilities are located outside the region, primarily in the Gulf Coast States. In 1976, total reported domestic sales in the Northeast area exceeded local productive capacity by 299,000 short tons, in 1977 by 46,000 short tons, and in 1978 by 96,000 short tons. In 1979, due to rapid local expansion, capacity may for the first time exceed domestic sales in the area.

No Threat of Material Injury

(13) The recent decline in subject imports' market penetration and the expansion undertaken by the petitioner, as well as the other factors cited above, do not give any reasonable indication that the alleged LTFV imports threaten the domestic industry with material injury.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: By notice issued January 10, 1980, and published in the Federal Register (45 FR 3400 (January 17, 1980)), the Commission instituted the subject investigations to determine whether with respect to the articles involved an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of the subsidized imported merchandise. A public hearing was scheduled, on a tentative basis, to be held at the International Trade Commission Building, on April 2, 1980.

On February 4, 1980, the Commission received a letter from counsel for the original petitioner for the countervailing duty investigations. The text of that letter is reproduced below.

Mrs. Catherine Bedell,
Chairman, U.S. International Trade Commission, Room 208, 701 E Street, N.W.,
Washington, D.C.

January 31, 1980.

Dear Madam Chairman: I am writing to inform you on behalf of the Valve Manufacturers Association that the Valve Manufacturers, petitioners in a countervailing duty case against Japan and Italy, wish to withdraw their petition. I request, as a result, that the International Trade Commission accept this withdrawal and notify all companies who have received questionnaires of the withdrawal. Thank you.

Sincerely,

David A. Hartquist,

Counsel, Valve Manufacturers Association.

The legal authority for a request to withdraw a petition for a countervailing duty investigation and the legal authority for the Commission to terminate an investigation in response to a request to withdraw the petition are found in section 704 of the Tariff Act of 1930. The only restriction on the Commission's authority to terminate is that all parties to the investigation must be notified of the termination. In the instant case only the petitioners have appeared as parties before the Commission. For these reasons the Commission is granting the request and terminating these investigations. In addition to notifying interested persons who have not appeared before the agency, the Commission is notifying the Department of Commerce of its action in these cases.

By order of the Commission.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Antitrust Division

Comment and Response To Proposed Final Judgment in United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al.

The Antitrust Division has reviewed a comment concerning its proposed Final Judgment in United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 78-3224-C. The proposed Final Judgment and a Competitive Impact Statement were filed with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts on November 30, 1979.

The comment and the Antitrust Division's response are attached hereto for publication pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act of 1974, 15 U.S.C. 16(d). These materials have also been filed with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Joseph H. Widmar,
Director of Operations.

Myers and Brown
Concord, N.H., January 24, 1980.

Re United States of America v. Chelsea Industries Inc. and Avon Tape Inc. Civil Action No. 78-3224-C

Mr. Anthony V. Nanni,
Department of Justice, Antitrust Division,
Washington, D.C. 20530.

Dear Mr. Nanni: Please be advised that I represent Action Manufacturing, Inc., of Gonic, New Hampshire, a small manufacturer of pressure sensitive tape for the shoe industry.

Pursuant to 15 USC § 16(d), this letter is to serve as a commentary on the Proposed Final Judgment entered into by the plaintiff, United States of America; and the defendants, Chelsea Industries, Inc., and Avon Tape, Inc. in connection with Civil Action No. 78-3224-C.

The Proposed Final Order and the Competitive Impact Statement both serve to prohibit certain conduct, while at the same time requiring affirmative conduct from the defendants in lieu of a full trial on the above action. While the desired result of the Final Order and Competitive Statement is to restore competition to the shoe tape industry, neither reach far enough vis-a-vis their limits on the defendants to effect this desired result.

Specifically, the Proposed Final Judgment (III, Page 2) fails to take into account the import of limiting the defendants' ability to fix, maintain, and stabilize the price of pressure sensitive tape sold in foreign markets. Virtually all of the tapes sold abroad by the defendants is manufactured in the United States. To the extent that defendants are not prohibited from setting prices on these products, they remain free to subsidize their domestic sales with exorbitant prices abroad. Moreover, given the overwhelming market shares of the defendants in the United States, any small company such as Action would naturally try to become a viable domestic competitor by building up its financial strength through foreign sales. Once that financial strength was sufficient, Action or others in its situation would be in a much better position to compete in the domestic market. The omission of limitations or international activities should be of particular concern in light of the dominant competitive influence that international shoe sales have on the U.S. domestic market. American shoe manufacturers and retailers import 53 percent of the shoes sold in the U.S. market. Because 60 percent of our client's sales volume is currently outside of the domestic market, the effect of not including international sales in the Final Order is to allow the defendants to operate directly at the expense of our client's international sales and indirectly at the expense of the domestic consumer who is no doubt paying the price of any price fixing activities concerning the international market.

Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act was designed and has been interpreted to prohibit those activities which have the purpose or effect of stabilizing price or competition. US v. Gypsum 438 US 422, 98 Sct 2864 (1978). The notion that external business activities in violation of U.S. antitrust laws may affect internal trade and commerce so as to confer jurisdiction upon U.S. courts to enjoin such activity was recognized as early as 1927 in U.S. v. Sisal Sales Corp. 274 U.S. 268, 71 L.Ed. 1042, 47 Sct. 592.

Clearly the Final Judgment as proposed would not ameliorate the restraint on competition in the shoe tape industry if the defendants were allowed to continue to engage in activities which would affect over one half of the entire U.S. market. Such a result certainly would not be in the public interest as required under 15 USC § 16. Therefore, it is recommended that the Proposed Final Judgment be modified at (III, Page 2) to include international sales. Accordingly, it is recommended that (VII c 2, Page 4) of the same be modified to "Adopt and publish domestic and international prices, discounts."; that (III, Page 5) of the Competitive Impact Statement be modified to include "In addition . . . lawful considerations to adopt publish domestic and international prices, discounts, etc. . . ."

It is also our belief that the Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement could be modified to more effectively restore competition to the shoe tape industry by requiring additional affirmative conduct on the part of the defendants.

Specifically, the requirement at (VII a, Page 4) of the Proposed Final Judgment should be expanded to provide that: Defendant shall provide a copy of this final judgment to each of its existing customers and to any new customers within 30 days after the judgment is entered and annually on the anniversary of this judgment for the next five (5) consecutive years. Notice shall be by registered mail to the Chief Executive Officer of each customer. Mail receipts shall be retained by each defendant in its corporate files. Similarly, the Competitive Impact Statement at (III, Page 5) should be modified to require each defendant to provide a copy of the Final Judgment and a copy of the Competitive Impact Statement to each of its existing customers and subsequent new customers . . . "at least once each year for five (5) years after the entering of the Final Judgment." It is also proposed that the Competitive Impact Statement be modified under the Section entitled "Remedies Available to Private Litigants" (IV, Page 7, paragraph 1; Sentence 3) to provide that these potential private plaintiffs may encourage the Attorney Generals of their respective states to sue, etc. . . . in their names. Finally, the Competitive Impact Statement should be modified in the section on "Procedure Available for Modification of Proposed Final Judgment" to require that notice of the opportunity to comment on the proposed Final Judgment be advertised in shoe trade journals in the U.S. and abroad.

The implementation of the proposed modifications will aid in deterring the defendant from engaging in any further anticompetitive activities by giving notice to past customers who may, in the context of a competitive market wish to take their business elsewhere. In addition, prospective customers under the proposed modifications would be able to make an informal decision as to whom they should patronize.

It is too great a threat that the defendants will simply absorb the fines levied; which in Chelsea's case amounts to less than 20,000 per year and which may be treated as an acceptable business expense. The proposal to require that notice be given to present and prospective customers will provide a self executing oversight mechanism. At the same time it would allow customers to make a more informed business decision thereby facilitating the return of competitive equilibrium to a market which is totally dominated by the defendants.

To summarize, the Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement recognize the desired result. However, by failing to specifically prohibit illegal pricing activity in foreign markets, the door has been left open for the defendants to exert monopoly pressure on the U.S. shoe tape market. By including the additional requirements regarding notice to customers of the defendants propensity toward illegal pricing activity, the Final Order may indeed restore competition to the shoe tape industry. In its present form, however, the Proposed Final Judgment will not accomplish this purpose and is therefore not in the public interest as required under 15 USC § 16.

Respectfully submitted, Action Manufacturing, Inc., by its attorneys, Myers and Brown.

Howard B. Myers.

Re United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al., Civil No. 78-3224-C (D. Massachusetts).

Howard B. Myers, Esquire,
Myers and Brown, Four Park Street, Concord, N.H.

Dear Mr. Myers: This letter will respond to the comments you have filed on behalf of Action Manufacturing, Inc., of Gonic, New Hampshire with regard to the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement in the above-captioned case.

Your letter essentially addresses two points: first, that the defendants in this case excessively price and fix the prices of pressure sensitive tape products sold in foreign markets which influences the domestic market for such products; and secondly, that the notification provisions of the proposed Final Judgment are insufficient to restore competition to the domestic shoe tape industry.

Your first comment with regard to the defendants' foreign activities alleges that the defendants charge excessive prices and fix the prices of pressure sensitive tape products which they manufacture in the United States and sell abroad. You imply that because American manufacturers and retailers import more than fifty percent of the shoes sold in the United States, this results in higher domestic prices for shoes sold in this country and further entrenches the defendants' substantial domestic market position. These factors allegedly affect your client adversely.

In the first instance, it is important to recognize that both the criminal and civil cases filed against these defendants were virtually identical insofar as the substantive offense alleged. They were charged with fixing the prices of pressure sensitive tape products sold to the shoe industry throughout the United States. Both cases were strictly limited to the domestic market for two reasons. First, there were no substantiated allegations that the defendants' price-fixing activity extended beyond the United States. The second reason was that even if such illegal pricing activity did occur in foreign markets, jurisdiction in the United States seemed highly doubtful. The reasons for this are partly revealed by the limited scope of your comment. While your comment asserts that excessive pricing and price fixing by the defendants does occur in foreign markets, your letter does not provide any specific proof to substantiate your client's allegations. No evidence or detailed information of any kind has ever been presented to the Antitrust Division that would support these contentions. Moreover, assuming arguendo that the excessive pricing referred to does exist, no evidence has been presented that would indicate that this has resulted from collusion. In addition, if price fixing is occurring in foreign markets, there is no evidence to indicate that a conspiracy was formed in the United States or that the products affected ended up in the United States. Despite your reference to the fact that American manufacturers and retailers import more than fifty percent of all shoes sold in the United States, no information has been provided that would facilitate a determination of whether shoes which are imported into this country contain price-fixed materials sold by these defendants.

You also assert that the defendants have substantial market shares in the United States and that they are exercising monopoly pressure on your client in the United States by subsidizing domestic sales with profits from foreign sales. Once again, no evidence has been presented to substantiate this assertion. Assuming, however, that is true, if your client feels that it has been aggrieved by this action, you are free to seek redress by filing a monopolization case against the defendants in an appropriate jurisdiction, which I understand you have done. Action

Manufacturing, Inc. v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., Civil Action No. 78-36 (D. New Hampshire). Under these circumstances, it would appear that your client's rights will be adequately protected and that it will be given more than ample opportunity to air its complaints.

Based on the foregoing considerations, and in view of the allegations of the Complaint, it is clear that the modifications you have suggested would exceed the scope of the Complaint, the present jurisdiction of the Court, and would be legally inappropriate in the present circumstances.

Your second comment suggests that the notification provisions of the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement be modified to require the defendants to notify each of its existing customers and any new customers of the Final Judgment; that potential private plaintiffs may encourage state Attorneys General to sue on their behalf; and that the Final Judgment be published in shoe trade journals in the United States and abroad. These modifications will, allegedly, more fully restore competition to the domestic shoe tape industry.

As I am sure you can appreciate, the formulation of effective affirmative relief is a matter which depends on the facts and circumstances of each case. The overriding objective in every case is to restore competition to the industry in a manner which seems most likely to effectively counterbalance the specific type of offense that has been committed. In this case, where published prices were fixed by agreement between the defendants, our primary concern has been to find a way to assure that it does not occur again.

The most direct and effective method of correcting the price fixing that occurred in this case was the one outlined in Section VII, Paragraphs C., D. and E. of the proposed Final Judgment. These provisions require each defendant to withdraw its present prices, discounts and other terms and conditions of sale for pressure sensitive tape products sold in the United States, and to reformulate and republish new prices on the basis of and after an independent review of their costs, margins and other lawful considerations. This republication and all subsequent price changes for the next five years must be certified under oath; each company must file affidavits stating that price changes have been made only after an independent review by each company, in other words, not in collusion with each other or any other manufacturer. This is unquestionably the most direct way of reaching the heart of the problem. While your suggestion about notifying existing and new customers of the Final Judgment was carefully considered, we felt at the time that these provisions were drafted, and continue to believe, that they represent the most effective way of correcting the problem that was found in this particular case.

With regard to your suggestion that the Competitive Impact Statement be amended to provide that potential private plaintiffs can encourage state Attorneys General to sue the defendants on their behalf, we would remind you that potential plaintiffs are always free to do so, and state Attorneys General are free to pursue appropriate legal action under Section 4C of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, 15 U.S.C. § 15c, and their own state laws. We would also point out that neither the proposed Final Judgment nor the Competitive Impact Statement imposes any restriction, except as provided by law, on anyone who may be interested in redressing any grievance against these defendants arising from their illegal conduct.

Your final comment suggests that the Competitive Impact Statement should be modified to require advertising in shoe trade journals in the United States and abroad in soliciting comments about the proposed Final Judgment. It is our view that your request to enlarge the geographic scope from which comments on the proposed Final Judgment may be sought to include publication abroad, exceeds the express statutory language of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(c), and is not appropriate in this case since the offense charged occurred within the United States.

With regard to your suggestion that comments about the judgment be advertised in domestic shoe trade journals, we would bring to your attention the fact that these cases have already received considerable publicity.¹ In addition, the Antitrust Division has fully met its legal responsibility with regard to the solicitation of comments concerning the proposed Final Judgment in the case in compliance with the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(c).² In light of these facts, more than ample opportunity has been provided to anyone who wished to comment about these cases and the proceedings related thereto.

We appreciate your comments and suggestions about the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement in this case. However, we are satisfied that an objective analysis of the facts and circumstances would clearly establish that the proposed Final Judgment does contain effective remedial relief to correct the effects of the offense committed by these defendants and is in the public interest. For this reason, the Antitrust Division will urge the Court to enter the proposed Final Judgment as originally submitted.

We have also been advised that the disposition of the criminal case was reported in other major newspapers of general circulation, e.g., New York Times. United States v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc.; Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 16(b) through (h), that a proposed Final Judgment, Stipulation and Competitive Impact Statement (CIS) have been filed with the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina in United States of America v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Civil No. 79-1742-9. The complaint in this case alleged that the defendant engaged in a combination and conspiracy with others to raise the price of nursing home services in South Carolina paid under the Medicaid program.

The proposed Final Judgment enjoins the defendant from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid provider contracts, or any part thereof. The defendant is also prohibited from participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject any or all of the terms of Medicaid provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program. The defendant is further prohibited from advocating, recommending or inducing nursing homes to engage in any of the above mentioned activities. Finally, the defendant is prohibited from allowing at its meetings any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, with the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes, or any nursing home, accepts or rejects any terms of a Medicaid contract, rejects or discharges Medicaid patients, or threatens not to participate in the Medicaid program.

Except as otherwise prohibited by the proposed Final Judgment, the defendant may represent nursing homes, or any nursing home, in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; may represent nursing homes by advocating or discussing changes in the Medicaid program before any federal or state governmental body; and may disseminate factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that the defendant furnish a copy of the judgment to each of its members, as well as to new members as they join, together with a letter explaining its terms. Also, the defendant is required to furnish to the Court and the plaintiff an affidavit as to the fact and manner of its notification of its members and future members.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that thirteen months after entry of the judgment and every two years thereafter, the defendant audit its operations to determine compliance with the judgment and with the antitrust laws. Its findings must be filed with the Court and the plaintiff.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that the defendant adopt a written statement setting forth its policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and the judgment. The written compliance policy must be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years. The proposed Final Judgment expires ten years after entry.

Public comment is invited within the statutory 60-day comment period. Such comments, and responses thereto, will be published in the Federal Register and filed with the Court. Comments should be directed to John W. Poole, Jr., Chief, Special Litigation Section, Room 7218, Antitrust Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, (telephone: (202) 633-2425).

United States of America, Plaintiff, v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Defendant.

Civil Action No. 79-1742-9.

Filed: February 7, 1980.

Final Judgment

Plaintiff, United States of America, having filed its complaint herein on August 27, 1979, and plaintiff and defendant, by their respective attorneys, having consented to the entry of this Final Judgment without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein and without this Final Judgment constituting any evidence against or an admission by any party with respect to any such issue;

Now, therefore, before the taking of any testimony and without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein and upon consent of the parties hereto, it is hereby,

Ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

I

This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of each of the parties consenting hereto. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against the defendant under Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1).

II

As used in this Final Judgment:

(A) "Defendant" means the South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc.;

(B) "Medicaid" means the system of health care for indigents created by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, entitled "Grants to States for Medical Assistance Programs," and includes regulations promulgated thereunder by the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW), and regulations, policies and procedures of South Carolina to implement the program;

(C) "Standard provider contracts" means contracts between the States of South Carolina and nursing homes by which nursing homes agree to provide care for Medicaid beneficiaries;

(D) "Nursing home" means a provider of skilled nursing and/or intermediate care services in the State of South Carolina.

III

This Final Judgment applies to the defendant and to its officers, directors, members, agents, employees, successors and assigns, and to all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them who shall have received actual notice of this Final Judgment.

IV

The defendant is enjoined from:

(A) Acting as an agent for nursing homes in connection with any decision to accept or reject all of any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts;

(B) Participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program;

(C) Advocating or recommending that nursing home(s) (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program; and

(D) Causing or permitting at any formal or informal meeting of defendant or its committees any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing home(s) (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program.

V

Except as prohibited in Section IV, nothing herein shall prohibit defendant from:

(A) Representing nursing home(s) in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; or

(B) Advocating or discussing, on behalf of nursing home(s), proposed changes in the Medicaid program with any federal or state legislative body or executive agency, or any committee or member thereof; or

(C) Disseminating factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

VI

The defendant is ordered and directed:

(A) Within sixty (60) days from the entry of this Final Judgment.

(1) To send to each of its members

(a) A copy of this Final Judgment; and

(b) A letter identical in text to that attached to this Final Judgment as Appendix A;

(2) To cause the publication of this Final Judgment in the defendant's newsletter; and

(3) To file with this Court and to serve upon the plaintiff an affidavit stating the fact and manner of compliance with subsection (A) of this Section VI;

(B) To serve a copy of this Final Judgment, together with a letter identical in text to that attached to this Final Judgment as Appendix A, upon all of its future members at such time as they become members;

(C) To conduct an audit of its activities, during the thirteenth month following entry of this Final Judgment, and once during every twenty-four month period thereafter while this Final Judgment remains in effect, to determine compliance with this Final Judgment and with the antitrust laws. The audit shall be conducted or supervised by an attorney and shall include a review of defendant's files and those of its directors maintained in connection with their responsibilities as such, and interviews of defendant's officers, directors, and employees as deemed necessary by the attorney. A written report of each audit shall be promptly prepared, furnished to plaintiff and filed with the court; and

(D) To establish and adopt a written statement setting forth defendant's policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and this Final Judgment. The written compliance policy shall be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years.

For the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Final Judgment, and subject to any legally recognized privilege, from time to time:

(A) Duly authorized representatives of the Department of Justice shall, upon written request of the Attorney General or of the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to the defendant made to its principal office, be permitted:

(1) Access during office hours of the defendant to inspect and copy all books, ledgers, accounts, correspondence, memoranda and other records and documents in the possession or under the control of the defendant which may have counsel present, relating to any matters contained in this Final Judgment; and

(2) Subject to the reasonable convenience of such defendant and without restraint or interference from it, to interview officers, employees and agents of the defendant who may have counsel present, regarding any such matters;

(B) Upon the written request of the Attorney General or of the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division made to the defendant's principal office, such defendant shall submit such written reports, under oath if requested, with respect to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment as may be requested;

(C) No information or documents obtained by the means provided in this Section VII shall be divulged by any representative of the Department of Justice to any person other than a duly authorized representative of the Executive Branch of the United States, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States is a party, or for the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment or as otherwise required by law; and

(D) If, at the time information or documents are furnished by the defendant to plaintiff, such defendant represents and identifies in writing the material in any such information or documents to which a claim of protection may be asserted under Rule 26(c)(7) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and said defendant marks each pertinent page of such material "Subject to claim of protection under Rule 26(c)(7) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure," then 10 days notice shall be given by plaintiff to the defendant prior to divulging such material in any legal proceeding (other than a grand jury proceeding) to which the defendant is not a party.

IX

Jurisdiction is retained by this Court for the purpose of enabling any of the parties to this Final Judgment to apply to this Court at any time for such further orders or directions as may be necessary or appropriate for the construction or carrying out of this Final Judgment, for the modification of any of the provisions hereof, for the enforcement of compliance herewith, and for the punishment of any violation hereof.

X

This Final Judgment will expire ten years after date of entry.

XI

Entry of this Final Judgment is in the public interest.

Dated:

United States District Court.

RE: United States v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Civil No. 79-1742-9

Dear SCHCA Member: Enclosed is a copy of the Final Judgment, filed — 1979, in United States v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Civil No. 79-1742-9. The terms of the Final Judgment require that a copy of it as well as this letter be sent to you. You should read the terms of the decree carefully and note that you, under certain circumstances, are bound by the provisions. The purpose of this letter is to help you understand those provisions.

Under the decree the Association is barred from participating in any plan or agreement which would result in nursing homes jointly threatening not to participate in the Medicaid program, as well as jointly determining to accept or reject all or part of the standard provider contracts, or to discharge Medicaid patients. The Final Judgment also prohibits the Association from causing or allowing nursing home representatives to discuss any of the above-mentioned actions at any formal or informal Association meetings, including committee meetings.

Finally, the Final Judgment prohibits the Association from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid standard provider contracts.

U.S. District Court, District of South Carolina, Columbia Division

United States of America, Plaintiff, v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Defendant.

Civil Action No. 79-742-9.

Filed: February 7, 1980.

Competitive Impact Statement

Pursuant to Section 2(b) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act (15 U.S.C. 16(b)-(h)), the United States of America submits this Competitive Impact Statement relating to the proposed final judgment submitted for entry in this civil antitrust proceeding.

I

Nature of the Proceeding

On August 27, 1979, the Department of Justice filed a civil antitrust complaint under Section 4 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 4), alleging that the defendant violated Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1). The complaint alleges a combination and conspiracy consisting of a continuing agreement, understanding, and concert of action among the defendant and various co-conspirators to raise the price of nursing home services in South Carolina paid under the Medicaid program.

Entry of the proposed final judgment will terminate the action, except that the Court will retain jurisdiction over the matter for further proceedings which may be required to interpret, modify or enforce the judgment, or to punish violations of any of its provisions.

II

Description of the Practices Involved in the Alleged Violation

The defendant is a trade association for the nursing home industry in South Carolina. Approximately 85 nursing homes throughout the state, representing over 80 per cent of all nursing home beds in South Carolina, are "institutional" members of the defendant. In addition, numerous individuals associated with nursing homes are "personal" members.

The complaint alleges that the defendant and co-conspirators engaged in a conspiracy, from sometime in 1973 to the present, to raise the price of nursing home services paid under the Medicaid program in South Carolina. The complaint further alleges that to raise the price of Medicaid nursing home services, the defendant acted as the bargaining agent of its member nursing homes to negotiate and approve or disapprove Medicaid reimbursement contracts with the state on their behalf. The complaint also alleges that the defendant's member nursing homes jointly refused to enter into contracts with the state to care for Medicaid patients except upon terms and conditions that had been agreed upon by the defendant and its members. The market area alleged to have been affected by the conspiracy is the State of South Carolina.

The complaint alleges that the conspiracy has had the following effects, among others: (a) Competition among nursing homes with respect to the terms and conditions on which they will contract to care for Medicaid patients has been eliminated, and (b) prices charged by nursing homes for the care of Medicaid patients have been increased.

Had this case gone to trial, the United States would have adduced evidence to show that, beginning sometime in 1973, the defendant and co-conspirators began to use the defendant as the bargaining agent for nursing homes in negotiating Medicaid contracts with the State of South Carolina. The United States believes the evidence would have shown that, since 1973, the defendant has acted on behalf of its members in accepting or rejecting all or part of various Medicaid provider contracts, and used the joint bargaining strength of its member nursing homes to obtain more favorable contract terms and conditions than otherwise would have been possible; the conspiracy was effectuated in numerous meetings of the defendant's membership, meetings of various committees formed by the defendant for the purpose of negotiating Medicaid contracts with the State, and in meetings between representatives of the defendant and representatives of the State.

III

Explanation of the Proposed Final Judgment

The United States and the defendant have stipulated that the Court may enter the proposed final judgment after compliance with the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act. The stipulation provides that neither party has made any admission about any issue of fact or law. Under the provisions of Section 2(e) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, the proposed final judgment may not be entered until the Court determines that entry is in the public interest.

A. Prohibited Conduct

The proposed final judgment prohibits the defendant from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid provider contracts, or any part thereof. The defendant is also prohibited from participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject any or all of the terms of Medicaid provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program. The defendant is further prohibited from advocating, recommending or inducing nursing homes to engage in any of the above mentioned activities. Finally, the defendant is prohibited from allowing at its meetings any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, with the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes, or any nursing home, accepts or rejects any terms of the Medicaid contract, rejects or discharges Medicaid patients, or threatens not to participate in the Medicaid program.

Except as otherwise prohibited by the proposed final judgment, the defendant may represent nursing homes, or any nursing home, in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; may represent nursing homes by advocating or discussing changes in the Medicaid program before any federal or state governmental body; and may disseminate factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

The proposed final judgment requires that the defendant furnish a copy of the judgment to each of its members, as well as to new members as they join, together with a letter explaining its terms. Also, the defendant is required to furnish to the Court and the plaintiff an affidavit as to the fact and manner of its notification of its members and future members.

The proposed final judgment requires that thirteen months after entry of the judgment and every two years thereafter, the defendant audit its operations to determine compliance with the judgment and with the antitrust laws. Its findings must be filed with the Court and the plaintiff.

The proposed final judgment requires that the defendant adopt a written statement setting forth its policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and the judgment. The written compliance policy must be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years.

B. Scope of the Proposed Judgment

The proposed final judgment will remain in effect for a period of ten years from entry. It applies to the defendant and to each of its officers, directors, members, agents, employees, successors and assigns, and to all other persons in actual concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of the judgment.

C. Effect of the Proposed Judgment on Competition

The relief in the proposed final judgment is designed to prevent any recurrence of the activities alleged in the complaint. The prohibitive language of the judgment should insure that each nursing home's decision whether to provide services under the Medicaid program will be made independently by it, without agreements among competitors and between competitors and their trade association.

The proposed final judgment provides two methods for determining the defendant's compliance with its terms. First, the United States is given access, upon reasonable notice, to the records of the defendant to examine them for possible violations of the judgment, and to interview officers, directors, employees and agents of the defendant. Second, the United States may require the defendant to submit written reports about any matters pertaining to the judgment.

The Department of Justice believes that the proposed final judgment contains adequate provisions to prevent further violations by the defendant of the type upon which this complaint is based. The Department believes that disposition of the lawsuit without further litigation is appropriate because the proposed judgment provides all the relief which the United States sought in its complaint, and the additional expense of litigation would not result in additional public benefit.

IV

Remedies Available to Potential Private Litigants

Section 4 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 15) provides that any person who has been injured as a result of conduct prohibited by the antitrust laws may bring suit in federal court to recover three times the damages suffered, as well as costs and reasonable attorneys fees. Entry of the proposed final judgment will neither impair nor assist the bringing of such actions. Under the provisions of Section 5(a) of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 16(a)), the judgment has no prima facie effect in any subsequent lawsuits that may be brought against this defendant.

Procedures Available for Modification of the Proposed Judgment

As provided by the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, any person believing that the proposed final judgment should be modified may submit written comments to John W. Poole, Jr., Antitrust Division, United States Department of Justice, 10th & Penn. Ave., NW., Washington, D.C. 20530 within the 60-day period provided by the Act. These comments, and the Department's responses, will be filed with the Court and published in the Federal Register. All comments will be given due consideration by the Department of Justice, which remains free to withdraw its consent to the proposed judgment at any time prior to entry. The judgment provides that the Court retains jurisdiction over this action, and the parties may apply to the Court for any order necessary or appropriate for its modification, interpretation or enforcement.

Alternatives to the Proposed Consent Judgment

This case does not involve any unusual or novel issues of fact or law which might make litigation a more desirable alternative than entry of this final judgment. The Department considers the substantive language of the judgment to be of sufficient scope and effectiveness to make litigation on relief unnecessary, as the judgment provides all relief which reasonably could have been expected after trial.

VII

Other Materials

No materials and documents of the type described in Section 2(b) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act (15 U.S.C. 16(b)) were considered in formulating the proposed final judgment.

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

[N-AR 80-8]

Reports, Safety Recommendations and Responses; Availability

Aircraft Accident Reports in Brief Format

U.S. Civil Aviation Accidents, Issue No. 2 of 1979 Accidents (NTSB-BA-79-6).—The National Transportation Safety Board on February 7 made available the second volume in its series of brief reports on general aviation accidents which occurred during 1979. The 298 accidents reported in Issue No. 2 are arranged by date and the State in which they occurred. This publication is issued irregularly, normally 15 times each year. The brief format presents the facts, conditions, circumstances, and probable cause(s) for each accident. Additional statistical information is tabulated by injury index, injuries, and causal factors.

The Safety Board, in Press Release SB 80-7 announcing Issue No. 2, cites one accident to highlight a long-standing problem in general aviation—unwarranted low altitude flying, or buzzing. In this case, the pilot of a Cessna 150 took off from Abingdon, Va., with a passenger for a flight over the local area. According to witnesses, the pilot, who had 250 hours in the Cessna 150 and over 400 hours total flying time, made a series of low level passes over South Holston Lake near Bristol, Tenn., in an attempt to buzz a flock of ducks. One witness, a professional pilot, said the Cessna's propwash left a wake on the water. On the last pass, the plane was observed to strike the water and sink. Both the pilot and his passenger were killed.

Warnings against the danger of unwarranted low altitude flying have been made repeatedly by safety officials. But the Board's accident statistics indicating a need for repetition remains. Therefore, the following chart of 1974-1978 U.S. general aviation accident involving unwarranted low altitude flying phase of operation is directed to those pilots who may feel that the excitement of buzzing is worth the risk:

	Accidents
	Total	Fatal
1974.....	25	12
1975.....	29	17
1976.....	37	26
1977.....	54	35
1978.....	31	18

Copies of Issue No. 1 may be purchased from the National Technical Information Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, Springfield, Va., 22151.

Note.—The brief reports in this volume contain essential information; more detailed data may be obtained from the original factual reports on file in the Washington office of the Safety Board. Upon request, factual reports will be reproduced commercially at an average cost of 7 cents per page for printed matter, $1 per page for black-and-white photographs, and $1.50 per page for color photographs, plus postage. Requests concerning aircraft accident report briefs should include (1) date and place of occurrence, (2) type of aircraft and registration number, and (3) name of pilot. Address requests to: Public Inquiries Section, National Transportation Safety Board, Washington, D.C. 20594.

Marine Accident Report

Fire on Board the Canadian Bulk Carrier M/V CARTIERCLIFFE HALL, Lake Superior, June 5, 1979 (NTSB-MAR-80-1).—The Safety Board on February 8 released the final report on this accident, investigated jointly by the Safety Board and the U.S. Coast Guard. The formal investigation convened on June 8, 1979, in Duluth, Minn. This report is based on the evidence and testimony developed during the investigation.

The fire erupted on the CARTIERCLIFFE HALL while it was underway in Lake Superior between Duluth and Port Cartier, Quebec, Canada, in U.S. waters. The fire destroyed the vessel's accommodation spaces and pilothouse. Six persons were killed and five persons were injured; one person died later as a result of burns received from the fire.

The Safety Board has determined that the probable cause of this accident was the ignition by an unknown source of combustible materials within the spar deck crew accommodations. The rapid rate at which the fire spread was due to the lack of structural fire protection in the design and the extensive use of combustible materials in the construction of the accommodation spaces. Contributing to the loss of life were the rapid rate at which the fire spread and the lack of an adequate fire detecting system.

As a result of this accident investigation, the Safety Board on January 25 recommended that the U.S. Department of State, in consultation with the U.S. Coast Guard, initiate negotiations for a bilateral agreement between the United States Government and the Canadian Government to establish common structural fire protection and fire detection standards for Great lakes vessels (recommendation M-80-4). Also on January 25, the Safety Board recommended that the U.S. Coast Guard amend 46 CFR Subpart 95.05-1, to require that a fire detection system be installed in the accommodation spaces of U.S. vessels that do not meet current structural fire protection standards (M-80-5). (See also 45 FR 8390, February 7, 1980.)

Special Investigation Report

Survival in Hazardous Materials Transportation Accidents (NTSB-HZM-79-4).—The Safety Board has investigated many accidents in which persons were killed following the release of hazardous materials from vehicles involved in the accidents. For example, 16 persons died following the rupture of a liquefied petroleum gas tank-semitrailer in a 1975 highway accident near Eagle Pass, Texas. Also, in Youngstown, Fla., eight persons died following the puncture of a rail tank car carrying chlorine during an accident in 1978, and in Houston, Texas, five persons were killed and 178 persons were injured by the release of anhydrous ammonia following the crash of a tank-semitrailer in a 1976 highway accident. The Safety Board has previously reported the causes of these accidents but notes that the extent of the casualties in these and other accidents following the release of hazardous materials far exceeded the initial crash losses. The Board believes that improving survivability in such accidents would contribute significantly to reduced hazardous materials transportation risks.

Using the 1976 Houston accident as an example, the Safety Board investigated survival actions by the victims to determine what actions they took, why they were taken, and what effects these actions had on the victims' survival. These actions were then analyzed to determine the effectiveness of the U.S. Department of Transportation-mandated safeguards in reducing casualties in hazardous materials accidents. The Board's resulting special report was released on February 8.

The report shows that the Safety Board reached the following conclusions as a result of this special investigation:

1. None of the regulatory safeguards—vehicle, roadway, placarding, or emergency action guides—were effective in reducing the injurious effects of the hazardous materials release in the Houston accident on May 11, 1976.

2. The threat to personal safety was not generally recognized by the exposed motorists until injury occurred; then the only survival action recognized was to flee the ammonia cloud.

3. The markings, placards, and labeling under 49 CFR Part 172, Hazardous Materials Communications Regulations, did not assist those involved to identify the nature of the threat, to communicate what actions to take, or to help control the emergency.

4. The current reporting system of the U.S. Department of Transportation's Materials Transportation Bureau requires the occurrence of numerous accidents in order to identify data trends that demonstrate a need for improved safeguards.

5. MTB cannot evaluate its safeguards affecting hazardous materials transportation releases adequately or promptly because it does not have a procedure by which survival action data are collected and used.

6. DOT's hazardous materials incident reporting system requires carriers to help prepare data to support trend analysis that is directed toward packaging rather than improved survivability; both factors need to be considered.

7. MTB needs to change its policy of relying solely on carriers to support its accident/incident reporting system; it should marshal all the available resources for collecting accident information to support its regulatory program.

Further as a result of this investigation, the Safety Board last December 11 recommended that DOT's Research and Special Programs Administration: (1) Incorporate hazardous materials incident survival action data in the new centralized hazardous materials information system which DOT is establishing under recommendation No. 3 of the September 1978 Report of the Hazardous Materials Task Force (I-79-14); (2) establish procedures to promptly utilize survival action data and to analyze the harm from an accident in evaluating the influence of regulatory safeguards upon the outcome of serious hazardous materials incidents (I-79-15); and (3) use survival action data collected to revise emergency guidelines, incorporating recommended actions, their purpose, and the effect they should have in reducing losses following the release of hazardous materials (I-79-16). (See also 44 FR 75538, December 20, 1979.)

Safety Recommendation Letters

Aviation

A-80-13 and 14.—On March 1, 1979, a Beech 70 Excelsior Conversion (Queen Air), N777AE, crashed just after takeoff from the Gulfport-Biloxi Regional Airport, Gulfport, Miss. The aircraft was being operated by Universal Airways, Inc., under 14 CFR Part 135.

The aircraft took off from runway 17, and, reaching an altitude of 100 feet at the departure end of the runway, the pilot told Gulfport Tower, "Universal 76 is taking it around, going to land, going to land on 13." Witnesses stated that as the aircraft began a right turn the nose "pitched up" following which the aircraft immediately entered a steep dive, which it maintained until ground impact. All eight occupants were killed; there was no fire after impact.

Investigation of this accident revealed that the nose baggage door came open on takeoff and struck the left propeller. The door apparently had not been secured properly by the station agent who had removed baggage from the compartment. The Board notes that the forward baggage compartment door is hinged at the top and is opened by turning a D-shaped handle. The latching mechanism incorporates three sliding bayonet latches which are held in the latched position by an overcenter cam. A microswitch is mounted ahead of the forward bayonet and door frame and is connected in series to the left engine starter switch. The door must be fully latched and the microswitch actuated by the pressure of the bayonet point before the engine can be started. This feature was designed by Beech to ensure safety of operation of the aircraft. On N777AE, however, the safety interrupt feature had been bypassed by a wire installed between the battery terminals of the two-engine magneto/start switches. This allowed both engines to be started even though the door was not fully latched.

In a similar accident involving a Ross Aviation Beech 65-80 (Queen Air) at Albuquerque, N.M., on May 19, 1972, nine persons were killed. As a result of that accident and a similar accident involving a Beech 99, the Safety Board issued to the Federal Aviation Administration recommendations A-72-78 through 81. These recommendations dealt with the need for: secondary locking devices, cargo restraint systems, an alert to all air taxi operators, rulemaking to revise 14 CFR Part 135, and evaluation of the applicability of 14 CFR 23.787(b) to this type of nose cargo compartment.

The Safety Board notes that FAA issued an alert to all operators and owners regarding the need for positive door closure and for rigging the door actuating mechanism in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions. In addition, FAA responded that if the door latching mechanism was properly maintained and fully secured by the operator, the requirements for cargo compartments and cargo security and protection contained in 14 CFR 23.787(b) would be satisfied. Based on this response, the recommendations were classified "Closed—Unacceptable Action" by the Board.

In 1976, Beech Aircraft Corporation surveyed 66 Beech Queen Airs that were equipped with nose baggage doors. The findings of the survey indicated that only 10 of the 66 aircraft had properly operating starter interrupt systems.

In view of these findings, the unacceptable response to the Board's previous recommendations, and the Gulfport accident, the Safety Board concludes that action is still required to prevent inadvertent opening of nose baggage doors in flight. Accordingly, on February 13, the Board recommended that FAA:

Take action to provide double failure protection by means of a secondary locking device on nose baggage doors of light twin engine aircraft engaged in Part 135 operations. (A-80-13)

Require that the nose baggage door interrupter system on all Beech Aircraft models so equipped be operational before flight. (A-80-14)

Both of the above recommendations are designated "Class II, Priority Action."

Highway

H-80-9 through 11, H-80-12 and 13.—On September 17, 1979, the Federal Highway Administration issued emergency final rulemaking, "Traffic Safety in Highway and Street Work Zones; Separation of Opposing Traffic" (23 CFR 630.1010), to "require more stringent control measures to reduce * * * accidents on highway construction projects funded by FHWA." The Safety Board notes that this rulemaking permits two-way traffic on normally divided highways only when other methods of traffic control are not feasible. Where two-way traffic is unavoidable, approved concrete barriers, drums, cones, or vertical panels throughout the length of the two-way operation must be used. The Safety Board strongly supports these more stringent control measures, but the Board believes that these constraints should apply to all work on divided Federal-aid roads and not just to construction projects funded by FHWA as is provided by the recent rules. The Board's position is reinforced by its investigation of a recent multiple-vehicle collision.

About 6:25 a.m. on August 22, 1979, a westbound tractor-semitrailer sideswiped an eastbound tractor-semitrailer and then struck an eastbound motor home on Interstate 80 about 30 miles northwest of Laramie, Wyo. Interstate 80 was under construction and both eastbound and westbound traffic was traveling on the two undivided westbound lanes. The two persons in the westbound truck and six of the seven persons in the motor home were killed.

The Safety Board notes that between June 17 and September 3 last year 9 accidents occurred on the 9-mile section of I-80 containing the construction zone; these accidents resulted in 13 fatalities, 4 injuries, and 14 damaged vehicles. On June 26, 1979, FHWA's Division Office discussed the June 17 accident and recommendations for positive traffic separation measures with Wyoming's State Highway Department. None of the recommended positive separation measures were in use in the construction zone on August 22, 1979. Furthermore, a positive separation measure would not have been required even under FHWA's recent emergency rulemaking requirements because the construction project was financed exclusively with non-FHWA funds. The Safety Board believes that FHWA should expand the scope of the recent rulemaking to include all construction of Federal-aid highways to insure the use of approved traffic control devices regardless of the funding source of the specific project.

Additionally, although FHWA's emergency rulemaking requires separation and appropriate traffic control devices, it does not provide practical guidelines for implementation in the field. The impact of the lack of guidelines was highlighted by an informal telephone survey conducted by the Safety Board to determine the current traffic separation practices at locations similar to the accident site. The survey included all FHWA regions and many State highway offices. It revealed a wide variation in practices and the following practical concerns:

1. The operational problems with portable concrete median barriers. (The operational problems include management, placement, end treatment, the increase in accidents due to a continuous barrier, and other factors).
2. The high loss of cones, barrels, and flexible posts—as high as 20 to 30 percent daily.
3. The need for limitations on the maximum safe length of construction zones which should be used for two-way operation.
4. The need for speed limit restrictions and enforcement.
5. The need for limitations on the number of days a two-way operation should be permitted.
6. The lack of guidance on end treatments for barriers.
7. The problems associated with accommodating wide vehicles, especially near narrow bridges where concrete median barriers are used.
8. The problems associated with maintaining traffic where usable shoulders are not available.

The Safety Board is aware that the FHWA is sponsoring research which will address some of the previously listed concerns, and that there is operational experience in the States which FHWA could use to develop effective solutions for some of the other concerns. These research findings and operational experiences should be compiled into a concise manual of effective practical guidelines which could be disseminated to those responsible for developing traffic control plans.

Finally, the Safety Board is not aware of any research in the major area of operational problems associated with the use of portable median barriers, barrels, cones, and panels. Apparently, there is a significant gap in available traffic control devices between the massive concrete median barriers, with their inherent operational problems, and the flimsy cones and tubes, which are often damaged or removed from a site and have to be replaced. Contractors nationwide have reported a heavy loss of cones and barrels. Additionally, cones and barrels have the potential for becoming lodged in mechanical parts of a vehicle, which could pose further safety hazards. Although FHWA is crash-testing different barrier systems and industry has introduced plastic type-III barricades, there still appears to be a need for a device that could function as a visual channelizing device where two-way operation is unavoidable and use of the concrete barrier is impractical.

Accordingly, the Safety Board on February 11 recommended that FHWA:

Expand the Emergency Final Rule, 23 CFR 630.1010 to apply to all construction and maintenance zones on divided Federal-aid roads. (Class I, Urgent Action) (H-80-9)

Develop and disseminate a manual which will compile operational experience and current research findings related to channelizing traffic which is rerouted in work areas. (Class II, Priority Action) (H-80-10)

Promote the development of a traffic control device to fill the gap between shaped concrete barrier and traffic cones to serve as a continuous visual barrier to separate traffic in work zones. (Class III, Longer Term Action) (H-80-11)

A separate recommendation letter concerning the Laramie accident was forwarded, also on February 11, by the Safety Board to the Governor of Wyoming. The letter states that the temporary eastbound lane was 12 feet 8 inches wide. The shoulder for eastbound traffic was 8 feet 1 inch wide and the westbound shoulder was about 12 feet 11 inches wide. Only 3 feet of the eastbound shoulder was usable because the slope changed abruptly from about 30:1 (0.035 ft/ft) to slightly less than 4:1 (0.236 ft/ft). The driver of the eastbound truck said she did not move any farther to the right than she thought necessary to avoid frontal contact because she did not want to risk overturning her vehicle. Since 1975, more than 75 percent of the fatalities and nearly 38 percent of the accidents on I-80 between mileposts 263 and 312, which includes the accident site, involved overturning vehicles.

Although the shoulder at the site of the August 22, 1979, accident has since been regraded, the Safety Board concludes that based on the accident history of this section of highway, there may be other shoulder segments which do not meet the standards of the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials' Blue Book, "A Policy on Geometric Design of Rural Highways—1965."

The Safety Board is also concerned about the high speed of the westbound truck. A recent FHWA report—"Accident and Speed Studies in Construction Zones," June 1977 (FHWA-

RD-77-80)—indicated that a reduced speed limit in a construction zone did not reduce the accident rate, but did increase conflicts in the transition area. Further, vehicle speed was not reduced unless enforcement units were visible within a few miles of the site. Field studies have demonstrated that enforcement not only controls speed but also reduces erratic maneuvers and traffic conflicts.

In view of these findings, the Safety Board forwarded these two "Class II, Priority Action" recommendations to the Governor of Wyoming:

Conduct an engineering study to determine where regrading of the shoulders is necessary and correct those locations to reduce the number of overturning accidents on Interstate 80 between mileposts 263 and 312. (H-80-12)

Take necessary steps to increase the effectiveness of its enforcement of speed limits, especially within and adjacent to construction zones. (H-80-13)

Copies of the Safety Board's formal investigation report concerning the Laramie accident are being prepared for distribution and will be made available in the near future.

Responses to Safety Recommendations

Marine

M-78-74 through 77.—U.S. Coast Guard on January 21 responded to the Safety Board's comments forwarded last May 7 to Coast Guard's March 14 response (44 FR 23394, April 19, 1979) to recommendations issued following investigation of the collision of Liberian Tankship M/V STOLT VIKING and U.S. Crewboat CANDY BAR which occurred in the Gulf of Mexico, January 7, 1978.

The recommendations called on Coast Guard to:

Require vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry to have electronic navigational equipment including radar, LORAN, and a fathometer. (M-78-74)

Require that a person applying for an operator's license for vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry be examined in the use of electronics navigational equipment such as radar, LORAN, and fathometers. (M-78-75)

Require that the operator of every radar-equipped vessel carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry be qualified as a radar observer. (M-78-76)

Require that the operators of vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry, when operating for more than 12 hours: (1) Establish standardized watch schedules to minimize fatigue from prolonged duty hours, and (2) appoint one operator to be in charge to establish responsibility of command and to avoid confusion in an emergency. (M-78-77)

With reference to recommendations M-78-74, 75, and 76, the Safety Board last May 7 stated that these three recommendations were intended to be complementary and were published in that order for emphasis. It is obvious that there can be no requirement for an operator to be qualified to operate certain equipment if that equipment is not required to be on the vessel. The steps necessary are: (1) Require the equipment, (2) require examination of the operators, and (3) require certification of the operator's ability to use the equipment. The facts of the subject accident showed positively the pitfalls of sophisticated equipment in the hands of unskilled users. The LORAN and the radar were misused in the case of the CANDY BAR. The Board does not believe that the answer is to get rid of the equipment, as implied in the Coast Guard response, but to train the operators, as recommended by the Board.

Electronic navigational equipment has become less expensive in recent years and, as with the CANDY BAR, owners are providing this equipment. However, the qualifications required of licensed operators have not kept pace with the progress of the navigational equipment. Even though all surface radar is limited due to antenna height, the Safety Board believes that normal antenna height would be adequate for safe navigation of this type of vessel.

If the Coast Guard believes that a single trade related restriction on the operator examination is inappropriate, the Board suggests that the qualification and examination in the use of electronic navigation equipment be extended to all operators of vessels that carry more than six passengers for hire regardless of employment. The Board suggests in lieu of the trade restriction, an operating restriction, such as for vessels operating for more than 12 hours and more than 20 miles offshore.

The Safety Board determined that the probable cause of this accident was the failure of both the STOLT VIKING and the CANDY BAR to keep an adequate lookout, visually as well as on radar. Additionally, the crew of the CANDY BAR incorrectly determined their own position about 5 minutes before the collision. The incorrect use of the available electronic navigational equipment was most definitely a factor in this accident.

The Board notes that the procedure for qualification as "radar observer" for operators of vessels over 300 gross tons and for operators of vessels under 300 gross tons need not be the same; the important point is that accurate navigation and correct collision avoidance procedures are fundamental to the safe operation of any vessel. The principle of operation in 49 CFR 10.05-46 should be considered essential for the operator of a vessel carrying more than six persons for hire. The fact that CANDY BAR type vessels are small and lively and cannot keep as precise a course as larger vessels makes it even more important that the navigators of such vessels be capable of effective and accurate use of the electronic equipment available.

With reference to recommendation M-78-77, the Safety Board said on May 7, 1979, that in the CANDY BAR case the watch-standing division tradition must not have taken hold. A single operator was on duty for most of a 12-hour period. As there is no requirement for a standard watch, or even for maximum duty hours for vessels under 100 gross tons (46 CFR 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 apply to vessels of more than 100 gross tons), the ill-advised action of the operator was not necessarily illegal. The Safety Board believes that in an area with high density tankship and other vessel traffic, and numerous petroleum exploration structures, the watch division and duty hour requirements of 46 CFR 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 should apply to vessels under 100 gross tons carrying six or more passengers for hire. The Board asked for reconsideration of the watch schedule portion of this recommendation.

The second part of M-78-77 was intended to cause the establishment of responsibility for the safety of the vessel and its passengers, not seniority. The Safety Board is not concerned as to the age or length of service of an individual, but that one individual be given the responsibility for command for the entire voyage rather than the tradeoff situation that existed on the CANDY BAR. The Board hopes that, if the Coast Guard does not feel a regulation is necessary, at least some publication concerning the common sense involved in providing for a "master" designation for these vessels might go to the companies and owners involved.

Coast Guard's letter of January 21 in response indicates nonconcurrence with recommendations M-78-74 and M-78-75. Coast Guard says the casualty statistics and equipment limitations do not justify the proposed regulations called for in recommendation M-78-74. Coast Guard says it did not intend to imply that vessel operators get rid of electronic navigational equipment and views with favor the trend of the vessel "T" boat industry to self-equip. Coast Guard does not believe there is justification to implement M-78-74, especially since many owners are providing this equipment at their own initiative. Coast Guard identified the limitations of radars in vessels described in the recommendation as (1) small display and scope size, (2) depict contacts on a relative bearing as gyrocompass inputs are seldom available, (3) heavy sea return, and (4) limited range.

With reference to M-78-75, Coast Guard notes that the Safety Board suggested that operator examinations in electronic navigational equipment either be extended to all operators of vessels carrying more than six passengers or to those vessels operating more than 12 hours or more than 20 miles offshore. Coast Guard does not agree that hours of operation or distance offshore has any bearing on the use of electronic equipment. Coast Guard's initial response of April 19, 1979, to M-78-75 considers the operation of all small passenger vessels.

Coast Guard, with respect to recommendation M-78-76, notes that the Safety Board concludes that inaccurate use of position-fixing equipment on the CANDY BAR was definitely a factor in this accident. Coast Guard does not agree with this conclusion in that the need for an alert lookout exists throughout this operating area and the fact that the vessel was located approximately one mile farther north than determined earlier by the crew was not significant to this collision. Coast Guard states, "Actually, a one-mile navigational error could reasonably be expected considering the location and the equipment in use. It is not viewed as ineffective operator use of installed equipment."

Concerning recommendation M-78-77, Coast Guard says any move to apply 46 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 to Subchapter T vessels would require a statutory change. This attempt would most likely not be successful due to opposition from boat operators as labor costs would increase significantly. Part 52-2-10 of the Coast Guard Marine Safety Manual provide a standard scale for a two watch system which has proved satisfactory. The requirement to carry an additional operator when operating more than 12 hours is provided for on the vessel's Certificate of Inspection. Coast Guard reports that Operations Research, Inc., has made two studies for Coast Guard since 1977 concerning human causal factors in marine accidents. Fatigue was not analyzed as a potential causal factor because, it was determined, fatigue was not readily quantifiable or easily perceived as a direct or indirect factor. Coast Guard said it would be relatively easy to require that one of the operators be designated as "master." The problem comes in the definitions and related duties of the terms "master" and "operator." The Coast Guard is studying changes to 46 CFR Parts 390 and 404 to remove "operator" from the statutory and regulatory language. A submission to the Congress is contemplated during its current session, and an update of this legislative effort will be supplied in 6 months.

NOTE: Single copies of the Safety Board's reports are available without charge, as long as limited supplies last. Copies of recommendation letters and responses thereto are also provided free of charge. All requests for copies must be in writing, identified by report or recommendation number. NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-409]

Dairyland Power Coop.; Issuance of Amendment to Provisional Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 19 to Provisional Operating License No. DPR-45, issued to Dairyland Power Cooperative (the licensee), which revised the Technical Specifications for operation of the La Crosse Boiling Water Reactor (LACBWR) located in Vernon County, Wisconsin. The amendment is effective as of its date of issuance.

The amendment modifies the Technical Specifications for the LACBWR by adding new, more restrictive limits for the reactor coolant and off-gas radioactivity to compensate for increasing the maximum average fuel assembly exposure by 600 MWD/MTU. These limits apply only to fuel cycle 6 operation and would permit continued reactor operation while the new spent fuel racks are being installed in the fuel storage well.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of this amendment will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) an environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of this amendment.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendment dated January 17, 1980, and supplement thereto dated January 28, 1980, (2) Amendment No. 19 to License No. DPR-45, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. All of these items are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. and at the La Crosse Public Library, 800 Main Street, La Crosse, Wisconsin 54601. A copy of items (2) and (3) may be obtained upon request addressed to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Director, Division of Operation Reactors.

Duquesne Light Co., et al.; Termination of Order for Modification of Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has completed the review of the Revised ECCS Analysis relating to the Zirconium-Water error and has terminated the April 21, 1978 Order for Modification of Facility Operating License No. DPR-66 issued to Duquesne Light Company, Ohio Edison Company and Pennsylvania Power Company (the licensee) of the Beaver Valley Power Station, Unit No. 1 (the facility) located in Beaver County, Pennsylvania. This action is effective as of the date of issuance.

This action complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the related Safety Evaluation. Prior public notice of this action was not required since this action does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the termination of the Order for Modification will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) and environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of this action.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for termination of the Order for Modification dated May 7, 1979 and (2) the Commission's letter to the licensee dated January 9, 1980. Florida Power & Light Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 52 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-31 issued to Florida Power and Light Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Turkey Point Nuclear Generating, Unit No. 3 (the facility) located in the Dade County, Florida. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment permits continued operation of Turkey Point Plant Unit No. 3 for six equivalent full power months from January 24, 1980 at which time the steam generators shall be inspected.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since this amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

Indiana & Michigan Electric Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 17 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-74 issued to Indiana and Michigan Electric Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant, Unit No. 2 (the facility) located in Berrien County, Michigan. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment revises the Technical Specification limits for total nuclear peaking factor (F_p) for the Donald C. Cook, Unit No. 2.

The amendment also supersedes the Order for Modification of License for D. C. Cook Unit No. 2, dated June 6, 1978, accordingly, that Order has been terminated.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Maine Yankee Atomic Power Co.; Issuance of Amendment To Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 47 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-36, issued to Maine Yankee Atomic Power Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Maine Yankee Atomic Power Station (the facility) located in Lincoln County, Maine. The amendment is effective as of its date of issuance.

The amendment deletes the limiting conditions for operation relating to aquatic ecology set forth in the Appendix B Environmental Technical Specifications.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of this amendment is a ministerial action required as a matter of law and that an environmental impact assessment need not be prepared.

Power Authority of the State of New York; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 28 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-64, issued to the Power Authority of the State of New York (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Indian Point Nuclear Generating Unit No. 3 (the facility) located in Buchanan, Westchester County, New York. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment revises the reactor coolant system pressure and temperature heatup and cooldown curves and adds a requirement to conduct surveillance for core reactivity anomalies.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Virginia Electric & Power Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 54 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-37 issued to Virginia Electric and Power Company, which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Surry Power Station, Unit No. 2 (the facility) located in Surry County, Virginia. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment incorporates steam generator inservice inspection requirements and reactor coolant and secondary coolant iodine radioactive concentration limits into the Technical Specifications and deletes a license condition that previously governed steam generator inspections.

These changes have been made to provide inservice inspection requirements suitable for essentially new steam generators in accordance with Regulatory Guide 1.83. Previous requirements were tailored to deteriorating steam generator tubes which were removed as a part of the steam generator repair program approved on January 19, 1979.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act) and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of these amendments will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) an environmental impact statement, or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of these amendments.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-16566; File No. SR-NYSE-77-13]

New York Stock Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29 (June 4, 1975), notice is hereby given that on January 25, 1980 the above mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Terms of Proposed Rule Changes

The proposed changes contain amendments to the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") filing (SR-NYSE-77-13) dealing with the regulation of associated persons of members of that exchange. The text of the proposed amendments is set forth below:

The New York Stock Exchange hereby amends Exhibit I of File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Exhibit 1-A of Amendment No. 1 thereto as follows. The new language italicized and deleted language [bracketed] reflect changes from the language contained in the Exhibits of the original filing and Amendment No. 1 thereto.

Rule 2—"Member," "Membership," "Member Firm," etc.

* * * * *

The term engaged in a "securities or kindred business" shall mean [acting as an investment advisor or] transacting business generally as a broker or dealer in securities, including but not limited to, servicing customer accounts or introducing them to another person.

* * * * *

Proposed New Rule 304—Allied Members and Approved Persons

(a) No person shall become or remain an allied member or an approved person unless [approved by the Board of Directors] such person meets and continues to meet the standards prescribed in the Constitution and Rules of the Exchange.

(h) Any person who controls a member or member organization or who engages in a securities or kindred business and is controlled by or under common control with a member or member organization but is not a member or allied member or an employee of a member organization shall apply for approval by the Exchange as an approved person by furnishing the Exchange with such information with respect to such applicant, its history and business, its equity-holders, officers, partners and directors, any person controlling such applicant, and such other information as the rules of the Exchange may [from time to time] require. Each such applicant shall agree to:

(1) Supply the Exchange with information with respect to such applicant's relationship and dealings with the member or member organization with which it is associated as the Exchange may reasonably require to ascertain whether the applicant is in compliance with applicable provisions of Federal Securities Laws, the rules and regulations thereunder, and the rules of the Exchange; and * * *

12 Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 304(h)(4), no applicant to become an approved person (the "applicant") or approved person which is domiciled outside the United States shall be required to permit examination by the Exchange, or any person designated by it, of the applicant's or approved person's books and records, at its place of domicile, to verify the accuracy of information required to be supplied by the rules of the Exchange whenever such examination would, in the opinion of the independent person or government official (as hereinafter specified) be contrary to the law to which the applicant or approved person is subject in its place of domicile or contrary to generally accepted custom or business practice of such place. Whenever an applicant or an approved person chooses to invoke the provisions of the preceding sentence of this paragraph, the applicant or approved person shall, at its expense, submit to the Exchange a written certification acceptable to the Exchange by a person deemed independent of the applicant or approved person and of its affiliated member organization, which person is recognized as an enrolled attorney or counselor at law in such place of domicile (the "independent person") or an appropriate governmental official of the place of domicile stating that the examination of the books and records of the applicant or approved person by the Exchange or any person designated by it at its place of domicile would be contrary to the law to which the applicant or approved person is subject in its place of domicile or contrary to generally accepted custom or business practice of such place. Whenever and so long as an approved person chooses to invoke the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph, the approved person shall, at its expense, submit to the Exchange, not less frequently than annually and upon specific request by the Exchange, a written certification acceptable to the Exchange by an independent person or a person deemed independent of the applicant or approved person and its affiliated member organization which person is recognized in the place of domicile of the applicant or approved person as an auditor stating that upon reasonable examination conducted by the said person in accordance with generally accepted practices and principles prevalent in the approved person's place of domicile, (i) in respect of any appropriately designated omnibus account carried by the affiliated member organization for the account of the approved person but not for its benefit, said independent person has no reason to believe that any of the persons on whose behalf and for whose benefit any transaction was effected therein was a person associated with the approved person or its affiliated member organization within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended (the "Act"), or the rules thereunder, and (ii) in respect of any account carried by the affiliated member organization in the name and for the account and benefit of the approved person, which account reflects transactions effected in reliance on Section 11(a)(1)(G) of the Act, the rules thereunder, and, in particular, Rule 11a1-2 thereunder, the approved person, during its preceding fiscal year, derived more than fifty percent of its gross revenues from one or more of the sources specified in Section 11(a)(G)(i) of the Act.

NYSE Statement of the Purpose of the Proposed Constitutional and Rule Changes

This section of original File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Amendment No. 1 thereto is amended by adding the following paragraphs as item F to explain the purpose of the changes contained in this amendment to the filing:

Rule 2 has been amended to remove investment advisors from the proposed definition of "securities or kindred business" thereby relieving investment advisors (who are not registered broker/dealers) controlled by or under common control with a member of the Exchange from the originally proposed requirement that they become approved persons.

Rule 304(a) has been amended to include a reference to the standards required for a person to become or remain an allied member or approved person.

Rule 304(h) has been amended by inserting the words "rules of the" in order to clarify the intent of this provision. Rule 304(h)(1) has been amended, as well, to clarify the intent of the provision.

New Rule 304.12 is proposed to provide an alternate means for compliance with the Exchange's examination of books and records requirement for approved persons (proposed in Rule 304(h)) by permitting on-site inspection of books and records for foreign situated approved persons to be conducted by independent professionals where on-site inspection by the Exchange would be contrary to local law or custom. A person deemed independent of the approved person who is an enrolled attorney or counsellor at law of the country of domicile of the approved person ("independent person") or an appropriate government official of the place of domicile would have to provide an attestation that such inspection would be contrary to law or generally accepted business practice before the alternate examination procedure would be permitted to be utilized. The examination and certification to the Exchange of the examination results must be accomplished by an "independent person" or a person deemed independent of the approved person who is recognized in the place of domicile as an auditor.

Rule 311(b) has been amended to rescind the requirement that a majority of the directors of a member corporation be members or allied members to allow member corporations greater discretion in selecting directors. Inside directors would still be required to be members or allied members and outside directors would have to become approved persons.

Rule 312(e) has been amended to incorporate standards by which an exception to the requirement that "no person shall be a member or allied member in a member organization unless all persons required to be approved by the Exchange are so approved" could be permitted.

NYSE Statement of the Basis Under the Act for Adoption of the Proposed Amendments

The following is added to this section of the filing as indicated.

(i) The proposed amendment to Rule 304.12 establishing an alternate means for compliance with on-site examination of books and records requirements by foreign domiciled approved persons is consistent with Section 6(b)(1) of the Act. The amendment will permit the Exchange to fulfill its responsibility to enforce compliance by persons associated with members with the Act, the rules and regulations thereunder, and the rules of the Exchange where on-site Exchange examination is inconsistent with local law or custom.

(ii) The rescission of the requirement that a majority of the directors of a member corporation be members or allied members (Rule 311(b)(1)), and the deletion of "Investment advisor" from the proposed definition of "engaged in a securities or kindred business" (Rule 2) are consistent with Section 6(b)(2) of the Act in that the ability of a person to become associated with a member or member organization will be enhanced.

(In addition, the standards for becoming or remaining a member, allied member or approved person incorporated in the amendments to Rules 304(a), 304(b)(1) and 312(e), are consistent with Section 6(b)(2) of the Act in that standards for becoming associated with a member or member organization are established in accordance with the provisions of Section 6(c) of the Act.

The above constitute the only changes to File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Amendment No. 1 thereto.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submission will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Dated: February 12, 1980.

[Release No. 34-16575; File No. SR-Amex-79-21]

American Stock Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organization; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 (June 4, 1975), notice is hereby given that on December 4, 1979 the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The American Stock Exchange proposed to amend Rule 471 regarding business expansion restrictions and business reduction requirements, as set forth below. (Material indicated by [brackets] is proposed to be deleted; underlined material is proposed to be added.)

Business Expansion Restrictions and Business Reduction Requirements

Rule 471. (a) A member organization which carries customer accounts shall not expand its business during any period in which any of the following conditions continue to exist [for more than 15 consecutive business days], which period will commence the later of (i) 15 consecutive business days after the condition exists, or (ii) 5 consecutive business days after the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition:

(i) Its net capital is less than 150 percent of its minimum requirement or such greater percentage as may from time to time be prescribed by the Exchange, or

(ii) If subject to this requirement, its aggregate indebtedness is more than 1,000 per centum of its net capital, or

(iii) If in lieu of (ii) above, the specified percentage of the aggregate debit items in the Formula for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (the alternative net capital requirement) is applicable, its net capital is less than 7 percent of the aggregate debit items thereunder, or

(iv) Capital withdrawals including maturities scheduled during the next six months would result in the condition described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, or

(v) The Exchange restricts the member organization.

(b) A member organization which carries customer accounts shall forthwith reduce its business to a point enabling its available capital to meet the standards of paragraph (a) [if for more than 15 consecutive business days], commencing the later of (i) 15 consecutive business days after any of the following conditions continue to exist, or (ii) 5 consecutive business days after the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition:

(i) Its net capital is less than 125 percent of its minimum requirement or such greater percentage as may from time to time be prescribed by the Exchange, or

(ii) If subject to this requirement, its aggregate indebtedness is more than 1,200 per centum of its capital, or

(iii) If in lieu of (ii) above, the specified percentage of the aggregate debit items in the Formula for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (the alternative net capital requirement) is applicable, its net capital is less than 6 percent of the aggregate debit items thereunder, or

(iv) Capital withdrawals including maturities scheduled during the next six months would result in the condition described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, or

(v) The Exchange restricts the member organization.

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing rule change is as follows: Rule 471 authorizes the Exchange to impose certain restrictions on a member organization experiencing capital difficulties, but which is not yet in violation of Rule 470, the Exchange's net capital rule (which incorporates by reference SEC Rule 15c3-1, the uniform net capital rule). Rule 471(a) prohibits a member organization which carries customer accounts from expanding its business during any period in which any of five specified conditions relating to its capital position exist for more than 15 consecutive business days. Rule 471(b) requires a member organization to reduce its business to the extent necessary for its available capital to meet the standards of Rule 471(a), if any of five other, more serious, conditions exist for more than 15 consecutive business days.¹

¹ The two sets of conditions are set forth in subparagraphs (a)(i)-(v) and (b)(i)-(v) of Rule 471—see above.

Normally, a member organization discovers a capital problem within 15 days after it arises and attempts to rectify the problem within this period. However, under Rule 471, if the existence of a specified condition is for some reason not discovered by the member organization until after the 15-day period, the member organization must immediately comply with the applicable business restriction, even though additional capital may be readily available to correct the condition once it is discovered. This aspect of the rule imposes an unnecessary hardship.

The proposed amendment to Rule 471 would allow a member organization at least five business days to take corrective action after the condition is discovered. The amendment, which is similar to a change made recently by the New York Stock Exchange and approved by the Commission, imposes the restrictions of Rule 471(a) and (b) as soon as one or more of the specified conditions has existed for more than 15 days, provided that the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition at least five business days previously.²

The proposed amendment is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act in general and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(1) and 6(b)(5) of the Act in particular in that it enables the Exchange to enforce compliance by its members with Exchange and SEC financial responsibility rules and provides for the protection of investors and the public interest.

Comments Received From Members, Participants or Others on Proposed Rule Change

No comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

Burden on Competition

The proposed amendment, by relaxing the restrictive operation of Rule 471, will enhance competition since the applicable restrictions will now not take effect as quickly, thereby allowing member firms to avoid unnecessary interruptions of their operations.

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer periods to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents, the commission will:

² The amendment to NYSE Rule 326 (approved by SEC Release No. 34-16113 dated August 20, 1979), imposes the rule's restrictions as soon as one or more conditions has existed for more than 15 days, provided such condition has been known to the Exchange for at least five consecutive business days.

(A) by order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

BILLING CODE 8010-01-M

[Release No. 34-16578; Filed No. SR-CBOE-80-2]

Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Changes

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 (June 4, 1975), notice hereby is given that on January 29, 1980 the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the following proposed rule changes. They implement the Uniform Code of Arbitration (Code), created by the Securities Industry Conference on Arbitration (SICA), as Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, (Exchange) Rules 18.3 through 18.33.

Exchange' Statement of Basis and Purpose

Proposed rules 18.3 through 18.33 are the Uniform Code of Arbitration created by SICA to assure the prompt and fair handling of claims. The Securities and Exchange Commission has reviewed the Code. Each SICA participant, including this Exchange, is in the process of formally submitting the Code to the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 19b-4 thereunder. Proposed rules 18.1 and 18.2 are changed in order to cover Exchange arbitration procedures not covered by the Code.

The addition to Rules 18.1 (a) and (b) requires the approval of the Exchange's Director of Arbitration in connection with the submission of a member or nonmember claim; this requirement ensures that the claim is suitable for arbitration and that the Exchange has jurisdiction of the claim. New section (c) of Rule 18.1 provides for the review by the Board of Directors or a panel of the Board of Directors of such decisions made by the Director of Arbitration. Old section (c) is omitted to eliminate from matters subject to arbitration, employment disputes between members and their employees. Finally, Interpretation and Policy .03 is omitted because the time and place of hearing are determined under proposed Rule 18.16.

Rule 18.2 provides procedures in member controversies for the selection of arbitrators by the chairman of the arbitration committee and the use of a reasonable number of peremptory challenges. It also applies the provisions of the Uniform Arbitration Code to member controversies where those provisions are applicable.

The proposed rule changes are part of an industry-wide attempt to provide a fair, efficient, and relatively inexpensive method of settling disputes in order to protect investors and the public interest and to promote just and equitable principles of trade pursuant to section 6 (b) (5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

No comments on these proposed rule changes were solicited or received by the Exchange.

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule changes will impose any burden on competition.

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room; 1100 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

[Release No. 11049; File No. 812-4613]

Eberstadt Asset Management, Inc., and Eberstadt Fund Management, Inc.; Filing of Application and Order of Temporary Exemption Pending Determination of the Application

February 15, 1980.

Notice is hereby given that Eberstadt Asset Management Inc. ("EAM") and Eberstadt Fund Management Inc. ("EFM"), 61 Broadway, New York, New York 10006, their officers, directors and employees (hereafter also called "Applicants") have filed an application pursuant to Section 9(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. 80a-1, et seq., as amended (the "Act") for an order exempting them from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent such section is applicable, and have requested that the Commission grant a temporary exemption from Section 9(a) pending the Commission's determination of the application for permanent exemption. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations therein which are summarized below.

Applicants are Delaware corporations engaged in the business of advising investment companies and corporate pension and profit sharing plans.

In March 1978, EAM (then called F. Eberstadt & Co., Inc. ("Eberstadt")) and EFM (then called F. Eberstadt & Co., Managers & Distributors, Inc. ("M&D")) were named as co-defendants in Civil Action No. 78-1055 brought by the Commission in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "action"). Eberstadt acted as financial advisers to Sun Company, Inc. in connection with the private purchases by LHIW, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sun, of approximately 34% of the outstanding common stock of Becton, Dickinson and Company in January 1978. The Commission's complaint alleges, inter alia, that LHIW's purchases were not made in compliance with Section 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and that certain defendants constituted a "group" prior to January 1978 which violated Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act by failing to file a timely Schedule 13D in connection therewith. The trial on the issue of liability was completed and the court held, inter alia, that Eberstadt and M&D had violated Section 13(d), and that Eberstadt had aided and abetted violations of Section 14(d) of the Exchange Act, and that Eberstadt had violated and M&D had aided and abetted violation of Sections 17(d) and 17(e) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "Act").

Applicants entered into a stipulation of settlement with the Commission and agreed to the entry by the court of an order terminating the action against them with prejudice and requiring them to comply with the stipulation of settlement (the "Order").

Section 9(a) of the Act, insofar as is pertinent here, disqualifies any person, or any company with which such person is affiliated, from acting in the capacity of employee, officer, director, member of any advisory board, investment adviser, or depositor for any registered investment company, or principal underwriter for any registered open-end company, registered unit investment trust, or registered face-amount certificate company, if such person is by reason of any misconduct enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security. EAM and EFM do not concede that the Order would disqualify them under Section 9(a).

Section 9(c) provides that upon application the Commission shall grant an exemption from the provisions of Section 9(a) either unconditionally or on an appropriate temporary or other conditional basis if it is established that the prohibitions of Section 9(a), as applied to the applicant, are unduly or disproportionately severe or that the conduct of such person has been such as not to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant such application.

EAM and EFM have submitted pursuant to Section 9(c) that the prohibitions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent they may be applicable to them by virtue of the entry of the Order, would be unduly and disproportionately severe as applied to them and that their conduct was not such as to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant this exemption. In support thereof, EAM and EFM represented that:

(i) The opinion of the court on liability dealt with complex and uncertain areas of the law and constituted in major respects a case of first impression. Applicants relied throughout the transactions at issue on the advice of independent and competent counsel.

(ii) Applicants have never been enjoined, permanently or temporarily, by order, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(iii) EAM and EFM have never before applied for an exemption from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act.

(iv) Subsequent to the events and transactions which gave rise to Civil Action No. 78-1055, Eberstadt underwent a complete reorganization including a change in ownership and the divestiture of its brokerage and investment banking business. Eberstadt's investment advisory businesses, renamed EAM and EFM, were acquired by and are now controlled by Marsh & McLennan Asset Management Company, whose affiliates include other registered investment companies and advisers. Because of this sale and change of ownership, the prohibitions of Section 9(a) would operate against the financial interests of parties not involved in the events and transactions which gave rise to the Order.

(v) The prohibitions of Section 9(a) would unjustifiably deprive EAM & EFM and affiliated persons of their ability to act as investment advisers for investment companies, a line of business which EFM and affiliates have been successfully engaged in many years. Applicants and companies affiliated with them manage billions of dollars of funds. The prohibitions of Section 9(a) would cause extreme and undue hardship and disruptions to those persons and entities who have entrusted the management of their funds to Applicants and their affiliates.

(vi) EAM and EFM have relied on the Commission's staff's agreement to recommend a temporary exemption from the prohibitions of Section 9(a) in entering into a settlement of the action.

The Commission has considered the matter and finds that:

(1) The prohibitions of Section 9(a), to the extent they may be applicable, may be unduly or disproportionately severe as applied to EAM and EFM in that their conduct has been such as not to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant the application for a temporary exemption from Section 9(a) pending determination of the application; and

(2) in order to maintain the uninterrupted services provided by EAM and EFM and affiliated persons to regulated investment companies and other managed accounts, it is necessary and appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act that the temporary order be issued forthwith.

Accordingly, it is ordered, Pursuant to Section 9(c) of the Act, that EAM and EFM including their directors, officers, and employees, be and they are hereby temporarily exempted from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act pending final determination by the Commission of EAM's and EFM's application for an order exempting them from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent they may be applicable.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than March 17, 1980 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Willkie Farr & Gallagher, One Citicorp Center, 153 East 53rd Street, New York, New York 10022. Proof of such service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided in Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

By the Commission.
George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 8010-01-M

[Release No. 11048; 812-4523]

Finance Co. of Pennsylvania; Filing of Application Exempting a Proposed Transaction From the Prohibitions

February 14, 1980.

Notice is hereby given that The Finance Company of Pennsylvania ("Applicant"), 7 East Lancaster Avenue, Ardmore, Pennsylvania 19003, an open-end, non-diversified investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), filed an application on August 23, 1979, and an amendment thereto on January 30, 1980, for an order, pursuant to Section 17(b) of the Act, exempting from the prohibitions of Section 17(a) of the Act Applicant's sale of 5,175 shares of Common Stock ("Shares") to South Chester Tube Company ("South Chester") for $5,806,350 in cash and a note. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below.

The application states that South Chester is a Pennsylvania corporation which conducts its operations through its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, principally through Southco, Inc., and to a much lesser extent through Tacony Industrial Park, Inc. Southco, Inc.'s principal business is the manufacture and sale of specialty industrial fasteners. Tacony Industrial Park, Inc.'s principal asset is an industrial park which it leases to other parties. South Chester's presently issued and outstanding Common Stock consists of 20,000 shares, $50 par value, each share having identical rights and privileges. There are no other classes of stock of South Chester issued and outstanding.

Applicant states that the Shares owned by it represent approximately 25.875 percent of South Chester's presently outstanding Common Stock and represent approximately 35.66 percent of Applicant's total assets as of June 30, 1979. Applicant admits that since it owns more than 5 percent of the presently outstanding shares of South Chester Common Stock, Applicant and South Chester are deemed to be affiliated persons of each other under Section 2(a)(3) of the Act. Furthermore, Applicant admits that since persons who own more than 5 percent of Applicant's outstanding Common Stock also own Common Stock of South Chester, the proposed transaction does not qualify for the exemption provided by Rule 17a-6 under the Act.

Applicant submits that in 1977, South Chester initially approached Applicant regarding a possible purchase by South

Chester of up to 4,000 shares of South Chester's Common Stock for $735 per share, which shares South Chester proposed to transfer to a subsidiary's employee stock ownership plan. Because the Shares constituted such a significant percentage of Applicant's total assets and Applicant's investment policy contemplates that no more than 25 percent of the value of its portfolio shall be invested in the securities of one issuer, Applicant states that it seriously considered South Chester's proposal. However, no agreement between Applicant and South Chester regarding the sale of any of the Shares was concluded in 1977.

In 1978, Applicant submits that it attempted to interest a third party in purchasing the Shares and to enlist the aid of other South Chester stockholders in voting for the sale of South Chester's assets to a third party. Due to the opposition of other South Chester stockholders, Applicant states that it was not successful in these efforts. Also during 1978, Applicant states that it received preliminary inquiries from various parties concerning the purchase of the South Chester shares owned by Applicant, but no definitive offers were received. Applicant represents that at this time it first became apparent to Applicant that none of these potential purchasers was interested in any transaction other than one involving substantially all of South Chester's Common Stock or substantially all of its assets. Applicant submits that since it lacked the power to effect such a transaction and since the Board of Directors of South Chester was not willing to enter into such a transaction, for all practical purposes the only likely purchaser for the Shares was South Chester.

Because of Applicant's continuing belief that the sale of the Shares to South Chester was the only viable means for disposition of the Shares at a fair price, negotiations between Applicant and South Chester resumed in the Spring of 1979, and resulted in the execution of a Stock Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") dated July 24, 1979. Applicant states that the Agreement was authorized and approved by the respective Boards of Directors of Applicant and South Chester.

The Agreement provides that Applicant will sell, and South Chester will purchase, the Shares for an aggregate consideration of $5,806,350, or $1,122 per share. The Agreement further provides for alternative payment terms. Under alternative (a) if Applicant receives an opinion from its investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm that the value of the South Chester note will not exceed 25 percent of the value of Applicant's total assets on the closing date, Applicant will obtain (i) a cash payment in the amount of $1,740,000 at closing (just under 30 percent of the total consideration in order that the transaction can qualify as an installment sale for Federal income tax purposes), and (ii) the delivery of South Chester's promissory note in the principal amount of $4,066,350, with interest payable quarterly at the rate of 9½ percent per annum on the principal amount from time to time outstanding and with the principal amount payable in an installment of $1,591,350 on January 15, 1981, and installments of $825,000 on January 15 of each of the years 1982, 1983 and 1984.

Under alternative (b) if Applicant's investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm is not able to furnish the opinion referred to in (a) above, Applicant will obtain (i) a cash payment of $2,506,350 at the closing (plus such additional amount but not in excess of $250,000 as is necessary to reduce the principal amount of the note hereinafter described to an amount not in excess of 25 percent of the value of Applicant's total assets on the date of closing), and (ii) the delivery of South Chester's promissory note in the principal amount of $3,300,000 (assuming no portion of the $250,000 is paid), with interest payable quarterly at the rate of 9½ percent per annum on the principal amount from time to time outstanding and with the principal amount payable in four equal installments on January 15th of each of the years 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984 (with provision for decrease in the first maturing installment by an amount equal to the amount of any increase in the initial cash payment).

Applicant states that consummation of the sale of the Shares is conditioned, among other things, upon receipt of (1) an order from the Commission exempting the sale from the provisions of Section 17(a) of the Act; (2) an opinion of special counsel to Applicant, or rulings from the Internal Revenue Service if deemed advisable by such special counsel, to the effect that (i) the sale will not adversely affect Applicant's present status as a regulated investment company for Federal income tax purposes, (ii) the proceeds from the sale will qualify for capital gains treatment for Federal income tax purposes, and (iii) if payment alternative (a) in the preceding paragraph becomes operative, the sale will be treated as an installment sale for Federal income tax purposes; and (3) an opinion of counsel to South Chester as to certain other specified matters.

Applicant represents that since there is no trading market for the Shares, its Board of Directors has traditionally established a fair value for the Shares. Applicant states that as of June 30, 1979, this fair value was $5,516,550 or $1,066 per share. Likewise, Applicant states that its investment adviser, as of May 2, 1979, valued the Shares at $1,066 per share. Those valuations included a 25 percent reduction based on the illiquidity of the issue.

Applicant further represents that it retained Janney Montgomery Scott, an independent investment banking firm, to advise it on the possible sale and the fairness of any price negotiated for the Shares by Applicant and South Chester. Applicant states that by letter dated August 8, 1979, the investment banking firm stated its opinion that $1,122 per share represents a fair price for the Shares. Applicant also submits that Coopers & Lybrand arrived at a valuation of $1,122 per share, primarily based upon earnings multiples from the specialty fastener industry (South Chester's primary business).

Applicant admits that the valuation of securities is, of course, not an exact science. Applicant states that based upon (i) the limited opportunities for sale available to Applicant; (ii) the independent judgment of Applicant's Board of Directors; and (iii) the professional investment advice received by Applicant and South Chester, the price it will receive for the Shares and the terms upon which such price will be paid are fair.

Applicant states that because South Chester was willing to entertain the transaction only on the basis that all of the Shares would be sold at the Closing, it initially sought payment of the entire purchase price in cash at the time the Shares were to be sold. Applicant states that South Chester refused this request, citing its need to conserve cash for anticipated expansion and its normal working capital requirements. Applicant believes that it was prudent to receive interest on the installments until paid at the rate of 9½%, particularly since this interest income would be effectively replacing dividends on the Shares, which have been recently yielding approximately 5%. Applicant states that the interest rate was negotiated at the end of June, 1979 and the parties agreed to a rate equal to that paid by General Motors Acceptance Corporation ("GMAC") with respect to its notes having a three-to-five year maturity sold most recent to the end of the week preceding June 25, 1979. Both Applicant and South Chester believe that the interest rate selected was fair to both parties in that the GMAC rate was representative of interest rates then being paid for borrowings on a medium term basis by highly creditworthy borrowers. Applicant recognizes that although GMAC and South Chester are in different businesses (a finance company versus a manufacturing company), Applicant feels that the interest rate negotiated is an appropriate recognition of South Chester's ability to make the installment payments as and when they become due. Applicant represents that South Chester presently has no indebtedness outstanding. Nevertheless, Applicant submits that the note will become immediately due and payable if the retained earnings of South Chester as of the close of any calendar quarter are less than 200% of the unpaid principal balance of the note.

Applicant represents that the South Chester note will be carried in Applicant's financial statements at a fair value as determined by Applicant's Board of Directors. Applicant further represents that the Board of Directors expects to be advised on this question by its investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm selected by it, which will utilize accepted valuation techniques consistent with Applicant's policy for the valuation of securities. Such fair value will be determined as of the date of issuance of this note and from time to time in the future depending upon prevailing interest rates which cannot now be predicted.

Section 17(a) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that it is unlawful for any affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, acting as principal, knowingly to sell any security or other property to, or knowingly to purchase any security or other property from, such registered company. Section 17(b) of the Act provides, however, that the Commission, upon application, shall exempt a transaction from such prohibition if evidence established that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned and with the general purposes of the Act.

Applicant asserts that the terms of the proposed transaction are fair and reasonable, and that the $1,122 per share purchase price for the Shares is a fair and reasonable price based on the appraisals of the Shares by Applicant's investment adviser, Janney Montgomery Scott, and Coopers & Lybrand. Furthermore, Applicant believes that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of Applicant and with the general purposes of the Act and is in Applicant's best interests in that it will enable Applicant to diversify its assets and more closely adhere to its stated investment policies. Accordingly, Applicant requests that an order of exemption be granted under Section 17(b) of the Act with respect to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 10, 1980, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing, a request for a hearing on the application accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein will be issued as of course following said date unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing, or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

.03 No change from original filing.

.04 No change from original filing.

.05 No change from original filing.

.06 Reports of accounts and orders

required to be filed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Rule relate only to accounts in which a Market-Maker, individually, directly or indirectly, controls trading activities or has a direct interest in the profits or losses of such accounts. Thus, reports would be required for accounts over which a Market-Maker exercises investment discretion as well as for his proprietary accounts. [Reports would not be required simply because a Market-Maker has a passive interest in his firm's proprietary accounts.] For purposes of this Rule, related securities include securities convertible into or exchangeable for underlying securities.

Article XLVIII

Opening of Accounts

Rule 3. (a) No change from original filing.

(b) No change from original filing.

(c) No change from original filing.

(d) No change from original filing.

¹ Notice of filing of the proposed rule changes was given by publication of a Commission release (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 16254, October 5, 1979) and by publication in the Federal Register (44 FR 59974, October 17, 1979).

(e) No change from original filing.

. . . Interpretations and Policies:

.01 In fulfilling its obligations pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Rule with respect to options customers that are natural persons, a member organization shall seek to obtain the following information at a minimum (information shall be obtained for all participants in a joint account):

1. No change from original filing.

2. No change from original filing.

3. No change from original filing.

4. No change from original filing.

5. No change from original filing.

6. No change from original filing.

Article XLVIII

Statements of Accounts to Customers

Rule 11. [Statements of account shall be sent not less frequently than once every month to each customer in whose account there has been an entry during the preceding month with respect to an option contract. The statement shall bear a legend requesting the customer to promptly advise the member of any material change in the customer's investment or objectives or financial situation.] Every member organization shall send to its customers statements of account showing security and money positions, entries, interest charges and any special charges that have been assessed against such account during the period covered by the statement; provided, however, that such charges need not be specifically delineated on the statement if they are otherwise accounted for on the statement and have been itemized on transaction confirmations. With respect to options customers having a general (margin) account, such statement shall also provide the mark-to-market price and market value of each options position and other security position in the general (margin) account, the total market value of all positions in the account, the outstanding debit or credit balance in the account, and the general (margin) account equity. The statement shall bear a legend stating that further information with respect to commissions and other charges related to the execution of listed option transactions has been included in confirmations of such transactions previously furnished to the customer, and that such information will be made available to the customer promptly upon request. The statement shall also bear a legend requesting the customer to promptly advise the member of any material change in the customer's investment objectives or financial situation. Such statements of account shall be sent at least quarterly to all accounts having a money or a security position during the preceding quarter and at least monthly to all accounts having an entry during the preceding month.

. . . Interpretations and Policies:

.01 For purposes of the foregoing rule, general (margin) account equity shall be computed by subtracting the total of the "short" security values and any debit balance from the total of the "long" security values and any credit balance.

Article XLVIII

Supervision of Accounts

Rule 4. (a) [Delete paragraph (a) from original filing.] Duty to Supervise; Senior Registered Options Principal. Every member organization shall develop and implement a written program for the review of the organization's non-member customer accounts and all orders in such accounts, insofar as such accounts and orders relate to option contracts. This program shall be under the supervision of a designated Senior Registered Options Principal who is specifically identified to the Exchange and who is an officer (in the case of a corporation) or general partner (in the case of a partnership) of the member organization.

(b) No change from original filing.

(c) No change from original filing.

(d) No change from original filing.

. . . Interpretations and Policies:

.01 No change from original filing.

.02 No change from original filing.

.03 Each member organization shall maintain, at the principal supervisory office having jurisdiction over the office servicing the customer's account, information to permit review of each customer's options account on a timely basis to determine (i) the compatibility of options transactions with investment objectives and with the types of transactions for which the account was approved; (ii) the size and frequency of options transactions; (iii) commission activity in the account; (iv) profit or loss in the account; (v) undue concentration in any option class or classes; and (vi) compliance with the provisions of Regulation T of the Federal Reserve Board.

Article XIII

Communications to Customers

Rule 4. (a) General Rule. No member or member organization or person associated with a member [and no partner or employee thereof,] shall utilize any advertisement, sales literature or other communications to any customer[s] or member of the public concerning options which:

- (i) No change from original filing.
- (ii) No change from original filing.
- (iii) No change from original filing.
- (iv) No change from original filing.
- (v) No change from original filing.

- (b) No change from original filing.
- (c) No change from original filing.
- (d) No change from original filing.
- (e) No change from original filing.

... Interpretations and Policies:

.01 The special risks attendant to options transactions and the complexities of certain options investment strategies shall be reflected in any advertisement or sales literature [communications] which discusses the uses or advantages of options. All advertisements and sales literature discussing the use of options should include a warning to the effect that options are not for everyone. In the preparation of written communications respecting options, the following guidelines should be observed:

A. No change from original filing.

B. It should not be suggested that options are suitable for all investors. [All communications discussing the use of options should include the warning to the effect that options are not for everyone.]

C. No change from original filing.

.02 No change from original filing.

.03 Written communications (other than advertisements) pertaining to options shall conform to the following standards:

A. [Such communications] Sales literature shall state that supporting documentation for any claims (including any claims made on behalf of options programs or options expertise of sales persons), comparisons, recommendations, statistics or other technical data, will be supplied upon request.

B. No change from original filing.

C. Such communications may feature records and statistics which portray the performance of past recommendations or of actual transactions of the member organization (but not of an individual Registered Representative), provided that:

(i) any such portrayal is done in a balanced manner, and consists of records or statistics that are [must be] confined to a specific "universe" that can be fully isolated and circumscribed and that covers at least the most recent 12-month period;

(ii) such communications include [or offer to provide] the date of each initial recommendation or transaction as of such date, and the date and price of each recommendation or transaction at the end of the period or when liquidation was suggested or effected, whichever was earlier; provided that if the communications are limited to summarized or averaged records or statistics, in lieu of the complete record there may be included the number of items recommended or transacted, the number that advanced and the number that declined, together with an offer to provide the complete record upon request;

(iii) No change from original filing.

[(iv)] in the event such records or statistics are summarized or averaged such communications include the number of items recommended or transacted, the number that advanced and the number that declined;]

[(v)] (iv) No change from original filing.

[(vi)] (v) No change from original filing.

[(vii)] (vi) No change from original filing.

D. No change from original filing.

E. No change from original filing.

F. If a member organization has adopted a standard form of worksheet for a particular options strategy, non-standard worksheets for that strategy may not be used.

[F.] G. No change from original filing.

Educational Circular Under Article VIII, Rule 7

Front-Running of Blocks

This educational circular presents the Exchange's enforcement policy with respect to certain practices generally referred to as "front-running of blocks". Because a block transaction in an underlying security may have an impact on the market for that security or the options covering that security (or vice versa), the Exchange would be concerned if its members were to engage in the practice of trading in options or in underlying securities when they are in possession of material non-public information concerning block transactions in these securities. In keeping with its responsibility to assure the fairness of its market, the Exchange wishes to emphasize that this kind of activity on the part of market professionals is conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade and will be dealt with in enforcement proceedings under Chapter XVII.

Although it is not possible to provide an all-inclusive definition of front-running in all of its forms, the Exchange believes that it is important to provide standards describing the kind of conduct that will not be permitted, both in order to provide guidance for members and to avoid interfering with entirely legitimate transactions that do not involve front-running. For this purpose, the Exchange has prepared this educational circular discussing the kind of conduct involving the front-running of blocks that would be considered to be in violation of Article VIII, Rule 7. It must be recognized that the following discussion of prohibited conduct is not exclusive, and that conduct not specifically described in this circular may nonetheless constitute front-running that comes within the broad prohibition of Article VIII, Rule 7. Although this circular concentrates on proprietary trading of members, front-running violations may also occur in certain agency situations, such as where a member passes on non-public information concerning block transactions to a customer who then trades on the basis of the information.

The Exchange considers it to be conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade in violation of Rule Article VIII, Rule 7 for a member or person associated with a member for an account in which such member or person has an interest, or for an account with respect to which such member or person exercises investment discretion, to cause to be executed:

(1) an order to buy or sell an option when such member or person causing such order to be executed has knowledge of a block transaction in the underlying security, or

(2) an order to buy or sell an underlying security when such member or person causing such order to be executed has knowledge of a block transaction in an option covering that security,

prior to the time information concerning the block transaction has been made publicly available. Front-running may be based upon knowledge of less than

all of the terms of the transaction, so long as there is knowledge that all of the material terms of the transaction have been or will imminently be agreed upon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a member firm receives at or about the same time a customer's order of block size relating to both an option and the underlying security, the member may position the other side of one or both components of the order, subject to applicable exchange rules governing crosses. However, the member firm would not be able to cover any resulting proprietary position by entering an offsetting order until information concerning all block transactions involved has been made publicly available.

The application of this circular is limited to transactions that are required to be reported on the last sale reporting systems administered by CTA or OPRA, and information as to a block transaction shall be considered to be publicly available when it has been disseminated via the tape or high speed communication line of one of those systems. Public outcry on the Exchange Floor shall not be deemed to make such information publicly available except in unusual circumstances with the advance approval of two Floor Officials.

A transaction involving 10,000 shares or more of an underlying security or options covering such number of shares shall be conclusively deemed to be a block transaction, although transactions of less than 10,000 shares may also be block transactions in appropriate cases. A block transaction that has been agreed upon does not lose its identity as such by arranging partial execution of the transaction in portions which themselves are not of block size. In this situation, the requirement that information concerning the transaction be made publicly available will not be satisfied until the entire block transaction has been completed and publicly reported.

¹The Exchange may grant members additional time to comply with certain of these rules on a case-by-case basis, but no extension of time will be granted for more than 6 months after the effectiveness of the rule in question as stated in this table. In granting or denying requests for extensions of time the Exchange will act jointly with other self-regulatory organizations that have comparable rules insofar as the requesting parties are members of the Exchange and such other SROs.

²Within 12 months following their effectiveness as stated in this table, Rules 3(a), (b), (d) and (e) of Article XLVIII must be complied with in respect of customers' accounts that were approved for options transactions prior to the effectiveness of these rules in order for those accounts to remain so approved.

SRO's Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing proposed rule change is as follows:

This amendment to the original filing (SE-MSE-79-18) is for the purpose of proposing rules amendments in response to certain recommendations of the Special Study of Options Markets that were not addressed in the original filing, as well as proposing certain editorial and minor substantive amendments to previously filed proposals.

The statutory basis for all of these proposed rule changes remains as stated in the original filing. The purpose of each of the substantive proposed rule changes included in this filing is as follows:

Rule 3, Article XLVIII The minimum information that must be reflected in customers account records has been expanded to include whether the account is approved for discretionary orders.

Rule 11, Article XLVIII In response to Options Study Recommendation 1.A.2.a., we propose to revise Rule 11 to expand the information which member organizations must disclose in the statement sent to customers having a general (margin) account. By limiting this requirement to margin accounts, the information will be furnished to most options customers without imposing undue burdens on member firms. The proposal will require that statements of margin accounts sent to such customers reflect the mark-to-the-market price and market value for all security positions in the account, the total of market value of all positions in the account, the debit (or credit) balance, and account equity. We have defined general (margin) account equity in proposed Interpretation .01 to Rule 11 as the difference between the total of long security values, including any credit balance, and the total of short security values, including any debit balance.

Finally, we propose to require a legend on account statements to the effect that information concerning commissions and other charges has been included in confirmations, and will be furnished to customers upon request.

Rule 4, Article XLVIII Options Study recommendation 1.A.2.e. calls for the adoption of rules requiring that the headquarters office of every options broker-dealer be in a position to timely review each customer's account to determine the extent of commissions and realized and unrealized losses relative to account equity, the existence of usual credit extensions and unusual account risks or trading patterns.

In response, Rule 4 is proposed to be revised to impose in explicit terms the obligation for firms to develop and implement headquarters account review procedures, and to impose record-keeping requirements to facilitate such review. Recognizing the decentralized supervisory structure which many large securities firms have adopted, the proposed amendment is keyed to review by the "principal supervisory office having jurisdiction over the officer supervising the customer's account."

Rule 4, Article XIII The proposed rule amendments as previously filed regarding customer communications have been modified in certain respects. First, the general rule regarding customer communications in paragraph (a) of the Rule has been clarified to cover communications by persons associated with member organizations and to apply to communications with an individual customer or member of the public. Also, the applicability of the various standards of the rule to different categories of communications (advertising, sales literature and other communications) has been further clarified to emphasize that representations concerning past performance must be made in a balanced manner and must pertain to the member organization as a whole. Representations concerning the past performance of a particular registered representative are, thus, prohibited. We have also added specific requirements concerning the furnishing of supporting detail whenever statements involving past performance are made. Finally, a new requirement has been added to Interpretation .02 to Rule 4 barring the use of non-standard options worksheets where a member organization has adopted a standard form of worksheet for a particular options strategy.

SRO's Statement on Burden on Competition

MSE does not believe that the rule changes proposed in this Amendment No. 5 to File No. SR-MSE-79-18 will impose any burdens on competition.

SRO's Statement on Comments Received

MSE does not believe that the rule changes proposed in this Amendment No. 5 to File No. SR-MSE-79-18 will impose any burdens on competition.

Comments on rule changes previously proposed were summarized in MSE's prior filing SR MSE-79-18. Editorial revisions to those proposals reflected herein were not submitted to members for comments. Comments on proposed rule changes presented herein for the first time were solicited in response to a preliminary draft of the proposals that were mailed to member firms.

Date of Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding, or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents the Commission will:

(a) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(b) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, NW., Washington D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

February 14, 1980.

National Securities Clearing Corp.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78s (b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 (June 4, 1975), notice is hereby given that on February 8, 1980, the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change.

The proposed rule change, which shall only be effective until one year from the date of publication in the Federal Register (February 23, 1981), is as follows:

Rule 5 Section 4

The Corporation may, in its discretion, require Settling Members to provide appropriate staff in their offices during specified hours on non-clearing days when such is deemed necessary by the Corporation to insure the integrity of its systems and/or for the protection of the Corporation.

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing proposed rule change is as follows:

To facilitate the daily flow of work through our Settling Members during periods of abnormally high trading volume or other emergency situations.

NSCC Rule 2 Section 3 provides that when NSCC approves an applicant for membership in NSCC, the applicant must (ii) demonstrate "that it has adequate personnel capable of handling transactions with the Corporation * * * and to meet the operational requirements of, the Corporation and other Settling Members with necessary promptness and accuracy and to conform to any condition and requirement which the Corporation reasonably deems necessary for its protection * * *."

The proposed rule states, with specificity, one of the means that NSCC has determined is appropriate, during exceptional times such as record volume days, to protect NSCC, to insure the integrity of its systems and to insure the prompt and accurate clearance and million pounds to 570 million pounds. Based on these capacity estimates, Canada operated at 70 percent of capacity in both years. Over 90 percent of Canadian output of frozen potato products in 1977 and 1978 was for consumption in Canada. McCain Foods, Ltd., which in 1978 held about half the Canadian capacity to produce frozen potato products, * * * (deletion of confidential information relating to the operations of McCain Foods, Ltd.)

3. U.S. consumption of frozen potato products nearly doubled during the past decade. During 1975-78 annual apparent consumption rose by nearly 900 million pounds to 3.9 billion pounds, an increase of 29 percent. In the first 6 months of 1979, such consumption was only slightly less than that in the first 6 months of 1978. U.S. per capita consumption of frozen potato products rose from 11.1 pounds in 1970 to 17.6 pounds in 1978, equivalent to an average annual rate of growth of 5.9 percent; between 1975 and 1978 per capita consumption rose at an annual rate of 8.1 percent.

4. According to a memorandum (dated December 31, 1979) from the Director, Office of Policy, Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Treasury for Trade Administration, to the General Counsel of the Treasury, the approximate aggregate net benefit accruing to the subject frozen potato products under the various Canadian programs was 2.41 percent ad valorem, f.o.b. value of plant shipments.

5. the report of the House Committee on Ways and Means on the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 states (at page 47) that "With regard to the standard for a threat of material injury, the Committee intends that the ITC affirmative determination shall be based upon evidence showing that the threat is real and imminent and not upon mere supposition or conjecture." (italics added). Similarly, the report of the Senate Committee on Finance on the act states (pages 88 and 89) that "An ITC affirmative determination with respect to threat of material injury must be based upon information showing that the threat is real and injury is imminent, not a mere supposition or conjecture." (italics added).

IV. Recommendation

In conclusion, on the basis of my review of the information developed during this investigation, I recommend that the Commission determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of the importation of frozen potato products from Canada upon which subsidies are allegedly provided by the Government of Canada.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 15, 1980.

Kenneth R. Mason,
Secretary.

BILLING CODE 7020-02

[731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary)]

Sodium Hydroxide, in Solution (Liquid Caustic Soda), Provided for Under Item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States From the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom; Determinations of "No Reasonable Indication of Material Injury"

On the basis of the record developed during the course of investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary), undertaken by the United States International Trade Commission under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as added by title I of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979, the Commission has determined unanimously that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide, in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

Section 102(b)(1) of the Trade Agreements Act of 1979 requires the Commission to conduct preliminary antidumping investigations in cases where, on January 1, 1980, the Secretary of the Treasury (the Administering Authority prior to January 1, 1980), had begun an investigation, but had not yet made a preliminary determination under the Antidumping Act, 1921, as to the question of less-than-fair-value sales. On January 7, 1980, the Commission received advice from the Department of Commerce (the Administering Authority effective January 1, 1980), that such investigations had been instituted prior to January 1, 1980, with respect to sodium hydroxide imported from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom.

Accordingly, effective January 1, 1980, the Commission instituted preliminary antidumping investigations under section 733(a) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, to determine whether there is a reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports of such merchandise from the four countries.

Notice of the institution of the Commission's investigations and of the conference to be held in connection therewith was published in the Federal Register of January 14, 1980 (45 F.R. 2715). On January 31, 1980, a public conference was held in Washington, D.C., and all persons requesting the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

Statement of Chairman Catherine Bedell and Commissioners George M. Moore and Michael J. Calhoun in Support of the Determinations in the Investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary), 731-TA-9 (Preliminary), 731-TA-10 (Preliminary), and 731-TA-11 (Preliminary): Sodium Hydroxide From the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy and the United Kingdom

On the basis of the best information available to the Commission in these investigations, Nos. 731-TA-8, 9, 10, and 11 (Preliminary), we determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded,¹ by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide, in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item No. 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

The following findings and conclusions, based on the record in this investigation, support our determination:

I. No reasonable indication of material injury—A. Volume of imports.

1. Levels of imports from these countries increased from 77,536 short tons in 1976 to 161,188 short tons in 1978, but levels for the interim period of January-October decreased from 132,921 short tons in 1978 to 79,587 short tons in 1979.

¹ The question of the material retardation of the establishment of an industry in the United States was not raised as an issue in this investigation.

2. The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption has remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978, then decreasing from 1.78 percent in January–October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January–October 1979.

B. Effect of imports on U.S. prices.

3. The alleged less than fair value (LTFV) margins indicated in Treasury's file were substantial. However, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, the lowest prices for the bulk of sodium hydroxide sales made by suppliers to distributors are on those sales made by large U.S. producers that supply the area from their domestic production facilities. This situation, in which both imports and the smaller U.S. producers are substantially undersold in the Northeast area by their larger domestic competitors, indicates that any price suppression or price depression that may have occurred is not a result of alleged LTFV imports.

C. Impact on affected industry.

4. Petitioner Linden Chemicals and Plastics, Inc., represents only a minimal percentage of total domestic production of merchandise that is the subject of these investigations, and was not joined in its complaint by any other U.S. producers.

5. Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

6. Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. Total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.

7. Data obtained by questionnaires, although incomplete, indicate that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased, in terms of quantity, from 1976 to 1978, and in the first 11 months of 1979 compared with the corresponding period in 1978.

8. From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period of 1979, the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.

9. Domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977 but has increased since 1977 to 81.3% in 1979, a level higher than in any of the preceding years examined.

10. Consideration of material injury as to producers in the Northeast region as a separate regional industry is inappropriate in this case. (See the definition of "regional industries" in Sec. 771(4)(C) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1677 (4)(C).) Demand in that market is supplied to a substantial degree by producers located elsewhere in the U.S., primarily in the Gulf Coast States.

11. Notwithstanding its claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals and Plastics, during the period under investigation, purchased three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area which Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the alleged LTFV imports.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no reasonable indication of material injury to the affected industry.

II. No reasonable indication of threat of material injury.

12. In providing guidance to the Commission with regard to the standard for finding a threat of material injury, Congress has indicated the following: An affirmative determination shall be based on evidence showing that the threat is real and imminent. Consideration should be given to such trends as the rate of increase of dumped exports to the U.S. market, capacity in the exporting country to generate exports, and the availability of other export markets.²

13. Imports from the four countries involved in this investigation decreased in 1979, both absolutely and relative to U.S. consumption. (See paragraph 1, above.)

14. Recent trends, noted in paragraphs 5 through 9 above, are generally favorable to the domestic industry.

15. No evidence has been presented to the Commission regarding capacity in the exporting countries or availability of other export markets.

An evaluation of these relevant factors reveals no "real and imminent" threat of material injury to the affected industry.

Views of Vice Chairman Bill Alberger

Having considered the record in investigations Nos. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary) through 731-TA-11 (Preliminary), I determine that there is no reasonable indication that an industry in the United States is materially injured, threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, by reason of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, or the United Kingdom, of sodium hydroxide in solution (liquid caustic soda), provided for under item number 421.08 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States which are allegedly sold at less than fair value.

I adopt in full findings 1 through 10 of the attached "Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for a Negative Determination * * *" This statement is a part of the record¹ and accurately analyzes the factors which we are required by the statute to consider. In addition, I add the following findings which I believe are relevant to my determination:

(1) The import penetration levels for France, Italy, and the United Kingdom have each remained at less than 1 percent of U.S. consumption during the 1976–78 period. The ratio of imports from the Federal Republic of Germany increased during this same period, but in 1978 amounted to only slightly over 1 percent.² When these figures are compared with the continued increase in U.S. productive capacity of sodium hydroxide since 1976,³ it is evident that there is no reasonable indication of injury to the domestic industry by reason of these imports.

(2) It is my practice to vote separately by country in Commission meetings since separate case numbers are assigned. It is an obligation of each Commissioner to carefully consider "material injury * * * by reason of * * *" questions for each country separately and in various combinations. It is my view after review of the entire record that these imports from these four countries are not causing the requisite degree of injury whether the countries are considered separately or in combination.

Supporting Statement by the Director of Operations for a Negative Determination in Sodium Hydroxide, in Solution (Liquid Caustic Soda), From the Federal Republic of Germany (No. 731-TA-8 (Preliminary)), France (No. 731-TA-9 (Preliminary)), Italy (No. 731-TA-10 (Preliminary)), and the United Kingdom (No. 731-TA-11 (Preliminary))

1. Notwithstanding the relatively high LTFV margins that were found for all four countries in Treasury's initial investigatory activities, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, by far the lowest priced suppliers to distributors of 50 percent solution sodium hydroxide are large U.S. producers that supply the region from their domestic production facilities. This situation, in which both imports and the smaller U.S. producers are undersold by large amounts by their larger domestic competitors in the Northeast region indicates that any price suppression or price depression that may have occurred has not occurred as a result of alleged LTFV imports.

2. The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978. The ratio dropped from 1.78 percent in January–October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January–October 1979.

3. Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. In addition, total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.

4. Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

5. From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period in 1979 the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.

6. Available data show that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased from 1976 to 1977.

7. Domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977 but increased since 1977 to a level in 1979 higher than that of any of the preceding years examined.

8. Although the complainant asserted that these investigations should be decided on a regional market basis, I have found that the Northeast area, where all the complainants' production facilities were, until recently, located, and where all of the complainants' sales as well as sales of alleged LTFV imports are concentrated, does not qualify for the definition of a regional market under the antidumping statutes because it is served to a large extent by U.S. producers whose production facilities are located outside the region, primarily in the Gulf Coast States.

9. The complainant, Linden Chemicals & Plastics, Inc., represents only a minimal percentage of total domestic production of merchandise that is the subject of these investigations, and was joined in its complaint by no other U.S. producers.

10. Notwithstanding its claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals & Plastics, Inc., during the period under investigation, purchased three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area that Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the subject imports.

11. Conclusion—On the basis of the above, I recommend a negative determination as to whether there is a reasonable indication of injury with respect to sodium hydroxide in solution which is alleged to be sold at less than fair value from the countries concerned.

Views of Commissioner Stern in Support of the Negative Determinations in Investigations Nos. 731-TA-8, 9, 10 and 11 (Preliminary): Sodium Hydroxide From Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy and United Kingdom

On the basis of the record in these investigations, I determine that there is no reasonable indication (1) that an industry in the United States is either materially injured, threatened with material injury, or that the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded,¹ and (2) that any injury is not by reason of the importation of sodium hydroxide from the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, and the United Kingdom. Because the relevant statute is so new, I believe some general consideration of its provisions would be helpful before considering the details of these investigations.

In order for the Commission to find in the affirmative in a preliminary antidumping injury determination under Section 733 of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1673(b)), it is necessary to find that sufficient information has been presented to show that there is a reasonable indication that (1) an industry in the United States is materially injured, or is threatened with material injury, or the establishment of an industry in the United States is materially retarded, and that (2) injury is by reason of imports of the merchandise which is the subject of the investigation allegedly sold or likely to be sold at less than fair value (LTFV).

¹ The question of material retardation of the establishment of an industry in the United States is not an issue in this investigation.

The Tariff Act of 1930 (Sec. 733(a)) directs the Commission to "make a determination based upon the best information available to it at the time of the determination * * *". The Act in Sec. 771(7)(B) mandates that the Commission shall consider (i) the volume of subject imports, (ii) their effect on the domestic price of the like product, and (iii) their impact on the domestic producers of the like product. In Sec. 771(7)(C), the Act further specifies a series of economic factors that the Commission must include in these considerations.² The statute states in Sec. 771(7)(E)(ii) that: "The presence or absence of any factor which the Commission is required to evaluate under paragraph (C) * * * shall not necessarily give decisive guidance with regard to the determination by the Commission of material injury."

No Material Injury to the Domestic Industry

(1) Total U.S. production of sodium hydroxide in solution increased from 10.0 million short tons in 1976 to 10.7 million short tons in 1978. Total U.S. production increased from 8.8 million short tons in January–October 1978 to 10.2 million short tons in January–October 1979.

(2) Available data show that total shipments by reporting U.S. producers increased from 3.3 million short tons in 1976 to 4.9 million short tons in 1978. In addition, total shipments by U.S. producers increased from 4.4 million short tons in January–November 1978 to 5.1 million short tons in January–November 1979.³

(3) Available data show that the overall total for domestic sales of all grades of sodium hydroxide increased from 1976 to 1978.

(4) From January–November 1978 to the corresponding period in 1979 the aggregate net profit of those firms providing complete financial data to the Commission increased substantially.⁴

(5) Although domestic capacity utilization decreased from 1976 to 1977,

² 19 U.S.C. 1677(C)(iii) mentions output, sales, market share, profits, productivity, return on investment, capacity utilization, factors influencing domestic prices, cash flow, inventories, employment, wages, growth, ability to raise capital, and investment.

³ No data were made available for 1976 or 1977 for Dow Chemical U.S.A., the largest domestic producer. I did not find the absence of complete data on Dow decisive because: (a) the data that were submitted by Dow do not indicate injury; (b) Dow neither supported the petition nor alleged injury; and (c) the data on the remainder of the industry do not support an affirmative finding.

it has since 1977 grown to a level in 1979 higher than that of any of the preceding years examined.

(6) Notwithstanding the petitioner's claim of injury from alleged LTFV imports, Linden Chemicals and Plastics purchased during the period under investigation three new production facilities for sodium hydroxide, one of which is located in the Northeast area that Linden asserts is subject to the greatest impact from the alleged LTFV imports.

(7) No information is found in the record regarding the domestic industry's return on investment, cash flow, and ability to raise capital. The absence of information on these factors was not decisive in this case.

Alleged LTFV Imports Not the Cause of Any Material Injury

(8) Imports from West Germany, France, Italy and the United Kingdom grew from 77,537 short tons in 1978 to 161,188 in 1979. However, in the first ten months of 1979 they declined to 79,587 short tons from the 132,921 short tons imported during the comparable period in 1978.

(9) Notwithstanding the relatively high LTFV margins for all four countries indicated by Treasury's initial investigatory activities, the best information available on pricing indicates that in the Northeast area of the United States, where imports are concentrated, large U.S. producers supplying the region from their domestic facilities are by far the lowest priced suppliers to distributors of 50 percent solution sodium hydroxide. Because both importers and the smaller U.S. producers have been significantly undersold by their larger domestic competitors in the Northeast area, any price suppression or depression that may have occurred has not been due to alleged LTFV imports.

(10) The ratio of imports from the four countries to U.S. consumption remained at low levels, increasing from 0.85 percent in 1976 to 1.74 percent in 1978. The ratio dropped from 1.78 percent in January-October 1978 to 0.87 percent in January-October 1979.

No Regional Industry

(11) The petitioner asserted that these investigations should be decided on a regional industry basis. The Trade Agreements Act of 1979 amended the Tariff Act of 1930 to include specific conditions for the treatment of producers in a geographical area as a separate regional industry within the meaning of the law.⁵ The domestic producers must sell all or almost all of their production in the area and the demand for the product in that area cannot be supplied to any significant degree from the United States producers not located there. Both conditions must be met.

(12) The Northeast area, where all the petitioner's production facilities were located until recently, and where all the petitioner's sales as well as the sales of the alleged LTFV imports are concentrated, does not qualify as a regional market within the meaning of the antidumping statute because it is served to a large extent by U.S. producers whose production facilities are located outside the region, primarily in the Gulf Coast States. In 1976, total reported domestic sales in the Northeast area exceeded local productive capacity by 299,000 short tons, in 1977 by 46,000 short tons, and in 1978 by 96,000 short tons. In 1979, due to rapid local expansion, capacity may for the first time exceed domestic sales in the area.

No Threat of Material Injury

(13) The recent decline in subject imports' market penetration and the expansion undertaken by the petitioner, as well as the other factors cited above, do not give any reasonable indication that the alleged LTFV imports threaten the domestic industry with material injury.

Washington, D.C.

January 31, 1980.

Dear Madam Chairman: I am writing to inform you on behalf of the Valve Manufacturers Association that the Valve Manufacturers, petitioners in a countervailing duty case against Japan and Italy, wish to withdraw their petition. I request, as a result, that the International Trade Commission accept this withdrawal and notify all companies who have received questionnaires of the withdrawal. Thank you.

Sincerely,

David A. Hartquist,

Counsel, Valve Manufacturers Association.

The legal authority for a request to withdraw a petition for a countervailing duty investigation and the legal authority for the Commission to terminate an investigation in response to a request to withdraw the petition are found in section 704 of the Tariff Act of 1930. The only restriction on the Commission's authority to terminate is that all parties to the investigation must be notified of the termination. In the instant case only the petitioners have appeared as parties before the Commission. For these reasons the Commission is granting the request and terminating these investigations. In addition to notifying interested persons who have not appeared before the agency, the Commission is notifying the Department of Commerce of its action in these cases.

By order of the Commission.

Issued: February 13, 1980.

Kenneth R. Mason,
Secretary.

Antitrust Division

Comment and Response To Proposed Final Judgment in United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al.

The Antitrust Division has reviewed a comment concerning its proposed Final Judgment in United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 78-3224-C. The proposed Final Judgment and a Competitive Impact Statement were filed with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts on November 30, 1979.

The comment and the Antitrust Division's response are attached hereto for publication pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act of 1974, 15 U.S.C. 16(d). These materials have also been filed with the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts.

Re United States of America v. Chelsea Industries Inc. and Avon Tape Inc. Civil Action No. 78-3224-C

Mr. Anthony V. Nanni,
Department of Justice, Antitrust Division,
Washington, D.C. 20530.

Dear Mr. Nanni: Please be advised that I represent Action Manufacturing, Inc., of Gonic, New Hampshire, a small manufacturer of pressure sensitive tape for the shoe industry.

Pursuant to 15 USC § 16(d), this letter is to serve as a commentary on the Proposed Final Judgment entered into by the plaintiff, United States of America; and the defendants, Chelsea Industries, Inc., and Avon Tape, Inc. in connection with Civil Action No. 78-3224-C.

The Proposed Final Order and the Competitive Impact Statement both serve to prohibit certain conduct, while at the same time requiring affirmative conduct from the defendants in lieu of a full trial on the above action. While the desired result of the Final Order and Competitive Statement is to restore competition to the shoe tape industry, neither reach far enough vis-a-vis their limits on the defendants to effect this desired result.

Specifically, the Proposed Final Judgment (III, Page 2) fails to take into account the import of limiting the defendants' ability to fix, maintain, and stabilize the price of pressure sensitive tape sold in foreign markets. Virtually all of the tapes sold abroad by the defendants is manufactured in the United States. To the extent that defendants are not prohibited from setting prices on these products, they remain free to subsidize their domestic sales with exorbitant prices abroad. Moreover, given the overwhelming market shares of the defendants in the United States, any small company such as Action would naturally try to become a viable domestic competitor by building up its financial strength through foreign sales. Once that financial strength was sufficient, Action or others in its situation would be in a much better position to compete in the domestic market. The omission of limitations or international activities should be of particular concern in light of the dominant competitive influence that international shoe sales have on the U.S. domestic market. American shoe manufacturers and retailers import 53 percent of the shoes sold in the U.S. market. Because 60 percent of our client's sales volume is currently outside of the domestic market, the effect of not including international sales in the Final Order is to allow the defendants to operate directly at the expense of our client's international sales and indirectly at the expense of the domestic consumer who is no doubt paying the price of any price fixing activities concerning the international market.

Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act was designed and has been interpreted to prohibit those activities which have the purpose or effect of stabilizing price or competition. US v. Gypsum 438 US 422, 98 Sct 2864 (1978). The notion that external business activities in violation of U.S. antitrust laws may affect internal trade and commerce so as to confer jurisdiction upon U.S. courts to enjoin such activity was recognized as early as 1927 in U.S. v. Sisal Sales Corp. 274 U.S. 268, 71 L.Ed. 1042, 47 Sct. 592.

Clearly the Final Judgment as proposed would not ameliorate the restraint on competition in the shoe tape industry if the defendants were allowed to continue to engage in activities which would affect over one half of the entire U.S. market. Such a result certainly would not be in the public interest as required under 15 USC § 16. Therefore, it is recommended that the Proposed Final Judgment be modified at (III, Page 2) to include international sales. Accordingly, it is recommended that (VII c 2, Page 4) of the same be modified to "Adopt and publish domestic and international prices, discounts,"; that (III, Page 5) of the Competitive Impact Statement be modified to include "In addition . . . lawful considerations to adopt publish domestic and international prices, discounts, etc. . . ."

It is also our belief that the Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement could be modified to more effectively restore competition to the shoe tape industry by requiring additional affirmative conduct on the part of the defendants.

Specifically, the requirement at (VII a, Page 4) of the Proposed Final Judgment should be expanded to provide that: Defendant shall provide a copy of this final judgment to each of its existing customers and to any new customers within 30 days after the judgment is entered and annually on the anniversary of this judgment for the next five (5) consecutive years. Notice shall be by registered mail to the Chief Executive Officer of each customer. Mail receipts shall be retained by each defendant in its corporate files. Similarly, the Competitive Impact Statement at (III, Page 5) should be modified to require each defendant to provide a copy of the Final Judgment and a copy of the Competitive Impact Statement to each of its existing customers and subsequent new customers . . . "at least once each year for five (5) years after the entering of the Final Judgment." It is also proposed that the Competitive Impact Statement be modified under the Section entitled "Remedies Available to Private Litigants" (IV, Page 7, paragraph 1; Sentence 3) to provide that these potential private plaintiffs may encourage the Attorney Generals of their respective states to sue, etc. . . . in their names. Finally, the Competitive Impact Statement should be modified in the section on "Procedure Available for Modification of Proposed Final Judgment" to require that notice of the opportunity to comment on the proposed Final Judgment be advertised in shoe trade journals in the U.S. and abroad.

The implementation of the proposed modifications will aid in deterring the defendant from engaging in any further anticompetitive activities by giving notice to past customers who may, in the context of a competitive market wish to take their business elsewhere. In addition, prospective customers under the proposed modifications would be able to make an informal decision as to whom they should patronize.

It is too great a threat that the defendants will simply absorb the fines levied; which in Chelsea's case amounts to less than 20,000 per year and which may be treated as an acceptable business expense. The proposal to require that notice be given to present and prospective customers will provide a self executing oversight mechanism. At the same time it would allow customers to make a more informed business decision thereby facilitating the return of competitive equilibrium to a market which is totally dominated by the defendants.

To summarize, the Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement recognize the desired result. However, by failing to specifically prohibit illegal pricing activity in foreign markets, the door has been left open for the defendants to exert monopoly pressure on the U.S. shoe tape market. By including the additional requirements regarding notice to customers of the defendants propensity toward illegal pricing activity, the Final Order may indeed restore competition to the shoe tape industry. In its present form, however, the Proposed Final Judgment will not accomplish this purpose and is therefore not in the public interest as required under 15 USC § 16.

Respectfully submitted, Action Manufacturing, Inc., by its attorneys, Myers and Brown.

Howard B. Myers.

Re United States v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., et al., Civil No. 78-3224-C (D. Massachusetts).

Howard B. Myers, Esquire,
Myers and Brown, Four Park Street, Concord, N.H.

Dear Mr. Myers: This letter will respond to the comments you have filed on behalf of Action Manufacturing, Inc., of Gonic, New Hampshire with regard to the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement in the above-captioned case.

Your letter essentially addresses two points: first, that the defendants in this case excessively price and fix the prices of pressure sensitive tape products sold in foreign markets which influences the domestic market for such products; and secondly, that the notification provisions of the proposed Final Judgment are insufficient to restore competition to the domestic shoe tape industry.

Your first comment with regard to the defendants' foreign activities alleges that the defendants charge excessive prices and fix the prices of pressure sensitive tape products which they manufacture in the United States and sell abroad. You imply that because American manufacturers and retailers import more than fifty percent of the shoes sold in the United States, this results in higher domestic prices for shoes sold in this country and further entrenches the defendants' substantial domestic market position. These factors allegedly affect your client adversely.

In the first instance, it is important to recognize that both the criminal and civil cases filed against these defendants were virtually identical insofar as the substantive offense alleged. They were charged with fixing the prices of pressure sensitive tape products sold to the shoe industry throughout the United States. Both cases were strictly limited to the domestic market for two reasons. First, there were no substantiated allegations that the defendants' price-fixing activity extended beyond the United States. The second reason was that even if such illegal pricing activity did occur in foreign markets, jurisdiction in the United States seemed highly doubtful. The reasons for this are partly revealed by the limited scope of your comment. While your comment asserts that excessive pricing and price fixing by the defendants does occur in foreign markets, your letter does not provide any specific proof to substantiate your client's allegations. No evidence or detailed information of any kind has ever been presented to the Antitrust Division that would support these contentions. Moreover, assuming arguendo that the excessive pricing referred to does exist, no evidence has been presented that would indicate that this has resulted from collusion. In addition, if price fixing is occurring in foreign markets, there is no evidence to indicate that a conspiracy was formed in the United States or that the products affected ended up in the United States. Despite your reference to the fact that American manufacturers and retailers import more than fifty percent of all shoes sold in the United States, no information has been provided that would facilitate a determination of whether shoes which are imported into this country contain price-fixed materials sold by these defendants.

You also assert that the defendants have substantial market shares in the United States and that they are exercising monopoly pressure on your client in the United States by subsidizing domestic sales with profits from foreign sales. Once again, no evidence has been presented to substantiate this assertion. Assuming, however, that is true, if your client feels that it has been aggrieved by this action, you are free to seek redress by filing a monopolization case against the defendants in an appropriate jurisdiction, which I understand you have done. Action

Manufacturing, Inc. v. Chelsea Industries, Inc., Civil Action No. 78-36 (D. New Hampshire). Under these circumstances, it would appear that your client's rights will be adequately protected and that it will be given more than ample opportunity to air its complaints.

Based on the foregoing considerations, and in view of the allegations of the Complaint, it is clear that the modifications you have suggested would exceed the scope of the Complaint, the present jurisdiction of the Court, and would be legally inappropriate in the present circumstances.

Your second comment suggests that the notification provisions of the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement be modified to require the defendants to notify each of its existing customers and any new customers of the Final Judgment; that potential private plaintiffs may encourage state Attorneys General to sue on their behalf; and that the Final Judgment be published in shoe trade journals in the United States and abroad. These modifications will, allegedly, more fully restore competition to the domestic shoe tape industry.

As I am sure you can appreciate, the formulation of effective affirmative relief is a matter which depends on the facts and circumstances of each case. The overriding objective in every case is to restore competition to the industry in a manner which seems most likely to effectively counterbalance the specific type of offense that has been committed. In this case, where published prices were fixed by agreement between the defendants, our primary concern has been to find a way to assure that it does not occur again.

The most direct and effective method of correcting the price fixing that occurred in this case was the one outlined in Section VII, Paragraphs C., D. and E. of the proposed Final Judgment. These provisions require each defendant to withdraw its present prices, discounts and other terms and conditions of sale for pressure sensitive tape products sold in the United States, and to reformulate and republish new prices on the basis of and after an independent review of their costs, margins and other lawful considerations. This republication and all subsequent price changes for the next five years must be certified under oath; each company must file affidavits stating that price changes have been made only after an independent review by each company, in other words, not in collusion with each other or any other manufacturer. This is unquestionably the most direct way of reaching the heart of the problem. While your suggestion about notifying existing and new customers of the Final Judgment was carefully considered, we felt at the time that these provisions were drafted, and continue to believe, that they represent the most effective way of correcting the problem that was found in this particular case.

With regard to your suggestion that the Competitive Impact Statement be amended to provide that potential private plaintiffs can encourage state Attorneys General to sue the defendants on their behalf, we would remind you that potential plaintiffs are always free to do so, and state Attorneys General are free to pursue appropriate legal action under Section 4C of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, 15 U.S.C. § 15c, and their own state laws. We would also point out that neither the proposed Final Judgment nor the Competitive Impact Statement imposes any restriction, except as provided by law, on anyone who may be interested in redressing any grievance against these defendants arising from their illegal conduct.

Your final comment suggests that the Competitive Impact Statement should be modified to require advertising in shoe trade journals in the United States and abroad in soliciting comments about the proposed Final Judgment. It is our view that your request to enlarge the geographic scope from which comments on the proposed Final Judgment may be sought to include publication abroad, exceeds the express statutory language of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(c), and is not appropriate in this case since the offense charged occurred within the United States.

With regard to your suggestion that comments about the judgment be advertised in domestic shoe trade journals, we would bring to your attention the fact that these cases have already received considerable publicity.¹ In addition, the Antitrust Division has fully met its legal responsibility with regard to the solicitation of comments concerning the proposed Final Judgment in the case in compliance with the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(c).² In light of these facts, more than ample opportunity has been provided to anyone who wished to comment about these cases and the proceedings related thereto.

We appreciate your comments and suggestions about the proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement in this case. However, we are satisfied that an objective analysis of the facts and circumstances would clearly establish that the proposed Final Judgment does contain effective remedial relief to correct the effects of the offense committed by these defendants and is in the public interest. For this reason, the Antitrust Division will urge the Court to enter the proposed Final Judgment as originally submitted.

We have also been advised that the disposition of the criminal case was reported in other major newspapers of general circulation, e.g., New York Times. United States v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc.; Proposed Final Judgment and Competitive Impact Statement

Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 16(b) through (h), that a proposed Final Judgment, Stipulation and Competitive Impact Statement (CIS) have been filed with the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina in United States of America v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Civil No. 79-1742-9. The complaint in this case alleged that the defendant engaged in a combination and conspiracy with others to raise the price of nursing home services in South Carolina paid under the Medicaid program.

The proposed Final Judgment enjoins the defendant from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid provider contracts, or any part thereof. The defendant is also prohibited from participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject any or all of the terms of Medicaid provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program. The defendant is further prohibited from advocating, recommending or inducing nursing homes to engage in any of the above mentioned activities. Finally, the defendant is prohibited from allowing at its meetings any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, with the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes, or any nursing home, accepts or rejects any terms of a Medicaid contract, rejects or discharges Medicaid patients, or threatens not to participate in the Medicaid program.

Except as otherwise prohibited by the proposed Final Judgment, the defendant may represent nursing homes, or any nursing home, in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; may represent nursing homes by advocating or discussing changes in the Medicaid program before any federal or state governmental body; and may disseminate factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that the defendant furnish a copy of the judgment to each of its members, as well as to new members as they join, together with a letter explaining its terms. Also, the defendant is required to furnish to the Court and the plaintiff an affidavit as to the fact and manner of its notification of its members and future members.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that thirteen months after entry of the judgment and every two years thereafter, the defendant audit its operations to determine compliance with the judgment and with the antitrust laws. Its findings must be filed with the Court and the plaintiff.

The proposed Final Judgment requires that the defendant adopt a written statement setting forth its policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and the judgment. The written compliance policy must be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years. The proposed Final Judgment expires ten years after entry.

Public comment is invited within the statutory 60-day comment period. Such comments, and responses thereto, will be published in the Federal Register and filed with the Court. Comments should be directed to John W. Poole, Jr., Chief, Special Litigation Section, Room 7218, Antitrust Division, Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530, (telephone: (202) 633-2425).

United States of America, Plaintiff, v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Defendant.

Civil Action No. 79-1742-9.

Filed: February 7, 1980.

Final Judgment

Plaintiff, United States of America, having filed its complaint herein on August 27, 1979, and plaintiff and defendant, by their respective attorneys, having consented to the entry of this Final Judgment without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein and without this Final Judgment constituting any evidence against or an admission by any party with respect to any such issue;

Now, therefore, before the taking of any testimony and without trial or adjudication of any issue of fact or law herein and upon consent of the parties hereto, it is hereby,

Ordered, adjudged, and decreed as follows:

I

This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of each of the parties consenting hereto. The Complaint states a claim upon which relief may be granted against the defendant under Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1).

II

As used in this Final Judgment:

(A) "Defendant" means the South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc.;

(B) "Medicaid" means the system of health care for indigents created by Title XIX of the Social Security Act, entitled "Grants to States for Medical Assistance Programs," and includes regulations promulgated thereunder by the United States Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (HEW), and regulations, policies and procedures of South Carolina to implement the program;

(C) "Standard provider contracts" means contracts between the States of South Carolina and nursing homes by which nursing homes agree to provide care for Medicaid beneficiaries;

(D) "Nursing home" means a provider of skilled nursing and/or intermediate care services in the State of South Carolina.

III

This Final Judgment applies to the defendant and to its officers, directors, members, agents, employees, successors and assigns, and to all other persons in active concert or participation with any of them who shall have received actual notice of this Final Judgment.

IV

The defendant is enjoined from:

(A) Acting as an agent for nursing homes in connection with any decision to accept or reject all of any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts;

(B) Participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program;

(C) Advocating or recommending that nursing home(s) (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program; and

(D) Causing or permitting at any formal or informal meeting of defendant or its committees any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing home(s) (1) accept or reject all or any terms of Medicaid standard provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program.

V

Except as prohibited in Section IV, nothing herein shall prohibit defendant from:

(A) Representing nursing home(s) in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; or

(B) Advocating or discussing, on behalf of nursing home(s), proposed changes in the Medicaid program with any federal or state legislative body or executive agency, or any committee or member thereof; or

(C) Disseminating factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

VI

The defendant is ordered and directed:

(A) Within sixty (60) days from the entry of this Final Judgment.

(1) To send to each of its members

(a) A copy of this Final Judgment; and

(b) A letter identical in text to that attached to this Final Judgment as Appendix A;

(2) To cause the publication of this Final Judgment in the defendant's newsletter; and

(3) To file with this Court and to serve upon the plaintiff an affidavit stating the fact and manner of compliance with subsection (A) of this Section VI;

(B) To serve a copy of this Final Judgment, together with a letter identical in text to that attached to this Final Judgment as Appendix A, upon all of its future members at such time as they become members;

(C) To conduct an audit of its activities, during the thirteenth month following entry of this Final Judgment, and once during every twenty-four month period thereafter while this Final Judgment remains in effect, to determine compliance with this Final Judgment and with the antitrust laws. The audit shall be conducted or supervised by an attorney and shall include a review of defendant's files and those of its directors maintained in connection with their responsibilities as such, and interviews of defendant's officers, directors, and employees as deemed necessary by the attorney. A written report of each audit shall be promptly prepared, furnished to plaintiff and filed with the court; and

(D) To establish and adopt a written statement setting forth defendant's policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and this Final Judgment. The written compliance policy shall be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years.

For the purpose of determining or securing compliance with this Final Judgment, and subject to any legally recognized privilege, from time to time:

(A) Duly authorized representatives of the Department of Justice shall, upon written request of the Attorney General or of the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division, and on reasonable notice to the defendant made to its principal office, be permitted:

(1) Access during office hours of the defendant to inspect and copy all books, ledgers, accounts, correspondence, memoranda and other records and documents in the possession or under the control of the defendant which may have counsel present, relating to any matters contained in this Final Judgment; and

(2) Subject to the reasonable convenience of such defendant and without restraint or interference from it, to interview officers, employees and agents of the defendant who may have counsel present, regarding any such matters;

(B) Upon the written request of the Attorney General or of the Assistant Attorney General in charge of the Antitrust Division made to the defendant's principal office, such defendant shall submit such written reports, under oath if requested, with respect to any of the matters contained in this Final Judgment as may be requested;

(C) No information or documents obtained by the means provided in this Section VII shall be divulged by any representative of the Department of Justice to any person other than a duly authorized representative of the Executive Branch of the United States, except in the course of legal proceedings to which the United States is a party, or for the purpose of securing compliance with this Final Judgment or as otherwise required by law; and

(D) If, at the time information or documents are furnished by the defendant to plaintiff, such defendant represents and identifies in writing the material in any such information or documents to which a claim of protection may be asserted under Rule 26(c)(7) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and said defendant marks each pertinent page of such material "Subject to claim of protection under Rule 26(c)(7) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure," then 10 days notice shall be given by plaintiff to the defendant prior to divulging such material in any legal proceeding (other than a grand jury proceeding) to which the defendant is not a party.

IX

Jurisdiction is retained by this Court for the purpose of enabling any of the parties to this Final Judgment to apply to this Court at any time for such further orders or directions as may be necessary or appropriate for the construction or carrying out of this Final Judgment, for the modification of any of the provisions hereof, for the enforcement of compliance herewith, and for the punishment of any violation hereof.

X

This Final Judgment will expire ten years after date of entry.

XI

Entry of this Final Judgment is in the public interest.

Dated:

United States District Court.

Dear SCHCA Member: Enclosed is a copy of the Final Judgment, filed — 1979, in United States v. South Carolina Health Care Association, Inc., Civil No. 79-1742-9. The terms of the Final Judgment require that a copy of it as well as this letter be sent to you. You should read the terms of the decree carefully and note that you, under certain circumstances, are bound by the provisions. The purpose of this letter is to help you understand those provisions.

Under the decree the Association is barred from participating in any plan or agreement which would result in nursing homes jointly threatening not to participate in the Medicaid program, as well as jointly determining to accept or reject all or part of the standard provider contracts, or to discharge Medicaid patients. The Final Judgment also prohibits the Association from causing or allowing nursing home representatives to discuss any of the above-mentioned actions at any formal or informal Association meetings, including committee meetings.

Finally, the Final Judgment prohibits the Association from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid standard provider contracts.

Competitive Impact Statement

Pursuant to Section 2(b) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act (15 U.S.C. 16(b)-(h)), the United States of America submits this Competitive Impact Statement relating to the proposed final judgment submitted for entry in this civil antitrust proceeding.

I

Nature of the Proceeding

On August 27, 1979, the Department of Justice filed a civil antitrust complaint under Section 4 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 4), alleging that the defendant violated Section 1 of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. 1). The complaint alleges a combination and conspiracy consisting of a continuing agreement, understanding, and concert of action among the defendant and various co-conspirators to raise the price of nursing home services in South Carolina paid under the Medicaid program.

Entry of the proposed final judgment will terminate the action, except that the Court will retain jurisdiction over the matter for further proceedings which may be required to interpret, modify or enforce the judgment, or to punish violations of any of its provisions.

II

Description of the Practices Involved in the Alleged Violation

The defendant is a trade association for the nursing home industry in South Carolina. Approximately 85 nursing homes throughout the state, representing over 80 per cent of all nursing home beds in South Carolina, are "institutional" members of the defendant. In addition, numerous individuals associated with nursing homes are "personal" members.

The complaint alleges that the defendant and co-conspirators engaged in a conspiracy, from sometime in 1973 to the present, to raise the price of nursing home services paid under the Medicaid program in South Carolina. The complaint further alleges that to raise the price of Medicaid nursing home services, the defendant acted as the bargaining agent of its member nursing homes to negotiate and approve or disapprove Medicaid reimbursement contracts with the state on their behalf. The complaint also alleges that the defendant's member nursing homes jointly refused to enter into contracts with the state to care for Medicaid patients except upon terms and conditions that had been agreed upon by the defendant and its members. The market area alleged to have been affected by the conspiracy is the State of South Carolina.

The complaint alleges that the conspiracy has had the following effects, among others: (a) Competition among nursing homes with respect to the terms and conditions on which they will contract to care for Medicaid patients has been eliminated, and (b) prices charged by nursing homes for the care of Medicaid patients have been increased.

Had this case gone to trial, the United States would have adduced evidence to show that, beginning sometime in 1973, the defendant and co-conspirators began to use the defendant as the bargaining agent for nursing homes in negotiating Medicaid contracts with the State of South Carolina. The United States believes the evidence would have shown that, since 1973, the defendant has acted on behalf of its members in accepting or rejecting all or part of various Medicaid provider contracts, and used the joint bargaining strength of its member nursing homes to obtain more favorable contract terms and conditions than otherwise would have been possible; the conspiracy was effectuated in numerous meetings of the defendant's membership, meetings of various committees formed by the defendant for the purpose of negotiating Medicaid contracts with the State, and in meetings between representatives of the defendant and representatives of the State.

III

Explanation of the Proposed Final Judgment

The United States and the defendant have stipulated that the Court may enter the proposed final judgment after compliance with the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act. The stipulation provides that neither party has made any admission about any issue of fact or law. Under the provisions of Section 2(e) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, the proposed final judgment may not be entered until the Court determines that entry is in the public interest.

A. Prohibited Conduct

The proposed final judgment prohibits the defendant from acting as an agent on behalf of its members in connection with any decision to accept or reject Medicaid provider contracts, or any part thereof. The defendant is also prohibited from participating in or furthering any agreement, understanding, plan or course of conduct having the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes jointly determine to (1) accept or reject any or all of the terms of Medicaid provider contracts; (2) reject or discharge Medicaid patients; or (3) threaten not to participate in the Medicaid program. The defendant is further prohibited from advocating, recommending or inducing nursing homes to engage in any of the above mentioned activities. Finally, the defendant is prohibited from allowing at its meetings any course of conduct, or discussion of any plan, with the purpose or foreseeable effect that nursing homes, or any nursing home, accepts or rejects any terms of the Medicaid contract, rejects or discharges Medicaid patients, or threatens not to participate in the Medicaid program.

Except as otherwise prohibited by the proposed final judgment, the defendant may represent nursing homes, or any nursing home, in any bona fide judicial or administrative law proceeding; may represent nursing homes by advocating or discussing changes in the Medicaid program before any federal or state governmental body; and may disseminate factual information about the Medicaid program to nursing homes.

The proposed final judgment requires that the defendant furnish a copy of the judgment to each of its members, as well as to new members as they join, together with a letter explaining its terms. Also, the defendant is required to furnish to the Court and the plaintiff an affidavit as to the fact and manner of its notification of its members and future members.

The proposed final judgment requires that thirteen months after entry of the judgment and every two years thereafter, the defendant audit its operations to determine compliance with the judgment and with the antitrust laws. Its findings must be filed with the Court and the plaintiff.

The proposed final judgment requires that the defendant adopt a written statement setting forth its policy regarding compliance with the antitrust laws and the judgment. The written compliance policy must be published in defendant's newsletter at least once a year for three consecutive years.

B. Scope of the Proposed Judgment

The proposed final judgment will remain in effect for a period of ten years from entry. It applies to the defendant and to each of its officers, directors, members, agents, employees, successors and assigns, and to all other persons in actual concert or participation with any of them who receive actual notice of the judgment.

C. Effect of the Proposed Judgment on Competition

The relief in the proposed final judgment is designed to prevent any recurrence of the activities alleged in the complaint. The prohibitive language of the judgment should insure that each nursing home's decision whether to provide services under the Medicaid program will be made independently by it, without agreements among competitors and between competitors and their trade association.

The proposed final judgment provides two methods for determining the defendant's compliance with its terms. First, the United States is given access, upon reasonable notice, to the records of the defendant to examine them for possible violations of the judgment, and to interview officers, directors, employees and agents of the defendant. Second, the United States may require the defendant to submit written reports about any matters pertaining to the judgment.

The Department of Justice believes that the proposed final judgment contains adequate provisions to prevent further violations by the defendant of the type upon which this complaint is based. The Department believes that disposition of the lawsuit without further litigation is appropriate because the proposed judgment provides all the relief which the United States sought in its complaint, and the additional expense of litigation would not result in additional public benefit.

IV

Remedies Available to Potential Private Litigants

Section 4 of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 15) provides that any person who has been injured as a result of conduct prohibited by the antitrust laws may bring suit in federal court to recover three times the damages suffered, as well as costs and reasonable attorneys fees. Entry of the proposed final judgment will neither impair nor assist the bringing of such actions. Under the provisions of Section 5(a) of the Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. 16(a)), the judgment has no prima facie effect in any subsequent lawsuits that may be brought against this defendant.

V

Procedures Available for Modification of the Proposed Judgment

As provided by the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, any person believing that the proposed final judgment should be modified may submit written comments to John W. Poole, Jr., Antitrust Division, United States Department of Justice, 10th & Penn. Ave., NW., Washington, D.C. 20530 within the 60-day period provided by the Act. These comments, and the Department's responses, will be filed with the Court and published in the Federal Register. All comments will be given due consideration by the Department of Justice, which remains free to withdraw its consent to the proposed judgment at any time prior to entry. The judgment provides that the Court retains jurisdiction over this action, and the parties may apply to the Court for any order necessary or appropriate for its modification, interpretation or enforcement.

Alternatives to the Proposed Consent Judgment

This case does not involve any unusual or novel issues of fact or law which might make litigation a more desirable alternative than entry of this final judgment. The Department considers the substantive language of the judgment to be of sufficient scope and effectiveness to make litigation on relief unnecessary, as the judgment provides all relief which reasonably could have been expected after trial.

VII

Other Materials

No materials and documents of the type described in Section 2(b) of the Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act (15 U.S.C. 16(b)) were considered in formulating the proposed final judgment.

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

[N-AR 80-8]

Reports, Safety Recommendations and Responses; Availability

Aircraft Accident Reports in Brief Format

U.S. Civil Aviation Accidents, Issue No. 2 of 1979 Accidents (NTSB-BA-79-6).—The National Transportation Safety Board on February 7 made available the second volume in its series of brief reports on general aviation accidents which occurred during 1979. The 298 accidents reported in Issue No. 2 are arranged by date and the State in which they occurred. This publication is issued irregularly, normally 15 times each year. The brief format presents the facts, conditions, circumstances, and probable cause(s) for each accident. Additional statistical information is tabulated by injury index, injuries, and causal factors.

The Safety Board, in Press Release SB 80-7 announcing Issue No. 2, cites one accident to highlight a long-standing problem in general aviation—unwarranted low altitude flying, or buzzing. In this case, the pilot of a Cessna 150 took off from Abingdon, Va., with a passenger for a flight over the local area. According to witnesses, the pilot, who had 250 hours in the Cessna 150 and over 400 hours total flying time, made a series of low level passes over South Holston Lake near Bristol, Tenn., in an attempt to buzz a flock of ducks. One witness, a professional pilot, said the Cessna's propwash left a wake on the water. On the last pass, the plane was observed to strike the water and sink. Both the pilot and his passenger were killed.

Warnings against the danger of unwarranted low altitude flying have been made repeatedly by safety officials. But the Board's accident statistics indicating a need for repetition remains. Therefore, the following chart of 1974-1978 U.S. general aviation accident involving unwarranted low altitude flying phase of operation is directed to those pilots who may feel that the excitement of buzzing is worth the risk:

	Accidents
	Total	Fatal
1974.....	25	12
1975.....	29	17
1976.....	37	26
1977.....	54	35
1978.....	31	18

Copies of Issue No. 1 may be purchased from the National Technical Information Service, U.S. Department of Commerce, Springfield, Va., 22151.

Note.—The brief reports in this volume contain essential information; more detailed data may be obtained from the original factual reports on file in the Washington office of the Safety Board. Upon request, factual reports will be reproduced commercially at an average cost of 7 cents per page for printed matter, $1 per page for black-and-white photographs, and $1.50 per page for color photographs, plus postage. Requests concerning aircraft accident report briefs should include (1) date and place of occurrence, (2) type of aircraft and registration number, and (3) name of pilot. Address requests to: Public Inquiries Section, National Transportation Safety Board, Washington, D.C. 20594.

Marine Accident Report

Fire on Board the Canadian Bulk Carrier M/V CARTIERCLIFFE HALL, Lake Superior, June 5, 1979 (NTSB-MAR-80-1).—The Safety Board on February 8 released the final report on this accident, investigated jointly by the Safety Board and the U.S. Coast Guard. The formal investigation convened on June 8, 1979, in Duluth, Minn. This report is based on the evidence and testimony developed during the investigation.

The fire erupted on the CARTIERCLIFFE HALL while it was underway in Lake Superior between Duluth and Port Cartier, Quebec, Canada, in U.S. waters. The fire destroyed the vessel's accommodation spaces and pilothouse. Six persons were killed and five persons were injured; one person died later as a result of burns received from the fire.

The Safety Board has determined that the probable cause of this accident was the ignition by an unknown source of combustible materials within the spar deck crew accommodations. The rapid rate at which the fire spread was due to the lack of structural fire protection in the design and the extensive use of combustible materials in the construction of the accommodation spaces. Contributing to the loss of life were the rapid rate at which the fire spread and the lack of an adequate fire detecting system.

As a result of this accident investigation, the Safety Board on January 25 recommended that the U.S. Department of State, in consultation with the U.S. Coast Guard, initiate negotiations for a bilateral agreement between the United States Government and the Canadian Government to establish common structural fire protection and fire detection standards for Great lakes vessels (recommendation M-80-4). Also on January 25, the Safety Board recommended that the U.S. Coast Guard amend 46 CFR Subpart 95.05-1, to require that a fire detection system be installed in the accommodation spaces of U.S. vessels that do not meet current structural fire protection standards (M-80-5). (See also 45 FR 8390, February 7, 1980.)

Special Investigation Report

Survival in Hazardous Materials Transportation Accidents (NTSB-HZM-79-4).—The Safety Board has investigated many accidents in which persons were killed following the release of hazardous materials from vehicles involved in the accidents. For example, 16 persons died following the rupture of a liquefied petroleum gas tank-semitrailer in a 1975 highway accident near Eagle Pass, Texas. Also, in Youngstown, Fla., eight persons died following the puncture of a rail tank car carrying chlorine during an accident in 1978, and in Houston, Texas, five persons were killed and 178 persons were injured by the release of anhydrous ammonia following the crash of a tank-semitrailer in a 1976 highway accident. The Safety Board has previously reported the causes of these accidents but notes that the extent of the casualties in these and other accidents following the release of hazardous materials far exceeded the initial crash losses. The Board believes that improving survivability in such accidents would contribute significantly to reduced hazardous materials transportation risks.

Using the 1976 Houston accident as an example, the Safety Board investigated survival actions by the victims to determine what actions they took, why they were taken, and what effects these actions had on the victims' survival. These actions were then analyzed to determine the effectiveness of the U.S. Department of Transportation-mandated safeguards in reducing casualties in hazardous materials accidents. The Board's resulting special report was released on February 8.

The report shows that the Safety Board reached the following conclusions as a result of this special investigation:

1. None of the regulatory safeguards—vehicle, roadway, placarding, or emergency action guides—were effective in reducing the injurious effects of the hazardous materials release in the Houston accident on May 11, 1976.

2. The threat to personal safety was not generally recognized by the exposed motorists until injury occurred; then the only survival action recognized was to flee the ammonia cloud.

3. The markings, placards, and labeling under 49 CFR Part 172, Hazardous Materials Communications Regulations, did not assist those involved to identify the nature of the threat, to communicate what actions to take, or to help control the emergency.

4. The current reporting system of the U.S. Department of Transportation's Materials Transportation Bureau requires the occurrence of numerous accidents in order to identify data trends that demonstrate a need for improved safeguards.

5. MTB cannot evaluate its safeguards affecting hazardous materials transportation releases adequately or promptly because it does not have a procedure by which survival action data are collected and used.

6. DOT's hazardous materials incident reporting system requires carriers to help prepare data to support trend analysis that is directed toward packaging rather than improved survivability; both factors need to be considered.

7. MTB needs to change its policy of relying solely on carriers to support its accident/incident reporting system; it should marshal all the available resources for collecting accident information to support its regulatory program.

Further as a result of this investigation, the Safety Board last December 11 recommended that DOT's Research and Special Programs Administration: (1) Incorporate hazardous materials incident survival action data in the new centralized hazardous materials information system which DOT is establishing under recommendation No. 3 of the September 1978 Report of the Hazardous Materials Task Force (I-79-14); (2) establish procedures to promptly utilize survival action data and to analyze the harm from an accident in evaluating the influence of regulatory safeguards upon the outcome of serious hazardous materials incidents (I-79-15); and (3) use survival action data collected to revise emergency guidelines, incorporating recommended actions, their purpose, and the effect they should have in reducing losses following the release of hazardous materials (I-79-16). (See also 44 FR 75538, December 20, 1979.)

Safety Recommendation Letters

Aviation

A-80-13 and 14.—On March 1, 1979, a Beech 70 Excelsior Conversion (Queen Air), N777AE, crashed just after takeoff from the Gulfport-Biloxi Regional Airport, Gulfport, Miss. The aircraft was being operated by Universal Airways, Inc., under 14 CFR Part 135.

The aircraft took off from runway 17, and, reaching an altitude of 100 feet at the departure end of the runway, the pilot told Gulfport Tower, "Universal 76 is taking it around, going to land, going to land on 13." Witnesses stated that as the aircraft began a right turn the nose "pitched up" following which the aircraft immediately entered a steep dive, which it maintained until ground impact. All eight occupants were killed; there was no fire after impact.

Investigation of this accident revealed that the nose baggage door came open on takeoff and struck the left propeller. The door apparently had not been secured properly by the station agent who had removed baggage from the compartment. The Board notes that the forward baggage compartment door is hinged at the top and is opened by turning a D-shaped handle. The latching mechanism incorporates three sliding bayonet latches which are held in the latched position by an overcenter cam. A microswitch is mounted ahead of the forward bayonet and door frame and is connected in series to the left engine starter switch. The door must be fully latched and the microswitch actuated by the pressure of the bayonet point before the engine can be started. This feature was designed by Beech to ensure safety of operation of the aircraft. On N777AE, however, the safety interrupt feature had been bypassed by a wire installed between the battery terminals of the two-engine magneto/start switches. This allowed both engines to be started even though the door was not fully latched.

In a similar accident involving a Ross Aviation Beech 65-80 (Queen Air) at Albuquerque, N.M., on May 19, 1972, nine persons were killed. As a result of that accident and a similar accident involving a Beech 99, the Safety Board issued to the Federal Aviation Administration recommendations A-72-78 through 81. These recommendations dealt with the need for: secondary locking devices, cargo restraint systems, an alert to all air taxi operators, rulemaking to revise 14 CFR Part 135, and evaluation of the applicability of 14 CFR 23.787(b) to this type of nose cargo compartment.

The Safety Board notes that FAA issued an alert to all operators and owners regarding the need for positive door closure and for rigging the door actuating mechanism in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions. In addition, FAA responded that if the door latching mechanism was properly maintained and fully secured by the operator, the requirements for cargo compartments and cargo security and protection contained in 14 CFR 23.787(b) would be satisfied. Based on this response, the recommendations were classified "Closed—Unacceptable Action" by the Board.

In 1976, Beech Aircraft Corporation surveyed 66 Beech Queen Airs that were equipped with nose baggage doors. The findings of the survey indicated that only 10 of the 66 aircraft had properly operating starter interrupt systems.

In view of these findings, the unacceptable response to the Board's previous recommendations, and the Gulfport accident, the Safety Board concludes that action is still required to prevent inadvertent opening of nose baggage doors in flight. Accordingly, on February 13, the Board recommended that FAA:

Take action to provide double failure protection by means of a secondary locking device on nose baggage doors of light twin engine aircraft engaged in Part 135 operations. (A-80-13)

Require that the nose baggage door interrupter system on all Beech Aircraft models so equipped be operational before flight. (A-80-14)

Both of the above recommendations are designated "Class II, Priority Action."

Highway

H-80-9 through 11, H-80-12 and 13.—On September 17, 1979, the Federal Highway Administration issued emergency final rulemaking, "Traffic Safety in Highway and Street Work Zones; Separation of Opposing Traffic" (23 CFR 630.1010), to "require more stringent control measures to reduce * * * accidents on highway construction projects funded by FHWA." The Safety Board notes that this rulemaking permits two-way traffic on normally divided highways only when other methods of traffic control are not feasible. Where two-way traffic is unavoidable, approved concrete barriers, drums, cones, or vertical panels throughout the length of the two-way operation must be used. The Safety Board strongly supports these more stringent control measures, but the Board believes that these constraints should apply to all work on divided Federal-aid roads and not just to construction projects funded by FHWA as is provided by the recent rules. The Board's position is reinforced by its investigation of a recent multiple-vehicle collision.

About 6:25 a.m. on August 22, 1979, a westbound tractor-semitrailer sideswiped an eastbound tractor-semitrailer and then struck an eastbound motor home on Interstate 80 about 30 miles northwest of Laramie, Wyo. Interstate 80 was under construction and both eastbound and westbound traffic was traveling on the two undivided westbound lanes. The two persons in the westbound truck and six of the seven persons in the motor home were killed.

The Safety Board notes that between June 17 and September 3 last year 9 accidents occurred on the 9-mile section of I-80 containing the construction zone; these accidents resulted in 13 fatalities, 4 injuries, and 14 damaged vehicles. On June 26, 1979, FHWA's Division Office discussed the June 17 accident and recommendations for positive traffic separation measures with Wyoming's State Highway Department. None of the recommended positive separation measures were in use in the construction zone on August 22, 1979. Furthermore, a positive separation measure would not have been required even under FHWA's recent emergency rulemaking requirements because the construction project was financed exclusively with non-FHWA funds. The Safety Board believes that FHWA should expand the scope of the recent rulemaking to include all construction of Federal-aid highways to insure the use of approved traffic control devices regardless of the funding source of the specific project.

Additionally, although FHWA's emergency rulemaking requires separation and appropriate traffic control devices, it does not provide practical guidelines for implementation in the field. The impact of the lack of guidelines was highlighted by an informal telephone survey conducted by the Safety Board to determine the current traffic separation practices at locations similar to the accident site. The survey included all FHWA regions and many State highway offices. It revealed a wide variation in practices and the following practical concerns:

1. The operational problems with portable concrete median barriers. (The operational problems include management, placement, end treatment, the increase in accidents due to a continuous barrier, and other factors).
2. The high loss of cones, barrels, and flexible posts—as high as 20 to 30 percent daily.
3. The need for limitations on the maximum safe length of construction zones which should be used for two-way operation.
4. The need for speed limit restrictions and enforcement.
5. The need for limitations on the number of days a two-way operation should be permitted.
6. The lack of guidance on end treatments for barriers.
7. The problems associated with accommodating wide vehicles, especially near narrow bridges where concrete median barriers are used.
8. The problems associated with maintaining traffic where usable shoulders are not available.

The Safety Board is aware that the FHWA is sponsoring research which will address some of the previously listed concerns, and that there is operational experience in the States which FHWA could use to develop effective solutions for some of the other concerns. These research findings and operational experiences should be compiled into a concise manual of effective practical guidelines which could be disseminated to those responsible for developing traffic control plans.

Finally, the Safety Board is not aware of any research in the major area of operational problems associated with the use of portable median barriers, barrels, cones, and panels. Apparently, there is a significant gap in available traffic control devices between the massive concrete median barriers, with their inherent operational problems, and the flimsy cones and tubes, which are often damaged or removed from a site and have to be replaced. Contractors nationwide have reported a heavy loss of cones and barrels. Additionally, cones and barrels have the potential for becoming lodged in mechanical parts of a vehicle, which could pose further safety hazards. Although FHWA is crash-testing different barrier systems and industry has introduced plastic type-III barricades, there still appears to be a need for a device that could function as a visual channelizing device where two-way operation is unavoidable and use of the concrete barrier is impractical.

Accordingly, the Safety Board on February 11 recommended that FHWA:

Expand the Emergency Final Rule, 23 CFR 630.1010 to apply to all construction and maintenance zones on divided Federal-aid roads. (Class I, Urgent Action) (H-80-9)

Develop and disseminate a manual which will compile operational experience and current research findings related to channelizing traffic which is rerouted in work areas. (Class II, Priority Action) (H-80-10)

Promote the development of a traffic control device to fill the gap between shaped concrete barrier and traffic cones to serve as a continuous visual barrier to separate traffic in work zones. (Class III, Longer Term Action) (H-80-11)

A separate recommendation letter concerning the Laramie accident was forwarded, also on February 11, by the Safety Board to the Governor of Wyoming. The letter states that the temporary eastbound lane was 12 feet 8 inches wide. The shoulder for eastbound traffic was 8 feet 1 inch wide and the westbound shoulder was about 12 feet 11 inches wide. Only 3 feet of the eastbound shoulder was usable because the slope changed abruptly from about 30:1 (0.035 ft/ft) to slightly less than 4:1 (0.236 ft/ft). The driver of the eastbound truck said she did not move any farther to the right than she thought necessary to avoid frontal contact because she did not want to risk overturning her vehicle. Since 1975, more than 75 percent of the fatalities and nearly 38 percent of the accidents on I-80 between mileposts 263 and 312, which includes the accident site, involved overturning vehicles.

Although the shoulder at the site of the August 22, 1979, accident has since been regraded, the Safety Board concludes that based on the accident history of this section of highway, there may be other shoulder segments which do not meet the standards of the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials' Blue Book, "A Policy on Geometric Design of Rural Highways—1965."

The Safety Board is also concerned about the high speed of the westbound truck. A recent FHWA report—"Accident and Speed Studies in Construction Zones," June 1977 (FHWA-

RD-77-80)—indicated that a reduced speed limit in a construction zone did not reduce the accident rate, but did increase conflicts in the transition area. Further, vehicle speed was not reduced unless enforcement units were visible within a few miles of the site. Field studies have demonstrated that enforcement not only controls speed but also reduces erratic maneuvers and traffic conflicts.

In view of these findings, the Safety Board forwarded these two "Class II, Priority Action" recommendations to the Governor of Wyoming:

Conduct an engineering study to determine where regrading of the shoulders is necessary and correct those locations to reduce the number of overturning accidents on Interstate 80 between mileposts 283 and 312. (H-80-12)

Take necessary steps to increase the effectiveness of its enforcement of speed limits, especially within and adjacent to construction zones. (H-80-13)

Copies of the Safety Board's formal investigation report concerning the Laramie accident are being prepared for distribution and will be made available in the near future.

Responses to Safety Recommendations

Marine

M-78-74 through 77.—U.S. Coast Guard on January 21 responded to the Safety Board's comments forwarded last May 7 to Coast Guard's March 14 response (44 FR 23394, April 19, 1979) to recommendations issued following investigation of the collision of Liberian Tankship M/V STOLT VIKING and U.S. Crewboat CANDY BAR which occurred in the Gulf of Mexico, January 7, 1978.

The recommendations called on Coast Guard to:

Require vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry to have electronic navigational equipment including radar, LORAN, and a fathometer. (M-78-74)

Require that a person applying for an operator's license for vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry be examined in the use of electronics navigational equipment such as radar, LORAN, and fathometers. (M-78-75)

Require that the operator of every radar-equipped vessel carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry be qualified as a radar observer. (M-78-76)

Require that the operators of vessels carrying more than six passengers for hire and engaged in the offshore oil industry, when operating for more than 12 hours: (1) Establish standardized watch schedules to minimize fatigue from prolonged duty hours, and (2) appoint one operator to be in charge to establish responsibility of command and to avoid confusion in an emergency. (M-78-77)

With reference to recommendations M-78-74, 75, and 76, the Safety Board last May 7 stated that these three recommendations were intended to be complementary and were published in that order for emphasis. It is obvious that there can be no requirement for an operator to be qualified to operate certain equipment if that equipment is not required to be on the vessel. The steps necessary are: (1) Require the equipment, (2) require examination of the operators, and (3) require certification of the operator's ability to use the equipment. The facts of the subject accident showed positively the pitfalls of sophisticated equipment in the hands of unskilled users. The LORAN and the radar were misused in the case of the CANDY BAR. The Board does not believe that the answer is to get rid of the equipment, as implied in the Coast Guard response, but to train the operators, as recommended by the Board.

Electronic navigational equipment has become less expensive in recent years and, as with the CANDY BAR, owners are providing this equipment. However, the qualifications required of licensed operators have not kept pace with the progress of the navigational equipment. Even though all surface radar is limited due to antenna height, the Safety Board believes that normal antenna height would be adequate for safe navigation of this type of vessel.

If the Coast Guard believes that a single trade related restriction on the operator examination is inappropriate, the Board suggests that the qualification and examination in the use of electronic navigation equipment be extended to all operators of vessels that carry more than six passengers for hire regardless of employment. The Board suggests in lieu of the trade restriction, an operating restriction, such as for vessels operating for more than 12 hours and more than 20 miles offshore.

The Safety Board determined that the probable cause of this accident was the failure of both the STOLT VIKING and the CANDY BAR to keep an adequate lookout, visually as well as on radar. Additionally, the crew of the CANDY BAR incorrectly determined their own position about 5 minutes before the collision. The incorrect use of the available electronic navigational equipment was most definitely a factor in this accident.

The Board notes that the procedure for qualification as "radar observer" for operators of vessels over 300 gross tons and for operators of vessels under 300 gross tons need not be the same; the important point is that accurate navigation and correct collision avoidance procedures are fundamental to the safe operation of any vessel. The principle of operation in 49 CFR 10.05-46 should be considered essential for the operator of a vessel carrying more than six persons for hire. The fact that CANDY BAR type vessels are small and lively and cannot keep as precise a course as larger vessels makes it even more important that the navigators of such vessels be capable of effective and accurate use of the electronic equipment available.

With reference to recommendation M-78-77, the Safety Board said on May 7, 1979, that in the CANDY BAR case the watch-standing division tradition must not have taken hold. A single operator was on duty for most of a 12-hour period. As there is no requirement for a standard watch, or even for maximum duty hours for vessels under 100 gross tons (46 CFR 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 apply to vessels of more than 100 gross tons), the ill-advised action of the operator was not necessarily illegal. The Safety Board believes that in an area with high density tankship and other vessel traffic, and numerous petroleum exploration structures, the watch division and duty hour requirements of 46 CFR 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 should apply to vessels under 100 gross tons carrying six or more passengers for hire. The Board asked for reconsideration of the watch schedule portion of this recommendation.

The second part of M-78-77 was intended to cause the establishment of responsibility for the safety of the vessel and its passengers, not seniority. The Safety Board is not concerned as to the age or length of service of an individual, but that one individual be given the responsibility for command for the entire voyage rather than the tradeoff situation that existed on the CANDY BAR. The Board hopes that, if the Coast Guard does not feel a regulation is necessary, at least some publication concerning the common sense involved in providing for a "master" designation for these vessels might go to the companies and owners involved.

Coast Guard's letter of January 21 in response indicates nonconcurrence with recommendations M-78-74 and M-78-75. Coast Guard says the casualty statistics and equipment limitations do not justify the proposed regulations called for in recommendation M-78-74. Coast Guard says it did not intend to imply that vessel operators get rid of electronic navigational equipment and views with favor the trend of the vessel "T" boat industry to self-equip. Coast Guard does not believe there is justification to implement M-78-74, especially since many owners are providing this equipment at their own initiative. Coast Guard identified the limitations of radars in vessels described in the recommendation as (1) small display and scope size, (2) depict contacts on a relative bearing as gyrocompass inputs are seldom available, (3) heavy sea return, and (4) limited range.

With reference to M-78-75, Coast Guard notes that the Safety Board suggested that operator examinations in electronic navigational equipment either be extended to all operators of vessels carrying more than six passengers or to those vessels operating more than 12 hours or more than 20 miles offshore. Coast Guard does not agree that hours of operation or distance offshore has any bearing on the use of electronic equipment. Coast Guard's initial response of April 19, 1979, to M-78-75 considers the operation of all small passenger vessels.

Coast Guard, with respect to recommendation M-78-76, notes that the Safety Board concludes that inaccurate use of position-fixing equipment on the CANDY BAR was definitely a factor in this accident. Coast Guard does not agree with this conclusion in that the need for an alert lookout exists throughout this operating area and the fact that the vessel was located approximately one mile farther north than determined earlier by the crew was not significant to this collision. Coast Guard states, "Actually, a one-mile navigational error could reasonably be expected considering the location and the equipment in use. It is not viewed as ineffective operator use of installed equipment."

Concerning recommendation M-78-77, Coast Guard says any move to apply 46 157.20-5 and 157.20-10 to Subchapter T vessels would require a statutory change. This attempt would most likely not be successful due to opposition from boat operators as labor costs would increase significantly. Part 52-2-10 of the Coast Guard Marine Safety Manual provide a standard scale for a two watch system which has proved satisfactory. The requirement to carry an additional operator when operating more than 12 hours is provided for on the vessel's Certificate of Inspection. Coast Guard reports that Operations Research, Inc., has made two studies for Coast Guard since 1977 concerning human causal factors in marine accidents. Fatigue was not analyzed as a potential causal factor because, it was determined, fatigue was not readily quantifiable or easily perceived as a direct or indirect factor. Coast Guard said it would be relatively easy to require that one of the operators be designated as "master." The problem comes in the definitions and related duties of the terms "master" and "operator." The Coast Guard is studying changes to 46 CFR Parts 390 and 404 to remove "operator" from the statutory and regulatory language. A submission to the Congress is contemplated during its current session, and an update of this legislative effort will be supplied in 6 months.

NUCLEAR REGULATORY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-409]

Dairyland Power Coop.; Issuance of Amendment to Provisional Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 19 to Provisional Operating License No. DPR-45, issued to Dairyland Power Cooperative (the licensee), which revised the Technical Specifications for operation of the La Crosse Boiling Water Reactor (LACBWR) located in Vernon County, Wisconsin. The amendment is effective as of its date of issuance.

The amendment modifies the Technical Specifications for the LACBWR by adding new, more restrictive limits for the reactor coolant and off-gas radioactivity to compensate for increasing the maximum average fuel assembly exposure by 600 MWD/MTU. These limits apply only to fuel cycle 6 operation and would permit continued reactor operation while the new spent fuel racks are being installed in the fuel storage well.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of this amendment will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) an environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of this amendment.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendment dated January 17, 1980, and supplement thereto dated January 28, 1980, (2) Amendment No. 19 to License No. DPR-45, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. All of these items are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. and at the La Crosse Public Library, 800 Main Street, La Crosse, Wisconsin 54601. A copy of items (2) and (3) may be obtained upon request addressed to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Director, Division of Operation Reactors.

Duquesne Light Co., et al.; Termination of Order for Modification of Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has completed the review of the Revised ECCS Analysis relating to the Zirconium-Water error and has terminated the April 21, 1978 Order for Modification of Facility Operating License No. DPR-66 issued to Duquesne Light Company, Ohio Edison Company and Pennsylvania Power Company (the licensee) of the Beaver Valley Power Station, Unit No. 1 (the facility) located in Beaver County, Pennsylvania. This action is effective as of the date of issuance.

This action complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the related Safety Evaluation. Prior public notice of this action was not required since this action does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the termination of the Order for Modification will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) and environmental impact statement or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of this action.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for termination of the Order for Modification dated May 7, 1979 and (2) the Commission's letter to the licensee dated January 9, 1980. Florida Power & Light Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 52 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-31 issued to Florida Power and Light Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Turkey Point Nuclear Generating, Unit No. 3 (the facility) located in the Dade County, Florida. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment permits continued operation of Turkey Point Plant Unit No. 3 for six equivalent full power months from January 24, 1980 at which time the steam generators shall be inspected.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since this amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

Indiana & Michigan Electric Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 17 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-74 issued to Indiana and Michigan Electric Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of Donald C. Cook Nuclear Plant, Unit No. 2 (the facility) located in Berrien County, Michigan. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment revises the Technical Specification limits for total nuclear peaking factor (F_q) for the Donald C. Cook, Unit No. 2.

The amendment also supersedes the Order for Modification of License for D. C. Cook Unit No. 2, dated June 6, 1978, accordingly, that Order has been terminated.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Maine Yankee Atomic Power Co.; Issuance of Amendment To Facility Operating License issued Amendment No. 47 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-38, issued to Maine Yankee Atomic Power Company (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Maine Yankee Atomic Power Station (the facility) located in Lincoln County, Maine. The amendment is effective as of its date of issuance.

The amendment deletes the limiting conditions for operation relating to aquatic ecology set forth in the Appendix B Environmental Technical Specifications.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. Prior public notice of this amendment was not required since the amendment does not involve a significant hazards consideration.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of this amendment is a ministerial action required as a matter of law and that an environmental impact assessment need not be prepared.

Power Authority of the State of New York; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 28 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-64, issued to the Power Authority of the State of New York (the licensee), which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Indian Point Nuclear Generating Unit No. 3 (the facility) located in Buchanan, Westchester County, New York. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment revises the reactor coolant system pressure and temperature heatup and cooldown curves and adds a requirement to conduct surveillance for core reactivity anomalies.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act), and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment. [Docket No. 50-281]

Virginia Electric & Power Co.; Issuance of Amendment to Facility Operating License

The U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission (the Commission) has issued Amendment No. 54 to Facility Operating License No. DPR-37 issued to Virginia Electric and Power Company, which revised Technical Specifications for operation of the Surry Power Station, Unit No. 2 (the facility) located in Surry County, Virginia. The amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

The amendment incorporates steam generator inservice inspection requirements and reactor coolant and secondary coolant iodine radioactive concentration limits into the Technical Specifications and deletes a license condition that previously governed steam generator inspections.

These changes have been made to provide inservice inspection requirements suitable for essentially new steam generators in accordance with Regulatory Guide 1.83. Previous requirements were tailored to deteriorating steam generator tubes which were removed as a part of the steam generator repair program approved on January 19, 1979.

The application for the amendment complies with the standards and requirements of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954, as amended (the Act) and the Commission's rules and regulations. The Commission has made appropriate findings as required by the Act and the Commission's rules and regulations in 10 CFR Chapter I, which are set forth in the license amendment.

The Commission has determined that the issuance of these amendments will not result in any significant environmental impact and that pursuant to 10 CFR 51.5(d)(4) an environmental impact statement, or negative declaration and environmental impact appraisal need not be prepared in connection with issuance of these amendments.

For further details with respect to this action, see (1) the application for amendment dated December 30, 1976 as supplemented May 24, 1979, (2) Amendment No. 54 to License No. DPR-37, and (3) the Commission's related Safety Evaluation. All of these items are available for public inspection at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., and at the Swem Library, College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Virginia. A copy of items (2) and (3) may be obtained upon request addressed to the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20555, Attention: Director, Division of Operating Reactors.

Dated at Bethesda, Maryland, this 20th day of December, 1979.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Release No. 34-16566; File No. SR-NYSE-77-13]

New York Stock Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29 (June 4, 1975), notice is hereby given that on January 25, 1980 the above mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Terms of Proposed Rule Changes

The proposed changes contain amendments to the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") filing (SR-NYSE-77-13) dealing with the regulation of associated persons of members of that exchange. The text of the proposed amendments is set forth below:

The New York Stock Exchange hereby amends Exhibit I of File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Exhibit 1-A of Amendment No. 1 thereto as follows. The new language italicized and deleted language [bracketed] reflect changes from the language contained in the Exhibits of the original filing and Amendment No. 1 thereto.

Rule 2—"Member," "Membership," "Member Firm," etc.

The term engaged in a "securities or kindred business" shall mean [acting as an investment advisor or] transacting business generally as a broker or dealer in securities, including but not limited to, servicing customer accounts or introducing them to another person.

Proposed New Rule 304—Allied Members and Approved Persons

(a) No person shall become or remain an allied member or an approved person unless [approved by the Board of Directors] such person meets and continues to meet the standards prescribed in the Constitution and Rules of the Exchange.

(h) Any person who controls a member or member organization or who engages in a securities or kindred business and is controlled by or under common control with a member or member organization but is not a member or allied member or an employee of a member organization shall apply for approval by the Exchange as an approved person by furnishing the Exchange with such information with respect to such applicant, its history and business, its equity-holders, officers, partners and directors, any person controlling such applicant, and such other information as the rules of the Exchange may [from time to time] require. Each such applicant shall agree to:

(1) Supply the Exchange with information with respect to such applicant's relationship and dealings with the member or member organization with which it is associated as the Exchange may reasonably require to ascertain whether the applicant is in compliance with applicable provisions of Federal Securities Laws, the rules and regulations thereunder, and the rules of the Exchange; and * * *

12 Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 304(h)(4), no applicant to become an approved person (the "applicant") or approved person which is domiciled outside the United States shall be required to permit examination by the Exchange, or any person designated by it, of the applicant's or approved person's books and records, at its place of domicile, to verify the accuracy of information required to be supplied by the rules of the Exchange whenever such examination would, in the opinion of the independent person or government official (as hereinafter specified) be contrary to the law to which the applicant or approved person is subject in its place of domicile or contrary to generally accepted custom or business practice of such place. Whenever an applicant or an approved person chooses to invoke the provisions of the preceding sentence of this paragraph, the applicant or approved person shall, at its expense, submit to the Exchange a written certification acceptable to the Exchange by a person deemed independent of the applicant or approved person and of its affiliated member organization, which person is recognized as an enrolled attorney or counselor at law in such place of domicile (the "independent person") or an appropriate governmental official of the place of domicile stating that the examination of the books and records of the applicant or approved person by the Exchange or any person designated by it at its place of domicile would be contrary to the law to which the applicant or approved person is subject in its place of domicile or contrary to generally accepted custom or business practice of such place. Whenever and so long as an approved person chooses to invoke the provisions of the first sentence of this paragraph, the approved person shall, at its expense, submit to the Exchange, not less frequently than annually and upon specific request by the Exchange, a written certification acceptable to the Exchange by an independent person or a person deemed independent of the applicant or approved person and its affiliated member organization which person is recognized in the place of domicile of the applicant or approved person as an auditor stating that upon reasonable examination conducted by the said person in accordance with generally accepted practices and principles prevalent in the approved person's place of domicile, (i) in respect of any appropriately designated omnibus account carried by the affiliated member organization for the account of the approved person but not for its benefit, said independent person has no reason to believe that any of the persons on whose behalf and for whose benefit any transaction was effected therein was a person associated with the approved person or its affiliated member organization within the meaning of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as amended (the "Act"), or the rules thereunder, and (ii) in respect of any account carried by the affiliated member organization in the name and for the account and benefit of the approved person, which account reflects transactions effected in reliance on Section 11(a)(1)(G) of the Act, the rules thereunder, and, in particular, Rule 11a1-2 thereunder, the approved person, during its preceding fiscal year, derived more than fifty percent of its gross revenues from one or more of the sources specified in Section 11(a)(G)(i) of the Act.

Rule 311—Formation and Approval of Member Organizations.

(b) The Board of Directors shall not approve a partnership or corporation as a member organization unless:

(1) [at least a majority of the directors of such corporation are members or allied members; and] each director of such corporation [who] is [not] a member, [or] allied member or [is] an approved person; and

Rule 312—Notice of Changes Within Member Organizations

(e) Unless permitted by the [Board of Directors] Exchange in order to protect investors and the public interest or to facilitate the administration of the Exchange, no person shall be a member or allied member in a member organization unless all persons required to be approved by the [Board of Directors] Exchange are so approved.

NYSE Statement of the Purpose of the Proposed Constitutional and Rule Changes

This section of original File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Amendment No. 1 thereto is amended by adding the following paragraphs as item F to explain the purpose of the changes contained in this amendment to the filing:

Rule 2 has been amended to remove investment advisors from the proposed definition of "securities or kindred business" thereby relieving investment advisors (who are not registered broker/dealers) controlled by or under common control with a member of the Exchange from the originally proposed requirement that they become approved persons.

Rule 304(a) has been amended to include a reference to the standards required for a person to become or remain an allied member or approved person.

Rule 304(h) has been amended by inserting the words "rules of the" in order to clarify the intent of this provision. Rule 304(h)(1) has been amended, as well, to clarify the intent of the provision.

New Rule 304.12 is proposed to provide an alternate means for compliance with the Exchange's examination of books and records requirement for approved persons (proposed in Rule 304(h)) by permitting on-site inspection of books and records for foreign situated approved persons to be conducted by independent professionals where on-site inspection by the Exchange would be contrary to local law or custom. A person deemed independent of the approved person who is an enrolled attorney or counsellor at law of the country of domicile of the approved person ("independent person") or an appropriate government official of the place of domicile would have to provide an attestation that such inspection would be contrary to law or generally accepted business practice before the alternate examination procedure would be permitted to be utilized. The examination and certification to the Exchange of the examination results must be accomplished by an "independent person" or a person deemed independent of the approved person who is recognized in the place of domicile as an auditor.

Rule 311(b) has been amended to rescind the requirement that a majority of the directors of a member corporation be members or allied members to allow member corporations greater discretion in selecting directors. Inside directors would still be required to be members or allied members and outside directors would have to become approved persons.

Rule 312(e) has been amended to incorporate standards by which an exception to the requirement that "no person shall be a member or allied member in a member organization unless all persons required to be approved by the Exchange are so approved" could be permitted.

NYSE Statement of the Basis Under the Act for Adoption of the Proposed Amendments

The following is added to this section of the filing as indicated.

(i) The proposed amendment to Rule 304.12 establishing an alternate means for compliance with on-site examination of books and records requirements by foreign domiciled approved persons is consistent with Section 6(b)(1) of the Act. The amendment will permit the Exchange to fulfill its responsibility to enforce compliance by persons associated with members with the Act, the rules and regulations thereunder, and the rules of the Exchange where on-site Exchange examination is inconsistent with local law or custom.

(ii) The rescission of the requirement that a majority of the directors of a member corporation be members or allied members (Rule 311(b)(1)), and the deletion of "Investment advisor" from the proposed definition of "engaged in a securities or kindred business" (Rule 2) are consistent with Section 6(b)(2) of the Act in that the ability of a person to become associated with a member or member organization will be enhanced.

(In addition, the standards for becoming or remaining a member, allied member or approved person incorporated in the amendments to Rules 304(a), 304(b)(1) and 312(e), are consistent with Section 6(b)(2) of the Act in that standards for becoming associated with a member or member organization are established in accordance with the provisions of Section 6(c) of the Act.

The above constitute the only changes to File No. SR-NYSE-77-13 and Amendment No. 1 thereto.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submission will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

Dated: February 12, 1980.
George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

[Release No. 34-16575; File No. SR-Amex-79-21]

American Stock Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organization; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Act"), 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 (June 4, 1975), notice is hereby given that on December 4, 1979 the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

The American Stock Exchange proposed to amend Rule 471 regarding business expansion restrictions and business reduction requirements, as set forth below. (Material indicated by [brackets] is proposed to be deleted; underlined material is proposed to be added.)

Business Expansion Restrictions and Business Reduction Requirements

Rule 471. (a) A member organization which carries customer accounts shall not expand its business during any period in which any of the following conditions continue to exist [for more than 15 consecutive business days], which period will commence the later of (i) 15 consecutive business days after the condition exists, or (ii) 5 consecutive business days after the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition:

(i) Its net capital is less than 150 percent of its minimum requirement or such greater percentage as may from time to time be prescribed by the Exchange, or

(ii) If subject to this requirement, its aggregate indebtedness is more than 1,000 per centum of its net capital, or

(iii) If in lieu of (ii) above, the specified percentage of the aggregate debit items in the Formula for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (the alternative net capital requirement) is applicable, its net capital is less than 7 percent of the aggregate debit items thereunder, or

(iv) Capital withdrawals including maturities scheduled during the next six months would result in the condition described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, or

(v) The Exchange restricts the member organization.

(b) A member organization which carries customer accounts shall forthwith reduce its business to a point enabling its available capital to meet the standards of paragraph (a) [if for more than 15 consecutive business days], commencing the later of (i) 15 consecutive business days after any of the following conditions continue to exist, or (ii) 5 consecutive business days after the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition:

(i) Its net capital is less than 125 percent of its minimum requirement or such greater percentage as may from time to time be prescribed by the Exchange, or

(ii) If subject to this requirement, its aggregate indebtedness is more than 1,200 per centum of its capital, or

(iii) If in lieu of (ii) above, the specified percentage of the aggregate debit items in the Formula for Determination of Reserve Requirements for Brokers and Dealers under SEC Rule 15c3-3 (the alternative net capital requirement) is applicable, its net capital is less than 6 percent of the aggregate debit items thereunder, or

(iv) Capital withdrawals including maturities scheduled during the next six months would result in the condition described in (i), (ii) or (iii) above, or

(v) The Exchange restricts the member organization.

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing rule change is as follows: Rule 471 authorizes the Exchange to impose certain restrictions on a member organization experiencing capital difficulties, but which is not yet in violation of Rule 470, the Exchange's net capital rule (which incorporates by reference SEC Rule 15c3-1, the uniform net capital rule). Rule 471(a) prohibits a member organization which carries customer accounts from expanding its business during any period in which any of five specified conditions relating to its capital position exist for more than 15 consecutive business days. Rule 471(b) requires a member organization to reduce its business to the extent necessary for its available capital to meet the standards of Rule 471(a), if any of five other, more serious, conditions exist for more than 15 consecutive business days.¹

¹ The two sets of conditions are set forth in subparagraphs (a)(i)-(v) and (b)(i)-(v) of Rule 471—see above.

Normally, a member organization discovers a capital problem within 15 days after it arises and attempts to rectify the problem within this period. However, under Rule 471, if the existence of a specified condition is for some reason not discovered by the member organization until after the 15-day period, the member organization must immediately comply with the applicable business restriction, even though additional capital may be readily available to correct the condition once it is discovered. This aspect of the rule imposes an unnecessary hardship.

The proposed amendment to Rule 471 would allow a member organization at least five business days to take corrective action after the condition is discovered. The amendment, which is similar to a change made recently by the New York Stock Exchange and approved by the Commission, imposes the restrictions of Rule 471(a) and (b) as soon as one or more of the specified conditions has existed for more than 15 days, provided that the member organization has known or been advised by the Exchange of such condition at least five business days previously.²

The proposed amendment is consistent with Section 6(b) of the Act in general and furthers the objectives of Section 6(b)(1) and 6(b)(5) of the Act in particular in that it enables the Exchange to enforce compliance by its members with Exchange and SEC financial responsibility rules and provides for the protection of investors and the public interest.

Comments Received From Members, Participants or Others on Proposed Rule Change

No comments were solicited or received with respect to the proposed rule change.

Burden on Competition

The proposed amendment, by relaxing the restrictive operation of Rule 471, will enhance competition since the applicable restrictions will now not take effect as quickly, thereby allowing member firms to avoid unnecessary interruptions of their operations.

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer periods to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents, the commission will:

² The amendment to NYSE Rule 326 (approved by SEC Release No. 34-16113 dated August 20, 1979), imposes the rule's restrictions as soon as one or more conditions has existed for more than 15 days, provided such condition has been known to the Exchange for at least five consecutive business days.

(A) by order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. BILLING CODE 8010-01-M

[Release No. 34-16578; Filed No. SR-CBOE-80-2]

Chicago Board Options Exchange, Inc.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Changes

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78s(b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 (June 4, 1975), notice hereby is given that on January 29, 1980 the Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the following proposed rule changes. They implement the Uniform Code of Arbitration (Code), created by the Securities Industry Conference on Arbitration (SICA), as Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated, (Exchange) Rules 18.3 through 18.33.

Exchange' Statement of Basis and Purpose

Proposed rules 18.3 through 18.33 are the Uniform Code of Arbitration created by SICA to assure the prompt and fair handling of claims. The Securities and Exchange Commission has reviewed the Code. Each SICA participant, including this Exchange, is in the process of formally submitting the Code to the Commission pursuant to Section 19(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 19b-4 thereunder. Proposed rules 18.1 and 18.2 are changed in order to cover Exchange arbitration procedures not covered by the Code.

The addition to Rules 18.1 (a) and (b) requires the approval of the Exchange's Director of Arbitration in connection with the submission of a member or nonmember claim; this requirement ensures that the claim is suitable for arbitration and that the Exchange has jurisdiction of the claim. New section (c) of Rule 18.1 provides for the review by the Board of Directors or a panel of the Board of Directors of such decisions made by the Director of Arbitration. Old section (c) is omitted to eliminate from matters subject to arbitration, employment disputes between members and their employees. Finally, Interpretation and Policy .03 is omitted because the time and place of hearing are determined under proposed Rule 18.16.

Rule 18.2 provides procedures in member controversies for the selection of arbitrators by the chairman of the arbitration committee and the use of a reasonable number of peremptory challenges. It also applies the provisions of the Uniform Arbitration Code to member controversies where those provisions are applicable.

The proposed rule changes are part of an industry-wide attempt to provide a fair, efficient, and relatively inexpensive method of settling disputes in order to protect investors and the public interest and to promote just and equitable principles of trade pursuant to section 6 (b) (5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

No comments on these proposed rule changes were solicited or received by the Exchange.

The Exchange does not believe that the proposed rule changes will impose any burden on competition.

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents, the Commission will:

(A) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(B) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room; 1100 L Street, NW., Washington, D.C. Copies of such filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

Eberstadt Asset Management, Inc., and Eberstadt Fund Management, Inc.; Filing of Application and Order of Temporary Exemption Pending Determination of the Application

February 15, 1980.

Notice is hereby given that Eberstadt Asset Management Inc. ("EAM") and Eberstadt Fund Management Inc. ("EFM"), 61 Broadway, New York, New York 10006, their officers, directors and employees (hereafter also called "Applicants") have filed an application pursuant to Section 9(c) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, 15 U.S.C. 80a-1, et seq., as amended (the "Act") for an order exempting them from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent such section is applicable, and have requested that the Commission grant a temporary exemption from Section 9(a) pending the Commission's determination of the application for permanent exemption. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations therein which are summarized below.

Applicants are Delaware corporations engaged in the business of advising investment companies and corporate pension and profit sharing plans.

In March 1978, EAM (then called F. Eberstadt & Co., Inc. ("Eberstadt")) and EFM (then called F. Eberstadt & Co., Managers & Distributors, Inc. ("M&D")) were named as co-defendants in Civil Action No. 78-1055 brought by the Commission in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (the "action"). Eberstadt acted as financial advisers to Sun Company, Inc. in connection with the private purchases by LHIW, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of Sun, of approximately 34% of the outstanding common stock of Becton, Dickinson and Company in January 1978. The Commission's complaint alleges, inter alia, that LHIW's purchases were not made in compliance with Section 14(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and that certain defendants constituted a "group" prior to January 1978 which violated Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act by failing to file a timely Schedule 13D in connection therewith. The trial on the issue of liability was completed and the court held, inter alia, that Eberstadt and M&D had violated Section 13(d), and that Eberstadt had aided and abetted violations of Section 14(d) of the Exchange Act, and that Eberstadt had violated and M&D had aided and abetted violation of Sections 17(d) and 17(e) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "Act").

Applicants entered into a stipulation of settlement with the Commission and agreed to the entry by the court of an order terminating the action against them with prejudice and requiring them to comply with the stipulation of settlement (the "Order").

Section 9(a) of the Act, insofar as is pertinent here, disqualifies any person, or any company with which such person is affiliated, from acting in the capacity of employee, officer, director, member of any advisory board, investment adviser, or depositor for any registered investment company, or principal underwriter for any registered open-end company, registered unit investment trust, or registered face-amount certificate company, if such person is by reason of any misconduct enjoined by any court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security. EAM and EFM do not concede that the Order would disqualify them under Section 9(a).

Section 9(c) provides that upon application the Commission shall grant an exemption from the provisions of Section 9(a) either unconditionally or on an appropriate temporary or other conditional basis if it is established that the prohibitions of Section 9(a), as applied to the applicant, are unduly or disproportionately severe or that the conduct of such person has been such as not to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant such application.

EAM and EFM have submitted pursuant to Section 9(c) that the prohibitions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent they may be applicable to them by virtue of the entry of the Order, would be unduly and disproportionately severe as applied to them and that their conduct was not such as to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant this exemption. In support thereof, EAM and EFM represented that:

(i) The opinion of the court on liability dealt with complex and uncertain areas of the law and constituted in major respects a case of first impression. Applicants relied throughout the transactions at issue on the advice of independent and competent counsel.

(ii) Applicants have never been enjoined, permanently or temporarily, by order, judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction from engaging in or continuing any conduct or practice in connection with the purchase or sale of any security.

(iii) EAM and EFM have never before applied for an exemption from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act.

(iv) Subsequent to the events and transactions which gave rise to Civil Action No. 78-1055, Eberstadt underwent a complete reorganization including a change in ownership and the divestiture of its brokerage and investment banking business. Eberstadt's investment advisory businesses, renamed EAM and EFM, were acquired by and are now controlled by Marsh & McLennan Asset Management Company, whose affiliates include other registered investment companies and advisers. Because of this sale and change of ownership, the prohibitions of Section 9(a) would operate against the financial interests of parties not involved in the events and transactions which gave rise to the Order.

(v) The prohibitions of Section 9(a) would unjustifiably deprive EAM & EFM and affiliated persons of their ability to act as investment advisers for investment companies, a line of business which EFM and affiliates have been successfully engaged in many years. Applicants and companies affiliated with them manage billions of dollars of funds. The prohibitions of Section 9(a) would cause extreme and undue hardship and disruptions to those persons and entities who have entrusted the management of their funds to Applicants and their affiliates.

(vi) EAM and EFM have relied on the Commission's staff's agreement to recommend a temporary exemption from the prohibitions of Section 9(a) in entering into a settlement of the action.

The Commission has considered the matter and finds that:

(1) The prohibitions of Section 9(a), to the extent they may be applicable, may be unduly or disproportionately severe as applied to EAM and EFM in that their conduct has been such as not to make it against the public interest or protection of investors to grant the application for a temporary exemption from Section 9(a) pending determination of the application; and

and appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act that the temporary order be issued forthwith.

Accordingly, it is ordered, Pursuant to Section 9(c) of the Act, that EAM and EFM including their directors, officers, and employees, be and they are hereby temporarily exempted from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act pending final determination by the Commission of EAM's and EFM's application for an order exempting them from the provisions of Section 9(a) of the Act, to the extent they may be applicable.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than March 17, 1980 at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing a request for a hearing on the matter accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail (air mail if the person being served is located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing) upon Willkie Farr & Gallagher, One Citicorp Center, 153 East 53rd Street, New York, New York 10022. Proof of such service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. At any time after said date, as provided in Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein may be issued by the Commission upon the basis of the information stated in said application, unless an order for hearing upon said application shall be issued upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered will receive notice of further developments in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

By the Commission.
George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

[Release No. 11048; 812-4523]

Finance Co. of Pennsylvania; Filing of Application Exempting a Proposed Transaction From the Prohibitions

February 14, 1980.

Notice is hereby given that The Finance Company of Pennsylvania ("Applicant"), 7 East Lancaster Avenue, Ardmore, Pennsylvania 19003, an open-end, non-diversified investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 ("Act"), filed an application on August 23, 1979, and an amendment thereto on January 30, 1980, for an order, pursuant to Section 17(b) of the Act, exempting from the prohibitions of Section 17(a) of the Act Applicant's sale of 5,175 shares of Common Stock ("Shares") to South Chester Tube Company ("South Chester") for $5,806,350 in cash and a note. All interested persons are referred to the application on file with the Commission for a statement of the representations contained therein, which are summarized below.

The application states that South Chester is a Pennsylvania corporation which conducts its operations through its two wholly-owned subsidiaries, principally through Southco, Inc., and to a much lesser extent through Tacony Industrial Park, Inc. Southco, Inc.'s principal business is the manufacture and sale of specialty industrial fasteners. Tacony Industrial Park, Inc.'s principal asset is an industrial park which it leases to other parties. South Chester's presently issued and outstanding Common Stock consists of 20,000 shares, $50 par value, each share having identical rights and privileges. There are no other classes of stock of South Chester issued and outstanding.

Applicant states that the Shares owned by it represent approximately 25.875 percent of South Chester's presently outstanding Common Stock and represent approximately 35.66 percent of Applicant's total assets as of June 30, 1979. Applicant admits that since it owns more than 5 percent of the presently outstanding shares of South Chester Common Stock, Applicant and South Chester are deemed to be affiliated persons of each other under Section 2(a)(3) of the Act. Furthermore, Applicant admits that since persons who own more than 5 percent of Applicant's outstanding Common Stock also own Common Stock of South Chester, the proposed transaction does not qualify for the exemption provided by Rule 17a-6 under the Act.

Applicant submits that in 1977, South Chester initially approached Applicant regarding a possible purchase by South

Chester of up to 4,000 shares of South Chester's Common Stock for $735 per share, which shares South Chester proposed to transfer to a subsidiary's employee stock ownership plan. Because the Shares constituted such a significant percentage of Applicant's total assets and Applicant's investment policy contemplates that no more than 25 percent of the value of its portfolio shall be invested in the securities of one issuer, Applicant states that it seriously considered South Chester's proposal. However, no agreement between Applicant and South Chester regarding the sale of any of the Shares was concluded in 1977.

In 1978, Applicant submits that it attempted to interest a third party in purchasing the Shares and to enlist the aid of other South Chester stockholders in voting for the sale of South Chester's assets to a third party. Due to the opposition of other South Chester stockholders, Applicant states that it was not successful in these efforts. Also during 1978, Applicant states that it received preliminary inquiries from various parties concerning the purchase of the South Chester shares owned by Applicant, but no definitive offers were received. Applicant represents that at this time it first became apparent to Applicant that none of these potential purchasers was interested in any transaction other than one involving substantially all of South Chester's Common Stock or substantially all of its assets. Applicant submits that since it lacked the power to effect such a transaction and since the Board of Directors of South Chester was not willing to enter into such a transaction, for all practical purposes the only likely purchaser for the Shares was South Chester.

Because of Applicant's continuing belief that the sale of the Shares to South Chester was the only viable means for disposition of the Shares at a fair price, negotiations between Applicant and South Chester resumed in the Spring of 1979, and resulted in the execution of a Stock Purchase Agreement ("Agreement") dated July 24, 1979. Applicant states that the Agreement was authorized and approved by the respective Boards of Directors of Applicant and South Chester.

The Agreement provides that Applicant will sell, and South Chester will purchase, the Shares for an aggregate consideration of $5,806,350, or $1,122 per share. The Agreement further provides for alternative payment terms. Under alternative (a) if Applicant receives an opinion from its investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm that the value of the South Chester note will not exceed 25 percent of the value of Applicant's total assets on the closing date, Applicant will obtain (i) a cash payment in the amount of $1,740,000 at closing (just under 30 percent of the total consideration in order that the transaction can qualify as an installment sale for Federal income tax purposes), and (ii) the delivery of South Chester's promissory note in the principal amount of $4,066,350, with interest payable quarterly at the rate of 9½ percent per annum on the principal amount from time to time outstanding and with the principal amount payable in an installment of $1,591,350 on January 15, 1981, and installments of $825,000 on January 15 of each of the years 1982, 1983 and 1984.

Under alternative (b) if Applicant's investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm is not able to furnish the opinion referred to in (a) above, Applicant will obtain (i) a cash payment of $2,506,350 at the closing (plus such additional amount but not in excess of $250,000 as is necessary to reduce the principal amount of the note hereinafter described to an amount not in excess of 25 percent of the value of Applicant's total assets on the date of closing), and (ii) the delivery of South Chester's promissory note in the principal amount of $3,300,000 (assuming no portion of the $250,000 is paid), with interest payable quarterly at the rate of 9½ percent per annum on the principal amount from time to time outstanding and with the principal amount payable in four equal installments on January 15th of each of the years 1981, 1982, 1983 and 1984 (with provision for decrease in the first maturing installment by an amount equal to the amount of any increase in the initial cash payment).

Applicant states that consummation of the sale of the Shares is conditioned, among other things, upon receipt of (1) an order from the Commission exempting the sale from the provisions of Section 17(a) of the Act; (2) an opinion of special counsel to Applicant, or rulings from the Internal Revenue Service if deemed advisable by such special counsel, to the effect that (i) the sale will not adversely affect Applicant's present status as a regulated investment company for Federal income tax purposes, (ii) the proceeds from the sale will qualify for capital gains treatment for Federal income tax purposes, and (iii) if payment alternative (a) in the preceding paragraph becomes operative, the sale will be treated as an installment sale for Federal income tax purposes; and (3) an opinion of counsel to South Chester as to certain other specified matters.

Applicant represents that since there is no trading market for the Shares, its Board of Directors has traditionally established a fair value for the Shares. Applicant states that as of June 30, 1979, this fair value was $5,516,550 or $1,066 per share. Likewise, Applicant states that its investment adviser, as of May 2, 1979, valued the Shares at $1,066 per share. Those valuations included a 25 percent reduction based on the illiquidity of the issue.

Applicant further represents that it retained Janney Montgomery Scott, an independent investment banking firm, to advise it on the possible sale and the fairness of any price negotiated for the Shares by Applicant and South Chester. Applicant states that by letter dated August 8, 1979, the investment banking firm stated its opinion that $1,122 per share represents a fair price for the Shares. Applicant also submits that Coopers & Lybrand arrived at a valuation of $1,122 per share, primarily based upon earnings multiples from the specialty fastener industry (South Chester's primary business).

Applicant admits that the valuation of securities is, of course, not an exact science. Applicant states that based upon (i) the limited opportunities for sale available to Applicant; (ii) the independent judgment of Applicant's Board of Directors; and (iii) the professional investment advice received by Applicant and South Chester, the price it will receive for the Shares and the terms upon which such price will be paid are fair.

Applicant states that because South Chester was willing to entertain the transaction only on the basis that all of the Shares would be sold at the Closing, it initially sought payment of the entire purchase price in cash at the time the Shares were to be sold. Applicant states that South Chester refused this request, citing its need to conserve cash for anticipated expansion and its normal working capital requirements. Applicant believes that it was prudent to receive interest on the installments until paid at the rate of 9½%, particularly since this interest income would be effectively replacing dividends on the Shares, which have been recently yielding approximately 5%. Applicant states that the interest rate was negotiated at the end of June, 1979 and the parties agreed to a rate equal to that paid by General Motors Acceptance Corporation ("GMAC") with respect to its notes having a three-to-five year maturity sold most recent to the end of the week preceding June 25, 1979. Both Applicant and South Chester believe that the interest rate selected was fair to both parties in that the GMAC rate was representative of interest rates then being paid for borrowings on a medium term basis by highly creditworthy borrowers. Applicant recognizes that although GMAC and South Chester are in different businesses (a finance company versus a manufacturing company), Applicant feels that the interest rate negotiated is an appropriate recognition of South Chester's ability to make the installment payments as and when they become due. Applicant represents that South Chester presently has no indebtedness outstanding. Nevertheless, Applicant submits that the note will become immediately due and payable if the retained earnings of South Chester as of the close of any calendar quarter are less than 200% of the unpaid principal balance of the note.

Applicant represents that the South Chester note will be carried in Applicant's financial statements at a fair value as determined by Applicant's Board of Directors. Applicant further represents that the Board of Directors expects to be advised on this question by its investment adviser or an independent investment banking firm selected by it, which will utilize accepted valuation techniques consistent with Applicant's policy for the valuation of securities. Such fair value will be determined as of the date of issuance of this note and from time to time in the future depending upon prevailing interest rates which cannot now be predicted.

Section 17(a) of the Act provides, in pertinent part, that it is unlawful for any affiliated person of a registered investment company, or an affiliated person of such a person, acting as principal, knowingly to sell any security or other property to, or knowingly to purchase any security or other property from, such registered company. Section 17(b) of the Act provides, however, that the Commission, upon application, shall exempt a transaction from such prohibition if evidence established that the terms of the proposed transaction, including the consideration to be paid, are reasonable and fair and do not involve overreaching on the part of any person concerned, and that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of each registered investment company concerned and with the general purposes of the Act.

Applicant asserts that the terms of the proposed transaction are fair and reasonable, and that the $1,122 per share purchase price for the Shares is a fair and reasonable price based on the appraisals of the Shares by Applicant's investment adviser, Janney Montgomery Scott, and Coopers & Lybrand. Furthermore, Applicant believes that the proposed transaction is consistent with the policy of Applicant and with the general purposes of the Act and is in Applicant's best interests in that it will enable Applicant to diversify its assets and more closely adhere to its stated investment policies. Accordingly, Applicant requests that an order of exemption be granted under Section 17(b) of the Act with respect to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than March 10, 1980, at 5:30 p.m., submit to the Commission in writing, a request for a hearing on the application accompanied by a statement as to the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted, or he may request that he be notified if the Commission shall order a hearing thereon. Any such communication should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. A copy of such request shall be served personally or by mail upon Applicant at the address stated above. Proof of such service (by affidavit or, in the case of an attorney-at-law, by certificate) shall be filed contemporaneously with the request. As provided by Rule 0-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the Act, an order disposing of the application herein will be issued as of course following said date unless the Commission thereafter orders a hearing upon request or upon the Commission's own motion. Persons who request a hearing, or advice as to whether a hearing is ordered, will receive any notices and orders issued in this matter, including the date of the hearing (if ordered) and any postponements thereof.

For the Commission, by the Division of Investment Management, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

.03 No change from original filing.

.04 No change from original filing.

.05 No change from original filing.

.06 Reports of accounts and orders

required to be filed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Rule relate only to accounts in which a Market-Maker, individually, directly or indirectly, controls trading activities or has a direct interest in the profits or losses of such accounts. Thus, reports would be required for accounts over which a Market-Maker exercises investment discretion as well as for his proprietary accounts. [Reports would not be required simply because a Market-Maker has a passive interest in his firm's proprietary accounts.] For purposes of this Rule, related securities include securities convertible into or exchangeable for underlying securities.

Article XLVIII

Opening of Accounts

Rule 3. (a) No change from original filing.

(b) No change from original filing.

(c) No change from original filing.

(d) No change from original filing.

¹ Notice of filing of the proposed rule changes was given by publication of a Commission release (Securities Exchange Act Release No. 16254, October 5, 1979) and by publication in the Federal Register (44 FR 59974, October 17, 1979).

(e) No change from original filing.

... Interpretations and Policies:

.01 In fulfilling its obligations pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Rule with respect to options customers that are natural persons, a member organization shall seek to obtain the following information at a minimum (information shall be obtained for all participants in a joint account):

1. No change from original filing.

Article XLVIII

Statements of Accounts to Customers

Rule 11. [Statements of account shall be sent not less frequently than once every month to each customer in whose account there has been an entry during the preceding month with respect to an option contract. The statement shall bear a legend requesting the customer to promptly advise the member of any material change in the customer's investment or objectives or financial situation.] Every member organization shall send to its customers statements of account showing security and money positions, entries, interest charges and any special charges that have been assessed against such account during the period covered by the statement; provided, however, that such charges need not be specifically delineated on the statement if they are otherwise accounted for on the statement and have been itemized on transaction confirmations. With respect to options customers having a general (margin) account, such statement shall also provide the mark-to-market price and market value of each options position and other security position in the general (margin) account, the total market value of all positions in the account, the outstanding debit or credit balance in the account, and the general (margin) account equity. The statement shall bear a legend stating that further information with respect to commissions and other charges related to the execution of listed option transactions has been included in confirmations of such transactions previously furnished to the customer, and that such information will be made available to the customer promptly upon request. The statement shall also bear a legend requesting the customer to promptly advise the member of any material change in the customer's investment objectives or financial situation. Such statements of account shall be sent at least quarterly to all accounts having a money or a security position during the preceding quarter and at least monthly to all accounts having an entry during the preceding month.

... Interpretations and Policies:

.01 For purposes of the foregoing rule, general (margin) account equity shall be computed by subtracting the total of the "short" security values and any debit balance from the total of the "long" security values and any credit balance.

Article XLVIII

Supervision of Accounts

Rule 4. (a) [Delete paragraph (a) from original filing.] Duty to Supervise; Senior Registered Options Principal. Every member organization shall develop and implement a written program for the review of the organization's non-member customer accounts and all orders in such accounts, insofar as such accounts and orders relate to option contracts. This program shall be under the supervision of a designated Senior Registered Options Principal who is specifically identified to the Exchange and who is an officer (in the case of a corporation) or general partner (in the case of a partnership) of the member organization.

(b) No change from original filing.

(c) No change from original filing.

(d) No change from original filing.

... Interpretations and Policies:

.01 No change from original filing.

.02 No change from original filing.

.03 Each member organization shall maintain, at the principal supervisory office having jurisdiction over the office servicing the customer's account, information to permit review of each customer's options account on a timely basis to determine (i) the compatibility of options transactions with investment objectives and with the types of transactions for which the account was approved; (ii) the size and frequency of options transactions; (iii) commission activity in the account; (iv) profit or loss in the account; (v) undue concentration in any option class or classes; and (vi) compliance with the provisions of Regulation T of the Federal Reserve Board.

Article XIII

Communications to Customers

Rule 4. (a) General Rule. No member or member organization or person associated with a member [, and no partner or employee thereof,] shall utilize any advertisement, sales literature or other communications to any customer[s] or member of the public concerning options which:

- (i) No change from original filing.
- (ii) No change from original filing.
- (iii) No change from original filing.
- (iv) No change from original filing.
- (v) No change from original filing.

- (b) No change from original filing.
- (c) No change from original filing.
- (d) No change from original filing.
- (e) No change from original filing.

Interpretations and Policies:

.01 The special risks attendant to options transactions and the complexities of certain options investment strategies shall be reflected in any advertisement or sales literature [communications] which discusses the uses or advantages of options. All advertisements and sales literature discussing the use of options should include a warning to the effect that options are not for everyone. In the preparation of written communications respecting options, the following guidelines should be observed:

A. No change from original filing.
B. It should not be suggested that options are suitable for all investors. [All communications discussing the use of options should include the warning to the effect that options are not for everyone.]

C. No change from original filing.

.02 No change from original filing.

.03 Written communications (other than advertisements) pertaining to options shall conform to the following standards:

A. [Such communications] Sales literature shall state that supporting documentation for any claims (including any claims made on behalf of options programs or options expertise of sales persons), comparisons, recommendations, statistics or other technical data, will be supplied upon request.

B. No change from original filing.

C. Such communications may feature records and statistics which portray the performance of past recommendations or of actual transactions of the member organization (but not of an individual Registered Representative), provided that:

(i) any such portrayal is done in a balanced manner, and consists of records or statistics that are [must be] confined to a specific "universe" that can be fully isolated and circumscribed and that covers at least the most recent 12-month period;

(ii) such communications include [or offer to provide] the date of each initial recommendation or transaction as of such date, and the date and price of each recommendation or transaction at the end of the period or when liquidation was suggested or effected, whichever was earlier; provided that if the communications are limited to summarized or averaged records or statistics, in lieu of the complete record there may be included the number of items recommended or transacted, the number that advanced and the number that declined, together with an offer to provide the complete record upon request;

(iii) No change from original filing.

[(iv) in the event such records or statistics are summarized or averaged such communications include the number of items recommended or transacted, the number that advanced and the number that declined;]

[(v)] (iv) No change from original filing.

[(vi)] (v) No change from original filing.

[(vii)] (vi) No change from original filing.

D. No change from original filing.

E. No change from original filing.

F. If a member organization has adopted a standard form of worksheet for a particular options strategy, non-standard worksheets for that strategy may not be used.

[F.] G. No change from original filing.

Educational Circular Under Article VIII, Rule 7

Front-Running of Blocks

This educational circular presents the Exchange's enforcement policy with respect to certain practices generally referred to as "front-running of blocks". Because a block transaction in an underlying security may have an impact on the market for that security or the options covering that security (or vice versa), the Exchange would be concerned if its members were to engage in the practice of trading in options or in underlying securities when they are in possession of material non-public information concerning block transactions in these securities. In keeping with its responsibility to assure the fairness of its market, the Exchange wishes to emphasize that this kind of activity on the part of market professionals is conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade and will be dealt with in enforcement proceedings under Chapter XVII.

Although it is not possible to provide an all-inclusive definition of front-running in all of its forms, the Exchange believes that it is important to provide standards describing the kind of conduct that will not be permitted, both in order to provide guidance for members and to avoid interfering with entirely legitimate transactions that do not involve front-running. For this purpose, the Exchange has prepared this educational circular discussing the kind of conduct involving the front-running of blocks that would be considered to be in violation of Article VIII, Rule 7. It must be recognized that the following discussion of prohibited conduct is not exclusive, and that conduct not specifically described in this circular may nonetheless constitute front-running that comes with the broad prohibition of Article VIII, Rule 7. Although this circular concentrates on proprietary trading of members, front-running violations may also occur in certain agency situations, such as where a member passes on non-public information concerning block transactions to a customer who then trades on the basis of the information.

The Exchange considers it to be conduct inconsistent with just and equitable principles of trade in violation of Rule Article VIII, Rule 7 for a member or person associated with a member for an account in which such member or person has an interest, or for an account with respect to which such member or person exercises investment discretion, to cause to be executed:

(1) an order to buy or sell an option when such member or person causing such order to be executed has knowledge of a block transaction in the underlying security, or

prior to the time information concerning the block transaction has been made publicly available. Front-running may be based upon knowledge of less than

all of the terms of the transaction, so long as there is knowledge that all of the material terms of the transaction have been or will imminently be agreed upon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a member firm receives at or about the same time a customer's order of block size relating to both an option and the underlying security, the member may position the other side of one or both components of the order, subject to applicable exchange rules governing crosses. However, the member firm would not be able to cover any resulting proprietary position by entering an offsetting order until information concerning all block transactions involved has been made publicly available.

The application of this circular is limited to transactions that are required to be reported on the last sale reporting systems administered by CTA or OPRA, and information as to a block transaction shall be considered to be publicly available when it has been disseminated via the tape or high speed communication line of one of those systems. Public outcry on the Exchange Floor shall not be deemed to make such information publicly available except in unusual circumstances with the advance approval of two Floor Officials.

A transaction involving 10,000 shares or more of an underlying security or options covering such number of shares shall be conclusively deemed to be a block transaction, although transactions of less than 10,000 shares may also be block transactions in appropriate cases. A block transaction that has been agreed upon does not lose its identity as such by arranging partial execution of the transaction in portions which themselves are not of block size. In this situation, the requirement that information concerning the transaction be made publicly available will not be satisfied until the entire block transaction has been completed and publicly reported.

¹The Exchange may grant members additional time to comply with certain of these rules on a case-by-case basis, but no extension of time will be granted for more than 6 months after the effectiveness of the rule in question as stated in this table. In granting or denying requests for extensions of time the Exchange will act jointly with other self-regulatory organizations that have comparable rules insofar as the requesting parties are members of the Exchange and such other SROs.

²Within 12 months following their effectiveness as stated in this table, Rules 3(a), (b), (d) and (e) of Article XLVIII must be complied with in respect of customers' accounts that were approved for options transactions prior to the effectiveness of these rules in order for those accounts to remain so approved.

SRO's Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing proposed rule change is as follows:

This amendment to the original filing (SE-MSE-79-18) is for the purpose of proposing rules amendments in response to certain recommendations of the Special Study of Options Markets that were not addressed in the original filing, as well as proposing certain editorial and minor substantive amendments to previously filed proposals.

The statutory basis for all of these proposed rule changes remains as stated in the original filing. The purpose of each of the substantive proposed rule changes included in this filing is as follows:

Rule 3, Article XLVIII The minimum information that must be reflected in customers account records has been expanded to include whether the account is approved for discretionary orders.

Rule 11, Article XLVIII In response to Options Study Recommendation 1.A.2.a., we propose to revise Rule 11 to expand the information which member organizations must disclose in the statement sent to customers having a general (margin) account. By limiting this requirement to margin accounts, the information will be furnished to most options customers without imposing undue burdens on member firms. The proposal will require that statements of margin accounts sent to such customers reflect the mark-to-the-market price and market value for all security positions in the account, the total of market value of all positions in the account, the debit (or credit) balance, and account equity. We have defined general (margin) account equity in proposed Interpretation .01 to Rule 11 as the difference between the total of long security values, including any credit balance, and the total of short security values, including any debit balance.

Finally, we propose to require a legend on account statements to the effect that information concerning commissions and other charges has been included in confirmations, and will be furnished to customers upon request.

Rule 4, Article XLVIII Options Study recommendation 1.A.2.e. calls for the adoption of rules requiring that the headquarters office of every options broker-dealer be in a position to timely review each customer's account to determine the extent of commissions and realized and unrealized losses relative to account equity, the existence of usual credit extensions and unusual account risks or trading patterns.

In response, Rule 4 is proposed to be revised to impose in explicit terms the obligation for firms to develop and implement headquarters account review procedures, and to impose record-keeping requirements to facilitate such review. Recognizing the decentralized supervisory structure which many large securities firms have adopted, the proposed amendment is keyed to review by the "principal supervisory office having jurisdiction over the officer supervising the customer's account."

Rule 4, Article XIII The proposed rule amendments as previously filed regarding customer communications have been modified in certain respects. First, the general rule regarding customer communications in paragraph (a) of the Rule has been clarified to cover communications by persons associated with member organizations and to apply to communications with an individual customer or member of the public. Also, the applicability of the various standards of the rule to different categories of communications (advertising, sales literature and other communications) has been further clarified to emphasize that representations concerning past performance must be made in a balanced manner and must pertain to the member organization as a whole. Representations concerning the past performance of a particular registered representative are, thus, prohibited. We have also added specific requirements concerning the furnishing of supporting detail whenever statements involving past performance are made. Finally, a new requirement has been added to Interpretation .02 to Rule 4 barring the use of non-standard options worksheets where a member organization has adopted a standard form of worksheet for a particular options strategy.

SRO's Statement on Burden on Competition

MSE does not believe that the rule changes proposed in this Amendment No. 5 to File No. SR-MSE-79-18 will impose any burdens on competition.

SRO's Statement on Comments Received

MSE does not believe that the rule changes proposed in this Amendment No. 5 to File No. SR-MSE-79-18 will impose any burdens on competition.

Comments on rule changes previously proposed were summarized in MSE's prior filing SR MSE-79-18. Editorial revisions to those proposals reflected herein were not submitted to members for comments. Comments on proposed rule changes presented herein for the first time were solicited in response to a preliminary draft of the proposals that were mailed to member firms.

Date of Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

On or before March 27, 1980, or within such longer period (i) as the Commission may designate up to 90 days of such date if it finds such longer period to be appropriate and publishes its reasons for so finding, or (ii) as to which the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization consents the Commission will:

(a) By order approve such proposed rule change, or

(b) Institute proceedings to determine whether the proposed rule change should be disapproved.

Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing. Persons desiring to make written submissions should file 6 copies thereof with the Secretary of the Commission, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549. Copies of the filing with respect to the foregoing and of all written submissions will be available for inspection and copying in the Public Reference Room, 1100 L Street, NW., Washington D.C. Copies of such filing will also be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization. All submissions should refer to the file number referenced in the caption above and should be submitted on or before March 13, 1980.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.

George A. Fitzsimmons,
Secretary.

February 14, 1980.

BILLING CODE 8010-01-M

National Securities Clearing Corp.; Self-Regulatory Organizations; Proposed Rule Change

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. 78s (b)(1), as amended by Pub. L. No. 94-29, 16 [June 4, 1975], notice is hereby given that on February 8, 1980, the above-mentioned self-regulatory organization filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission a proposed rule change as follows:

Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change.

The proposed rule change, which shall only be effective until one year from the date of publication in the Federal Register (February 23, 1981), is as follows:

Rule 5 Section 4

The Corporation may, in its discretion, require Settling Members to provide appropriate staff in their offices during specified hours on non-clearing days when such is deemed necessary by the Corporation to insure the integrity of its systems and/or for the protection of the Corporation.

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The basis and purpose of the foregoing proposed rule change is as follows:

To facilitate the daily flow of work through our Settling Members during periods of abnormally high trading volume or other emergency situations.

NSCC Rule 2 Section 3 provides that when NSCC approves an applicant for membership in NSCC, the applicant must (ii) demonstrate "that it has adequate personnel capable of handling transactions with the Corporation * * * and to meet the operational requirements of, the Corporation and other Settling Members with necessary promptness and accuracy and to conform to any condition and requirement which the Corporation reasonably deems necessary for its protection * * *."

The proposed rule states, with specificity, one of the means that NSCC has determined is appropriate, during exceptional times such as record volume days, to protect NSCC, to insure the integrity of its systems and to insure the prompt and accurate clearance and Notification procedure: Department of Transportation, United States Coast Guard Headquarters, Commandant (G-CMA), 2100 2nd Street, SW, Washington, DC 20593. Written request must be signed by the individual.

Record access procedures: Procedures may be obtained by writing to or visiting (G-CMA) at the address in 'Notification Procedure', or by visiting the local activity where assigned for training. Prior written notification of personal visits is required to insure that the applicable record will be available. Proof of identity is required prior to release of records. A military identification card, driver's license, or similar document will be considered suitable identification.

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedures'.

Record source categories: Official military personnel records, test results, instructors and supervisors.

Systems exempted from certain provisions of the act: Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(5), which provide, in part, that investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or access to classified information may be withheld from disclosure but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence or, prior to the effective date of this section, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence. Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(6), which provides, in part, that testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service may be withheld from disclosure to the extent that disclosure of these records would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process. Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552a(k)(7), which provide, in part, that evaluation material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services may be withheld from disclosure but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the government under an express promise that the identity of a source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of this section, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.

DOT/CG 624.

System name: Personnel Management Information System (PMIS)

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT),

United States Coast Guard (CG),
Commandant (G-P),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: All regular Coast Guard personnel on active duty. All Reserve Coast Guard personnel on extended active duty and Reserve personnel on initial active duty for training.

Categories of records in the system: A single computer record which currently contains about 450 data elements on each member. Some data elements are used only for enlisted, others only for officers. The file contains personal information such as name, place of birth, rank, location, etc. The file also contains pay date elements which will form the basis for deriving pay entitlements for Coast Guard military personnel under the Joint Uniform Military Pay System (JUMPS).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: The file is used to produce a number of reports used throughout the Coast Guard. Types of reports are:

Locator Listing for Headquarters and Districts,
Personnel Roster for the unit to assist in verifying information,
Number of personnel in pay grades for advancement levels and budget expenditures,
Current reports for this system of records are listed in the Reports Distribution Manual generated by the Coast Guard for this system,
Queires and batch processing are used to recruitment levels,
Various Coast Guard offices receive the locator listing and management reports, Government agencies other than Coast Guard categories,
See prefatory statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: The storage is on computer disks with tape backups. The file is updated once a week. Once a month the file is dumped to a tape file for historical purposes.

Retrievability: Retrieval from the system is by use of name or Social Security Number or a combination of personal and non-personal characteristics.

Users retrieve information direct from the file through card input or direct terminal access. Data elements to be retrieved and method of use are selected by the user.

An extract file containing summary records is produced monthly for use on a 'time share' system. Retrieval of information from this extract is by direct terminal access only. Data elements to be retrieved and method of use are selected by the user.

Safeguards: The computer provides privacy and access limitations by requiring a user name and password match. In addition each element of the file has its own level of accessibility which must be held by the user. Only those staff components at Headquarters with a need to have access to the file are given user names and passwords. Access to the 'Time Share' extract is similarly controlled. The backup tapes and monthly dumps also have limited access in that users must justify the need before they are provided the tape numbers.

Retention and disposal: End-of-Year system backup tapes and day to day transaction tapes are retained indefinitely. Statistical and other report extract tapes are recycled into the system and consequently destroyed. Paper working files are disposed of in accordance with current record disposal instructions.

System manager(s) and address: Chief,

Office of Personnel,
Department of Transportation,
United States Coast Guard Headquarters,
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Notification procedure: Inquiries should be directed to:

Department of Transportation,
United States Coast Guard Headquarters,
Commandant (G-CMA),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Record access procedures: Procedure may be obtained by writing to or visiting Commandant (G-CMA) at the address in 'Notification Procedure'. Prior written notification of personal visits is required to insure that the records will be available at the time of visit. Proof of identity will be required prior to release of records. A military identification card, driver's license or similar document will be considered suitable identification.

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedure'.

Record source categories: The data to update the file comes from copies of official service record entries prepared by field units. The data is entered on tape for update of the computer files.

DOT/CG 625.

System name: Officer Selection and Appointment System. DOT/CG.

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT),

United States Coast Guard (CG),
Commandant (G-PMR),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Records are also located at each District and Headquarters Unit. Use Appendix I for locations.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Applicants for Coast Guard Officer Candidate School or direct commission programs of the Coast Guard.

Categories of records in the system: Information in the system is supplied by applicants and also by persons, other than the applicants, who submit information pertinent to the suitability of the applicants for commissioned service in the Coast Guard.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Officials and employees of the Coast Guard in the performance of their duties in managing and contributing to the recruitment and appointment of men and women for officer programs in the regular and reserve components of the Coast Guard.

The Attorney General of the United States or his authorized representatives in connection with litigation, fraudulent enlistment or other matters under the jurisdiction of such agencies.

Official employees of the Veterans Administration and Selective Service Administration in the performance of their official duties related to enlistment and reenlistment eligibility and related benefits.

The Senate or the House of Representatives of the United States or any committee or subcommittee on matters within their jurisdiction requiring disclosure of files or records of personnel covered by this system.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Paper records are stored in file folders.

Retrievability: The system is indexed alphabetically by name of applicant and is retrieved by name.

Safeguards: Records kept in file cabinets locked after working hours.

Buildings have 24-hour security guards and limited access.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system: Application files for nonselected officer candidate applicants are destroyed after six months and nonselected applicants for direct commission are destroyed after one year. Files for all selected applicants are placed in the selectee's officer personnel folder.

System manager(s) and address: Chief, Office of Personnel,

Department of Transportation,
United States Coast Guard Headquarters,
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Notification procedure: Department of Transportation,

United States Coast Guard Headquarters,
Commandant (G-CMA),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Record access procedures: Procedure may be obtained by writing to or visiting Commandant (G-CMA) at the address in 'Notification Procedure' or to the applicable Coast Guard District Office.

A letter request should contain full name, address, social security number, approximate date of application, and signature.

Proof of identification will consist of military identification card, driver's license or other official identification.

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedure'.

Record source categories: Coast Guard recruiting personnel and employee processing application.

Medical personnel conducting physical examination and private physicians providing consultations or patient history.

Character and employer references named by applicants.

Educational institutions, staff and faculty members.

Selective Service Commission.

Local state and Federal law enforcement agencies.

Prior or current military service record.

Commanding officer of Coast Guard unit, if active duty.

Coast Guard offices charged with personnel security clearance functions.

Other Coast Guard officials and employees in the performance of their official duties and as specified by current instructions and regulations promulgated by competent authority.

Systems exempted from certain provisions of the act: Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 USC 552a(k)(5), which provide, in part, that investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or access to classified information may be withheld from disclosure but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of this section, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.

Answering of Congressional and personal inquiries initiated by the individual whose record is concerned.

Preparation of forms, statements, compilations and computations necessary in the daily personnel administration of each individual entering, reentering or leaving the Coast Guard.

(Routine personnel administration requires copies of this and other service record material to be included in administrative files physically separated from the record; however, the original of this material will be included in the official service record maintained at Coast Guard Headquarters).

Furnishing of information (authorized and specified by the individual concerned) to other agencies or individuals (specified by the individual concerned) normally concerned with employment, educational or veteran's benefits, claims or applications.

Furnishing specified material in an officer's service record pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Used by:

Authorized Coast Guard Personnel.

Personnel from other Federal Agencies in the conduct of official business, as authorized by the Chief, Officer Personnel Division or his designated representative.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Records are maintained on paper and are assembled and filed in one official service record per member and stored on open shelf files in a room with controlled access.

Retrievability: Individual records are indexed and retrievable by name and/or last four digits of member's service number.

Safeguards: During working hours physical access to records is controlled by the Officer Records Branch (G-PO-4).

Records are maintained in a central storage area locked behind two separate doors during non-working hours in the building, which has roving and static security patrols.

Retention and disposal: Each individual record is maintained at Coast Guard Headquarters until three months after retirement/resignation, after which it is shipped to the:

National Personnel Records Center (Military Personnel Records),

9700 Page Boulevard,

St. Louis, MO 63132.

After the separation documents are received, records of Reserve

Officers released from active duty and Regular Officers who resign and accept Reserve Commissions are sent to the

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

Fulfillment of normal administrative personnel procedures, including examining and screening for completeness and accuracy of records and correspondence pertaining thereto.

Screening of service records for advancement, promotion, or retention of individual Reservists by various Reserve Boards.

Answering of Congressional and personal inquiries initiated by the individual whose record is concerned.

Preparation of forms, statements, compilations and computations necessary in the daily personnel administration of each individual entering, reentering or leaving the Coast Guard Reserve. Routine personnel administration requires copies of this and other service record material to be included in administrative files physically separated from the record; however, the original copy of this material will be included in the official service record maintained at Coast Guard Headquarters.

Furnishing of information (authorized and specified by the individual concerned) to other agencies or individuals (specified by the individual concerned) normally concerned with employment, educational or Veterans benefits, claims, or applications.

Furnishing specified material in a Reservist's service record pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Used by:

Individual upon whom records are kept (personal review).

File clerks and personnel from the Office of Reserve, Administration, Training, and Programs Divisions in the normal performance of their duties.

Other personnel within the Coast Guard in the normal performance of their duties, as authorized by the Chief, Reserve Administration Division or his designated representative.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Records maintained on paper assembled and filed in one official service record per member.

Retrievability: Individual Service Records are indexed and retrievable by name and/or triple terminal digit of member's service number.

Safeguards: Service records are maintained in a central storage area locked behind two separate doors.

During non-working hours the building security consists of roving and static security patrols.

During working hours physical access to records is controlled by Records Control Branch personnel.

Retention and disposal: Individual records are maintained at CG Headquarters until six months after an enlisted member's separation from the service (three months for officers), after which it is transmitted for permanent storage to the:

Military Personnel Record Center (MPRC)

National Personnel Records Center (NPRC),

9700 Page Boulevard,

St. Louis, MO 63132.

In the case of retired members, the service record is shipped to NPRC upon retirement.

System manager(s) and address:

Chief, Office of Reserve (G-R),

Notification procedure: Inquiry requests for determination whether this system contains records on an individual should be made by that individual, in person or in writing to:

Department of Transportation,
United States Coast Guard Headquarters,
Commandant (G-CMA),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Written requests must be signed by the individual and must include the member's name, social security number and/or reserve number.

Record access procedures: Procedures for access may be obtained by writing to or visiting Commandant (G-CMA) at the address in 'Notification Procedure' or the District Office in which an individual's duty station is located.

Proof of identity will be required prior to affording an individual access (may consist of a military identification, driver's license, or other suitable identification.)

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedure.'

Record source categories: Information contained in a member's service record is obtained from the individual concerned, CG Headquarters, District offices and other CG units.

Systems exempted from certain provisions of the act: Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 USC 552a(k) (5), which provide, in part, that investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment, military service, Federal contracts, or access to classified information may be withheld from disclosure but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of this section, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.

Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 USC 552a (k) (7), which provides, in part, that evaluation material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services may be withheld from disclosure but only to the extent that the disclosure of such material would reveal the identity of a source who furnished information to the Government under an express promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence, or, prior to the effective date of this section, under an implied promise that the identity of the source would be held in confidence.

Portions of this system of records may be exempt from disclosure under the provisions of 5 USC 552 (k) (6), which provides, in part, that testing or examination material used solely to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in the Federal service may be withheld from disclosure to the extent that disclosure of these records would compromise the objectivity or fairness of the testing or examination process.

DOT/CG 677.

System name: Coast Guard Reserve Personnel Mobilization System.
DOT/CG.

System location: Department of Transportation, (DOT),

United States Coast Guard (CG),
Commandant (G-RP),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Commander Reserve in each Coast Guard District Office (except 17th).

Each District and Headquarters Unit.

See Appendix I for locations.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Reserve officer and enlisted personnel (not on extended active duty) in an Active or Retired status; including those Reservists released from extended active duty to fulfill a specified term of obligated inactive Reserve service.

Categories of records in the system:

Mobilization and qualification cards and orders.

Initial, Annual, and Retired Screening and Qualification Questionnaires.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Fulfillment of normal administrative procedures including the examining and screening for completeness and accuracy of records, correspondence pertaining thereto as a basis for assignment to active duty for training; special active duty for training or extended active duty and mobilization billets.

Users of these Records are Coast Guard employees in performance of official duties.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Records maintained on paper, punched cards and magnetic tape

Retrievability: Individual Reservists are indexed by name and/or social security account number.

Safeguards: Safeguards and controls afforded this system of records are similar to those normally employed 'For Official Use Only' material, both at Headquarters and District Offices.

Records are maintained in locked secure areas when not in use and personnel screening is employed prior to granting access.

Retention and disposal: Individual records are maintained at CG Districts and at Headquarters throughout the members active Reserve status and during any period in a Retired Status thereafter (as applicable, and for as long as that member is considered a mobilizable resource).

A 'dead file' is often maintained for those Reservists transferred, discharged, or otherwise separated (this procedure varies from District to District.)

The majority of records in this system (in any form) are generally destroyed immediately after the expiration of their useful life, except those retained in the aforementioned 'dead files' (which are subsequently destroyed one year after placement in the file). The major exceptions to this policy are the Screening and Qualification Questionnaires, which are filed in the Reservists District Service Record.

Records are destroyed by mutilating, shredding or burning.

System manager(s) and address:

Chief, Office of Reserve (G-R),
Department of Transportation,
United States Coast Guard Headquarters
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Notification procedure: Department of Transportation,

Commandant (G-CMA),
2100 2nd Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20593.

Written request must be signed by the individual.

Record access procedures: Individual should contact Commandant (G-CMA) in person or in writing at the address in 'Notification Procedure'.

For records maintained at the District, individual should contact the Commander (r) at the District to which the individual is assigned. Refer to Appendix I for addresses.

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedure.'

Record source categories: Information contained in this system of records is obtained from the following sources: the individual himself, CG Headquarters, and CG District Offices.

DOT/CG 678.

System name: Reserve Personnel Management Information System (Automated).

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT)

United States Coast Guard (CG)
Commandant (G-RA)
2100 2nd Street, S. W.
Washington, DC 20593

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Reserve officers and enlisted personnel in an active or inactive status, including retired reservist, and those reservists released from extended active duty to fulfill a specific term of inactive obligated service.

Categories of records in the system: Included in RPMIS are the following data concerning each Coast Guard Reservist in this system which are necessary to administer the Coast Guard program: name, social security number, present and last five grades or rates, educational background, civilian and military, foreign language and proficiency, history of unit assignments and dates assigned, duty status, date of birth, date of enlistment, appointment or extension, AFQT scores, source of entry, date of commission, prior service, date of expiration of obligation, anniversary data on pay base date, aviation pay and administrative pay, training rating, reserve category and class, training/pay category, data on ADT for last five years, number of dependents, Federal withholding exemptions, Selective Service induction certification, date of completion of Ready obligation, officer experience indicator, last screening date and result, civilian occupation, date of last National Agency Check, Background Investigation and security clearance, domestic emergency volunteer, date of last physical and immunization, data on special active duty for training and extended active duty, annual training date, total retirement points and satisfactory years of service for retirement purpose, current year retirement point accounting data, including inactive duty training participation, correspondence course activity, taxable wages paid and withholdings, uniform allowances, Servicemans Group Life Insurance (SGLI) information, mailing address, and work and home phone number.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: The RPMIS is used for the personnel administration of individual reservists and the overall management of the reserve program. See prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses. The Master Personnel File provides status and qualification listings, expiration of enlistment and physical reports, strength management reports, unit and district roster, and advancement and promotion reports. The Pay and Point File provides point count statements, budgeting reports, inactive duty and active duty pay, and retirement eligibility listings. The addresses of individual reservists are used for mailing paychecks, earning statements, 'The Reservist', and Annual Screening Questionnaires. Records in this system are routinely disclosed to the Treasury Department to complete payroll checks. Used by: Authorized personnel from the Office of Reserve and the Office of the Comptroller, authorized personnel on the staff of the various district commanders in the normal performance of their official duties, the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower, Logistics and Reserve Affairs and others as authorized by Chief, Office of Reserve or his representative.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: The storage is on computer disks with magnetic tape backups. The file is updated weekly.

Retrievability: Individual records in the system are retrieved by Social Security Number.

Safeguards: Magnetic tapes are stored in locked storage areas when not in use and are accounted for at all times during actual use. Personnel screening is employed prior to granting access.

Retention and disposal: Magnetic tapes are used, corrected and updated until the tapes become physically deteriorated after which they are destroyed. A reservist's address is maintained on file for approximately one year after discharge, to allow for processing of annual point statements and W-2 forms. Audit trails are maintained indefinitely and the Master Personnel file and Pay and Points file are continually updated.

System manager(s) and address: Chief, Office of Reserve, Department of Transportation, United States Coast Guard Headquarters, Commandant (G-R), 2100 2nd Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20593.

Notification procedure: Requests to determine if this system contains information on any individual should be made in person or in writing to: Department of Transportation, United States Coast Guard Headquarters, Commandant (G-CMA), 2100 2nd Street, S.W., Washington, DC 20593. Written request must be signed by the individual.

Record access procedures: Procedures for access to records may be obtained by writing to or visiting Commandant (G-CMA) at the address in 'Notification Procedures'. Prior written notification of personal visit will insure that the record will be available at the time of visit. Proof of identity will be required prior to release of records. A military identification or similar document will be considered suitable identification.

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedures'.

Record source categories: Information contained in the system is obtained from the individual, Coast Guard Headquarters and district offices, and the various operating units of the Coast Guard.

DOT/FHWA 221.

System name: Panel for the Santa Monica Demonstration Project.

System location: Held by Market Facts, Inc.,

100 So. Wacker Dr., Chicago, IL 60606,
for the Urban Planning Division, Federal Highway Administration,
Department of Transportation,
400 7th Street, SW,
Washington, DC 20590.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: A random sample of residents from the Los Angeles area.

Categories of records in the system: Names, addresses and telephone numbers are located on the questionnaire. Information from the questionnaire is stored on magnetic tape and can be accessed by an identifying number (interview number). A list of names, addresses and phone numbers associated with the interview number are separately filed. The questionnaire contains information regarding:

Transportation commute patterns, frequency of mode use, trip characteristics, and satisfaction with various ways of traveling, Perceptions and importance ratings of modal attributes; tradeoff data on required service levels, Intentions to alter commuting behavior in response to various transportation system modifications, Perceptions of service changes based on transportation management actions, Perceived similarity of transportation modifications, Sociodemographic information, e.g., age, race, income, sex, children.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Names are associated with the interview numbers after interviews are recorded. Information from the questionnaire is analyzed statistically without reference to any specific individual. The Urban Planning Division will use the data obtained from the surveys in the development of mode choice models, to assess transportation system modifications and to calibrate systematically induced mode shift models. Both the statistical analyses and statistical data will be made available to interested administrators in the Department of Transportation, Department of Energy as well as to the California State Department of Transportation and the Southern California Association of Governments. Other researchers interested in the Santa Monica transportation system management evaluation will also be given access to purely statistical information. Names, addresses and telephone numbers are retained for the sole purpose of locating the sample to be re-interviewed a second time.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: The questionnaire is stored in a locked file cabinet in the Chicago Office of Market Facts, Inc. Two individuals have keys to the cabinet, Mr. Frank Griffiths, V.P. of Market Facts, and Mr. Bob Kranz, project analyst. There are three complete copies of the master list with names, and addresses and phone numbers; one is held by the field supervisor in Los Angeles, one by Mr. Bob Kranz, and by Mr. Frank Griffiths. The names and addresses were placed on labels to be attached to the questionnaires, under the supervision of Mr. Frank Griffiths. No additional copies are to be made without approval of the Urban Planning Division, DOT. Magnetic tapes are stored in the tape libraries at Market Facts, Inc., and at the Department of Transportation. Again data from the tape can only be identified with an individual when the interview number is matched against a master list.

Retrievability: Questionnaire information is stored on tape and is retrievable only through and identifying number (Interview number). This must be matched with a list of interview numbers if it is necessary to associate with names. The questionnaires themselves can be accessed from the files only under the supervision of Mr. Frank Griffiths.

Safeguards: All identifying materials are under lock; only two individuals directly working on the project have keys to the files; a guard is on duty 24 hours a day. The list which assign names to interview numbers is kept separately from the data stored on tape.

Retention and disposal: The record list of names and interview numbers will be retained until Phase II interviewing and coding is completed. The questionnaire will be kept in locked-storage for three years to ensure accessibility if significant errors in transcription were to be determined.

DOT/FHWA 222

System name: Survey Assessing the Long-Term Effects of Relocation on Low-Income Groups

System location: Associate Consultants, Inc.

624 E Street, NW,
Washington, D.C. 20004 For the Federal Highway Administration, Socio-Economic Studies Division, HPP-40

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Selected heads of low-income households displaced by highway construction. Fifty to seventy-five respondents will be interviewed from each of the following highway relocation sites: Baltimore, Maryland; Wheeling, West Virginia; St. Petersburg, Florida; and Los Angeles, California.

Categories of records in the system: Information concerning the physical characteristics of the respondents' residences prior to and after relocation, payments for mortgages or rents and utilities, adequacy of community services, respondents' opinions of the relocation program, and sociodemographic information (e.g., age, race, income, sex, number of workers in household, transportation utilized, number of children).

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: The Relocation Assistance Division of the Federal Highway Administration will use the conclusions drawn from the survey to: 1) Analyze the longer term effects of relocation on low-income families who were relocated due to highway projects under provisions of the 1970 Relocation Assistance Act; 2) Evaluate the long-term effectiveness of the Highway Relocation Programs in relocating displaced low-income families with a minimum of harm to their social and economic well-being; and 3) Recommend changes in the relocation program to minimize long-term transition problems of low income families due to relocation. State highway agencies may also use conclusions drawn from this study to modify the administration of their relocation programs.

See also prefatory statement of general routine uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Magnetic Tape

Retrievability: Serial number assigned to individual respondent.

Retention and disposal: a) Interviewers will keep respondent identifiers and information collected completely confidential b) Survey instruments containing respondent identifiers will be stored in locked cabinets or a locked room c) Respondent identifiers will not be on the magnetic tape containing responses from the interviews d) Upon completion of the pilot study, the list of respondent identifiers will be destroyed.

The list of respondent identifiers (names, addresses, and telephone numbers) will be retained until Phase II interviewing and coding is completed. The survey instruments and list of respondent identifiers will be destroyed upon completion of Phase II of the study. Statistical records of the questionnaire responses will be kept on tape and after completion of the main survey will be turned over to the Contract Technical Manager.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Vehicle operators having committed alcohol-related driving violations.

Categories of records in the system: DMV records, police arrest and citation records, court and probation records, various official and social services rehabilitation records, and voluntary personal interviews.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses:

Records are used to evaluate the status of activities within a project, including the status of different groups for purposes of subsequent comparison and analysis, such as recidivism rates. Reports and management information are compiled, using statistical and comparative analysis of the records, which may be released to relevant authorities monitoring the progress of the project.

Data contained in these systems of records may be routinely distributed to the lower courts, police departments, public health services, probation authorities, or juvenile and rehabilitation services within the system if that agency's purpose for maintaining the records is compatible with the Project usage.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Punch-card, disk, paper files, magnetic tape.

Retrievability: Individual name, ID number, social security number.

Safeguards: Locked file cabinet, code and restricted access.

Retention and disposal: Two years after project termination.

System manager(s) and address: Chief, Demonstration Management Division,

Department of Transportation,
National Highway Traffic Safety Administration,
Office of Driver and Pedestrian Programs,
400 7th Street, SW, Room 5130,

State Demonstration Project Office,
Phoenix, AZ.
Department of Transportation,
Commonwealth of Puerto Rico,
San Juan, PR.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Auto vehicle owners.

Categories of records in the system: For each automobile inspected in the program, the diagnostic inspection records contain pass/fail/advise information on each safety or emissions related item inspected at each state inspection facility. These inspection items include:

Federal vehicle-in-use inspection standards and EPA emission standards.

Individual state statutory inspection requirements.

Other inspection items as added by each participating state.

In addition to these P/F/A results, quantitative data are included on emissions, front-end alignment and engine analysis. The original hard copy also contains the name and address of participating motorists.

System repair cost records contain the parts and labor costs associated with the inspection results. Most of the original repair cost data-forms contain the name and address of the repair facility as well as the name and address of the participating motorist.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: The system is routinely used monthly by CSC to perform in-progress evaluations for NHTSA project personnel on the evaluation areas specified in Title III of the Motor Vehicle Information and Cost Savings Act (PL 92-513).

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Magnetic tape, punched card, and hard copy original data forms.

Retrievability: Computer stored data are indexed by vehicle identification number (VIN), vehicle year, vehicle make/model code, and inspection site code; the hard copy original data forms are indexed by VIN and cross-indexed by vehicle owner name and address.

Safeguards: For computer stored information standard security established by GSA users of INFONET is used, computer system access is limited to authorized users; the hard copy original data forms are stored in locked file cabinets after handling and keypunching by authorized project personnel.

Retention and disposal: All records will be retained by the contractor for the duration of the contract; at the conclusion of the contract the contractor will furnish to NHTSA all data forms, data tape records, and punched cards developed and received as a result of the contract.

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA),

Office of Driver and Pedestrian Programs,

National Driver Register Office,

400 7th Street, SW, Room 6134,

Washington, DC 20590.

Master file is located at:

Transportation Computer Center,

400 7th Street, SW, Room 2401,

Washington, DC 20590.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Persons who have had their driver's license denied, withdrawn, revoked or suspended as reported by State/Territorial driver licensing authorities.

Categories of records in the system: NDR records include: the reporting jurisdiction, the subject's full name, other names used, date of birth, driver license number and/or social security number (if used by the reporting jurisdiction), sex, height, weight, eye color, the reason for withdrawal, the date of the withdrawal, and the date eligible for restoration of driving privilege or the date license was actually restored.

It should be noted that very frequently the physical data is not provided by the reporting agency.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: Provide identification of drivers who have had their licenses withdrawn, suspended, revoked or otherwise denied in response to inquiries from State or Federal driver licensing agencies relative to driver license applicants.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: The NDR master file is maintained on magnetic tape.

Source data: i.e., manual input (forms, letters) are retained in that form.

Source data received on magnetic tape are converted into printed listings.

All source data is batch filed.

Retrievability: The magnetic tape master file is indexed by surname and refined by program application of screening criteria involving given names, date of birth and physical characteristics.

Source data batch files are indexed by the processing date as determined from test inquiry of the master file. A manual search of the appropriate batch is then required to access the specific record.

Safeguards: The master file is kept in the Transportation Computer Center, a limited access area.

The source data files are maintained in a building under surveillance of a 24 hour guard force.

In addition, the spaces in which the files are maintained are equipped with lockable doors which are locked when vacated. All personnel have met the investigative requirements for secret classified matter.

In addition, all NDR employees are orally briefed on NDR security requirements and their responsibilities.

Retention and disposal: Records of actions that have been cancelled or rescinded are purged from the file upon receipt of notification from the reporting jurisdiction. Other records are retained for seven or five years depending on the reason for withdrawal of the individual's license.

Withdrawals for drunk driving, hit and run, fatal accident, felony and misrepresentation are retained for seven years. Records of 'habitual offenders' as stipulated by certain states are retained indefinitely, unless otherwise requested by the reporting state.

All other master file records are retained for five years.

Source data files are retained for one year.

Magnetic tape records are erased by degaussing, using 86db degaussing equipment, prior to disposing of the tapes.

Paper source data reports of withdrawal are destroyed by shredding.

System manager(s) and address: Chief, National Driver Register, National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, NTS-15, Department of Transportation, Room 6134, Washington, DC 20590.

Notification procedure: Mailed inquiries should be addressed as above under 'System Manager.'

For inquiries made in person, the inquirer should present himself at the National Driver Register office at the following location:

400 7th Street, SW, Room 6134, Washington, DC 20590.

In order to conduct a file search the requesting party must provide:

Sex,

Height,

Weight,

Color of eyes,

Social security number and/or driver license number (provision of the social security number is voluntary).

In addition, although not mandatory, it would help to more positively identify any records we may have concerning the inquirer if the following information is included:

The reason his/her driver license was withdrawn or denied.

The date of the action.

The State which took the action.

An inquirer presenting himself/herself in person should have at least two means of identification sufficient to reasonably insure that he/she is who he/she purports to be.

For mailed inquiries the foregoing identification elements should be included in the form of a notarized affidavit and addressed to the System Manager.

Record access procedures: An individual desiring to obtain information on procedures to obtain his or her record (s) should contact the Chief, National Driver Register, at the address under 'System Manager' above.

Contesting record procedures: To obtain information on procedures to contest records one should contact the Chief, National Driver Register, at the address in 'System Manager' above.

With regard to contesting records it must be realized that the file is made up of State records. As such, these can only be changed or corrected by the reporting State. The records in the Driver Register file are changed only when advised by the originating jurisdiction.

Record source categories: The records comprising the National Driver Register file are provided by States, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Canal Zone, Virgin Islands and Guam driver licensing administrators or the agency within the jurisdictions responsible for such records.

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT),

National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA),
Office of Defects Investigation,
400 7th Street, SW, Room 5328,
Washington, DC 20590.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Vehicle owners according to make/model/year of motor vehicles owned, and/or according to safety information requested.

Categories of records in the system: System contains:

Vehicle defect-related owner complaints or information.
Vehicle or equipment failure-related complaints or information.
Inquiry groupings according to types of safety-related information or written source materials requested.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: System is used to indicate emerging patterns of vehicle or vehicle equipment failure, and/or to correlate such patterns with typographical or geographical regions, in order to support defect-related NHTSA investigations and vehicle recall actions as authorized by statute. Individuals may be contacted to verify the accuracy of the information initially provided.

System is also used to categorize the types of informational requests and safety-related materials most requested and/or needed by all users of the Hotline service.

System is also used to generate statistical evaluation of Hotline-call volume, frequency, service rendered, degree of safety-related information recorded and utilized as a result of the Hotline's installation.

Records may be disclosed to other Federal or State agencies or consumer groups having remedial or response jurisdiction over the individual complaint recorded.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: On hard copy and magnetic tape.

Retrievability: By name and case number.

Safeguards: Appropriate ADP procedures for safeguarding data are utilized with the system.

System name: Investigative Record System. DOT/OST

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT),

Office of the Secretary (OST),
Office of the Inspector General
400 7th Street, S.W.,
Washington, D.C. 20590

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Present and former DOT employees, DOT contractors and employees as well as grantees, subgrantees, contractors, subcontractors and their employees and recipients of DOT monies, and other individuals or incidents subject to investigation within the purview of the Inspector General Act.

Categories of records in the system: Results of investigations and inquiries conducted by Inspector General (OST); reports of investigations conducted by other departmental, Federal, state and local investigative agencies which relate to the mission and function of the Inspector General; and investigative case index card files.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: The information contained in the Investigative Records System is collected and maintained in the administration of the Inspector General Act of 1978 (Public Law 95-452) to investigate, prevent and detect fraud and abuse in departmental programs and operations. Material gathered is used for prosecutive, civil or administrative actions. These records may be disseminated, depending on jurisdiction, to:

DOT Officials in the administration of their responsibilities.

Other Federal, state, local or foreign agencies or administrations having interest or jurisdiction in the matter.

See Prefatory Statement of General Routine Uses.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Paper records in case folders in manual filing system and on index cards.

Retrievability: By name or incident title.

Safeguards: Investigative files and case index files are maintained in several spaces with appropriate access controls. Access to investigative files is restricted to authorized investigative personnel on a 'need to know' basis.

Retention and disposal: Investigative material held for ten years, then destroyed by secure means used for classified materials.

System manager(s) and address: Inspector General (J-1),

Contesting record procedures: Same as 'Record Access Procedure'.

Record source categories: These records contain information obtained from interviews, review of records and other authorized investigative techniques.

Systems exempted from certain provisions of the act: Investigative data compiled for law enforcement purposes may be exempt from the access provisions pursuant to 5 USC 552a(j)(2), (k)(1) or (k)(2).

DOT/OST 101.

System name: Office of Inspector General, Management Information System (OIG/MIS).

System location: Office of Inspector General,

Management Information Staff,
Room 9200, 400 7th Street, S.W.,
Washington, D.C. 20590.
Using the Computer Sciences Corporation Infont Timesharing System, Beltsville, Maryland.

Categories of individuals covered by the system: All active employees of the OIG, with history data on previous employees maintained for two years.

Categories of records in the system: Individual's current position and employment status, assignments, travel, experience, training, with the following personal data: name, social security account number, date of birth, service computation date, career status, address, assigned station, job series, clearance, education, grade and evaluation due date.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: There will be no external uses. Internally, information will be used as follows: (1) Security clearance notification alerts may be provided to an examined activity in advance of visits by OIG personnel if information to be examined requires a secret clearance or above; (2) Time and attendance reports will be used to track temporary duty travel frequency and duration, to categorize indirect time for periodic reports, to accrue staff hour data on assigned projects, and to provide time and attendance data to the centralized payroll system; (3) Planned annual leave reporting will be used by various managers for workload planning and travel scheduling; (4) Assignment information and workload status information will be used by managers to control audits and investigations, and to maximize effectiveness or staff resources; (5) Miscellaneous personnel information will be used by staff managers to determine training needs, promotional eligibility, education and background, and professional organization participation; (6) Travel information will be used by managers to control temporary duty travel, travel costs and issuances of travel orders.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Active reports on magnetic disk, with backup active records and inactive records maintained on magnetic tape.

Retrievability: All records will be retrievable through employee social security number, with selected records having certain secondary keys consisting of certain other data elements, listed in the 'Categories of Records in the System'.

Safeguards: (1) Records will be maintained in a private library not accessible by any unauthorized user; (2) Authorized user identification codes will be tied to multiple password system to afford additional protection; (3) Any attempt to bypass the password protection system will result in an immediate 'Log-Off' from the system; (4) Physical access to system documentation, hard copy printouts, personal data files, and terminals will be restricted to authorized personnel by maintaining a secure environment in the headquarters office; (5) Access to data will be restricted to those who require it in the performance of their official duties and to the individual who is the subject of the record (or authorized representative); (6) Tape files will be maintained in an environmentally secure vault area when not in use.

Retention and disposal: Records will be maintained for two years after they become inactive. All inactive records will be maintained on magnetic tape within the computer center and will be afforded the same safeguards as active records. Machine-resident records will be destroyed at the end of the two year period. Hard copy records will be retained until the records are replaced or become obsolete.

DOT/TSC 716

System name: UMTA/Technology Sharing Mailing List. DOT/TSC.

System location: Department of Transportation (DOT),

Transportation Systems Center (TSC),
Office of Plans and Programs
Technology Sharing Office, DTS-151
Kendall Square
Cambridge, MA 02142

Categories of individuals covered by the system: Government officials and transportation professionals who have requested reports or have been selected by UMTA or TSC to receive reports and conference notifications.

Categories of records in the system: These records contain names, jobtitles, organizations, suborganizations and addresses. In addition, there are special categories which allow for entering the following information for each record in the data base: Organization Affiliation, Modal Information Need/Type of Document, and Subject Informational Need.

Routine uses of records maintained in the system, including categories of users and the purposes of such uses: To identify target audiences who have a need for specific project results or who have expressed an interest in receiving copies of project documentation; and to disseminate programmatic results in an efficient and effective manner. Uses of special codes -- organizational affiliation, modal informational need, and subject informational need -- will allow for a more efficient selection of audiences for specific types of reports, will permit analyses of information needs, and estimates of report quantities needed. To communicate plans for scheduled conferences to likely participants and disseminate conference proceedings if applicable. To prepare mailing labels. Records are subject to examination by federal officials concerned with the dissemination of programmatic results or conference notification, but are not disclosed to members of the public (except through publication in conference proceedings of names of individuals who actually participated in each conference).

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system:

Storage: Records are maintained in a computerized data base. Disc and tape records, paper copies of coding forms, and listings of specific target groups identified to receive a publication are maintained at the U.S. Department of Transportation's Transportation Systems Center (TSC). Upon request, a listing of the target audience for a specific publication may be forwarded to the appropriate federal official responsible for the dissemination of the report.

Retrievability: By any attribute contained in the data base -- alphabetically by name, address or special attribute codes.

Safeguards: Access is restricted to UMTA and TSC officials who are involved in the dissemination of programmatic results and/or notification of planned conferences. Terminal operators or contractors, if designated by TSC, may access the system to enter data, generate edit checks to assure data has been entered correctly, and generate paper copies of specific audiences for examination by a federal official. Access to the electronic data base is controlled by the computer telephone number, and name of individual responsible for the data base. Internally, the system is software protected so that people without these combinations of codes cannot even examine the data, let alone use it or modify it. Names are removed when the Postal Service reports an incorrect address with no forwarding address or when individuals request removal.

Retention and disposal: Records are kept on tape and disc. Deleted names and addresses are discarded completely.

System manager(s) and address: Chief, Technology Sharing Office, dTSC-151,

Department of Transportation
Transportation Systems Center
Kendall Square
Cambridge, MA 02142

Notification procedure: Individuals may contact system manager to confirm whether or not their name and address is contained in the system.

Record access procedures: Same as notification procedure.

Contesting record procedures: Contest of this data will be made to the System Manager. If administrative resolution is not satisfactory to the individual, appeals may be filed in writing with the Secretary of Transportation addressed to the General Counsel as follows:

Department of Transportation

Coast Guard

Electronic Relative Motion Analyzer

DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Coast Guard

33 CFR Part 164

[CGD 79-148]

Electronic Relative Motion Analyzer

AGENCY: Coast Guard, DOT

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY: The Coast Guard proposes to require all self-propelled vessels of 10,000 gross tons or more that carry oil or liquid hazardous materials, in bulk that are U.S. vessels or call at a U.S. port to have an electronic relative motion analyzer installed by July 1, 1982. This requirement is mandated by the Port and Tanker Safety Act of 1978 (Pub. L. 95-474). It is intended to help minimize the occurrence of collisions involving those vessels which may have the potential of creating environmental harm.

DATES: Comments must be received on or before April 7, 1980.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be submitted to Commandant (G-CMC/TP24) [CGD 79-148], U.S. Coast Guard, Washington, D.C. 20593. Comments may be delivered to and will be available for inspection or copying at the Office of the Executive Secretary, Marine Safety Council (G-CMC/TP24), Room 2418, U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, 2100 Second Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20593 (202) 426-1477. Normal office hours are 7:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Monday through Thursday.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Fred Schwer, Project Manager, Office of Marine Environment and Systems (G-WLE-4/11), Room 1608, Department of Transportation, U.S. Coast Guard Headquarters, 2100 Second Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20593, (202) 426-4958.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The public is invited to participate in this proposed rulemaking by submitting written views, data, or arguments. Comments should include the name and address of the person making them, identify this notice (CGD 79-148) and the specific section of the proposal to which each comment applies, and give the reasons for the comments. If an acknowledgement that a comment has been received is desired, a stamped, self-addressed postcard or envelope should be enclosed.

All comments received before the expiration of the comment period will be considered before final action is taken on this proposal. No public hearing is planned, but one may be held if written requests are received and it appears that a hearing will be beneficial.

Drafting Information

The principal persons involved in drafting this document are: Mr. Fred Schwer, Office of Marine Environment and Systems, Project Manager, and Lt. Jack Orchard, Office of Chief Counsel, Project Attorney.

Discussion*Terminology*

An "Electronic Relative Motion Analyzer" (ERMA) is a device designed to assist a ship's bridge watch officer in evaluating the patterns of radar "returns" of an object to determine the speed and direction of motion of the object. This information in turn is used by him to evaluate the threat which the object may pose to his own ship and to plan any evasive action which might be required.

Many terms have been used to describe this type of equipment. The United States Maritime Administration (MARAD) refers to their standard device as a "Collision Avoidance System." "Collision Avoidance Aid" is a generic term often used to describe the entire range of devices, from a simple "line of bearing" cursor to a fully automatic computer-controlled machine. Many people object to the use of the words "Collision Avoidance" in this context, quite correctly pointing out that the equipment does not prevent collisions, but only provides the watch officer with information so that he may do so. The Intergovernmental Maritime Consultative Organization (IMCO), a specialized agency of the United Nations, uses the term "Automatic Radar Plotting Aid (ARPA)" to describe, in its operational standard, a similar device. Because this notice is based on the IMCO standard, it uses the IMCO terminology.

Background

A notice of proposed rulemaking on this subject was published on May 16, 1977 (42 FR 24871). Public hearings were held in San Diego, California, on June 16, 1977, and in Washington, DC on June 21, 1977. The proposal was withdrawn on July 24, 1978 (43 FR 32112). As stated in the withdrawal notice, the proposal was withdrawn to encourage international action on the matter and the Coast Guard would "reevaluate the need for a U.S. rulemaking * * * when the international body has completed its work."

Congress, however, in October 1978, enacted the Port and Tanker Safety Act of 1978 (PTSA) (Pub. L. 95-474). Section 5(7)(j)(ii) of the Act requires certain vessels of 10,000 gross tons or more to be equipped with an ARPA that is " * * * at least functionally equivalent * * *" to the MARAD standard (i.e., the "Collision Avoidance System"). In 1979, an excellent, comprehensive operational performance standard was developed, with U.S. participation, by a working group of IMCO. This standard has been evaluated by MARAD and is considered by that organization to be "at least functionally equivalent to the MARAD specification except in one area, namely 'Operational Warnings.'" Paragraphs 3.5.1 and 3.5.2 of the IMCO ARPA standard specify "visual and/or audible" signals. The MARAD standard requires both visual and audible alarm signals for possible threats. In view of this determination, this proposal adopts the IMCO ARPA standard except that, to attain functional equivalence with the MARAD standard, the standard proposed herein would require both signals.

Paragraph 164.38(b) provides that devices installed before January 1984 for tankers of 40,000 grt or more, or before January 1985 for tankers of 10,000 but less than 40,000 grt, may comply with the MARAD specification rather than the IMCO standard. This equipment can be used until 1991.

Implementation

The PTSA requires all self-propelled vessels which carry oil or hazardous materials in bulk as cargo or in residue, which are U.S. vessels or foreign flag vessels which call at a United States port or which transfer oil or hazardous materials in any port or place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, and which are of 10,000 gross tons or above, to have an ARPA installed not later than July 1, 1982, " * * * or such earlier date as agreed to internationally and accepted by the United States." An earlier date was not agreed to internationally. Rather, a proposed amendment to the Safety of Life at Sea (SOLAS) Convention, 1974, as amended, suggests adoption of the IMCO standard for tankers of 40,000 gross tons or more not later than January 1, 1984, and on tankers 10,000 gross tons or more not later than January 1, 1985. Consequently, the PTSA implementation date of July 1, 1982, applies to this rulemaking. It must be noted that this rulemaking applies to each self-propelled vessel which carries oil or hazardous material in bulk as cargo or in residue, and is not limited to tankers which are built or adapted primarily to carry oil or hazardous materials in bulk in the main cargo spaces.

Impact

It is estimated that 1500 vessels, calling at U.S. ports, will be affected by this rule. Of these, about 300 have complying equipment already installed. At an average cost of $70,000, the total purchase cost of the devices will be about $84,000,000. It is further estimated that U.S. manufacturers will have a 70% share in this market. Because U.S. flag vessels represent only about 17% of the vessels calling at U.S. ports, the rule could result in a net inflow of about $49,000,000 in foreign exchange to U.S.

Although the average cost of $70,000 is high, it must be noted that this sum represents only about 1% to 3% of the annual operating cost of typical vessels subject to this proposed rule and will increase the capital investment in the vessel by about one tenth of one percent. Moreover, depreciating the equipment over a 10 year period will result in a negligible amount attributable to the annual operating cost. Correspondingly, the pass through cost to the consumer will be negligible. Benefits accruing include a possible 10% reduction in vessel collisions and ramblings.

This proposal has been reviewed under the Department of Transportation's "Regulatory Policies and Procedures" (44 FR 11034, February 26, 1979). A draft evaluation has been prepared and is included in the public docket.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend Part 164 of Chapter I of Title 33, Code of Federal Regulations as follows:

By adding § 164.38 and appendices A and B to that section to read as follows:

§ 164.38 Automatic radar plotting aids (ARPA).

(a) Each self-propelled vessel, except a public vessel, of 10,000 gross tons or more carrying oil or any hazardous material in bulk as cargo or in residue that is a U.S. vessel or operates on or enters the navigable waters of the United States, or which transfers oil or hazardous materials in any port or place subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, must, not later than July 1, 1982, be fitted with an Automatic Radar Plotting Aid which:

- (1) Complies with the standard for such devices adopted by the Intergovernmental Maritime Consultative Organization in its "Operational Standards for Automatic Radar Plotting Aids" (See Appendix A);
- (2) Provides both visual and audible warnings, described in paragraphs 3.5.1 and 3.5.2; and

(3) Except as allowed by paragraph (b) of this section, has a permanently affixed label containing—

- (i) The name and address of the manufacturer; and
- (ii) The following statement: "This device was designed and manufactured to comply with the Intergovernmental Maritime Consultative Organization's 'Operational Standards for Automatic Radar Plotting Devices'."

(b)(1) In lieu of the device required by paragraph (a), Automatic Radar Plotting Aids fitted on vessels of 40,000 gross tons or more prior to 1 January 1984, or on vessels of 10,000 but less than 40,000 gross tons prior to January 1985, which do not fully conform to the standard adopted by the Intergovernmental Maritime Consultative Organization but are certified by the manufacturer to comply with the U.S. Maritime Administration's "Collision Avoidance System Specification" (See Appendix B), may be retained until 1 January 1991.

(2) The devices allowed under this paragraph must have a permanently affixed label containing—

- (i) The name and address of the manufacturer; and
- (ii) The following statement: "This device was designed and manufactured to comply with the U.S. Maritime Administration's 'Collision Avoidance System Specification'."

Appendix A.—Performance Standards For Automatic Radar Plotting Aids (ARPA)

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 The Automatic Radar Plotting Aids (ARPA) required by Regulation 12, Chapter V of the 1974 SOLAS Convention, as amended,¹ should, in order to improve the standard of collision avoidance at sea:

1. Reduce the work-load of observers by enabling them to automatically obtain information so that they can perform as well with multiple targets as they can by manually plotting a single target; and
2. Provide continuous, accurate and rapid situation evaluation.

1.2 In addition to the General Requirements for Electronic Navigational Aids (Resolution A. 281 (VIII)), the ARPA should comply with the following minimum performance standards.

2 DEFINITIONS

2.1 Definitions of terms in these performance standards are given in Annex 1.

3 PERFORMANCE STANDARDS

3.1 Detection.

3.1.1 Where a separate facility is provided for detection of targets, other than by the radar observer, it should have a performance not inferior to that which could be obtained by the use of the radar display.

3.2 Acquisition.

3.2.1 Target acquisition may be manual or automatic. However, there should always be a facility to provide for manual acquisition and cancellation. ARPA with automatic acquisition should have a facility to suppress acquisition in certain areas. On any range scale where acquisition is suppressed over a certain area, the area of acquisition should be indicated on the display.

3.2.2 Automatic or manual acquisition should have a performance not inferior to that which could be obtained by the user of the radar display.

3.3 Tracking.

3.3.1 The ARPA should be able to automatically track, process, simultaneously display and continuously update the information on at least:

1. 20 targets, if automatic acquisition is provided, whether automatically or manually acquired; or
2. 10 targets, if only manual acquisition is provided.

3.3.2 If automatic acquisition is provided, description of the criteria of selection of targets for tracking should be provided to the user. If the ARPA does not track all targets visible on the display, targets which are being tracked should be clearly indicated on the display. The reliability of tracking should not be less than that obtainable using manual recording of successive target positions obtained from the radar display.

3.3.3 Provided the target is not subject to target swap, the ARPA should continue to track an acquired target which is clearly distinguishable on the display for 5 out of 10 consecutive scans.

3.3.4 The possibility of tracking errors, including target swap, should be minimized by ARPA design. A qualitative description of the effects of error sources on the automatic tracking and corresponding errors should be provided to the user, including the effects of low signal to noise and low signal to clutter ratios caused by sea returns, rain, snow, low clouds and non-synchronous emissions.

3.3.5 The ARPA should be able to display on request at least four equally time-spaced past positions of any targets being tracked over a period of at least eight minutes.

3.4 Display.

3.4.1 The display may be a separate or integral part of the ship's radar. However, the ARPA display should include all the data required to be provided by a radar display in accordance with the performance standards for navigational radar equipment adopted by the Organization.

3.4.2 The design should be such that any malfunction of ARPA parts producing data additional to information to be produced by the radar as required by Resolution A.222(VII) should not affect the integrity of the basic radar presentation.

3.4.3 The size of the display on which ARPA information is presented should have effective display diameter of at least 340 mm.

3.4.4 The ARPA facilities should be available on at least the following range scales:

1. 12 or 16 miles;
2. 3 or 4 miles.

3.4.5 There should be a positive indication of the range scale in use.

3.4.6 The ARPA should be capable of operating with a relative motion display with "north-up" and either "head-up" or "course-up" azimuth stabilization. In addition, the ¹ This amendment has not yet been ratified.

ARPA may also provide for a true motion display. If true motion is provided, the operator should be able to select for his display either true or relative motion. There should be a positive indication of the display mode and orientation in use.

3.4.7 The course and speed information generated by the ARPA for acquired targets should be displayed in a vector or graphic form which clearly indicates the target's predicted motion. In this regard:

1 ARPA presenting predicted information in vector form only should have the option of both true and relative vectors;

2 An ARPA which is capable of presenting target course and speed information in graphic form, should also, on request, provide the target's true and/or relative vector;

3 Vectors displayed should be either time adjustable or have a fixed time-scale;

4 A positive indication of the time-scale of the vector in use should be given.

3.4.8 The ARPA information should not obscure radar information in such a manner as to degrade the process of detecting targets. The Display of ARPA data should be under the control of the radar observer. It should be possible to cancel the display of unwanted ARPA data.

3.4.9 Means should be provided to adjust independently the brilliance of the ARPA data and radar data, including complete elimination of the ARPA data.

3.4.10 The method of presentation should ensure that the ARPA data is clearly visible in general to more than one observer in the conditions of light normally experienced on the bridge of a ship by day and by night. Screening may be provided to shade the display from sunlight but not to the extent that it will impair the observer's ability to maintain a proper lookout. Facilities to adjust the brightness should be provided.

3.4.11 Provisions should be made to obtain quickly the range and bearing of any object which appears on the ARPA display.

3.4.12 When a target appears on the radar display and, in the case of automatic acquisition, enters within the acquisition area chosen by the observer or, in the case of manual acquisition, has been acquired by the observer, the ARPA should present in a period of not more than one minute an indication of the target's motion trend and display within three minutes the target's predicted motion in accordance with 3.4.7, 3.6, 3.8.2 and 3.8.3

3.4.13 After changing range scales on which the ARPA facilities are available or resetting the display, full plotting information should be displayed with a period of time not exceeding four scans.

3.5 Operational warnings.

3.5.1 The ARPA should have the capability to warn the observer with a visual and/or audible signal of any distinguishable target which closes to a range or transits a zone chosen by the observer. The target causing the warning should be clearly indicated on the display.

3.5.2 The ARPA should have the capability to warn the observer with a visual and/or audible signal of any tracked target which is predicted to close to within a minimum range and time chosen by the observer. The target causing the warning should be clearly indicated on the display.

3.5.3 The ARPA should clearly indicate if a tracked target is lost, other than out of range, and the target's last tracked position should be clearly indicated on the display.

3.5.4 It should be possible to activate or de-activate the operational warnings.

3.6 Data requirements.

3.6.1 At the request of the observer the following information should be immediately available from the ARPA in alphanumeric form in regard to any tracked target:

- 1 Present range to the target;
- 2 Present bearing of the target;
- 3 Predicted target range at the closest point of approach (CPA);
- 4 Predicted time to CPA (TCPA);
- 5 Calculated true course of target;
- 6 Calculated true speed of target.

3.7 Trial manoeuvre.

3.7.1 The ARPA should be capable of stimulating the effect on all tracked targets of an own ship manoeuvre without interrupting the updating of target information. The simulation should be initiated by the depression either of a spring-loaded switch, or of a function key, with a positive identification on the display.

3.8 Accuracy.

3.8.1 The ARPA should provide accuracies not less than those given in paragraphs 3.8.2 and 3.8.3 for the four scenarios defined in Annex 2. With the sensor errors specified in Annex 3, the values given relate to the best possible manual plotting performance under environmental conditions of plus and minus ten degrees of roll.

3.8.2 An ARPA should present within one minute of steady state tracking the relative motion trend of a target with the following accuracy values (95 percent probability values):

Scenario/Data	Relative course (degrees)	Relative speed (knots)	CPA (n.m.)
1.....	11	2.8	1.6
2.....	7	0.6
3.....	14	2.2	1.8
4.....	15	1.5	2.0

3.8.3 An ARPA should present within three minutes of steady state tracking the motion of a target with the following accuracy values (95 per cent probability values):

Scenario/data:	Relative course (degrees)	Relative speed (knots)	C.P.A. (n.m.)	TCPA (mins)	True course (degrees)	True speed (knots)
1.....	3.0	0.8	0.5	1.0	7.4	1.2
2.....	2.3	.3			2.8	.8
3.....	4.4	.9	.7	1.0	3.3	1.0
4.....	4.6	.8	.7	1.0	2.6	1.2

3.8.4 When a tracked target, or own ship, has completed a manoeuvre, the system should present in a period of not more than one minute an indication of the target's motion trend, and display within three minutes the target's predicted motion in accordance with paragraphs 3.4.7, 3.6, 3.8.2 and 3.8.3.

3.8.5 The ARPA should be designed in such a manner that under the most favorable conditions of own ship motion the error contribution from the ARPA should remain insignificant compared to the errors associated with the input sensors, for scenarios of Annex 2.

3.9 Connexions with other equipment.

3.9.1 The ARPA should not degrade the performance of any equipment providing sensor inputs. The connexion of the ARPA to any other equipment should not degrade the performance of that equipment.

3.10 Performance test and warnings.

3.10.1 The ARPA should provide suitable warnings of ARPA malfunction to enable the observer to monitor the proper operation of the system. Additionally test programmes should be available so that the overall performance of ARPA can be assessed periodically against a known solution.

3.11 Equipment used with ARPA.

3.11.1 Log and speed indicators providing inputs to ARPA equipment should be capable of providing the ship's speed through the water.

Annex 1 to Appendix A.—Definitions of Terms To Be Used Only in Connexion With

ARPA Performance Standards

Relative course—The direction of motion of a target related to own ship as deduced from a number of measurements of its range and bearing on the radar. Expressed as an angular distance from North.

Relative speed—The speed of a target related to own ship, as deduced from a number of measurements of its range and bearing on the radar.

True course—the apparent heading of a target obtained by the vectorial combination of the target's relative motion and ship's own motion.² Expressed as an angular distance from North.

True speed—the speed of a target obtained by the vectorial combination of its relative motion and own ship's motion.²

Bearing—The direction of one terrestrial point from another. Expressed as an angular distance from North.

Relative motion display—The position of own ship on such a display remains fixed.

True motion display—The position of own ship on such display moves in accordance with its own motion.

Azimuth stabilization—Own ship's compass information is fed to the display so that echoes of targets on the display will not be caused to smear by changes of own ship's heading.

²For the purpose of these definitions there is no need to distinguish between sea or ground stabilization.

- /North-up—The line connecting the center with the top of this display is North.
- /Head-up—the line connecting the center with the top of the display is own ship heading.
- /Course-up—An intended course can be set to the line connecting the center with the top of the display.
- Heading—The direction in which the bow of a vessel is pointing. Expressed as an angular distance from North.
- Target's predicted motion—The indication on the display of a liner extrapolation into the future of a target's motion, based on measurements of the target's range and bearing on the radar in the recent past.
- Target's motion trend—An early indication of the target's predicted motion.
- Radar Plotting—The whole process of target detection, tracking, calculation of parameters and display of information.
- Detection—The recognition of the presence of a target.
- Acquisition—The selection of those targets requiring a tracking procedure and the initiation of their tracking.
- Tracking—The process of observing the sequential changes in the position of a target, to establish its motion.
- Display—The plan position presentation of ARPA data with radar data.
- Manual—An activity which a radar observer performs, possibly with assistance from a machine.
- Automatic—An activity which is performed wholly by a machine.

Annex 2 to Appendix A.—Operational Scenarios

For each of the following scenarios predictions are made at the target position defined after previously tracking for the appropriate time of one or three minutes:

Scenario 1:

- Own ship course—000°
- Own ship speed—10 kt
- Target range—8 n.m.
- Bearing of target—000°
- Relative course of target—180°
- Relative speed of target—20 kt

Scenario 2:

- Own ship course—000°
- Own ship speed—10 kt
- Target range—1 n.m.
- Bearing of target—000°
- Relative course of target—090°
- Relative speed of target—10 kt

Scenario 3:

- Own ship course—000°
- Own ship speed—5 kt
- Target range—8 n.m.
- Bearing of target—045°
- Relative course of target—225°
- Relative speed of target—20 kt

Scenario 4:

- Own ship course—000°
- Own ship speed—25 kt
- Target range—8 n.m.
- Bearing of target—045°
- Relative course of target—225°
- Relative speed of target—20 kt

Annex 3 to Appendix A.—Sensor Errors

The accuracy figures quoted in paragraph 3.8 are based upon the following sensor errors and are appropriate to equipment complying with the Organization's performance standards for shipborne navigational equipment.³

Note.— σ means "standard deviation"

Radar

Target Glint (Scintillation) (for 200 m length target)

Along length of target $\sigma = 30$ m. (normal distribution)

Across beam of target $\sigma = 1$ m. (normal distribution)

Roll-Pitch Bearing. The bearing error will peak in each of the four quadrants around own ship for targets on relative bearings of 045°, 135°, 225° and 315° and will be zero at relative bearings of 0°, 90°, 180° and 270°. This error has a sinusoidal variation at twice the roll frequency. For a 10° roll the mean error is 0.22° with a 0.22° peak sine wave superimposed.

Beam shape—Assumed normal distribution giving bearing error with $\sigma = 0.05$.

Pulse shape—Assumed normal distribution giving range error with $\sigma = 20$ metres.

Antenna backlash—Assumed rectangular distribution giving bearing error ± 0.5 maximum.

Quantization

Bearing—Rectangular distribution $\pm 0.01^\circ$ maximum.

Range—Rectangular distribution ± 0.01 n.m. maximum.

Bearing encoder assumed to be running from a remote synchro giving bearing errors with a normal distribution $\sigma = 0.03^\circ$.

Gyro compass

Calibration error 0.5°.

Normal distribution about this with $\sigma = 0.12^\circ$.

Log

Calibration error 0.5 kt.

Normal distribution about this, $3\sigma = 0.2$ kt.

Appendix B.—U.S. Maritime Administration, Collision Avoidance System Specification

A collision system designed as supplement to both surface search navigational radars via interswitching shall be installed. The system shall provide unattended monitoring of all radar echoes and automatic audio and visual alarm signals that will alert the watch office of a possible threat. The display shall be contained within a console capable of being installed adjacent to the radar displays in the wheelhouse and may form a part of the bridge console.

Provision for signal input from the ship's radars, gyro compass, and speed log, without modification to these equipments shall be made. The collision avoidance system, whether operating normally or having failed, must not introduce any spurious signals or otherwise degrade the performance of the radars, the gyro compass or the speed log.

³ In calculations leading to the accuracy figures quoted in paragraph 3.8, these sensor error sources and magnitudes were used. They were arrived at during discussions with national government agencies and equipment manufacturers and are appropriate to equipments complying with the Organization's draft performance standards for radar equipment (preliminary) (NAVXXII/WP.14), gyro compasses (NAV XXI/9, Annex X) and logs (preliminary) (NAV XXII/WP.15). Independent studies carried out by national government agencies and equipment manufacturers have resulted in similar accuracies, where comparisons were made.

Computer generated display data for each acquired target shall be in the form of a line or vector indicating true or relative target course, speed and both present and extrapolated future positions. Data shall be automatically displayed on a cathode ray tube or other suitable display contrivance sufficiently bright and unobstructed to permit viewing by more than one person at a time.

In addition to displaying the collision potential of the most threatening fixed and moving targets, the system shall be capable of simultaneously showing land masses.

The system display shall include a heading indication and bearing ring. The system shall also have the capability of allowing the operator to select "head-up" and to cancel the vector or line presentation of any of the targets. The presentation shall be non-smearing when changing modes or display scales in order to permit rapid evaluation of the displayed data.

Target acquisition, for display data purposes, may be manual, automatic or both, as specified by Owner.

For any manual acquisition system the alarms shall be initiated by a preset minimum range; and likewise for any automatic acquisition system the alarms shall be initiated by a preset minimum acceptable passing distance (CPA—Closest Point of Approach) and a preset advance warning time (TCPA—Time to Closest Point of Approach). Means shall be provided to silence the audio alarm for a given threat but the alarm shall resound upon a subsequent threat. The visual alarm shall continue to operate until all threats have been eliminated. If the collision avoidance system fails to perform as indicated above, after the system is set for unattended monitoring, the system shall produce both audio and visual warning alarms.

The system shall be capable of simulating a trial maneuver.

In addition to the target display, an alphanumeric readout shall be provided which can present range, bearing, course, speed, CPA and TCPA for any selected target, either on the target display or by other display means.

The collision avoidance system shall be energized from the interior communications panel board in the wheelhouse.

The collision avoidance function may be incorporated in an integrated conning system, provided that failure of any other integrated system component will not degrade the collision avoidance function.
